Subscriptions and Donations in aid of this Society will be thankfully received at the Baptist Mission House, No. 6, Fen Court, Fenchurch Street, London: or by any of the Ministers and Friends whose names are inserted in the Cover of the Annual Report.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

BEERBHOOM.

From Mr. Williamson to the Secretary, dated Sewry, March 14, 1836.

Your letter of the 14th September, I had the pleasure of receiving some time ago, and now beg leave in reply to send you the following brief account of this station.

Including children, there are at present residing in this district, under the Christian name, about one hundred persons. The church consists of nearly forty members, the greater number of whom, I trust, are genuine Christians. Since the church came under my charge, about ten years ago, its numbers have nearly doubled; and through the blessing of God upon my labours among them, I trust I can also say, that they have, with few exceptions, steadily progressed in knowledge, grace, and consistency of conduct. Before I came, there had been no resident pastor among them for some time, nor had there ever been any school for the education of their children. The natural and almost unavoidable consequence of this was, that the church was scattered, and in considerable disorder, and the whole of the children were growing up in ignorance and vice. Some of these youths are now among our best instructed and steadiest members. Those who are employed in the mission as itinerants, are for the most part, elderly persons, and apparently sober, good men. They possess a pretty good fund of Christian knowledge, and are able to exhibit to their fellow-countrymen a clear view of divine truth; and also to defend it with considerable ability. I have always considered it a thing of very great importance to pay particular attention to their instruction, and have all along bestowed considerable attention on them. But I have not found them so apt to learn, as those young men, who have been brought up in our schools. These latter, if truly pious, will doubtless, in future, make our best native preachers. In regard to the native church, though I have met with many discouragements, of which you have heard; still, if the above concise account be correct, I have reason, notwithstanding, to thank God and take courage.

Our schools still continue reduced in numbers compared with what they were; but if they are fewer in number, they are concentrated, better superintended, and more likely to be eventually productive of greater good. They lately underwent a thorough examination by Mr. W. Adam, who is at present employed by government, in ascertaining the state of education in Bengal; with the view, I believe, of establishing government schools wherever they may be found most needed.

The season for distant excursions among the heathen has now closed, and we shall be obliged for some time to confine our operations within more circumscribed bounds. Nearly the same ground as on former years has been again gone over. Many have once more heard the gospel, and many tracts have been given away, to those anxious to obtain them. But I have not been able to perceive any greater disposition actually to embrace the gospel, than I mentioned having observed last season. We must still continue, in faith and hope, to sow with no sparing hand, the precious seed; assured that, "as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud; so shall the word of the Lord be; it shall not return unto him void; but shall accomplish that which he pleaseth, and shall prosper in the thing wherunto he sends it." That this most desirable end may be speedily accomplished, let us abound yet more and more, in earnest persevering prayer, for a more abundant outpouring of the Holy Spirit, both upon ourselves and upon those whose salvation we professedly seek. Those clouds that are hanging over America and the West Indies, and pouring down their copious showers upon the western world, will doubtless reach us also in due time. Let us prepare for them. India shall also be converted to God. The kingdom is the Lord's, and he shall reign from the rising to the setting sun. "Ask of me, and I will give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession."

PATNA.

From Mr. Beddy to the Secretary, dated Patna, Jan. 3, 1836.

Since I last had the pleasure of writing to you, I have been permitted to see what I have long wished to see accomplished here, namely, a house exclusively dedicated to the praise of Jehovah, opened in this part of benighted India. The chapel was opened on the 13th of September last, and my services are as follows—every morning in the week, service which consists of singing an hymn, reading a chapter, generally with a short explanation, and conclude in prayer. Lord's-day I preach twice; and on Thursday afternoon preach also. On Monday afternoon, the members of the Church, with a few others, meet to read the Scriptures, and to pray for the spread of the Gospel—all these services are purely Hindoostance. I have left off preaching in English, not finding an attendance to justify my allotting the time necessary for preparing a discourse in English. I have also the pleasure to inform you that the three females of whom I wrote to you have joined the church, and have been baptized, and are now a part of my family, as they live with us; and Mrs. B. is instructing them in needlework, knitting, &c. in order to their being able to work for their own support. The attendance at the chapel is fluctuating; sometimes we have a good congregation, especially on the Lord's day morning and evening; and almost every morning, we have some persons who drop in, as owing to the public situation of the chapel, the people on the roads to the right and left hear every word as they are passing. I am sorry I cannot add that "many are seeking the Lord." I have sometimes witnessed great attention, and have been elated by overhearing expressions of great approbation; but alas, here it seems to rest.

Brother Thompson has just passed down here, on his way from Delhi to Serampore. Twenty-four years ago he occupied this station (Patna) and remained here for six years. Things are now, I hope, through the grace of God much changed—the Society have now a station here, and a chapel built, and a church formed consisting of eleven members—five Europeans, and six natives; and I am not without hopes (may the Lord realize them!) that we may soon increase.

JAMAICA.

In resuming our notices of the progress of the Mission in this important Colony, we have to announce that one of our devoted brethren, who has long and zealously laboured there, has been recently called to his eternal rest. We refer to Mr. Coultart, who expired at his residence at Tydenham, in the parish of St. Ann, on Tuesday, July 12th, the same day on which our friend Mr. Nichols departed in peace, as stated in our August number. Of the particulars of Mr. Coultart's removal, no account has reached us as yet from the scene of bereavement; but we hear from Mr. Phillippo, that the immediate occasion was the rupture of a blood-vessel, consequent on spasmodic affection. Mr. Clarke, of Jericho, whose station was the nearest to Tydenham, hastened thither to attend and conduct the funeral services of his deceased and much-lamented friend and brother; and the solemn event was noticed and improved, on the next Sabbath, by our surviving Missionaries generally throughout the island.

Mr. Coultart had resided in Jamaica longer, by several years, than any of his brethren, having entered upon his labours at Kingston early in 1817. His personal and domestic afflictions have been great, and for many years he had to endure much opposition; but the hand of the Lord was with him, and few ministers, probably, have been more successful in awakening and converting sinners from the error of their way. In two or three years after he settled at Kingston, he was under the necessity of providing increased accommodation for his numerous hearers; and the spacious premises in East Queen Street, including a chapel capable of seating two thousand persons, a dwelling-house for the minister, and a school for the daily instruction of poor children, were built under his personal superintendance. Since Mr. Coultart's last return to Jamaica, he has been stationed at St. Ann's; and the pleasing accounts of his progress and extending labours in that very needy district must be fresh in the recollection of our readers. But the simple piety, transparent integrity, and warm benevolence of our deceased friend, were all insufficient to overcome the rooted prejudices still cherished, in some quarters, against the Missionary name and character. It was to him that we referred, when stating in our last number, that one of our brethren could procure no house to reside in, though several were going to ruin for want of being occupied. Little did the writer think, when penning that paragraph, that his much-respected brother had obtained elsewhere what was denied him on earth, and been welcomed into a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. It has now become an important question, how these important stations, thus suddenly bereaved of their senior pastor, are to be supplied. Our only resource is in the power, and faithfulness, and love of the Great Head of the church. Amidst all the ceaseless fluctuations which agitate and perplex us here, He is the same yesterday, to-day, and for ever!

We have already stated that the first meeting of the Jamaica Baptist Association took place at Kingston in the month of March last. It occupied three days; the services were well attended, and appear to have produced a very pleasing effect on the minds of the assembled brethren. "All were present," says Mr. Tinson, "but brother Abbott, who was unable to travel so far; nevertheless, as he assured us in his letters, he was with us in spirit; and never do I remember any previous meeting so entirely harmonious and interesting. There was no idling away of time—various matters were discussed, all, of course, connected with the Mission; and though on some points we differed, we differed in a spirit of kindness and forbearance, as though we had learned something of the temper of our Master. There was an evident disposition to listen to any suggestions for the benefit of the churches, and improvement of our plans; and if a more excellent method could be pointed out, to try it. O my dear friend, do help us to praise. I know not how to be thankful enough, and I believe it is the feeling of all. Such uninterrupted harmony and kind Christian feeling have prevailed throughout, as to convince us that God has heard prayer, and been with us of a truth."

On this pleasing occasion, sermons were preached by Mr. Coultart, on the Pre-requisites to Christian Baptism, and by Mr. Dexter, on the Practical Influence of Christianity. Mr. Tinson read a circular letter on Conversion, and the following account of the state of the churches, &c., was presented. It is obviously defective, and we have waited in the hope that a more complete copy would have reached us; but as we have not yet received any, we insert it in the form in which it was given at the Association.

Of his own station (Hanover-street, Kingston), Mr. Tinson observes, "It is prosperous, as far as I can judge. The congregation has increased so as to fill the chapel, and sometimes there are many outside; the average attendance is about 500. There are several waiting for baptism, but I am not in haste to baptize, though I can conscientiously say that I never do receive a candidate without the strictest inquiry as to knowledge and character, and am often fearful in regard to some that I keep back, lest I should offend in so doing. That I have been sometimes deceived, I am quite ready to admit; and such is the case with ministers in other countries. What makes me additionally careful in admitting candidates, and somewhat slow to baptize, is the shameless manner in which the ordinance is administered to hundreds of poor ignorant creatures from the country, by eight or nine self-appointed black and coloured preachers in Kingston, some of whom cannot read at all, nor scarce utter a single sentence intelligibly; and what is still worse, several of them are dishonest, quarrelsome, and licentious. Yet these men travel into the country, and by calumniating the missionaries, and flattering the people, lead many astray."

Mr. Gardner has had a renewed attack of indisposition, but expresses his thankfulness that although occasionally prevented from occupying the pulpit himself, he has found friends able and willing, at such seasons, to render him assistance. Alluding, we presume, to the fact we have just quoted from Mr. Tinson, he speaks of his peculiar anxiety on behalf of his poor, but numerous flock, "since they are so much exposed to the evil influence of those who seek not them, but theirs."

Mr. Samuel Whitehorne continues to conduct the day-school connected with Mr. Gardner's congregation, so as to advance his own reputation, and the welfare of his pupils. He has lately opened a Sabbath-school at Port Royal, where about eighty persons, adults and children, receive instruction. "It is very pleasing," he observes, "to see a grey-headed father standing in the same class with a little child, and both striving to read the Book of God."

Mr. Phillippo, writing from Spanish Town, under date of 24th May, mentions his conviction that another enlargement of his chapel in Spanish Town is becoming absolutely necessary. "It is now as full every sabbath as it was before the late addition was made; but on those sabbaths when there is no preaching at Passage Fort, or Highgate, full five hundred persons may be said to be without accommodation. On a sacrament sabbath the entire chapel (gallery excepted), which is one hundred feet by forty-five, will scarcely seat the communicants, so that the teachers and children of the Sunday-school, often amounting in number to nearly five hundred, are obliged to remain in the metropolitan school, while numbers of the hearers are obliged to go away, or sit or stand outside the chapel walls. Thus God has, in answer to the prayers of his church, opened an effectual door, and the question is, Will the church prove her sincerity by entering into it or not? O that she would rise in her might, and take possession of the inheritance which here awaits her reception!"

On the 1st of July, a public meeting was held at the New Metropolitan school-room of the progress of the pupils under the instruction of Mr. Shotton, at which Mr. Phillippo presided. Many of our readers have kindly contributed towards this useful institution, either by money, or by forwarding articles to be sold in its behalf, and they will feel especially interested in the following extract of a communication from "An Episcopalian," inserted in the Royal Gazette of a few days after:

"The scholars went through the forms prescribed in their daily course of instruction; the younger class, composed of children from two to five years of age, excited particular attention from the peculiar interest arising from their age, their discipline, and their acquirements. The scholars, at large, went through a short examination in the general principles of some of the sciences, in grammar, and the knowledge of the derivation and meaning of words. The master gave some short but clear explanations of his system, and especially that part of it which bore the appearance rather of the ludicrous than the serious (clearly proving the advantage of it), and that portion of the transactions of the morning was closed by a concise but very interesting address from Mr. Phillippo, explanatory of the system and principles of the institution.

"About twelve o'clock the other large school-room was thrown open as a bazaar, in which, it is but justice to say, there was a display of curious, useful, and elegant articles, which would have done credit to a similar exhibition in England; many of them contributed by the charitable industry of an exacted benevolence, which the gratitude of the managers would fain have more particularly acknowledged, but for the restraints imposed by their respect. Mrs. Phillippo, assisted by several other ladies, performed the laborious duties of this establishment.

About four o'clock, an entertainment for the children was served in the school-room yard, and a number, nearly about six hundred, sat down to an excellent and abundant meal. The little performers here again acted their parts to admiration, and the sun went down upon a day of gratification, which from its rare combination of novelty, utility, and unmixed rational enjoyment, will, it may be hoped, be remembered, not only in the annals of the metropolis of Jamaica, but in the imperishable records of the good deeds of mankind.

During the performances in the school several affecting hymns were sung by the children, accompanied by the Rev. Mr. Taylor on the seraphine, with a very fine effect, and that gentleman was good enough to indulge the visitors of the bazaar, who were extremely numerous and respectable, with occasional performances on that delightful instrument.

The absent friends of the school and of education will be pleased to hear that, in every respect, did the occurrences of the day, including the profits of the bazaar, more than answer the expectations of those who had planned and those who had encouraged it; and to that part of the community, if any such there be, who lost its enjoyments from indifference, from attention to interests erroneously deemed superior, or unhappily from prejudice, it may, perhaps, be permitted to offer a respectful condolence.

HOME PROCEEDINGS.

SUSSEX AUXILIARY.

The services connected with the second anniversary of this society commenced on Lord's-day, Aug. 14, when sermons were preached at Hailsham, by Rev. H. Burgess; at Lewes, by Rev. W. Davies; at Brighton, by Rev. T. Shirley, and G. Pritchard; and at Barcombe, Newick, and Uckfield, by Rev. J. M. Soule.

The annual meeting of the Auxiliary was held on the evening of the 16th, at the Town Hall, Brighton, which was kindly granted by the Commissioners for the occasion. The chair was taken by W. H. Puget, Esq. The several resolutions were proposed and seconded by Messrs. Shirley, Burgess, Edwards, Pritchard, Savory, Packer, Carr, and Saunders. The meeting excited considerable interest, and was both numerous and respectably attended. Public meetings were also held at Lewes, on the Monday evening, and at Uckfield on Wednesday. At the latter place a branch society was formed which is zealously conducted. It is devoutly hoped that the growing interest which the churches in Sussex manifest in the mission, and their determination to afford it their support, will so operate, as under the divine blessing, to promote their own prosperity while they are aiding in the spread of the gospel in heathen lands.

Our readers will perceive that various kind additions have been made to our Extra Subscription list during the past month. It is requested that whatever sums may have been subscribed for this object, but not yet paid in, may be transmitted to Fen-court as soon as convenient to our friends; as it is desirable to bring this account to a close.

It will be observed that one kind friend has responded to the appeal in our last number, by sending Ten Pounds towards providing another missionary for Ceylon; and a donation to the same amount will be forthcoming from another quarter, towards that desirable object. Each of these sums are spontaneously presented by parties who have borne their full share in the Extra Subscription. We trust they will be followed up by others, so that the Committee may be enabled speedily to accomplish the several objects specified in our last number.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

A large case, from Birmingham, for Mr. Burchell, of Montego Bay; a box from Mrs. Overbury, for Mr. Kingdon; two parcels of books, for Mr. Phillippo, from Miss Dudley; and a parcel of children's clothing, for Mr. Quant, from Mrs. Risdon, are thankfully acknowledged, and shall be forwarded the first convenient opportunity.

The committee return their thanks, also, to friends at Harlow, for a box of baby-linen, &c.; and to Mr. Sloan, for a parcel of Evangelical Magazines. Our friend at Oxford is informed that the watch, chain, and seal, kindly presented by P. K. has been valued at Five Pounds.
