

WORLD DOMINION

The World Dominion Movement advocates Informed Continuous Co-ordinated Evangelism to reach everyone at home and abroad. Its basis is belief in the Deity and Atoning Death of the Lord Jesus Christ, the World's Only Saviour, and in the Final Authority of Holy Scripture.

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

MRS COMMISSIONER CUNNINGHAM, 'The Colonel' of God in the Slums, before her marriage in 1933 was the head of the Slum Department of the Salvation Army in Great Britain, which she organized and put on its present basis.

REV. J. WASKOM PICKETT, M.A., D.D., who has been a missionary in India since 1911, was Superintendent of the Lucknow District of the Methodist Episcopal Church of America. He has now been loaned to the National Christian Council for the Mass Movement Survey work.

REV. G. HART, the Home Secretary of the India North-West Mission has just returned from a visit to the stations on the field.

REV. W. KENDALL GALE, M.A., whose death occurred in July, was a pioneer missionary in Madagascar since 1908.

REV. H. A. RIDGWELL has worked in Madagascar with the London Missionary Society since 1912.

MRS. H. S. COOPER, of the Sudan United Mission, has worked among the Yergum people since 1909.

PROFESSOR H. KOCH, Ph.D., is Professor of Theology at Königsberg University, Germany.

REV. A. STUART MCNAIRN, the General Secretary of the Evangelical Union of South America, has recently returned from a visit to the field.

PROFESSOR E. M. DO AMARAL is the General Secretary of the Evangelical Confederation of Brazil.

REV. MAURICE LEENHARDT, who is now pastor of an evangelical church in Paris, was for many years a missionary in New Caledonia.

REV. LIONEL B. FLETCHER is known everywhere through his evangelistic meetings in many parts of the world.

REV. G. F. B. MORRIS has had many years experience as a missionary in Africa. Three years ago he became Superintendent of the Bible Churchmen's Mission work in North Africa in place of the late Archdeacon Hyde-Hills.

Mildmay School of Sacred Instruction

OUR readers will know that for some time past Mildmay has been privileged to have the Rev. W. Graham Scroggie, D.D., on its Staff and is greatly benefiting by his presence and counsel. It is a pleasure for us to be able to announce that, under his direction, it is hoped to inaugurate shortly The Mildmay School of Sacred Instruction. This, we are sure, is going to be of immense value and will meet a real need.

The School will include four Departments: Biblical Knowledge; The Missionary Enterprise; Sacred Music; Practical Christian Equipment. These will be in charge, respectively, of the Rev. W. Graham Scroggie, D.D., Thomas Cochrane, Esq., M.B., C.M., Jacques Hopkins, Esq., L.R.A.M., and A. Lindsay Glegg, Esq., J.P. The four Departments will be under the general Directorship of Dr. Scroggie, and no effort will be spared to secure the services of other outstanding authorities on the various subjects which will be dealt with. Lectures will be taken only by those who are fully qualified to deal with the chosen topics.

It is the hope and aim of the leaders of this School that those who attend it may attain to the maximum degree of efficiency for whatever branch of Christian work they may be engaged in, or may wish to take up. Not only will there be Bible Studies, but instruction on such subjects as the Origin of the English Bible, Present-day Missionary Outlook (with the study of countries) and practical instruction in such subjects as Voice Production for Speech and Song, Preparation and Delivery of Addresses, Conduct of Meetings, etc.

The Monday Evening Workers' Training Class and the Practical Course on Tuesdays will continue as branches of this School.

It seems to us that the syllabus is going to be of such real value that those who wish to give their best for the service of God will find it well worth while to put aside other engagements in order that they may take advantage of the help which is being offered to them through this School. The evenings which should be kept free by those interested are Mondays and Fridays.

A full Syllabus of subjects, lectures, times and places is prepared and may be had on application to:—
