

WORLD DOMINION

The World Dominion Movement advocates Informed Continuous Co-ordinated Evangelism to reach everyone at home and abroad. Its basis is belief in the Deity and Atoning Death of the Lord Jesus Christ, the World's Only Saviour, and in the Final Authority of Holy Scripture.

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

SEÑOR ALVES REIS, after an amazing career, during which he swindled the Royal Trans-African Railway Company, and hoodwinked Messrs. Waterlow and Sons, Limited, was converted while in prison.

MR. KENNETH G. GRUBB, author of many books on Latin-America and the Iberian Peninsula, is on the staff of the World Dominion Press.

MR. R. B. EKVAL has been a missionary in Tibet for fifteen years with the Christian and Missionary Alliance.

THE REV. A. T. HOUGHTON, M.A., is the Superintendent of the Burma Mission of the Bible Churchmen's Missionary Society. He has been a missionary in Burma since 1924.

THE REV. R. C. DAS, M.A., himself a converted Hindu, carries on an interesting and important work in the Benares United City Mission.

DR. ELSIE DAVIES worked in Malaya with the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel from 1925-34.

REV. W. H. WISER, M.A., Ph.D., has worked in India with the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in U.S.A., since 1915.

MISS MILDRED CABLE is one of the heroic 'Trio' who have so widely travelled in Central Asia, and whose books should be read by everyone interested in missions.

THE REV. A. MCLEISH, the Survey Editor of the World Dominion Press, has had many years' experience with the Church of Scotland as a missionary in India, and has recently returned from re-visiting that country.

THE REV. J. F. DETWEILER is the President of the Spanish-American Baptist Seminary at Los Angeles, California.

THE REV. MAURICE FRATER has had long experience as a missionary of the John G. Paton Mission in the New Hebrides.

THE REV. J. J. COOKSEY, who is on the staff of the World Dominion Press, has had thirty years' experience as a missionary in North Africa and is an authority on Islam.

THE REV. V. W. DYER, B.D., has worked with the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society in Burma since 1919, and has been a great leader in team evangelism.

THE REV. E. W. BURT, was a missionary in China (Baptist Missionary Society) for over forty years.

WORLD DOMINION

of world evangelization. We cannot afford to fall below the standard of enthusiasm which the neo-pagan State-encouraged cults of to-day have produced. The paganism of Gallio and Pliny was of a Laodicean temper, but that of to-day is distinguished by an ardour which would have been thoroughly distasteful to Marcus Aurelius or Edward Gibbon. We must be ready to stand with our brethren in other lands, and support them constantly by prayer and sacrifice. A pinch of incense on the altar of Cæsar may seem a small thing to worry about, until it is clear that its smoke will obscure the vision of God.

The President of Columbia University says that Communism of Russia, Nazi Socialism, and the Fascism of Italy have this in common: they lead straight to the suicide of civilization.

Expert Friendship

Mr. Ekvall, who contributes the following article, has penetrated far into Eastern Tibet. Evangelism has been defined as 'expert friendship,' and Mr. Ekvall has given us an example of this. We might alter the words of an old hymn and sing:

For love is right since God is love,
And love the day must win.

Mr. Ekvall's article suggests the old question, is the medical missionary justified in looking upon physical healing as an end in itself? The answer is yes and no! Love cannot stop short with the healing of the body when the soul is sick.

This is what one felt in one's own medical missionary work. When one saw the unmistakable gleam of gratitude in the eyes of a patient whose pain had been assuaged, one instinctively felt, as a joyful old Christian put it, 'When a man has got the best thing in the world, he naturally wants to let other people know about it.'

An interview between Dr. John R. Mott and Mahatma Gandhi has recently been recorded in which Mr. Gandhi said to Dr. Mott, 'You must not make conversion the price of your service to the "Untouchables".' But the Christian feels that the greatest service he can render to the 'Untouchable' is to bring him to Christ.
