

WORLD DOMINION

The World Dominion Movement advocates Informed Continuous Co-ordinated Evangelism to reach everyone at home and abroad. Its basis is belief in the Deity and Atoning Death of the Lord Jesus Christ, the World's Only Saviour, and in the Final Authority of Holy Scripture.

AMONG THE DYAKS IN BORNEO

'let him be a cripple'. However, having the interest of the child at heart, although inexperienced in such things, I finally straightened it out and neatly set it in splints. The next day they carried him home.

Our great need here is for workers. The population is so scattered and difficult of access that it is a real problem to know how to meet the many demands on our time. In this district alone there are approximately 500 villages. We are seeing hitherto closed hearts opened in answer to prayer, and yet we cannot meet their call for instruction. In a few more years if these people do not have the Gospel they will be swept into Mohammedanism; already its influence is counting with a few. Surely when God is moving the hearts of people toward Himself in such a remarkable way, it is time for us to bestir ourselves thoroughly and grasp the opportunity ere it passes.

War-Havoc in Latin America

The following paragraphs from an article in The Times are of interest in connexion with the article on the next page. This is the other side of the picture of progress in Latin America, and should stimulate to prayer that, after human efforts at arbitration have proved futile, God Himself should intervene to stop this tragic wastage of human life.

'The forest, the lack of water, insects, illness, the heat and the absence of proper communications combine to make this war doubly terrible. For the past two-and-a-half years the Bolivian and Paraguayan armies have been fighting in the immense forests of thorny grizzled trees and spiked undergrowth, whose sparse grey-green leaves offer no respite from the burning heat. . .

'Water for drinking is one of the greatest problems the armies have had to face. In their recent offensive at Picuiba the Paraguayans made tactical use of the water problem by cutting the Bolivians off from their supply. As a result thousands of Bolivians died of thirst. . . I flew over the road from Picuiba to Fort 27 de Noviembre. It was a shambles, littered with the Bolivian dead. The troops have suffered from malaria, dysentery, pneumonia, and typhus. The Paraguayans, more acclimatized to the Chaco than the Bolivians, have lost 10,000 men through illness, and the Bolivian losses from this cause must have been enormous.'
