

WORLD DOMINION

The World Dominion Movement advocates informed continuous co-ordinated evangelism to reach everyone at home and abroad. Its basis is belief in the Deity and Atoning Death of the Lord Jesus Christ, the World's Only Saviour, and in the Final Authority of Holy Scripture.

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

REV. ALEXANDER McLEISH, who was for many years a missionary in India with the Church of Scotland, is Survey Editor of the World Dominion Press.

REV. JOSEPH J. COOKSEY has had over thirty years' experience as a missionary, part of which time was spent in North Africa. He is the author of The Land of the Vanished Church, etc.

DR. T. A. LAMBIE, Field Director of the Sudan Interior Mission, has worked as a medical missionary in Abyssinia since 1919. He has just returned to that country after a furlough in England.

DR. K. J. JAROSZEWICZ is the leader of a growing indigenous evangelical movement in Poland known as the Union of Churches of Christ.

REV. GUIDO R. MIEGGE has been Secretary of the American Waldensian Aid Society, and will shortly take up his new appointment as Agent of the British and Foreign Bible Society in Rome.

MR. GILBERT DAWSON is the General Secretary of the Sudan United Mission, and has just returned from an extensive tour of Africa.

REV. W. KENDALL GALE, M.A., of the London Missionary Society, has died since the last issue of WORLD DOMINION. He had been engaged in pioneer work and successful church planting in Madagascar since 1908.

REV. MAURICE LEENHARDT, who is now pastor of an evangelical church in Paris, was for many years a missionary in New Caledonia.

MR. JAMES HALDANE has worked since 1912 as a missionary in North Africa with the Southern Morocco Mission.

MR. KENNETH G. GRUBB, Director of Surveys for Latin America for the World Dominion Press, has recently returned from a six months' visit to Central America.

REV. T. CULLEN YOUNG is the Deputy Secretary of the United Society for Christian Literature.

REV. P. K. HORAN was a Roman Catholic and a Sinn Feiner. After his conversion he studied theology in Irish and English colleges and is now a minister of the Gospel in the Church of England.

WORLD DOMINION

their need of the moment was met without any sense of being contemptuous of old ways.

This was a genuine 'New Testament' action whose roots were in an 'Old Testament' native to the soil.

No matter how one defines the terms 'community' and 'the life of the community', we who have had to do with the planting of these little village schools that at once became 'churches' (and are reproduced as churches wherever wandering labour gangs congregate in mining compounds, or in townships, or on estates), know that in this agency the Church of Jesus Christ is greatly served. Those in the home countries of the West who see in this kind of 'school' a departure from the evangelistic mission, do so because so much has been made, on platform and in writing, of educational programmes as merely part of the 'ameliorative services' of the stronger western races on behalf of their conquered or over-run inferiors. Actually, the Church's schools are or ought to be the evangelistic agency linked to the life of the common people in a service of enlightenment which never will be superseded on the ground of superior value by any other service, so long as the work of Christian education can be maintained in the hands of those to whom Jesus Christ is Himself integral and vital. This condition is central to all that has been said here.

Life with a Purpose

£5,000 is needed to carry on Evangelistic and Life and Service Campaigns which, beginning in the Royal Albert Hall on Monday, 30th September, will extend to about fifty centres in and around London, to the provinces, and overseas. This great effort is to be undertaken under reliable and expert leadership, mainly in the interests of youth.
