† Statistics for 1890.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—In the following list the wives of all the European Missionaries in full connexion are printed for the first time, their names being given in almost every instance immediately after those of their husbands. Where the wife was before marriage a Missionary on the Roll, her maiden name is also given.

The Universities and Training Colleges of Missionaries are also stated.

Corrections or additions will be welcomed with a view to next year's Report.

STATIONS, CLERICAL OR LAY MISSIONARIES, AND NATIVE CLERGYMEN, SUPPORTED EITHER DIRECTLY BY THE SOCIETY, OR BY NATIVE CHURCH FUNDS SUBSIDIZED OR AIDED BY THE SOCIETY.

JUNE 1, 1891.

 A STATION is the place at which a Clerical or Lay Missionary is stationed, or at which Native Christians are located under Native pastoral superintendence in connexion with the Society.—Wives of Missionaries, &c., are always expected by the Society to lay themselves out to do good, in every practicable way, among Native Women; such as cultivating familiar intercourse with them, educating children, and instructing the adult women.

The figures after the Names of the European Labourers show the date of their first connexion with the Society's Missions.

This mark * denotes that the Missionary to whose name it is prefixed is in Local Connexion. It includes Europeans who have joined in the Mission, and Clergymen who were born in the country in which they labour.

The mark ‡ denotes that the name to which it is prefixed is that of an Agent supported by Native Church Funds aided by the Society. The Native Ministers in New Zealand are supported partly by Subscriptions from Native Christians, and partly from the rents of lands belonging to the Society in the Colony.

The Names of Native Clergymen are printed in italics. The figures after their names show the date of ordination.

All the names under one station or department of work are printed in order of date, without reference to nationality, sex, orders, or other difference; the Secretaries of Missions, however, are placed first in order at the stations where they reside.

At the Annual Meeting of the Church Missionary Society, held at Exeter Hall, London, Tuesday, May 5th, 1891, being its Ninety-second Anniversary—

SIR JOHN H. KENNAWAY, Bart., M.P., President, in the Chair,

AFTER READING OF SCRIPTURE AND PRAYER;

The Annual Report was read, followed by the CHAIRMAN'S Address, after which, on a Motion by the LORD ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY, Vice-Patron, seconded by the VEN. ARCHDEACON MOULE, B.D., Missionary from Mid-China, and supported by the RIGHT REV. THE BISHOP OF MINNESOTA, U.S.A., it was Resolved—

I. That the General Review which has now been read, together with the Report, of which an abstract has been presented, be adopted and printed under the direction of the Committee; that the thanks of the Meeting be given to the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Sodor and Man for his Sermon before the Society last evening, and that it be printed and circulated, and that Sir T. Fowell Buxton, Bart., be the Treasurer of the Society, and that the Committee be appointed for the ensuing year, with power to fill up vacancies, and that this Meeting, reminded by the occurrence of the Anniversary on the eve of the Ascension season of the Ascending Lord's command to His servants to be witnesses unto Him to the uttermost part of the earth, recalls also the certainty of His coming again in like manner, and prays that the whole expectant Church may be aroused to greater diligence in preparing His way.

On a Motion by the REV. CANON EDMONDS, B.D., Vicar of St. George's, Tiverton, seconded by the VEN. ARCHDEACON CALEY, Missionary from Travancore, it was Resolved—

II. That the rapid increase in the population of India, the multiplying opportunities of extension in China, the development of civilization in Japan, the advance of geographical discovery and commercial enterprise in Africa, constitute a loud call to the Church of Christ, and to the Church Missionary Society in particular, both to foster the spiritual life and Missionary zeal of the Native Christian communities already gathered out, and to preach the Gospel in the regions beyond.

On a Motion by MR. MILES MACINNES, M.P., V.P., seconded by the REV. R. P. ASHE, M.A. (shortly proceeding to Eastern Equatorial Africa), and supported by the REV. GEO. ENSOR, Vicar of Rendham, Suffolk, it was Resolved—

III. That this Meeting unfeignedly thanks God for the growth among Christians of all classes and both sexes of a sense of their responsibility to Christ for the extension of His kingdom; and, while rejoicing that means are being found to send forth any whose hearts God has touched and who give promise of efficient service, rejoices also that those who are plainly called to stay at home are finding openings for active personal work in instructing and inspiring other Christians touching the grand cause of the Evangelization of the world.

At the Evening Meeting, held at Exeter Hall, on the same day—

THE RIGHT REV. THE BISHOP OF CORK in the Chair,

Addresses were delivered by the Chairman; the Rev. W. Gray, Secretary C.M.S.; Colonel Sir C. Euan Smith, late Consul-General at Zanzibar; the Rev. F. N. Eden, Missionary from the Niger; the Rev. A. E. Ball, Missionary from Sindh; the Rev. R. W. Stewart, Missionary from South China; Dr. H. Martyn Clark, Missionary from the Punjâb; and the Ven. Archdeacon Howell, Vicar of Wrexham.

LAWS AND REGULATIONS

OF THE

CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR AFRICA AND THE EAST.

(As revised at a Special Meeting of Members of the Society, held on July 2, 1890.)

I. THIS Institution shall be designated "The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East;" and shall be conducted by a Patron or Patrons, a Vice-Patron, a President, Vice-Presidents, a COMMITTEE, and such Officers as may be deemed necessary, all being Members of the Established Church of England or of the Church of Ireland.

II. The office of PATRON of the Society shall be reserved for Members of the Royal Family; and that of VICE-PATRON for His Grace the Primate of All England, if, being a Member of the Society, he shall accept the office. The PRESIDENT shall be such Temporal Peer or Commoner as may be appointed to that office, and VICE-PRESIDENTS shall consist of all Archbishops and Bishops of the Churches of England and Ireland, who, being Members of the Society, shall accept the office; and of such other persons as, being also Members, shall be appointed thereto.

OF MEMBERS AND GOVERNORS.

III. Annual Subscribers of One Guinea and upwards, and if Clergymen Half-a-Guinea, with Collectors of Fifty-two Shillings, and upwards per annum, shall be Members of the Society during the continuance of such Subscriptions or Collections. Benefactors of Ten Guineas, and upwards, in one sum shall be Members for Life.

IV. Annual Subscribers of Five Guineas shall be Governors during the continuance of such Subscription; and Benefactors of Fifty Pounds, and upwards, in one sum, shall be Governors for Life.

V. Subscriptions and Benefactions shall confer the same privileges, whether paid to the Society direct or through an Auxiliary or Association.

VI. The COMMITTEE may appoint such persons as have rendered essential services to the Society, either Honorary Members for Life, or Honorary Governors for Life.

OF GENERAL MEETINGS.

VII. An Annual Meeting of the Members of the Society shall be held in London, on the Tuesday next before the first Wednesday in May; when the proceedings of the foregoing year shall be reported, the Accounts presented, and the Treasurer and COMMITTEE chosen. And whenever any vacancy in the office of Treasurer shall occur, the COMMITTEE may fill up the vacancy, for the interval between the occurrence of such vacancy and the next Annual Meeting.

VIII. The COMMITTEE may summon a Special General Meeting of the Members of the Society, at which not less than Thirty shall constitute a Quorum, at any time, and they shall do so on receipt of a requisition in writing, addressed to the Secretaries, and signed by not less than Fifty Members of the Society, and specifying the object of the Meeting. Ten days' notice shall be given in Three London Daily Newspapers, and in two other Newspapers, of any such intended Meeting, and of the purpose for which it is called; which shall be deemed sufficient publicity.

IX. None of the Laws and Regulations of the Society shall be repealed or altered, nor any new ones made, but at the Annual Meeting or at a Special General Meeting called for that purpose.

X. An Anniversary Sermon shall be preached at some Church in London, by a Clergyman appointed by the COMMITTEE. An Annual Report of the Society shall be printed for the use of its Members,

OF THE COMMITTEE.

XI. The COMMITTEE shall consist of the following, being members of the Established Church of England or of the Church of Ireland:—(a) Twenty-four Lay Members of the Society elected at the Annual Meeting. (b) All Clergymen who are Members of the Society and have been so for not less than one year. (c) All Honorary Governors for Life, and all such other Governors as have been so for not less than one year. In every year so many of the elected Members shall go out of office as, with the vacancies, if any, occurring among them during the preceding year, will make six vacancies, and shall not be re-eligible until the following year. The COMMITTEE shall decide which Members go out of office in each year.

XII. The COMMITTEE shall elect, at their First Meeting in every year, either from among themselves, or from the other Members of the Society (being members of the Established Church of England or of the Church of Ireland), a Committee of Patronage, a Committee of Funds and Home Organization, a Committee of Correspondence, a Committee of Finance, and a Committee of Estimates, and shall have power to fill up vacancies. Each of the said Committees shall keep Minutes of its Proceedings, and shall make such reports of its proceedings to the COMMITTEE as the COMMITTEE shall require.

XIII. The office of the Committee of Patronage is to procure patronage and support to the Society; and to nominate to the COMMITTEE proper persons as Patrons, President, Vice-Presidents, Honorary Life Governors, Honorary Life Members of the Society, and preachers of the Anniversary Sermons.

XIV. The office of the Committee of Funds and Home Organization is to circulate information respecting the Society; to adopt means of obtaining Subscriptions, Benefactions, and Collections in Churches, Chapels, and at Meetings; to take a general oversight of the Associations; and to nominate, from time to time, to the COMMITTEE, suitable persons to act as Agents and Representatives of the Society for these objects.

XV. The office of the Committee of Correspondence is, to seek for proper Missionaries, to nominate them to the COMMITTEE, to superintend their instruction, when necessary, to recommend their location, and to correspond with them when sent out, and generally to direct the foreign work of the Society. Subject to the control of the COMMITTEE, the Committee of Correspondence may delegate any of their duties to Committees elected from among themselves, and may authorize such Committees to report directly to the COMMITTEE, and may fix their Quorum.

XVI. The office of the Committee of Finance is, generally, to superintend the accounts and financial affairs of the Society, and from time to time to note and to report to the COMMITTEE how far the expenditure corresponds with the sanctioned Estimates.

XVII. The office of the Committee of Estimates is, to prepare and submit to the COMMITTEE an estimate of the probable expenditure of the Society.

XVIII. The Committee of Correspondence shall appoint from among themselves, at their First Meeting in every year, a Clerical Sub-Committee, and may appoint at their discretion other Committees, for the examination of Missionary Candidates.

XIX. The COMMITTEE may make regulations as to the conduct of business by themselves, and by the other Committees, and subject to and so far as not inconsistent with any such regulations for the time being in force, the COMMITTEE shall receive and deal with the Reports of the other Committees, shall decide upon the countries where Missions shall be carried on, and shall superintend and control the affairs of the Society in general. The COMMITTEE may authorize any Committee appointed under Law XII., and with the consent of the Committee of Correspondence any Committee appointed under Law XV. to deal with and dispose of any matters and classes of matters the consideration of which falls within its province, reporting its action to the next meeting of the COMMITTEE. Subject to the control of the COMMITTEE, every Committee may make Bye-laws for its own government, and may appoint Sub-Committees and fix their quorum.

XX. The COMMITTEE shall have power to appoint such Officers and Assistants as they shall deem necessary for the well conducting of the affairs of the Society, subject, in the case of the appointment of Secretaries, to the approbation of the next Annual Meeting. One, at least, of the Secretaries shall be a layman. The COMMITTEE shall also have power to acquire property of every description for the purposes of the Society, and to invest the funds of the Society as they may deem expedient, and to vest all or any portions of the property and funds of the Society in such Trustee or Trustees, or corporate body, as they may in each case think fit.

XXI. The COMMITTEE shall meet on the second Tuesday in every month, and oftener if needful. The other Committees shall meet as often, and at such places, as shall be by them agreed on. All Committee Meetings shall be opened with reading a Form of Prayer composed for that purpose, or one or more suitable Prayers selected from the Liturgy.

XXII. The Patrons, Vice-Patron, President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer and Secretaries shall be considered, ex officio, Members of all Committees.

XXIII. Five Members shall be necessary to form a Quorum of the COMMITTEE; and Three of each of the Committees provided for in Law XII.; in each case exclusive of the Secretaries. In cases of equality of votes, the Chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote. Every Committee may act notwithstanding vacancies.

XXIV. All payments on account of the Society shall be signed by Three Members of the COMMITTEE, in Committee, and the Lay Secretary, or in his absence by one of the other Secretaries.

XXV. The accounts of the Society shall be audited and reported upon by Public Accountants appointed by the COMMITTEE, and Five Honorary Auditors, Members of the Society (of whom not more than two shall be Members of the COMMITTEE), shall be appointed annually by the COMMITTEE for the purpose of considering the Reports of Public Accountants, and of making recommendations thereon, and generally on the Accounts to the COMMITTEE once at least in every year.

OF MISSIONARIES.

XXVI. Every offer for Missionary Service shall be referred by the Secretaries either to the Committee of Correspondence or in the first instance to the Clerical Sub-Committee or other Committee appointed under Law XVIII. to which it shall belong under rules laid down by the Committee of Correspondence; and the Committee of Correspondence shall have power to deal with the offer, both as to the training and as to the nomination as a Missionary of the Candidate. Provided that no one shall be sent out as a Missionary without having been approved by the Committee of Correspondence; and without, as a general rule, having appeared before them.

XXVII. Candidates nominated by the Committee of Correspondence, and accepted by the COMMITTEE, shall receive instruction in such parts of knowledge, and be prepared in such a manner for their future employment, as the Committee of Correspondence shall judge expedient.

XXVIII. Candidates shall consider themselves engaged to go to any part of the world, and at any time that the COMMITTEE shall decide, and be subject to such regulations as may be established by the COMMITTEE for the direction of the Missionaries: respect, however, being had to their personal circumstances, or to any previous stipulation made by them with the Society.

XXIX. Men who have been duly prepared and finally approved for Missionary work, shall go out, either ordained or unordained, at the discretion of the COMMITTEE.*

XXX. The Missionaries who go out under the direction of this Society shall be allowed to visit home, permission having been previously obtained from the COMMITTEE; and after having laboured in the cause of the Society, to the satisfaction of the COMMITTEE, at the Stations committed to their care, until age or infirmity prevent further exertion, such provision shall be made to render their remaining days comfortable as in the judgment of the COMMITTEE is suitable. The COMMITTEE shall have the power to assist also, in particular cases, the dependent Relatives of those Missionaries, who, by devoting themselves to the service of the Society, are prevented from contributing to their support. The COMMITTEE shall be further empowered in special cases to make such arrangements with those employed by them as they may think fit.

GENERAL.

XXXI. A friendly intercourse shall be maintained with other Protestant Societies engaged in the same benevolent design of propagating the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

XXXII. All questions relating to matters of Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, respecting which a difference shall arise between a Bishop of the Church of England abroad and the COMMITTEE, shall, in the absence of any tribunal having legal cognizance of the same, be referred to the Archbishops and Bishops of the Provinces of Canterbury and York, whose decision thereupon shall be binding upon the Society and its agents, and representatives. The proposed reference shall be made by the COMMITTEE, through His Grace the Primate, accompanied by such explanations and statements as the COMMITTEE may deem advisable.

XXXIII. The object of the preceding Law being only to provide a mode of settling questions relating to Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline as to which no provision has yet been made by the Society, it is not to be so construed, as in any other respect to alter the principles and practices of the Society, as they are contained in its Laws and Regulations.

XXXIV. It is recommended to every Member of the Society to pray to Almighty God for a blessing upon its designs; under the full conviction, that, unless He "prevent us, in all our doings, with His most gracious favour, and further us with His continual help," the Society cannot reasonably hope to meet with persons of a proper spirit and qualifications to be Missionaries, or expect their endeavours to be crowned with success.

* The Bishops of the Church of England under the authority of the law of the land ordain and send forth [ecclesiastically speaking] the Society's Missionaries; and in the event of their being appointed by the COMMITTEE to labour at stations within the jurisdiction of a Bishop of the Church of England abroad, it is the practice of the Society to apply to the Bishop for licenses in which are specified the districts to which the Missionaries have been assigned. This is done on the understanding that licenses will neither be refused nor when granted be withdrawn from the Missionaries during their connection with the Society, except for some assigned legal cause.

PRAYER USED AT THE ANNUAL MEETINGS OF THE SOCIETY AND AT THE OPENING OF MEETINGS OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE.

ALMIGHTY and most merciful FATHER, we give Thee humble thanks for the light of Thy Gospel. Make us more grateful for this Thy mercy, and more zealous for the salvation of all mankind.

Visit in mercy the Church of Christ; enrich it more abundantly with the grace of Thy Holy Spirit; and bless its endeavours to make known Thy Truth. Unite, as one man, all who are truly labouring for Thee. Disappoint the designs of Satan. Let all Christian Societies live in harmony and love; give them wisdom in all their plans; perfect Thy strength in their weakness; and direct their labours to Thy glory.

The harvest truly is great, but the Labourers are few! O Thou Lord of the Harvest, send forth labourers into Thy Harvest! Fill with Thy Spirit those whom Thou hast sent forth; and enable them faithfully and boldly to preach, among Jews and Gentiles, the unsearchable riches of Christ. Keep them from the snares of the world, the flesh, and the devil; deliver them from all evil; and make them wise to win souls.

Upon all the Native Converts whom Thou hast gathered to Thyself, through Thy labouring servants throughout the world, pour out Thy Holy Spirit, that, as Thou hast begotten them again unto a lively hope, so they may ever be followers of Thee as dear children. Deliver them from all remaining darkness and ignorance; destroy and abolish in their hearts all that remains of Satan's kingdom; grant that their faith, and hope, and love may grow exceedingly; make them to be ready to every good work, and more especially to exert themselves for the salvation of those around them; that so, by their zeal and faithful testimony, by their holiness and fruitfulness, they may glorify Thy name before their countrymen, and bring in unto Thee, from the midst of them, such as shall be saved.

Have compassion, O Most-merciful Father, on all those who have come under instruction, though they be not yet altogether Christians. Convince them effectually, by Thy Word and Spirit, of their sinful and miserable state; pour upon them the spirit of grace and supplication, and draw them to Jesus.

Take away blindness from the Jews. Let them receive Thee, O Jesus, as their Messiah, and proclaim Thy saving Name among the Gentiles.

Deliver all Mohammedans from the delusions of the False Prophet! O Thou True Prophet of Thy Church, enlighten them by Thy Holy Spirit, and bow them down at the foot of Thy Cross!

Pity blind Idolaters who are kept in cruel bondage by the god of this world. Turn them from idols, that they may serve the Living and True God.

O Thou Almighty Saviour, who by the right hand of God art exalted, and hast received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, shed forth His light and grace on this dark world!

Cause all Christians, we beseech Thee, to sow bountifully; that they may reap also bountifully. O Thou that lovest a cheerful giver, let all grace abound toward them, that they may minister liberally of their substance to the making known of Thy Name!

With these our humble prayers, we join our praises and thanksgiving for what Thou hast already done in making known Thy salvation; perfect Thy work, O Lord; shortly accomplish the number of Thine elect; and hasten the coming of Thy Kingdom.

Be present with us, O Lord, at this time. Give us all a single eye to Thy glory. May Thy blessing rest upon our meeting; and may all our hearts be this day quickened and encouraged to fresh and persevering efforts in Thy Service.

We ask these mercies for the glory of Thy Name, through the merits and mediation of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ; and would ascribe to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, Three Persons in One God, everlasting praise. Amen.

OUR Father which art in Heaven: Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil: for Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER USED AT THE OPENING OF MEETINGS OF THE COMMITTEE OF CORRESPONDENCE.

ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, who hast purchased to Thyself an Universal Church, by the precious blood of Thy dear Son, we give Thee hearty thanks that it hath pleased Thee to call us to the knowledge of Thy grace and faith in Thee, and to appoint our lot in an age and country where the true light shineth. We bless Thee that Thou hast awakened us in some measure to feel our responsibilities. We praise Thee for what we have seen and heard of the power of Thy Word among the heathen; we adore Thee for Thy many servants who have gone out from amongst us to toil, and suffer, and die in making known Thy salvation; and we thank Thee that Thou dost allow us, unworthy sinners, to unite together in this work of faith and labour of love.

We humbly confess our past lukewarmness in this Thy service, notwithstanding these Thine inestimable benefits and mercies. For our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive us our past negligences, and so endue us with Thy Holy Spirit, that we may more earnestly seek Thy glory in the salvation of souls.

Grant us, we beseech Thee, Thy very present help at these our meetings. We ask, most gracious God and Father, for a constraining sense of the love of the Lord Jesus, and for wisdom to direct us in all our endeavours. Increase upon us the spirit of power and of love and of a sound mind. Give us faith and courage; give us zeal and patience; give us a single eye to Thy glory, and help us to bear and to forbear. The silver and the gold are Thine, O King of kings! Supply us with what is needful for our great work, and make us faithful stewards of Thy bounty, for proclaiming to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ.

We pray also for all who are united with us in the direction of this sacred cause.

May Thine especial blessing rest upon our Committees, with their Secretaries, throughout the world. Bestow on them the help that we feel so needful for ourselves. Enable them to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, and ever to find favour in the sight of all with whom they may have to do.

Especially we beseech Thee to look, O most merciful Father, upon our Missionary brethren. Draw out our hearts towards them more and more; and while they are bearing the burden abroad, give us grace to help and succour them by our sympathy and prayers at home, Bless every letter written to them from this house, and all our intercourse with them. We pray for them that they may be filled with Thy Spirit. Grant that the same mind may be in them which was also in Christ Jesus. Let them never lose their first love. Raise them above the cares of this world. Help them to deny themselves and to endure all things for the elect's sake. Give them the tongue of the learned. Clothe them with humility. Teach them to follow peace with each other, and with all men. Support them under spiritual distresses, temptations of the adversary, bodily sickness, domestic anxieties, and hope deferred. And so confirm Thy word from their lips by the power of the Holy Ghost, that through them multitudes may be turned from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto Thee, our God.

We commend to Thee the Missionaries' children entrusted to our charge. Bring them all to a true knowledge of, and faith in Thee. Defend them with Thy heavenly grace that they may continue Thine for ever, and daily increase in Thy Holy Spirit more and more, until they come into Thy everlasting kingdom. Give all needed grace to those who have the direction of the Home in the discharge of the arduous work with which Thou hast been pleased to entrust them.

We most heartily thank Thee, O Lord, for those whom Thou hast already sent forth through this Society; and we pray for a yet larger outpouring of a Missionary spirit on our younger Clergy, on the members of our Universities, on those who are elsewhere preparing for this holy work, on the young men of all ranks and orders throughout our land. And herein do we implore Thy special favour on our Islington Institution, that its numbers may be replenished continually: and that none may go forth thence but such as shall be able ministers of the New Testament, full of Faith, and of the Holy Ghost.

We praise Thee, O Thou God of all grace, for the Converts, the Native Catechists, and the Native Clergy, whom Thou hast granted to us in our several Missions. As Thou hast raised the Native Churches thus far, bring them, we pray Thee, to full ripeness and perfectness of age in Christ. Pour out upon them Thy Holy Spirit. Stablish, strengthen, settle them, and so enlarge their liberality, that they may both maintain Thy Word among themselves, and may make it known to the regions beyond them, till all the Gentiles hear the glad tidings of Thy love.

And now, O Lord God, be Thou in the midst of us to-day. Give us a constant sense of Thy presence, and may all our undertakings be begun, continued, and ended in Thee, to the honour of Thy great name, for the sake of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

PRAYERS FOR MISSIONS,
SUITABLE TO BE USED AT MISSIONARY MEETINGS AND IN PRIVATE.

I.—From the Book of Common Prayer according to the use of the Church of Ireland.

Almighty God, who by Thy Son Jesus Christ didst give commandment to the Apostles that they should go into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature; grant to us whom Thou hast called into Thy Church a ready will to obey Thy Word, and fill us with a hearty desire to make Thy way known upon earth, Thy saving health among all nations. Look with compassion upon the heathen that have not known Thee, and on the multitudes that are scattered as sheep having no shepherd. O heavenly Father, Lord of the harvest, have respect, we beseech Thee, to our prayers, and send forth labourers into Thy harvest. Fit and prepare them by Thy grace for the work of the ministry; give them the spirit of power, and of love, and of a sound mind; strengthen them to endure hardness; and grant that Thy Holy Spirit may prosper their work, and that by their life and doctrine they may set forth Thy glory and set forward the salvation of all men; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

II.—For a Blessing on Missionaries and their Labours.

(By Archbishop Sumner.)

O most merciful Saviour and Redeemer, who wouldest not that any should perish, but that all men should be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth, fulfil Thy gracious promise to be present with those who are gone forth in Thy Name to preach the Gospel of Salvation in distant lands. Be with them in all perils by land or by water, in sickness and distress, in weariness and painfulness, in disappointment and persecution. Bless them, we beseech Thee, with Thy continual favour, and send Thy Holy Spirit to guide them into all truth. O Lord, let Thy ministers be clothed with righteousness, and grant that Thy word spoken by their mouths may never be spoken in vain. Endue them with power from on high, and so prosper Thy work in their hands, that the fulness of the Gentiles may be gathered in, and all Israel be saved.

Hear us, O Lord, for Thy mercy's sake, and grant that all who are saved by Thy Name may be one in Thee, and may abound more and more in prayers and in free-will offerings, for the extension of Thy kingdom throughout the world, to Thy honour and glory, who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

III.—For Missions and for Grace to help them.

(By Bishop Christopher Wordsworth.)

O Lord Jesu Christ, Saviour of Mankind, who hast commanded Thy disciples to go into all the world and to preach the Gospel to every creature, and who hast declared that this Gospel of the Kingdom shall first be preached to all nations, and that then the end shall come; we humbly beseech Thee to raise up men full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and send them forth to do the work of evangelists by spreading abroad the glad tidings of salvation; and so to fill us with Thy love, and to quicken us with Thy grace, that we may labour joyfully with them by prayers and offerings for their work, so that finally at Thy Second Coming to judge the world, we together with them, and with those who have received the Gospel at their hands, may rejoice in Thy presence with exceeding joy, and may praise Thee for evermore, our holy and most merciful Redeemer, our most worthy Judge Eternal, our most mighty Lord and God, to Whom, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory now and for ever. Amen.

IV.

(By Bishop Cotton, of Calcutta.)

O God, who hast made of one blood all nations of men to dwell upon the face of the whole earth, and who didst send Thy blessed Son to preach peace to them that are afar off, and to them that are nigh, grant that all the people of heathen and Mohammedan lands may feel after Thee and find Thee; and hasten, O Lord, the fulfilment of Thy promise, to pour out Thy Spirit upon all flesh, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE ANNUAL SERMON,

Preached at St. Bride's Church, Fleet Street, on Monday Evening, May 4th, 1891,

BY

LORD BISHOP OF SODOR AND MAN.

"AND HE SAID UNTO THEM, I MUST PREACH THE GOOD TIDINGS OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD TO THE OTHER CITIES ALSO: FOR THEREFORE WAS I SENT."—St. Luke iv. 43 (Revised Version).

THAT first Sabbath which our Lord spent in Capernaum was a great day. In the synagogue the multitude were astonished as they listened to the words which He spake with power; and they were amazed when in their presence He commanded the unclean spirits, and they came forth. When the sun was setting the whole city, we are told, was gathered together at the door of the house where our Lord remained. They brought to Him all those that were possessed of divers diseases, as well as those that were afflicted with unclean spirits. Moved with a feeling of their infirmity, the Master laid His loving hand on each one of them and healed them all. The record of such a day seems to explain the hyperbole of St. John's Gospel, that no words can express, no book contain, all that Jesus said and did in the fulness of His life here upon earth. Very early in the morning He went forth to a desert place to commune with His Father in prayer; and early in the morning the crowd of the preceding day came to the house. When they did not find Jesus, the multitude, together with Simon Peter, and those that were with him, sallied forth together. They sought and tracked Jesus down until they found Him in His retirement in the neighbouring hills. Then they besought Him that He would stay with them; they entreated Him that He would in no wise depart from them, and that He would make their town of Capernaum His constant home. In the words of my text the Master replied:

"I must preach the good tidings of the kingdom of God to the other cities also: for therefore was I sent." May God vouchsafe to us His Holy Spirit to be in our midst, whilst first in a few words I bring the narrative before you as unfolding our Lord's life and ministry in Galilee; and then, secondly, employ it as indicating the great truth which ought to occupy the thoughts and the great duty which ought to engross the energies of Christ's Church until He comes again.

I. First, then, the text gives us an insight into our Lord's ministry in Galilee. We have the nature of His message, "The good tidings of the kingdom of God"; we have the extent of his mission, He must go "to the other cities also."

(a) Notice first the nature of this message, "The good tidings of the kingdom of God!" "The kingdom of God" was no new phrase upon the lips of Jesus Christ; the idea was familiar to the Jews of His day. Those who knew the glowing tones of David's Psalms, who were familiar with the seraphic visions of Isaiah, who had learnt to understand something of the dreams and the interpretation of dreams of the prophet Daniel: realised that a kingdom had been promised; a kingdom which in its extent should reach from sea to sea and from the river to the ends of the earth; a kingdom, which, in its duration would never pass away; a kingdom small in its beginnings as the stone cut out without hands, but which, nevertheless, should grow and grow, until like a great mountain it filled the earth. This kingdom, of which it has been said that, if we could only penetrate its full meaning, we should know the work which Christ came to accomplish, but of which, if we are ignorant, we know not the purpose for which God sent His Son into the world—this kingdom it was which our Lord declared that He must preach as the good tidings. Very different, however, were the interpretations which the Jews attached to this coming kingdom. Some looked for a great deliverer, a conqueror greater than Joshua, greater than Judas Maccabæus, who would snap asunder the Roman yoke, and who would establish in Jerusalem itself a kingdom which would be greater than the empires of the world; others there were, just men and devout, with spiritual conceptions, who patiently waited for the kingdom of God. But whatever the aspect that this kingdom assumed it was in all men's minds, "the good tidings of the kingdom of God." When that kingdom should be established and it should be known that the Lord was the Governor, and that the dominion belonged to Him as King, then the earth was to clap its hands, then the trees of the forest were to rejoice. "Let the people rejoice, yea, let all the people praise Thee."

(b) Notice the extent of His mission, "to the other cities also."

It ought to be remembered that Galilee was our Lord's province, and that He was never under the jurisdiction of any civil ruler but Herod the Tetrarch. Galilee was a province of which many of us seem not to understand the true character and circumstances Favoured by its hundred streams, by the dew from Hermon, and snow from Lebanon, it was one of the gardens of the Lord. But beyond that, when we look at the close proximity of its crowded centres of population, the extent and variety of its manufactures, it might well be compared, as it has been, to the Lancashire of the north of England. Josephus tells us that in our Lord's day (and his computations have been very generally accepted within the last few years) there were in Galilee more than 200 cities with a population of over 15,000 each. On the shores of the lake there were no fewer than ten cities that sparkled on the strand, whilst the waters of the lake were studded with countless sails. It was, then, in reference to this great population of over three millions of people dispersed among many hundreds of cities and country towns and villages, that our Lord said, "I must preach the good tidings of the kingdom of God to the other cities also." It was on the multitudes which flocked from these cities and towns that our Lord, seeing that they were as sheep having no shepherd, had compassion. It was when He saw these multitudes that He sent forth the seventy, and prayed that the Lord of the harvest would send more labourers into His harvest. North, east, west, in the semi-pagan Decapolis, in the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, in the parts about Cæsarea Philippi, in the country beyond Jordan; here, there, everywhere, the Lord was actively at work, and so completely did He evangelise Galilee that at last it could be said that there was no city, no country town, no village even, whose synagogue had not resounded with the "good tidings of the kingdom of God: for therefore was I sent."

II. And now let me endeavour—and may God perfect His strength in my weakness—to show how this narrative is a parable of what ought to be the message and mission of the Church in our own days. The truth to be preached is still the same—"the good tidings of the kingdom of God." The extent of our mission is still the same; as long as there are other cities unevangelised, we must hasten to preach to them also "the good tidings of the kingdom of God." We meet at a time when this missionary question is surrounded with difficulties; at a time when there is diversity of counsel and a multiplicity of opinions, and it is impossible but that in such an arena there should be somewhat of the din and somewhat of the dust of warfare. May God enable us to-night to rise, as it were, above all controversy, and may He enable us to go back to the first foundations on which Christianity was based, and to see the simple elementary principles with which it was associated—the great truth of "the good tidings of the kingdom of God." I have said that the phrase was not a new one upon our Lord's lips, and we cannot fail to observe how frequently it was there. The good seed which He sowed upon all soils was—"the word of the kingdom." As we listen to His discourses, the word "kingdom" is the key-word; as we listen to the music of His message, it is the dominant note. And not only did our Lord himself preach the kingdom, for the kingdom of heaven at hand had been the cry of John the Baptist. When He commissioned the twelve apostles, when He sent forth the seventy, when, again, He committed the great work to the Church at the last, it was in the same terms—"as ye go, preach the kingdom." The kingdom of the Gospel was to be preached amongst the nations, and then the end would come. And as this word "kingdom" pervaded our Lord's public teaching, so it was to be found in His utterances at all times. It was not a subject which occasionally occupied His thoughts. As we study the progress of Christ's ministry here upon earth, we shall see that His ministry was no series of tentative efforts, but it was an orderly sequence towards an end that was foreseen. Our Lord's first word and our Lord's last word revealed the same purpose, expressed the same idea. It was the kingdom, always the kingdom, which coloured His personal life. The dominion attached to this kingdom was the great prize with which Satan sought to tempt Him in the wilderness. Showing Him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time he said, "if thou wilt worship me all shall be thine." Of the glory of the kingdom our Lord Himself had a foretaste on the Mount of Transfiguration, when His disciples also saw the Son of Man coming in His kingdom. The miracles which He wrought by the finger of God were the pledges that the kingdom of God was come upon them. The nature of this kingdom, the final triumph of this kingdom, it was which our Lord dwelt upon before the High Priest and the Sanhedrim and before Pontius Pilate. "Ye shall see Me," he said, "coming with power on the clouds of heaven"; while to the Roman governor, he declared, "My kingdom is not of this world; if My kingdom were of this world, then would My servants fight that I should not be delivered to the Jews; but now is My kingdom not from hence." As round our Lord's cradle there were royal gifts, so above our Lord's cross there was the sovereign title, "This is the King of the Jews." It was in bitter mockery, but, nevertheless, in truth, that when with the reed in His hand, with the crown of thorns on His brow, with the purple robe around Him, they bowed the knee before Him, they said: "Hail! King of the Jews." The kingdom, I repeat, pervaded our Lord's teaching, it coloured His whole life. But what is this kingdom? Many answers might be returned. We must not attenuate the idea of this kingdom as if it were a convenient phrase for the religious sentiments of Christ's followers, and, on the other hand, we must not elevate this kingdom as though it were that kingdom which belongs to Christ as the Logos—the only begotten Son of God. It is His mediatorial kingdom, that kingdom for which He died, that kingdom which He received when He went to the right hand of the Father, that kingdom which He will only receive in its consummation when all things have been put under His feet. Very well has our own Bishop Pearson expressed it: "As there are two natures in the one person of Christ, so there are two dominions—the one inherent in His divinity, the other bestowed upon His humanity. The one kingdom which belongs to Him as He is the Lord and Maker of all things, the other kingdom which is bestowed upon Him because He has been made the Lord of all things."

When we inquire into this mediatorial kingdom we shall find that two ideas underlie it which I will briefly expound to-night.

(1) In the first place, amongst the Jews there was a fundamental idea that by the kingdom of God was meant God's kingly rule of righteousness. Our Lord expresses it: "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven." This phrase, "the kingdom of God," was employed when a young Jew first began to recite the "Sheva," which had to be repeated twice daily by each Jew; his friends said of him, "He has taken upon himself the kingdom of God." This phrase was employed whenever a Jew was punctilious in the wearing of phylacteries, and in the ceremonial washing of hands; it was said, "Our friend has taken upon himself the yoke of the kingdom of God." But our Lord Jesus Christ took that phrase, and taught His disciples and followers that this righteousness was no mere ceremonial observance; that this kingdom was not a kingdom of meat and drink, but a kingdom of righteousness, and peace and joy in the Holy Ghost. And this kingdom of righteousness was one which our Lord came to establish in the heart of the individual man. This kingdom, then, our Lord set up, for He assumed and asserted that there was a manifestation of the kingdom in Himself—He did the Father's will; it was His meat to do the Father's will—and this kingdom of righteousness it was which our Lord proclaimed.

(2) But again we may take this phrase and say that when men individually have been led to accept the kingdom of God as manifested in Christ—Himself the Holy One and the Just—

Himself the sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction for the sins of the whole world—Himself claiming as the test of grateful love that men should do His righteous will, then they are associated by God's purpose into a society or community which has for its great object the realisation of this righteousness here upon earth. Very different are the titles given to this visible community. As there is one Supreme Head, there is one Lord; as men are united to Him by the one tie, there is one faith; as they are initiated into this outward community by one rite, there is one baptism; the one body, animated by the one Spirit, "one Lord, one faith, one baptism." We look upon this great community, and we find in the New Testament that it is called a building, a vine, a body. As a body, Christ is the head and we are the members; as a building, Christ is the foundation upon which the stones are built; as a vine, Christ is the root from which the branches derive their spiritual sustenance. But, on the other hand, there are titles given to this great community which indicate, not its intimate association with Christ, but its being the possession of Christ. It is a priesthood, it is a kingdom, it is a flock. The flock of which Christ is the Good Shepherd, the priesthood of which Christ is the great head, the kingdom of which He is the supreme ruler.

It has been thought by some that the kingdom and the Church, in its widest sense, are equivalent; by others, that they are complementary aspects of the same great truth; some have compared them, some have contrasted them; but the burden of my message to-night is this, that if we look at the teaching of our Lord Jesus Christ, the word which He Himself employs is not so much the "church" but "the kingdom." Twice only do we find that the word "church" was used by Him, once when He declared that "thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build My Church," and again in the words, "If he shall neglect to hear them tell it unto the Church." But everywhere, on all occasions, the word "kingdom" was on the lips of Christ. And so, too, it will be found that when He sent forth His apostles and evangelists, after He had risen, and had poured out His Holy Spirit upon them to indicate the nature of the commission, and to be a pledge that He would shed forth His Spirit upon all flesh,—whether it be Simon Peter on the day of Pentecost, or Philip at Samaria, or St. Paul summarising his ministry at Ephesus, or whether it be the narrative at the close of the Acts of the Apostles, it is the kingdom, the kingdom, the kingdom which is prominent. The curtain descends as we see St. Paul for two years at Rome in his own hired house "preaching the kingdom of God and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ." And I will be bold to go somewhat further, and say that the same truth is to be gathered from the Epistles. The word "church" is very frequent in those Epistles, but if we carefully eliminate the word when employed in a plural sense, the "churches," or when employed in a local sense, as to the Church of Corinth, it will be found that the use of the word "church" in its widest significance is comparatively rare. It is the great term, I admit, of St. Paul in his Epistle to the Ephesians, and in the Epistle to the Colossians, viz., that the Church is the body of Christ. It is the term which St. Paul uses when speaking to Timothy—he describes the Church as "the pillar and ground of the truth," and I may also quote in the Epistle to the Hebrews, "the Church of the first-born." But with these references I have almost exhausted the use of the word "church" in the Epistles in its widest sense. How is it then, we naturally ask, that the word "kingdom" is the word prominently employed to indicate this community of which I have spoken; which seeks to realise here upon earth, and ultimately in its perfection at the consummation, the will of God. No other term, I reply, could be so fitly employed. Consider what Christ came into the world to do. He came to establish an organisation that would ultimately destroy the kingdoms of this world. Naturally, then, that organisation is entitled a kingdom. Consider, again, how our Lord Jesus Christ came into the world as the Stronger than the strong man, to take away from him his armour in which he trusted. Satan, when the reins fell from the hands of our first father Adam, grasped the dominion, and became the ruler of this world. Jesus Christ came into the world to destroy the works of the devil, and to bring order where there had been chaos, to bring life where there had been desolation, light where darkness had reigned. What term could more appropriately express Christ's great work in opposition to the ruler of this world than that of a kingdom?—or, consider again, what Christ became by His incarnation—the second Adam, the heir of that inheritance which had been predicted in the 8th Psalm, when all things were to be put under Him! What term but "kingdom" could rightly express that universal dominion?—Or, consider again, how our Lord Jesus Christ has gone to receive, as the reward of His obedience unto death, honours so great that at last every tongue will confess, and every knee will bow, of things in heaven, of things in earth, and things under the earth, that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father. The word "church" is a grand title, but "the kingdom" is more comprehensive. The Church has been created for the kingdom; the kingdom was before the Church, and naturally, bearing these considerations in mind, we may understand how it is that the word "kingdom" is the great word of the New Testament.

But how different the phraseology and teaching of this nineteenth century! A few sentences will explain what I believe to be the simple facts of the case without any exaggeration. If you will take most compilations of hymns and look at the lists of the subjects at the end, scarcely any reference to the kingdom will be found. If you will take some theological treatises and consult the index, you may look in vain for any teaching about the kingdom. If you take even a concordance of scripture subjects, the kingdom occupies but a small space. There is a book now in circulation, of which I desire to speak with the utmost respect. It has already passed through a great number of editions; it is the work of one who has been greatly honoured in the Church of Christ to the conversion of souls. In this book the author draws a distinction between the "gospel of grace" and "the gospel of the kingdom." In the gospel of grace he says the Lord Jesus Christ offers the robe of righteousness which needs no washing; in the gospel of the kingdom the subjects are required to wash their robes in the blood of the Lamb. In the gospel of grace he says we are called to be children in the family of God; in the gospel of the kingdom we are called to be subjects only of His dominion. The gospel of the kingdom he says was preached by John the Baptist, and was preached by the Lord Jesus Christ himself until the time of His death, but since then the gospel of the kingdom has been suspended—"set aside for a time and interrupted." We are now living, he adds, under the dispensation of the gospel of grace, and the gospel of the kingdom will be revived again at the end. Then it will be preached; then the end will come. It is not so that I read my New Testament. I cannot distinguish between the gospel of grace and the gospel of the kingdom. This illustration, however, will serve to show you that the preacher does not exaggerate when he fears lest the very phrase "the kingdom of God" should cease to be current in our religious phraseology, and lest the teaching should cease to be a cardinal truth. This state of things, which is to be lamented, has arisen from different circumstances. (a) The great world-empires have passed away, and therefore, somewhat naturally, the idea of a world-wide kingdom of Christ on earth is not familiar. (b) The personality of Satan as the ruler of this world, with his principalities and powers, is, I fear, but little realised in the Christian Church, and therefore it may be that we fail to realise the greatness of that organisation—viz., the kingdom of God, which has been set up upon earth in order to destroy the kingdom of Satan. (c) In the growth of that materialism which exists on every side, and the increase of that wealth and that luxury which makes it hard to discriminate the lines between the Church and the world, there is a great danger lest we should lose sight of this kingdom of God here upon earth, as distinct from the kingdoms of the world. (d) When the Roman claim that the Pope was Christ's vicar on earth, exercising dominion over the kingdoms of the world, was destroyed, with it the idea of a visible kingdom of Christ was to some extent discredited.—Already, I believe, much mischief has been occasioned. Look at the want of reverence in the present day; how familiar men are with God! They forget the exhortation, "Wherefore, we receiving a kingdom that cannot be moved, let us have grace whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear."—Or, think again of the lack of unity in the Christian Church. The distinction betwixt those who have accepted the manifestation of Christ's kingdom, and who by the teaching and help of His Holy Spirit are seeking to realise it in their lives, and those who do not accept Christ's kingdom is tremendous. It is a great gulf which cannot be passed unless the grace of God leads a man across that great gulf. The differences which divide Christians—how trivial! They will assume their right proportions if we only realise the grandeur of the conception of the one kingdom of Christ here upon earth—that kingdom of Christ which is brought before us again and again in the Prayer Book as the Holy Catholic Church, the universal Church of Christ. A Roman moralist once protested to his countrymen: "Ye have turned your weapons against each other; when, combined, ye might have sacked Babylon. Shame upon you!" And when we look upon our own divisions and see how points which divide brother from brother, important but not all-important, are magnified and exaggerated, and, on the other hand, how slow is the advance of the kingdom, how dull is the conception of the Church of Christ in reference to its greatness, might not our Lord Jesus Christ rebuke His Church and say, "Shame on you! Ye are turning your weapons one against another, and are not seeking, first of all, the advance of My kingdom." If the kingdom of God were more preached there would be more unity.—Consider again our loss as regards righteousness. Very grand are the conceptions which are associated with the kingdom of God on earth—triumph of truth, abiding peace, universal righteousness. We look, however, on professing Christendom, and what do we see? Wars and rumours of wars, social corruption, spiritual decay; we witness commercial frauds, national ungodliness; and then when the Gospel is carried to the heathen, "the name" is blasphemed amongst them because of our opium traffic and the importation of that foul liquid which rots the bodies and destroys the souls of the dark sons of Africa. There is great need to preach the kingdom of God as a kingdom of righteousness; by all means let us dwell on the privileges connected with Christ's Church, but let us also enforce the requirements and responsibilities of the kingdom, and never forget that, if we have been saved, it is in order that we may serve. There would be more of that righteousness at home which we desire if we did think and speak of and enforce that kingdom of righteousness which is the expression of God's kingly rule—the doing of His will here upon earth.

And, lastly, we suffer from want of enthusiasm in the missionary cause because we do not realise the kingdom of God. Love has no limitation, and when once the kingdom of God has been set up in a man's heart, so that every thought is brought into captivity to the obedience of Christ, there are no exemptions, for the heart belongs to Christ; and what is true of the individual ought to be true of the world. There ought to be no exception, and yet men who profess and call themselves Christians, and who use the prayer "Thy kingdom come," talk about different nations having different religions suited to their circumstances and their clime. Ah! brethren, the Church at home needs to be baptized afresh with the outpouring of the Spirit of Pentecost. Then indeed we should witness a great revival. There is one historic incident which may supply an example and an encouragement for the extension of God's kingdom on earth, in our missionary efforts. Fifty years ago come Whitsun-week, the four Archbishops and thirty-nine Bishops of the Church of England and Ireland associated themselves together and put forth a declaration pleading that the Church of England, recognising the acquisition of new colonies and the formation of British communities in various parts of the world, should discharge her unquestionable duty of providing for the wants of her members in foreign lands, and should make a vigorous effort for the extension of the Colonial Episcopate. What has been the result? That effort "has transformed the face of the Anglican Communion throughout the world." At that time there were only ten bishoprics in foreign parts, and these all supported by Imperial or local funds, which, in seven cases out of the ten, have been withdrawn. At the present time there are eighty-two bishoprics, viz., one in Europe, sixteen in Asia, fourteen in Africa, twenty-one in North America, nine in the West Indies and South America, thirteen in Australia, and eight in New Zealand and the Pacific. Of this entire number fourteen are supported by missionary societies in England, and three more partly by endowment and partly by missionary societies. Has not the time arrived, we may ask, when our Archbishops and Bishops might put forth a declaration as to the duty of our Church with regard to the heathen world? and thus seek to awaken a true spirit of enthusiasm, in answer to prayer, for the advancement of God's glory by the extension of His kingdom to the ends of the earth.

Within the last fifty years a continent has been added to the Queen's dominions, in the South; an empire as large as China is now subject to the sway of the Queen of England in North America; accessions of territory with which Roman conquests seem small, are now recognised parts of her dominions. Oh! may we not say that it would be well if there were a similar and larger accession of spiritual territory in the heathen parts of the world.

There are signs to make us thankful. All this restlessness at home in reference to the home heathen, as manifested by the Church Army, the Salvation Army, the appeal for brotherhoods, societies seeking to carry the Gospel to the courts and to the alleys—all these are indications that the conscience of the nation has been roused, and is not satisfied with the present state of things. And when, on the other hand, we look to the days of intercession, when we see how the contributions to our Church Missionary Society are steadily rising, with the increase of £15,000 upon the last year; when we think how, during the year, not fewer than thirty-one clergymen have offered themselves to our Society alone; when we think of the rapid increase of the Missionary Gleaners' Union; when we think of the appeal from one conference for a thousand missionaries to step forward to assault the kingdom of darkness,—these things are a good omen. It is God Himself who, by His Holy Spirit, is stirring up the hearts of His people. I want, then, to-night to leave with you this one message, that we should all think more of the kingdom of God, that we should seek to realise it here upon earth, that we should seek to hasten that time when its consummation will be brought about by the return of the Lord Himself. The prophet of old, though a false prophet, when he looked upon Israel could say: "The Lord their God is with them, and the shout of a king is amongst them." We have not, brethren, the shout of a king. If an intelligent foreigner were asked what constituted the distinctive feature of the English Church, he might probably dwell upon our historic continuity, our ancient endowments, our parochial organisation, the beauty of our cathedral services, but assuredly he would not affirm that enthusiasm and self-denying effort for the extension of Christ's Kingdom in the world beyond our own shores distinguished us most of all, so long as the reproach can apply to us, in common with Protestant Christendom, that out of every 5,000 communicants 4,999 remain at home, and take no personal part in making known the good tidings of the kingdom to the other cities also. And yet, may it not be said of the Church, "therefore was it constituted," as of Christ, "therefore was I sent"? May God put it into all our hearts to think more, to anticipate more, to work more, to pray more, to give more for the extension of that kingdom! The time rapidly comes when the kingdoms of this world will become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ. Then it will be felt that no happiness in the world can compare with the happiness of that man who, having realised the good tidings of the kingdom of God in his own heart, has counted it all joy that he might preach it to "the other cities also."

REPORT,

&c., &c.

GENERAL REVIEW OF THE YEAR.

(READ IN EXETER HALL.)

"Hold fast—till I come." (Rev. ii. 25.)
"Occupy—till I come." (Luke xix. 13.)

REMINDED, by the coincidence of this Ninety-Second Anniversary with the Ascension Season, that He who ascended from Olivet to the Father's Throne shall in the fulness of time "so come in like manner," the Committee suggest to their friends, as the motto for the year's Report, these two commands of "that same Jesus."

Hold fast till I come: that is, as the context shows, Hold fast the "burden" laid upon you of witnessing for purity—purity of doctrine and purity of life. That burden the Committee in their experience year by year, and not least in the year under review, have found to be laid upon them by their Divine Lord; and they pray that neither they, nor their successors, nor the members of the Society at large, may ever shrink from carrying it, "till He come."

But to witness for the purity of the Gospel and for the purity of the Christian life is not the only duty—not even the primary duty—of the Church Missionary Society. There is another command which concerns it still more closely.

Occupy till I come: "trade" with the "pounds" lent to you by Him who went away as at this time, not only to "receive for Himself a Kingdom," but also "to return" and reckon with His servants. Great are the opportunities of thus "trading" which He has given to the Church Missionary Society. It is both for the Committee and for all members of the Society to use them zealously and faithfully, in full view of the fulfilment, it may be the near fulfilment, of "the promise of His coming."

How rapidly the opportunities of "trading" with the Master's "pounds" are multiplying will be seen from the brief and quite inadequate survey of the Society's work which the Committee can present in the half-hour allowed for this Report.

For some years the Committee have purposely relegated their report on the Funds to a subordinate place in this Annual Statement, in order to bring higher things into greater relative prominence. But this year they are constrained to put in the forefront the expression of their heartfelt thankfulness to God for a financial account favourable beyond all experience or expectation. It was stated last year that the expenditure was less than had been anticipated, owing to an unusually large amount of grants made in the year not being drawn within the year. These have fallen upon the year now under review; in which also the rise in the Indian exchanges has caused additional outlay. Moreover, the increasing number of Missionaries has involved largely increased charges, notwithstanding that a good proportion of the recent recruits are able to go out at their own expense. The result is that the Ordinary Mission Expenditure has gone up £24,000, and has reached no less a total than £239,208. Of this, £15,656 is covered by the Nyanza, Soudan, Extension, and other special Funds applicable to the Society's general work. The rest had to be met from the General Fund; and this seemed quite beyond the bounds of reasonable expectation. Nevertheless, the General Fund has proved sufficient, and left a surplus on the year of £74.

Expenditure

The General Fund, in fact, shows an increase on the year of over £15,000. Last year it was £208,516. This year it is £223,626. The increase is under all heads: £3,198 on Benefactions*; only £648 on Legacies; £1,557 on miscellaneous contributions paid direct to head-quarters; and £9,707 on Associations, which have sent up no less than £156,478. This last item is mainly due to a real advance in many important Associations; but two or three large exceptional gifts to them are included. It is still true that several towns and counties exhibit a downward and not an upward tendency; but, after the earnest words on this subject which the Committee ventured to utter last year, they are specially thankful for the encouragement afforded this year.

and Income.

In addition to the above, £15,792 has been received for those Special Funds which assist the Society's general work; and £8,319 for other Special Funds; making a grand total for the year of £247,737. This is much less than the grand total of last year; but that total included two gifts for investment amounting together to £30,000. The real comparison, it should always be remembered, is on the General Fund and Funds auxiliary thereto.

The Committee next briefly survey the mission-field.

In AFRICA, the Society's responsibilities are now heavy indeed. The Anglo-German Agreement arranged by Her Majesty's Government shortly after the last Anniversary has definitely committed Uganda, Usoga, and other inviting fields to British influence; and the substantial progress achieved by the Imperial British East Africa Company in opening up the wide territories entrusted to it is a challenge to the Church of Christ to occupy lands hitherto unreached by the messengers of the Gospel. Now the whole of these territories, from the East Coast to the Victoria Nyanza and round the northern shore of the Lake to Uganda, are the sphere of labour which, in the tacit division of Equatorial Africa among Protestant Missionary Societies, has fallen to the C.M.S. May God lay upon every member's heart the solemnity of the obligation thus incurred by the Society! Bishop Tucker's request for forty missionaries at once is a modest one; and he is now on his way back to England to obtain them. The Committee have mourned the loss of four brethren out of the party of ten commissioned last spring to reinforce the Nyanza Mission; but they thank God that the Bishop and four others safely reached Uganda, and they hope that ere long the speedier navigation of the Lake may be secured, through the generous efforts of Mr. Stanley and others to put a steamer upon its waters. Notwithstanding the sad condition of Uganda after the desolating civil wars of the last two or three years, the grave perils arising from the bitterness of the defeated Mohammedan party, and the presence of a large body of Roman Catholic adherents alongside those of the Society's Mission, and despite the imperfections of the Protestant Christians themselves in knowledge and in life, there is much that is encouraging and calls for fervent praise. "There are many among the Christians," writes Mr. Gordon, "who know Christ as a personal Saviour, who daily fight the Christian warfare against Satan, sin, and self, and who overcome." Three of the leaders have declined chieftainships in order that they may give themselves wholly to the work of the Lord among their countrymen. These men have taken an active part in the translation of the Bible and Prayer Book. Bishop Tucker writes: "How shall I find language to describe the wonderful work of God's grace which has been going on in the land? Truly the half was not told me." The day after his arrival (December 28) he addressed a thousand men and women gathered in the church they have built for themselves. Confirmation classes were at once formed, and on January 18th the first confirmation, of seventy well-tried converts, was held in Uganda. The Bishop also set apart at a solemn public service six of the leading men as licensed lay evangelists. This, he trusts, is the first step towards their becoming hereafter the first Native clergy in Uganda; and, meanwhile, their further training in the Word of God has been entrusted to Mr. Walker.

Towards the establishment of a Mission in the adjoining country of Usoga, an old friend has given the Society £1,000. On and near the coast the work is progressing; and the Committee cordially thank the Administrator of the Company's territories, Sir Francis de Winton, for much kindness and sympathy manifested to their brethren and sisters at Frere Town.

West Africa. On the West side of Africa, a revival of spiritual life in the Native Churches seems an essential pre-requisite to aggressive evangelistic work. The Committee look for much blessing on the recent appointment by the Bishop of Sierra Leone of a Diocesan Missioner, and they were glad to be able to accept as a missionary the clergyman so appointed. Meanwhile, the increase in the staff of the Yoruba and Niger Missions, mentioned in the last Report, has enabled fresh evangelistic journeys to be taken; and both the Lower and the Upper Niger parties sent out last year have found a ready entrance to the Pagan and Mohammedan populations respectively within their reach. The Niger Mission has gone through a period of great trial, concerning which full information has already been given to the members of the Society; and in this brief Report the Committee will only say four things. (1) Their inquiries made it clear that the provision hitherto made for the superintendence of the Mission was inadequate, and that the moral and spiritual condition of the congregations had much in it that was extremely lamentable. (2) Previous measures for the purification of the Mission from evil influences have had to be supplemented by further disconnexions of agents, while, on the other hand, some who had been doubted the Committee have felt able to retain. (3) They earnestly trust that the Rev. F. N. Eden may shortly return to the Mission with a band of faithful and devoted men whose life and teaching shall exercise an influence upon their African brethren which the latter greatly need. (4) The Soudan and Upper Niger missionaries have begun work hopefully (despite unlooked-for difficulties), and with unusual success in mastering the languages. Two more Cambridge men, and two ladies, have joined the staff.

The Niger.

Suakin. While the Central Soudan is being attacked by this little band, the Eastern Soudan has claimed the ministrations of the Cairo medical missionary, Dr. Harpur, for the famine-stricken people near Suakin. The Society has the responsibility of still holding the unused Gordon Memorial Fund, contributed for the evangelization of that part of Africa; and the Committee trust that ere long an entrance may be found for the Gospel there.

Another opportunity for the "trading" enjoined by the Ascended Lord has been set before the Committee by their old and valued fellow-worker, Bishop French, who, after forty years of missionary labour, is now devoting his old age to the MOHAMMEDAN LANDS OF WESTERN ASIA. Pleading the claims of Arabia on the Church of Christ, and finding the Society unable to advance thither at present, he has gone himself to Muscat, the Arab city whose importance has been pressed by General Haig and Alexander Mackay. In Persia, Mesopotamia, Palestine, and Egypt, the patient work of previous years has been carried on. There is in many places an encouraging readiness on the part of Mohammedans to hear the Word of God; and medical work and woman's work are especially useful in introducing the Gospel among them. But in these countries it is not the Mohammedans alone to whom the Society preaches the Gospel. The enlightenment of the Oriental Christians, long sunk in ignorance and superstition, has been an object of the Society's solicitude for three-quarters of a century. It is in connexion with this branch of the work that difficulties have lately been encountered in Palestine; but the Committee refrain from enlarging upon them in this Report, in view of the inquiry which his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury proposes to institute. They are assured of his sympathy with the Society and its missions generally, and they pray that through the goodness of God his interposition may tend to the spread of pure and undefiled religion in the "holy fields" once trodden by the feet of the Man Christ Jesus.

Bishop French at Muscat.

Palestine.

INDIA received just one-half of the reinforcement sent to the Society's fields last autumn. This was totally inadequate to the needs of the Missions in their diversified operations, but the Committee were glad to send (amongst others) four graduates for the further development of the work of Higher Christian Education, and four men (two of them clergymen) under the Associated-Evangelists Scheme. Among the features of special interest in the India work during the past year have been the arrival of Bishop Hodges in his new sphere, the Diocese of Travancore and Cochin; the completion by the Rev. J. Barton of his most helpful sojourn in Tinnevelly, and the adoption, at his suggestion, of several useful measures for increasing the efficiency of the Mission there and of the Native Church Organization; further visits of well-known mission-preachers from England and America, largely with a view to influencing the English-speaking Natives; numerous individual baptisms of great interest in Bengal and the North India Missions, some of them the fruit of the work of the Zenana ladies, not only in zenanas and schools, but still more in the villages. The failure of the Christian Church to use the opportunities God has given is painfully illustrated by the fact that the one hundred stations of the C.M.S. are served by one hundred and fifty-seven missionaries—clergymen, laymen, and ladies—or one missionary and a half to each station; and also by the recent incident of the Calcutta Divinity School being temporarily closed because its Principal had to leave to take charge of the wide and important Krishnagar District, and its Vice-Principal had to come home on sick leave. Nevertheless, there are many signs of real though silent advance. A Madras Native newspaper, whose editor is described as "a Hindu of the Hindus," lately pointed out the pre-eminence of the Christian section of the population as regards the education of women. In the education of men, the Christians (who are mostly poor) are relatively behind the Brahmins (who comprise the élite of the land), though ahead of all other Hindu castes and of the Mohammedans. But in female education, the Christians have outstripped the Brahmins. Another sign of the growing influence of the comparatively small Native Christian community was the fact that at the recent National Congress forty members were Christians, and that, few as they were, they succeeded in preventing the Congress meeting on Sunday. And if opposition is a sign of success, the outburst of Mohammedan fanaticism against the Zenana ladies at Peshawar, and the desperate activity of the Arya Samaj in defence of primitive Hinduism, may be noticed as grounds of encouragement.

Signs of Advance.

China.

The great extension of Missions recently in CHINA has been illustrated by the remarkable gathering of over four hundred brethren and sisters at Shanghai, and the tidings they brought of progress from north, south, east, and west. The demand of the Shanghai Conference for a thousand additional missionaries for China sounded startling; yet the supply of that number would only be equivalent in relation to the population to the sending of two men to Manchester or Liverpool, or of one to Birmingham or Bristol. The Committee trust that the Church Missionary Society may be enabled to take its share in providing this reinforcement for China; and steps are being already taken to extend its operations. In Western Kwan-tung, the much-neglected south-west corner of the Empire, Bishop Burdon and his medical and evangelistic fellow-workers have made important journeys into densely populated districts hitherto almost unvisited, and have penetrated into Kwang-si, the one remaining Province of China in which there is not a single missionary. In Fuh-kien, the extension reported last year has been maintained, chiefly through the labours of the Chinese medical evangelists trained by Dr. Taylor; and that seemingly impregnable fortress of heathenism, the city of Kiong-Ning-fu, which has more than once ignominiously expelled even Native preachers, has now been successfully visited by two devoted ladies of the Church of England Zenana Society. In Mid China, while the long-worked fields of Cheh-kiang are again yielding fruit, the Committee have authorized the establishment of a new Mission, by a pioneer party to be headed by the Rev. J. H. Horsburgh, in the remote western province of Sz-chuen, where several Church of England members of the China Inland Mission have for some time been at work. In the past year, the claims of China have been set forth amongst us with unique impressiveness by the Christian lady from Fuh-chow, Mrs. A. Hok. The Committee feel that a ready response to such fervent appeals as hers would be the best reparation the Church of Christ can make for the great national sin involved in the relations of England to China regarding the Opium Trade, at least in times gone by; and they heartily wish success to the efforts being made to rouse the public conscience upon that painful and humiliating subject. Opium Trade.

JAPAN has received the largest reinforcement relatively to the size of the Mission which has been sent out within the year under review. Including two engaged on the spot, eight men, three wives, and seven single ladies have been added to the staff. Among the former is one bearing the honoured name of Buxton, who has taken out a party of seven at entirely his own expense.* The urgent need still of labourers for Japan is shown by the fact that notwithstanding all that has been said of the prospects of the country embracing Christianity, there are to-day only 40,000 Protestant Christians in a population of forty millions, or one in a thousand; and those 40,000 Protestant Christians of both sexes, and all ages and classes, are outnumbered even by the priests of Buddhism. Progress has not been so rapid in the past year as in the three or four previous years. A strong anti-foreign feeling has been against it. The excessive independence of the Japanese is also shown by a Japan.

* The seven comprise himself, his wife, and two ladies, included in the eighteen mentioned above, and two men and the wife of one of them, not on the Society's roll.

tendency among the Christians to break away from orthodox lines. On the other hand, the presence in the new Japanese Parliament of fourteen Christians, and still more the election of a Christian to be President of the Lower House, are significant tokens of the position of Christianity in the country. Of direct fruits of the Society's Mission, one of the most interesting is the now Christian village of Oyamada, where four years ago the name of Christ was unknown, but where hundreds now worship in a church built by themselves, and where Bishop Bickersteth lately administered the Holy Communion to seventy-six persons.

New Parliament.

Other Missions.

The Committee can but barely mention several other Missions in passing: CEYLON, where the quiet persistent work among both Singhalese and Tamils has been greatly helped by the revival among the English planters reported last year, and where the blessing vouchsafed to Mr. Grubb's "Special Missions" still abides; MAURITIUS, which is receiving an old member of the Committee, in the person of Bishop Walsh, as the successor of Bishop Royston, who has retired after a laborious Episcopate of eighteen years; NEW ZEALAND, where the present condition of the Maori Church is one of the most striking illustrations on record of the beneficial influence of the Temperance movement; NORTH-WEST AMERICA and the NORTH PACIFIC, where the unwearied journeys, on snow-shoes or in canoes, of brethren like Bishops Horden and Bompas and Young and Ridley, have resulted in bringing Cree and Chipewyan, Tukudh and Eskimo, Tsimshean and Hydah, into the one flock under the One Shepherd.

A recent letter from Bishop Ridley, relating to his distress at having to send away unsatisfied an Indian chief who had come 250 miles to ask for a teacher, has had unusual success in touching the hearts of God's people and eliciting prayerful sympathy and substantial contributions. While thanking God for this, the Committee cannot forget that hundreds of similarly solemn calls might be sent from all parts of the mission-field, were there only an equally graphic pen to convey them. It was the realization of that real need of the wide world, which is so little thought of by English Christians amid the multiplicity of their own immediate interests, which led a few members of the Committee who found themselves together at Keswick last summer to address a joint letter to their brethren assembled in London, urging a fresh appeal for One Thousand Additional Missionaries in the next few years, and suggesting certain plans for the extension and development of the work. Such a request might be startling to weak faith, but appeals came in quickly from the various Missions for a share in the expected reinforcement, those in Asia alone asking for over four hundred for immediate requirements. The cry of "Home Heathen first" was raised; but seeing that out of every 5,000 communicants in Protestant Christendom, 4,999 stop at home, it does not seem that Foreign Missions are too exacting as yet. The particular suggestions of the Letter of July have received careful consideration, and one important result is the adoption by the Committee of a scheme for selecting, training, and employing in the field, a larger number of lay evangelists and others who will form part of the rank and file of the missionary army. The Committee fully propose to maintain a high standard in their selection of both men and women, and will relax no precaution against the admission of persons not really fitted for foreign work in a foreign language. But the increase of missionary interest in the classes of society more especially reached by the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations is producing its natural result in an increasing number of offers for foreign service from those classes, and it cannot be doubted that God is calling some, of intelligence of mind, tried character, and entire devotion to their Lord, to work among the Heathen.

Committee's action thereon.

Meanwhile, the Committee desire not to be ungrateful for the signal mercies of the past few years in respect of the supply of missionaries. In the year 1873–4 the Society's Income took a sudden leap upward, to a point not far short of what it has been the last few years. Taking that year as a basis of comparison, the following results appear:—In East Africa then, one missionary; now, thirty-six. In Palestine then, three, Egypt none, Mesopotamia none, Persia one; in these lands now, thirty-three. In Japan then, one; now, forty. In the North Pacific Mission then, two; now twelve. In the Dioceses of Moosonee, Saskatchewan, Calgary, Athabasca, Mackenzie, then, seven; now, twenty-one. The older Missions do not show such contrasts as these: still, North India and the Punjab have 114 instead of 70; China, 53 instead of 19; Ceylon, 20 instead of 12. Only South India and New Zealand have less. The total number of Missionaries, ordained, lay, and ladies, was then 230; now it is 440. There were then 143 Native clergymen; there are now 280, notwithstanding that many have died.

Missionary Candidates.

Again, it is just five years since the Society received a letter signed by thirty Cambridge men expressing their readiness to go to the foreign field if God's call were made clear to them. In the five years, sixty-six Cambridge graduates have been accepted. In the four years prior to that date, the whole number of graduates accepted, including men with medical degrees, was twenty-five; in the four years succeeding it was seventy-nine, and, adding the year just closed, the number is one hundred and three in the five years.

The candidates fully accepted by the Committee in the past year have numbered eighty,* comprising thirty-one clergymen, three medical men, sixteen other laymen, and thirty ladies.

Deaths. The obituary of the year is a heavy one. It comprises eight Vice-Presidents, viz., Archbishops Thomson and Magee, Bishop Parry, Lord Cottesloe, Sir Rivers Thompson, Admiral Prevost, Mr. Robert Williams, and the Rev. John Venn; two Honorary Life Governors, Canon Jarratt, and Mr. Hugh Evans of Liverpool, one Honorary Life Member, Miss Murray, of Whitehaven; Dr. Macfarlane, the oldest member of the Medical Board; Dr. Allan, for many years medical attendant at the College and the Children's Home; thirteen missionaries on the roll, viz., H. Williams of Krishnagar; Cotter, Hill, Dunn, and Hunt, of the Nyanza Mission; Harvey of Mid-China, Brayne of Lagos, Young of Mauritius; Mrs. Connor, Mrs. E. B. Clarke, Mrs. Bradburn, Mrs. Ellis, and Miss Valpy; fourteen retired missionaries,† including the veterans Hinderer and Maser of the Yoruba Mission; and six Native clergymen.

New V.P.'s, &c. On the other hand, the Bishops of Dover (Dr. Eden) and Mauritius (Dr. Walsh) and the Dean of Windsor (Dr. Eliot) have been added to the list of Vice-Presidents.‡ To the two vacancies in the list of Honorary Governors for Life, the Committee have nominated Mr. Alfred Sutton and Mr. Robert Williams; and they have added to the list of Honorary Members for Life the name of Miss Leakey, of Exeter.

Growing Interest. The Committee praise God for many evidences of growing missionary interest in many parts of the country, and interest of the best and truest kind, that which arises from a deepened sense of the claims of the Lord Jesus Christ upon His people for their personal service, whether rendered in the foreign field itself or in auxiliary work at home, in the Evangelization of the World.

* Not including candidates provisionally accepted by Sub-Committee for training. The eighty include eighteen graduates of Cambridge, fourteen of them in holy orders; two of Oxford, three of Dublin, one of Montreal, all in orders; three other clergymen, one of St. Aidan's and two of the London College of Divinity; two former missionaries of the Society re-engaged (Revs. A. H. Lash and R. P. Ashe); six Islington men ordained; three qualified medical men; twelve other laymen, of whom nine had been at Islington or Clapham; and thirty ladies. Of the whole number, five were enrolled in the mission-field.

‡ The new Bishops of Winchester, Rochester, and Worcester were already vice-Presidents.

It is especially a matter for thankfulness that the increased sympathy and prayer and effort are noticeable among the younger Members of the Church. Not so much among children, for they have always been forward in the missionary cause; but among the younger men and women of all classes of society. The evidence accumulates year by year that where these younger brethren and sisters are encouraged to band themselves together in one or other of the various Missionary Unions now so much valued, there a new or a revived spirit of prayerful interest is manifested. The rapidly increasing sale of the Society's publications of various kinds, which are constantly being added to and yet quite fail to meet the demand for all sorts of missionary literature, is emphatically a hopeful sign. And the far higher standard of missionary interest now looked for is illustrated by the fact that the recent February Simultaneous Meetings in the North of England and in Wales have been supposed to be less successful than those held in the same counties in 1886, although in reality their number and importance and influence were far greater.

Conclusion.

It is indeed good, and it is needful, that even the most fervent and untiring of the members of the Society should realize how little they and the whole Church are yet doing to prepare the way for the return of their Divine Lord by preaching the Gospel as a witness to all nations. Much has been said lately of the "submerged tenth" of the population of London; but few, comparatively, think of what has been well called the "submerged half," or rather the "submerged three-fourths," of the population of the world, sunk in the darkness of Paganism and Mohammedanism. It is not, however, the adhesion of nations and tribes to the mere outward profession of Christianity which the Committee look to as the goal of their efforts. Such a result of Missions, indeed, is not to be despised. It is no light thing to see the idols abolished and thousands under Christian instruction. But the history of the Church in all ages warns us against regarding this as the true end of our labours. The aim of the Church Missionary Society is the salvation of individual souls. It goes to the individual sinner and seeks to win him, not merely to the outward fellowship of a Church, however pure, but to the Lord Jesus Christ himself. It presents to them Him who "suffered death upon the Cross for our redemption," and "made there, by His one oblation of Himself once offered, a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction for the sins of the whole world." In this and in no other way does it aim at being used of God in the accomplishment of His great purpose in this dispensation, "to take out of the Gentiles a people for His Name." The Committee, therefore, would call upon their friends to resist the temptation of estimating success by numbers; to go forward with unmoved confidence, simply obeying the Lord's command to preach the Gospel to every creature; keeping always in remembrance the solemn yet animating fact that the Holy Ghost alone can truly convert a soul, and that He is able to do even that miracle of grace; looking with ardent expectation for the return of the All-Victorious Redeemer; abiding in Him, and thus being enabled to bring forth much fruit; so that "when He shall appear they may have confidence, and not be ashamed before Him at His coming."

AFRICA.

The opening of Africa:

In the political, commercial, and geographical annals of Europe, and especially in those of Great Britain, the name of Africa has been writ large during the past few years. It is with feelings not of exultation, but of profound responsibility, that the Committee recollect how closely related in the providence of God the history of the Society's work in this continent has been with the progress of its civilization. And when they contemplate the nature of the present multiplied opportunities, the vast regions rendered not only accessible, but hospitable and secure, the numerous tribes to whom have never come the feet of the messengers of peace, they are driven again and again to earnest prayer that the whole Church of Christ may be stirred by these striking providences to offer its sons and daughters and its material treasures to the Lord, whose they are, until the true Light shines on the dwellers in darkest Africa, the land of the shadow of death.

Its Population and Area.

A recent estimate of the population, &c., of Africa accords to Great Britain one-fifth of the total area of the Continent—viz., 2,351,936 out of 11,514,307 square miles—and nearly one-third of its total population—viz., 39,289,500 out of 127,038,379. Through the friendly negotiations of the British Government with Germany, Portugal, and France during the past year, enormous territories of the interior have been placed under the protection of these several governments. The Society's present Missions are only directly affected by the agreement made between England and Germany, which will be alluded to under the Eastern Equatorial Africa Mission. The Committee observe, however, with unfeigned thankfulness, that the powerful and influential commercial companies to which the administrative government of these new British territories has been assigned are manifesting a zealous concern for the moral welfare of their African subjects, and are restricting to the full extent of their power the importation of arms and of intoxicating spirits. In this course they have been encouraged by the decisions arrived at by the International Anti-Slavery Conference which met at Brussels between November, 1889, and July, 1890. The General Act of this Conference has been duly ratified by several of the Powers, but several months of anxious suspense intervened, owing to the reluctance of Holland to accede to a proposal authorizing the Congo Free State to levy duties on imported goods. The Act contains a series of measures calculated to repress the slave trade, prohibiting the importation of fire-arms, and providing for the establishment of strong stations in the interior to serve as refuges for the Native population. The roads followed by slave-dealers, and especially the places of crossing in the principal caravan routes, are to be watched, and caravans are to be stopped or pursued wherever it can be done legally. For the repression of the maritime slave trade the right to visit, search, and seize vessels under 500 tons burden has been conceded by the signatory Powers within a defined zone, which embraces the waters of the East Coast. Turkey and Persia are among these contracting Powers, and they have pledged themselves to prohibit the importation of slaves—"their transit, exit, as well as trade therein." Special restrictions on the traffic in alcoholic liquors are imposed, their introduction being forbidden to the districts where, for any cause, they are not already in use, and customs duties being prescribed in those regions to which such liquors have been imported.

The Society's Missions in Africa are: (1) WEST AFRICA—i.e., Sierra Leone and its neighbourhood; (2) YORUBA; (3) NIGER; and (4) EASTERN EQUATORIAL AFRICA. Egypt is a fifth, but it is more convenient to link that Mission with the other Missions to the Mohammedan lands of the East—Palestine and Persia. In the four missions above enumerated there are (including the Sierra Leone and Lagos Native Churches) 64 stations, 67 European Missionaries, 42 Native Clergymen, and about 308 Native lay agents.

WEST AFRICA MISSION.

Sierra Leone:

THE little peninsula of Sierra Leone—about the size of the Isle of Wight—was the scene of the Society's first settled operations, and for over seventy years the growth of the seed, sown in tears and often in blood, has been watched, now with joy and thankfulness, again with disappointment and humiliation, always with sincere interest and solicitude and hope. Outward progress has been indeed without interruption. From bands of miserable slaves brought from many quarters of Africa, and from previous bands of scarcely less miserable Negro colonists from America and the West Indies, have descended the thriving and intelligent shopkeepers, merchants, farmers, lawyers, doctors, Government officials, and clergymen, who are found to-day in the markets and streets and towns and Churches of the Colony, as well as at every port along a thousand miles of the coast. Would to God that it were possible to record the marks and evidences of as continuous a growth of vigorous spiritual life in the professing people of God, and that the Gospel which has sounded forth from Sierra Leone had been commended by simplicity of faith and purity of life and separation from the world on the part of those who have gone thence among the heathen! The history of the Yoruba and Niger Missions would then have been very different from what, alas, it has been.

The Committee and the Church at home have reason to humble themselves in that they have so little realized the dangers and temptations of all these infant Churches, and have so little cared for them and prayed for their welfare. Their rapid development in self-support and self-government has been boasted of to their hurt and hindrance, but for their spiritual health and growth too little sympathy and help have been forthcoming. Very earnestly would the Committee plead that the whole Society will unite with them in frequent and fervent prayer to Almighty God that He will bring them to full ripeness and perfectness of age in Christ; that He will pour out upon them His Holy Spirit to destroy and abolish all that remains of Satan's kingdom; that He will cause their faith and hope and love to grow exceedingly, and that they may be ready to every good work, and more especially to exert themselves for the salvation of those around them. Invitation to prayer.

Two appointments made during the past year have a special bearing upon this subject. One is that of the Rev. W. J. Humphrey, M.A., of Queen's College and Ridley Hall, Cambridge, curate of St. Peter's, Tunbridge Wells, to the Principalship of the Fourah Bay College, in which most of the young men of the Colony who will if spared occupy posts of influence on the West African Coast receive their final education, and where the future pastors of the Native Church are trained for their future work. Appointment of Rev. W. J. Humphrey,

The other appointment is of a special character, and has been made in response to a request by the Bishop of Sierra Leone that the Committee would provide for three years the stipend of a clergyman to labour as a Mission preacher for the spiritual advancement of the congregations of Sierra Leone and Lagos. The Committee accepted in December the Rev. J. Taylor Smith, of the London College of Divinity, Curate of St. Paul's, Norwood, who had offered for the post at the instance of Bishop Ingham, who has appointed him "Canon Missioner" attached to the Cathedral. The Bishop's authority regarding the Cathedral and its services was placed in peril last year by a ruling of the Chief Justice of the Colony that the Governor was, to all intents and purposes, the Dean and Chapter, and that the Bishop had no rights in the Cathedral except to a seat and to preach. This ruling has, however, been reversed by the Secretary of State, and the Governor in Council has declared that the Bishop has entire responsibility for the services, &c. The appointment at this time of a "Canon Missioner" is an indication given to the Colony of the Bishop's desire to make his Cathedral a centre of loving aggressive spiritual activities, extending an influence for good to all the parishes. And of Rev. J. Taylor Smith.

One whose labours of more than twenty years in Sierra Leone

Death of Rev. J. Warburton.

(from 1829 to 1850) had ceased before its first Bishop was consecrated, the Rev. John Warburton, sometime Vicar of South Malling, Lewes, was called to his heavenly rest, at the age of 85, in July last. He was present in 1841 at the leave-taking of Captains Trotter and Allan and Messrs. Schön and Crowther for the Niger Expedition; he was also present in 1844 when Messrs. Townsend and Gollmer were sent to commence the Yoruba Mission; and in 1845 he was present at the laying of the foundation stone of Fourah Bay College.

Ordinations.

The Revs. Edward Leversuch and Matthew Wilson were admitted to Priest's Orders on Whit Sunday, May 25, 1890. The Ordination Sermon, by the Rev. S. Spain, was printed in the C. M. Intelligencer at the Bishop's special request. The Rev. W. J. Humphrey took up the duties of the Secretariat of the Mission at the beginning of the present year.

SIERRA LEONE.

Mohammedan Mission.

The Mohammedan Mission is in its initial stage, the Rev. E. Leversuch's first year having been much broken by the duties of correspondence, &c., devolving upon him as acting-Secretary. He also gave help in the College by taking the senior Hebrew Class. The study of Yoruba and Arabic have been more akin to his proper work. He says:—

"Freetown a Babel."

> The language problem here is a very difficult one. Freetown is a very Babel. I should be afraid to say how many distinct languages are spoken. To begin with, the broken English is as difficult for an Englishman to understand as an African language, and the people have some difficulty in understanding English. My first attempt to speak by interpretation was a somewhat amusing one. I spoke to a large number of Moslems after their evening prayer. I first spoke to a student from the College, he spoke in broken English to a Moslem, who addressed one section of the audience in one language. After we had finished, another man spoke to another section in another language. Fortunately I did not attempt to preach, but simply told them why I had come. In a few days they sent me a reply by a deputation, saying they only wanted the Koran, that was enough for them; they did not want the Bible. They agreed with me that Jesus Christ was coming back to take the kingdom, but they added, "He will give it up to Mohammed."

Mr. Leversuch went in March to reside for a few weeks at Port Lokkoh for the purpose of studying Timneh, many of the Timnehs being nominally Mohammedans.

Fourah Bay College.

Fourah Bay College continued under the superintendence of the Rev. S. Spain, the Native senior tutor, until the autumn vacation, when Mr. Humphrey took charge. Twenty students were in the College during the year, fifteen of whom pursued the Arts course of Durham University, one the Theological course, two were preparing for the Certificate of Proficiency in General Knowledge, intending to proceed to England for the study of law or medicine, and two were schoolmaster-students supported by the S.P.C.K. The educational standard of the College has been well maintained, as the results of the various examinations prove. Six students passed the first year Arts in December and January; one passed the Preliminary Arts Examination for the degree of M.B. in March; two others gained the Certificate of Proficiency at the same time; two passed the final B.A. examination in June and five in December, viz., Charles N. Lewis, the senior student, S. J. S. Barlatt, J. S. Fanimokun, W. G. Nicol, S. C. Peyton, J. H. Pratt, and S. J. Taylor; and two, J. Pearse and C. N. Lewis, passed the final examination in Theology in June and December respectively. Mr. Spain says that since the Rev. S. A. Selwyn's visit the students have shown more readiness to go out and tell the glad tidings to others. Mr. Humphrey met with a warm and eager response when he told them of the band of "Santals" of his old parish of St. Peter's, Tunbridge Wells, and invited them to take up systematically the study of Foreign Missions. He has sent home a list of several students who have undertaken to give addresses on particular Missions. The services for Timnehs in the little College Chapel at Cline's Town have been well attended, over a hundred being sometimes crowded in. Many of these are from Port Lokkoh, Magbele and Mange, and other important towns in the interior, who visit Freetown to sell their produce, and return after a few days' stay. The Rev. S. Taylor, who usually preached the sermon, on Easter Day baptized a Timneh man after careful preparation.

Successes at Durham University.

The number of new pupils in the Grammar School was exceptionally large last year, and a fair proportion of them were under twelve years of age, which is a source of satisfaction to the Native Principal, the Rev. O. Moore, as hitherto parents have been unwilling to send their sons at so early an age. The Juvenile Missionary Association sent £42. 6*s*. 2*d*. to the Sierra Leone Church Missions. Mr. Moore testifies to the boys' readiness to contribute, and to their continued interest in the Bible Union:—

Grammar School.

Juvenile Missionary Association.

Bible Union.

After one of our Juvenile Missionary meetings—July 25—one of them stepped forward and placed on the collection plate 8*s*., all raised by themselves. In October they gave in the same manner another offering of 3*s*. 8½*d*. As their allowances are slender they must have exercised much self-denial in the matter. A pupil who left in the course of the year, and is earning only 20*s*. a month, sent to our Juvenile Association 5*s*. as a "Thank-offering." I mentioned in a previous letter a spontaneous movement among the younger members of our Bible Union, who shortly after Mr. Selwyn's Mission formed themselves into a special class for Bible-reading and prayers. I met and addressed them at intervals on purpose to test the seriousness and vitality of the movement. I am glad to say they have kept up well till now, and evinced no flagging interest in their purpose; and God's Spirit seems working with them. Older pupils have since joined them and submitted in this matter to the leadership of one not as old, and much below them in point of intellectual standing in the school. The leader of this movement leaves us this month, carrying with him the good opinion of us all.

Annie Walsh School.

The Annie Walsh Institution has been conducted by Miss E. Dunkley, the lady-Principal, and Miss H. Bisset, who have daily united in pleading for the souls of the girls under their care. The teachers also hold a weekly prayer-meeting on Thursdays. Miss Dunkley says:—

> Amongst so large a number of girls, one naturally expects a great variety of characters and dispositions; over many we rejoice that they give evidence of being true Christians, they are trying to live consistent lives and to serve faithfully the Saviour whom they love. Others there are who cause us much anxiety, but they are commended daily to Him who can alone change the heart, and we know that "He is able to keep that which is committed to Him."

Effects of Mr. Selwyn's Mission.

The emotions excited by Mr. Selwyn's addresses have proved, in some cases at least, to be not transient. "The change wrought upon some of the girls, the elder ones especially," Miss Bisset says, "was wonderful; and we can see that with many who then professed faith in Jesus, it has been no mere passing emotion—they show in their lives the reality of their profession." The membership of the Y.W.C.A. has increased to over sixty, and a small band of District Visitors has been formed to visit the districts where the Mohammedans and heathen, who flock in increasing numbers to Freetown, reside. A Sewing Guild also has been formed to make garments to be sent to the various stations of the Sierra Leone Church Missions, and the sum of £17 in cash was contributed, most of it out of their pocket-money, by the girls to the funds of the Missionary Society. Nearly all the seventy-three girls in the School are members of the Children's Scripture Union.

PORT LOKKOH.

Port Lokkoh.

The Rev. J. A. Alley has continued at this station, but he is on his way home for furlough, and the Rev. S. Taylor has taken his place. Port Lokkoh is situated on the caravan route to the interior, and is about 60 miles to the north east from Freetown at the head of the Sierra Leone river. Nothing very encouraging, as he himself justly says, is to be gleaned from Mr. Alley's report of the year's work. The statement in last year's Annual Report, that five adults had been baptized, was made under a misapprehension. The five were candidates for baptism, two of whom have since been baptized, but not the other three. The outstations, Makomp and Makori, are worked by three Catechists, Messrs. Elba, Cole and Turner. Mr. Leversuch visited these places in November, and he considered the work very promising, and that it evidenced good work on the part of these African agents. The night school at Makomp conducted from 7 to 8.30 P.M. in the open air, exposed to wind and rain, is very successful, Mr. Leversuch says. The senior class reads St. Mark's Gospel. Messrs. Elba and Cole have written a first standard reading book in Timneh, and have translated the Church Catechism. Many of the people of Makori have given up their krifis (stones used superstitiously as representing the spirits they worship), while many of the krifi-houses near the town, which the people are afraid to take down, are falling into decay. Some catechumens are being prepared for baptism. Mr. Alley has translated the books of Numbers and Deuteronomy, which are being printed by the British and Foreign Bible Society. Objects of superstition neglected.

YORUBA MISSION.

Badagry, 1845; Abeokuta, 1846; Ibadan, 1852; Lagos, 1852; Otta, 1852; Leke, 1875; Ode Onde, 1876.

Deaths: DAVID HINDERER and John Andrew Maser have followed in ripe old age, after a few years, to the home above, the two brethren, Henry Townsend and Charles Andrew Gollmer, whom they had followed after a like interval in their early manhood to the toils and dangers of the infant Yoruba Mission. As Gollmer's name is identified chiefly with Badagry and Lagos, and Townsend's with Abeokuta, so David Hinderer's is associated especially with Ibadan. The memoir of Mrs. Hinderer, his devoted wife, Seventeen Years in the Yoruba Country, has exercised a potent ministry in kindling a love for Africa. Mr. Hinderer came to this country from the Basle seminary in 1846, and, after passing through Islington College, was ordained and sailed for Africa in 1849. After labouring a few years in Abeokuta, he went forward to occupy Ibadan in 1853, and there during three years, 1862 to 1865, Mr. and Mrs. Hinderer endured much suffering, being shut off from communication with the coast by the war between the Ibadans and the Egbas. He came to England in 1869, and Mrs. Hinderer died in 1870. Four years later he returned again to Africa, and opened the Mission stations at Leke and Ondo. He finally retired in 1877, but he has done much valuable translation work since then in the Yoruba language for the Bible and Religious Tract Societies, and he carried on to the last a regular correspondence with the Native teachers in the Mission. The closing months of his life were spent at Bournemouth, much of the time in great physical suffering, but with abundant spiritual consolation. One morning, a friend writes, following on a night of intense agony, a beautiful smile was observed on his face. To the question, "Are you less weary?" he replied, "Hush!" adding in his own tongue, "Jehova ist hier; er ist wunderbar schön" (Jehovah is here; He is beyond all description beautiful). Three days later, on September 16, his devoted spirit was set free, and David Hinderer entered into the joy of his Lord.

Revs. David Hinderer,

J. A. Maser, Mr. Maser also was trained at the Basle seminary, and at Islington. He went out in 1852, and was ordained in the Mission by the Bishop of Sierra Leone, Bishop Vidal, deacon in 1853, and priest in 1854. He laboured in various stations during 32 years, interrupted by five visits to England, his last charge being Christ Church, Faji, and the secretariat of the Mission. He retired to Germany on his leaving Africa in 1884, where, after a short illness, he passed away on the 5th of December, on the 38th anniversary of the date of his sailing for the first time to the Mission.

Joseph Brayne.

Ten days after the veteran Hinderer, a young and promising labourer in this Mission was called by the Lord of the vineyard from the work to receive his hire. The Rev. Joseph Brayne was educated at the Society's Reading Preparatory Institution, and at Islington. He was ordained deacon by the Bishop of London on June 5, 1887, and priest by the Bishop of Sierra Leone, at Lagos, on May 6, 1888. He died on September 26, after less than three years of missionary service, but having already won by his gentle Christ-like influence the general confidence and affection of the Lagos Christian community. Mr. Brayne was to have been married in a few weeks to Miss Marion Goodall.

and James White; 52?

Two other deaths must be recorded. One is that of the Rev. James White, Native pastor of Ebute Meta, which occurred in April, 1890. He was the first to declare the Gospel in Lagos. On January 10, 1882, immediately after the British Vice-Consul had removed the usurper Kosoko, and restored Akitoze to the throne, James White, sent by the Rev. C. A. Gollmer, obtained an interview with the King; and on the following day, the Sabbath, preached twice before him and large assemblies from 1 Kings iii. 5–14, and from 1 Kings xviii. 21. He was ordained in 1857.

also of a Lagos merchant.

The other is that of Mr. I. H. Willoughby, a Lagos merchant, a leading member of the Native Church, and treasurer of its funds, which took place in July. It is stated of him that before the Mission of the Revs. S. W. Darwin Fox, and F. W. Dodd, in December, 1885, he used, like most other traders of Lagos, to sell gin and rum; but after that Mission he gave this up and suffered much pecuniarily in consequence. The Rev. T. Harding writes that he was "a very good example to old and young, during the latter years of his life, of what a Christian ought to be." The Rev. E. S. Willoughby, who is curate to the Rev. James Johnson, is his son.

The Rev. J. and Mrs. Vernall returned to Lagos in December. They were accompanied by Miss A. Davies, who was married to the Rev. S. S. Farrow, on December 9. Miss Julia Jennie Thomas has been appointed to this Mission, but has not yet sailed. The Bishop of Sierra Leone admitted Mr. J. S. Williams to deacon's orders at Sierra Leone, on May 25, Whit-Sunday, 1890.

LAGOS, AND THE COAST DISTRICT.

Christ Church, Faji.

Christ Church, Faji, continued under the Rev. T. Harding's charge until December, when it and the duties of the secretaryship of the Mission were transferred to the Rev. H. Tugwell. The Rev. R. Kidd took the duties of Christ Church and the Rev. J. Brayne the work of the secretariat during August and September, when Mr. Harding was absent from Lagos. Bishop Ingham confirmed thirty-one candidates in January (1890), one of them being a grandson of Bishop Crowther. Some evidence of increasing life has appeared; the classes have been better attended, and the contributions to the various funds have been more liberal. Women's Bible Classes have been conducted by Miss Goodall and Miss Higgins; and the Young Men's Bible Class, which Mr. Harding took himself, had an attendance usually of from fifty to seventy, and some of the members have formed themselves into an open-air preaching band. The Sunday morning congregation is about 230. They have added £50 to the previous year's subscriptions to the Lagos Native Pastorate, and have undertaken the entire support of the Faji Day School, the masters of which had previously been paid by the Society.

Training and Female Institutions.

After Mr. Brayne's death, and until the arrival of Mr. Vernall, Mr. Kidd carried on the Training Institution with its twenty-three students. Miss Goodall, the Lady Principal of the Female Institution, came home for a few months' change in January, and Miss Tynan was invited to Lagos from Abeokuta to assist Miss F. Higgins in the management of the school. These ladies and nearly all the teachers and monitors were ill together in February, but happily their illness proved of short duration. There are sixty pupils on the register. In December the Government Inspector highly complimented the ladies on the tone of the school as well as on the educational results. Sir Alfred Moloney presided at the Christmas examination and prize-giving.

Grammar School, self-supporting.

The Grammar School, under the Rev. Isaac Oluwole, continues to prosper. It is entirely self-supporting; the tuition fees of its seventy-seven pupils, apart from what is paid for board, amounted during the year to £313. 7*s*. 9*d*. In a competitive examination of school work held by the Government a little later, the Grammar School boys won thirteen out of nineteen secondary school prizes.

Two baptisms.

Two boys were baptized during the year with their parents' consent, one the son of a heathen, the other the son of a Mohammedan. Mr. Oluwole says:—

> We have endeavoured to bring prominently forward the highest aspect of our work. At prayers, during the hours set apart for religious subjects, and as often as opportunities offered, we have sought to bring Christ and His Spirit before our pupils; the power and evil of sin and its remedy, the great value of character. We have tried to impress upon them that, whatever may be their calling and station in life, they are the servants of Christ, and it is their highest duty to seek His glory.

Badagry.

BADAGRY is some forty miles from Lagos, along the lagoon westward, and was the first station to be occupied; but it has never proved a fruitful field. The Rev. D. Coker's returns show the total number of adherents to be 115, the same as last year, but the number of baptized Christians is now given as 79, whereas then it was 105. No explanation is offered. Badagry is only twenty miles from Porto Novo, the scene of a battle between the Dahomians and the French in April, in which, Mr. Coker says, about 2,000 Dahomians were killed.

INTERIOR MISSION: ABEOKUTA AND IBADAN.

Dahomian Incursion.

After the defeat, just referred to under Badagry, of the Dahomian army, they entered the Yoruba country and slew and captured a large number of the inhabitants of Itibo, and of other towns in the immediate neighbourhood of ABEOKUTA; but, rendered prudent by past experience, they did not venture to attack Abeokuta itself. Besides the number slain, which must have been considerable, it is estimated that between 1,200 and 1,300 were carried off into slavery; while some 12,000 sought asylum in Abeokuta, and the chiefs appear to have acted towards them with remarkable consideration. Most of the refugees were Yorubas, with whom the Egbas of Abeokuta have been at variance for many years, and some of the townspeople thought it a legitimate retaliation for past wrongs, real and supposed, to capture and enslave the fugitives in their helplessness. The chiefs, however, made a stringent law prohibiting such treatment, and threatening the punishment of death to any who should sell one of these refugees. The chiefs, moreover, made contributions in money to meet their immediate needs, and gave them land on which to build. This merciful conduct, so contrary to what the impulses of the unrenewed heart would suggest, the Rev. J. B. Wood justly claims to be an effect of the teaching and example of Missionaries. The Christians of Abeokuta were forward in following up the good example of the chiefs, and a Refuge Relief Committee was formed, consisting of all the ordained and lay agents, European and African, of the Wesleyan, Baptist, and Church Missionary Societies, and of some independent laymen, to take steps to collect funds and to administer relief. Lagos sent generous help—over £182 in money, and a large quantity of cloth and a case of medicines from the Colonial governor.

Merciful treatment of refugees by Abeokuta chiefs.

Generous help from Lagos.

Notwithstanding, however, these encouraging indications of the softening influence of the Gospel, and notwithstanding the association of the chiefs with the Christians in philanthropic labours, in January last an order was issued for the Missionaries to leave Abeokuta. This step appears to have been actuated by political motives, the English authorities at Lagos having incurred the displeasure of the Egba chiefs in some way or other. At all events, when, upon the order of expulsion becoming known, and it being further rumoured that the property of both the Missionaries and the Native Christians would be plundered as it was in 1867, the Christians, unknown to the Missionaries, showed a preparedness to resist attack, the order was promptly recalled. For this, thanksgiving was publicly returned to God on Sunday, January 18th.

Abeokuta staff.

The Mission staff at Abeokuta has consisted of the Rev. J. B. Wood, in general charge, and Mrs. Wood; the Rev. R. Kidd, who, however, was obliged to be at Lagos the latter half of the year; the Rev. S. S. Farrow; Miss Mary Tynan, who removed to Lagos in January, as already stated, but returned to Abeokuta in April; and Miss A. L. Wright, who arrived in March, 1890. The Rev. H. Tugwell was also residing at Abeokuta from March to July. Good progress has been made in the language by those who arrived in 1889 and 1890. Mr. Farrow has found the knowledge of medicine he acquired while at Islington of great service in gaining access to the people, as also in ministering to the Mission party; while the ladies have conducted classes for the instruction of children and the wives of agents.

The Pastorates.

The Pastorates connected with the Abeokuta Church Council have done well financially, ending the year with a good balance. Ninety adults were baptized. Mr. Wood's closer connexion with Ake (over which he accepted at the Bishop's request the responsibilities of pastor, having the Rev. D. O. Williams as his curate) has, however, shown him more of the weakness and failings of the people than he had before had an opportunity of observing, and what is true of this pastorate applies, he has no doubt, to the others also. "Much worldliness and indifference to spiritual religion," "a good deal that would not accord with social and moral laws," and "far too little attention given to evangelistic work"—these are the strongest of his observations. He adds, "We cannot rest satisfied with things as they are." Of the 300 (about) communicants on the rolls of the Ake congregation, one-third did not attend more than twice during last year, and about half of these did not attend even once. These are facts which need to be remembered in prayer. On the other hand, Miss Tynan presents a picture which shows that there is not wanting also matter for thanksgiving. She says:—

A Missionary Anniversary.

On Monday, November 3, there was a service held in Ake, and in succession in some of the other churches, on behalf of the Abeokuta Missionary Association, the proceeds of which go to the support of the farm stations. We went to the service here in Ake, and we agreed that we were never present at such a touchingly beautiful service. The congregation—a very large one—came up in order, bringing their offerings of coin or cowries in bowl, basin or calabash, they kneeling round the rail, each holding her or his offering, presented to Mr. Wood or Mr. D. O. Williams, who were inside the rails. Many offerings in kind were presented—maize, yams, beautiful bananas were brought here to the mission-house to be sold afterwards for the benefit of the fund. Many bundles of yams were placed near the pulpit in church, and one dear old woman brought up and laid down her offering of Native twigs for making brooms; it reminded me forcibly of George Herbert's beautiful lines.

Ibadan. The Rev. D. Olubi returns the number of baptized Christians in the three congregations within this township as 513, of whom 265 are communicants. The Revs. T. Harding and R. Kidd arrived at Ibadan at the end of January, and contemplated visiting Oyo, where the Rev. S. Johnson is pastor, and Ogbomosho in the course of the following month. Mr. Kidd looked forward to continuing at Ibadan.

ONDO MISSION.

Visit of Revs. T. Harding and H. Tugwell to Ondo, The report of the visit made in August and September by the Revs. T. Harding and H. Tugwell to ODE ONDO and ILESHA was published in the Intelligencer of March. Of their reception at the former place, and of a meeting of Church members held there, Mr. Harding wrote:—

August 15. All were delighted to see us and gave us a joyful welcome, and the first thing we did was to kneel down and thank God for His love and care. Numbers of people came to see us during the afternoon, but Mr. Phillips kindly sent most of them away again, as we were rather tired and wanted to rest. The Church members came to welcome us this morning and made us a present of a young bull, thus crowning their kind reception of us by feeding us. People came and went in a constant stream the whole day, and presents of a sheep, a goat, and yams were sent. By the evening I was tired with talking so much, but God must bless the message spoken to so many in faith and prayer. In the evening at 7 P.M. I had a talk to the elders of the Church, to prepare them for a meeting of all the Christians to be held on Monday morning.

At 7 A.M. we met all the Christians to have a talk with them about their work. We spoke of their irregularity in paying class fees, and of the church being their own, and therefore they should begin to become self-supporting. We pointed out that it was their duty to repair and, as they are able, to provide houses for their pastor and teachers. We tried to show them what their attitude and action ought to be towards slavery, polygamy, and the rum and gin trade.

Lantern slides were exhibited in the King's compound to about 3,000 people. Mr. Harding and Mr. Tugwell were thankful to observe generally proofs of good and real work done by the Rev. C. Phillips, the Native pastor. The Ondo Church and Mission premises have been since destroyed by fire. Regarding their visit to ILESHA, Mr. Harding says:— And Ilesha.

Some here, as at other places, are afraid to go to God's house, so we sent a message to the king about it. The result was that on the following Sunday the king sent his two head chiefs and about thirty other people to church. There was a very large congregation, and the Holy Spirit was with us. I drew several illustrations from the life of Daniel, and the king's messengers said in the church "that no one should be afraid to come to God's house." After the sermon thirty-six remained for the Communion. The Sunday-school and services all seemed to be well attended, and there is a reality connected with the work which speaks well. We visited the day-school, and were pleased to find about twenty heathen children who are coming regularly. This is a very hopeful part of the work.

European Ordained Missionaries, 6; European Female Teachers, 5.

NIGER MISSION.

Onitsha, 1857; Lokoja, 1865; Bonny, 1866; Brass, 1868; Asaba, 1875; Gbebe, reoccupied, 1879; Okrika, 1884; Ida, reoccupied, 1887; Ogbonoma (New Calabar), 1888; Obotshi, 1890.

THE plans for the reorganization of this Mission which were described in the last Annual Report were formed, as then stated, with the view to a more vigorous attack on the Mohammedanism of the interior, and for the purpose of stimulating and encouraging the staff of Native labourers, by the introduction of European Missionaries to co-operate with them. The sense of the necessity for the latter course had gradually forced itself on the Committee. From accumulated evidence they have had reason for the past several years to apprehend that some of the African teachers, both ordained and unordained, were too little diligent and conscientious in discharging their sacred duties. Again and again they have found it necessary to decline to continue in the Society's employment individuals about whose unsuitability for the work no room was left for doubt, while in the case of others regarding whose character and efficiency the evidence was less decisive it was impossible to feel a complete assurance that leniency was not being carried too far.

Introduction of European Missionaries.

The reports of the European Missionaries, from the time of their arrival in March 1890, and the minutes of the proceedings of the Niger Finance Committee in August, made it evident that the state of the Mission demanded remedies much more drastic than the Committee had been led to contemplate; and at an early stage of their deliberations on these anxious matters the Committee addressed a solemn and affectionate letter to the Agents and congregations, from which the following paragraph, instructing them regarding the Society's principle in the selection and support of its Agents, must be quoted:—

Committee's Letter to the African Agents.

> The Committee are solemnly determined, in humble dependence upon Divine strength, to give the Society's support only to Mission agencies and Mission agents, whether English or African, that are in their judgment "vessels meet for the Master's use." "Earthen vessels" they may be; we do not look for perfection in human instruments or instrumentalities; but we do deeply feel that true Missionary work is the setting forth of the Lord Jesus Christ both as Saviour and as King, and that this work must be done by those who, however feeble in themselves, do know Him as their Saviour and obey Him as their King, and who seek, by the power of the Holy Ghost, to be examples "in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity." Missionaries and teachers employed by the Church Missionary Society must not be merely men who can rebut particular charges of open sin, still less those of whom it can only be said that such charges are not proven. They must be men who in heart and word and life are the true and faithful servants of Christ. If the Society, in Africa or anywhere else, has ever seemed to tolerate a lower standard than this, it has been either from ignorance of the facts, or from a generous desire not to form harsh judgments. But now we feel it more necessary than ever to emphasise and to maintain the true standard of missionary character.

Cases of Individual Agents.

It has been in the spirit indicated in these words that the Committee have approached the consideration of the cases of individual agents. It would in most instances have been well-nigh impossible, had it seemed desirable, to investigate judicially the weight to be attached to specific charges affecting the moral character of individuals. It was enough for the Committee to consider from the nature of their work in the past whether they could be judged suitable employés of a Society whose principle it is to seek only spiritual men for spiritual work. On this ground the Committee have disconnected three African clergymen and four lay agents, and they have placed four other African clergymen under close European supervision. In the case of the lay agents, their disconnexion was recommended unanimously by the Niger Finance Committee, while in the case of the clergy, one of those disconnected had been placed under suspension by the Finance Committee, and the second had been in like manner suspended by the Rev. F. N. Eden, the Secretary of the Delta and Lower Niger Mission, under an erroneous impression regarding the powers attaching to his office. This mistaken view, for which the Committee attach no blame to Mr. Eden, but rather take blame to themselves for not more clearly defining his duties, led him into an action which was in every sense unfortunate, namely, the suspension of Archdeacon Crowther during the session of the Finance Committee. As regards the Archdeacon's ecclesiastical position such suspension was necessarily null and void, but the Committee are thankful that they were able to arrive at the conclusion, in which Mr. Eden concurred, that upon the merits of the case the action was undeserved.

The general conclusions arrived at by the Committee after a lengthened and prayerful investigation of the available testimony have been already published (in the Intelligencer for February 1891). A few paragraphs here will suffice to indicate the Committee's view of the past policy and methods of working the Mission.

The Committee's view regarding the past policy and methods,

A careful review of the past history of the Niger Mission in the light of its present condition has led to the conviction that, while at each stage in that history the Committee faithfully endeavoured to take such action as the circumstances of the Mission seemed at the time to demand, its present condition indicates only too clearly the inadequacy of the provision made for the superintendence of the Mission, and of the steps taken for its purification at certain crises in its history. For while the Committee devoutly thank God for valuable services rendered by African agents, as well as for some signal successes granted to the preaching of the Gospel in the past, and while there are hopeful and encouraging features which point to future success both on the river and in the interior, the moral and spiritual condition of the congregations generally has in it at the present time much that is extremely lamentable, and the prevailing ignorance of Divine truth and the low state of discipline are such as to call for serious consideration respecting the character and efficiency of the agency now at work. In making this painful statement the Sub-Committee have no desire to repudiate or minimise any share of the responsibility which may attach to the Committee, and it is but just to the Bishop to say that from the commencement of the Mission most serious difficulties have beset him and surrounded every station.

And in pursuance of these conclusions regarding the past the Committee arrived at the conviction that a still further introduction of European Missionaries is called for, in order that the Delta stations, as well as Onitsha and Lokoja, may have the presence, if God graciously supply them, of men of deep spirituality and of pastoral experience gained in home parishes.

It must be remembered that the Agents hitherto employed in the Mission, although Africans, have not been, with one or two exceptions, Natives of the Niger territories. They have been supplied from Lagos and from Sierra Leone. The Niger vernaculars are as much foreign languages to them as to Europeans. English is their adopted tongue, and in some cases, it is stated, the teaching in the schools has been, until a few years ago, conducted in English, and the English Prayer Book used for public worship. The Committee regard it as a matter of indispensable necessity that an indigenous Native agency be raised up; and they have decided to entrust the training of such in the future, so far as possible, only to European Missionaries.

Reinforcements.

The Committee have accepted the following for the Soudan and Upper Niger Mission: Mr. Reginald Callender, B.A., Christ's College, Cambridge; Mr. W. Harry Roberts, B.A., Corpus Christi College, Cambridge; Miss A. Griffin; and Miss A. L. Clapton.

After the August Finance Committee, alluded to above, it was thought well that the Rev. F. N. Eden should come to England to confer with the Committee regarding the Mission. Meanwhile Mr. G. Wilmot Brooke had an attack of typhoid fever, contracted at Onitsha during his visit for the Finance Committee, and it was felt necessary to send him and Mrs. Brooke to Madeira, and for Dr. Harford-Battersby to accompany them in medical attendance on Mr. Brooke. On the voyage Mr. Eden also developed symptoms of typhoid, which rendered it necessary for Dr. Battersby to come with him to this country, where they arrived at the beginning of November. Mr. and Mrs. Brooke came forward to England from Madeira in December. Dr. Battersby returned after three weeks stay, accompanied by Miss Clapton and Miss Griffin; when Akassa was reached, at the mouth of the Niger, he was prostrate under a sharp attack of fever of a specially malignant kind. From this he quickly recovered, but a second attack after he had proceeded up the river has necessitated his returning home once more, accompanied by Miss Clapton, also ill, and Miss Lewis.

Bishop Crowther.

Bishop Crowther, the Committee are thankful to know, has not experienced any suffering from the effects of the operation he underwent while in England last upon his eye. His activity since his return has been as remarkable as ever. In April, May, and June he made a tour of visitation, accompanied by Mr. Eden, to the stations of the Delta and Lower Niger. He attended the long and painful sittings—especially painful to him—of the Finance Committee in August. Part of September and the whole of October he spent at Tuwon and Nembe, awaiting an opportunity of getting back to Bonny, and at length, no prospect appearing of a passage by sea, he made the journey—a dangerous one in rough weather—through the creeks in a canoe.

Royal Niger Company.

It is a matter of satisfaction to observe that the Royal Niger Company, which possesses considerable powers, secured by charter from the British Government, took prompt advantage of the International Agreement arrived at at Brussels by absolutely prohibiting the importation of spirituous liquors for sale or barter within the jurisdiction of the Company north of the 7th parallel of north latitude. The Government has appointed Major Macdonald, who went out in 1889 as a Special Commissioner, British Consul for the Oil River region, with special powers, and to act practically as the representative of the Government on the Niger.

DELTA AND LOWER NIGER.

The Revs. F. N. Eden and H. H. Dobinson, and Mr. P. A. Bennett arrived at Akassa on March 16, 1890, but were unable to proceed up the river to Onitsha until a fortnight later. Mr. Eden's movements, until October when he returned home, have been already referred to. Mr. Dobinson took up temporarily the work of the secretaryship during Mr. Eden's absence. Mr. Bennett removed to Obotshi in June. Archdeacon Crowther went to Sierra Leone on furlough in September. The Rev. P. J. Williams was transferred to Ida from Lokoja in May.

Bonny.

The Rev. J. Boyle continues to labour at Bonny, where he reports the baptism of 25 youths and girls connected with St. Stephen's Schools on November 25, and of 56 men and 73 women on December 21. These adults had been under preparation and probation for periods varying from three to ten years. Mr. Boyle says there has been "improvement all round among the people, morally, socially, and spiritually." On Christmas Day the attendants at St. Stephen's numbered 2,020, notwithstanding bad weather, and on the following Sunday 2,500 crowded into the church, and large numbers remained outside and in the schoolroom, while others went away.

Tuwon.

The congregation at Tuwon, the port of Brass, has lost a faithful member by the death of Chief Samuel Sambo in April,

A few weeks before Mr. Eden, who, with others of the European Missionaries, spent several days at Tuwon awaiting an opportunity of going forward up the river, had written:—

Death of Chief Samuel Sambo.

On Wednesday (March 19) we had a busy day. After an early breakfast we all went off to call on Chief Sambo, whom you probably know well by name. We found he was not at all well, and had been laid up for several months. He was very glad to see us, and we had a most interesting conversation with him. He seems to be a really good Christian man, and being a powerful chief he has great influence for good in the whole neighbourhood. He has built, as you know, a prayer-house in the town close to his own house, where he invites his people morning and evening to prayers.

On Thursday Mr. Robinson and I went off again in the afternoon to see Chief Sambo, and to ask him if we might join his people at prayers morning and evening in his prayer-house while we were here. He was very pleased and asked us to come that evening. So at six o'clock, just as the sun was setting, we arrived at the prayer-house. Sambo came in first, leaning on his stick, and then he called one of his little boys to summon the people. He did so by standing at the door and whistling through a policeman's whistle in the shrillest tones. It must have been heard all over the town. Then the people came flocking in in twos and threes; the children sat upon the floor, and the older people upon forms, round the room. Sambo intended evidently to do us great honour. He had an armchair brought out for each of us, and we sat round the table in the centre of the room. While the people were coming in we sang them a quartette from Sankey's hymns, and then we had another in which some of them joined. After a short prayer, Mr. Robinson gave them an address on the vine and the branches, substituting the mango-tree for the vine to make it more intelligible to the people. Some of them can understand a little English. George, the chief's interpreter, interpreted the address into the Native language, as Mr. Robinson spoke in English. After the address Mr. Robinson offered up another prayer, which was interpreted sentence by sentence. Then they chose a hymn, which many of them knew, and this closed a most interesting service.

Nembe.

The Rev. S. Peters baptized thirty adults at Tuwon during the year. Nembe has been without a teacher during several months of the year. King Koko, mentioned in last year's Annual Report, has relapsed into heathenism, and has taken part with other heathens in boasting, on account of the absence of anyone to lead and instruct the Christians, that "juju has gained the day," "juju has driven God out of the country," &c. Mr. Peters wrote in November that the converts were trying to hold services in the Church on Sundays among themselves."

No report has been received of Mr. J. A. Pratt's work at Okrika, nor of the work at Ogbonoma under the Rev. J. D. Garrick. The King of the latter place has continued his opposition to his people's attending the Christian services. Abo, Osamare, and Alenso have lost their teachers from various causes; Messrs. Allen and Akpom were needed at Onitsha, and Mr. D. John through failure of health was sent to Lagos. There were signs of some encouragement at Abo and Osamare, but none at Alenso.

Onitsha.

The defection of the congregation at Onitsha, and the circumstances which led to it, were related in last year's Report,

In consequence of this there was no administration of the Holy Communion in the place during the greater part of the year. A class of inquirers has, however, been re-opened, and another for the instruction of such of the baptized Christians as showed an earnest desire to live godly, righteous, and sober lives. A few of the people have recognised the justice of and necessity for the discipline to which they have been subjected, but the evidences of deep contrition for sin have not yet appeared. Mr. Dobinson writes :—

Absence of Conviction of sin.

> While we cannot but feel that the hand of our God is with us here, and that a change is slowly taking place among the people, we have not yet seen any single instance of an overpowering conviction of sin. We have only observed an extraordinary absence of any realization of the nature and degradation of sin. Such a thing as sorrow for wrong-doing has not yet come under our notice, and I can only remember one occasion on which tears almost came from the eyes of one who had gone very far out of the way. We therefore feel that there is wanting the power of the Holy Spirit to move and warm their hearts. We get attention from dense crowds when preaching in the open air, but at present no inquiry afterwards about what was said.

Obotshi.

Obotshi, which is five miles from Onitsha, Mr. Dobinson describes as a "beautiful place." The Christians who were expelled from the town in September 1889, because they refused to surrender up the survivor of two twin children to be put to death according to the heathen custom, were permitted to return after a conference held with the King by the Onitsha Missionaries on April 19. Mr. J. H. Spencer, the Native Catechist, returned in June, and Mr. Bennett followed a few days later, the two brethren occupying together a small Native cottage. Mr. Spencer, however, was transferred to Asaba in the autumn. It was ascertained that the Christian Marriage Service had not yet been introduced, and that the Native Christians of this and of some other stations had been accustomed to observe the marriage customs prevailing among the heathen, by which some had been led into grievous sin. In July, two Christians, who had recently married according to the "country custom," were persuaded to receive Christian marriage, which was duly celebrated by Mr. Eden. A few months later Mr. Dobinson married two converts, the first who had not conformed to the heathen practices, and the general sense of the seriousness of this inroad on their usages was shown by the people's pertinacious endeavours by means of deputations, meetings, persuasions, and threats, to intimidate or persuade them to conform.

Heathen Marriage Customs.

Mr. Bennett writes hopefully of the prospects at Obotshi, and refers to some of the dark sins which abound among the heathen. He says :—

> Our congregations have increased from about fifty to seventy average. But this does not represent the actual work done ; much of our work has been, and is necessarily, preparatory. Many are, I know, convinced of the truth of our message, but are afraid to openly confess Christ in face of the rising hill of opposition, which arises from various reasons, but principally these: because an Obotshi becoming a Christian comes at once into direct opposition to their ancestral customs of killing twins and children born before the completion of their marriage ceremonies. Lately I have been making inquiries, and am convinced that 500 children are murdered in this way annually, and, as we do not cease to denounce such inhuman customs publicly and privately, the devil has stirred up much opposition; but I feel sure that victory is not far off, and before long at least one of these customs will be abandoned. Destruction of infant children.

Obotshi is an excellent centre for evangelistic work. Close around, within a radius of six or eight miles, are found several populous towns, some of which Mr. Bennett has visited accompanied by Native converts, receiving a hearty welcome and a ready hearing.

Mr. J. H. Spencer succeeded to the work at Asaba at the end of September. This station is on the western side of the river, opposite Onitsha; it is a large town, "full of kings, there are said to be 400 of them," Mr. Dobinson says. Here, also, the work is hopeful. The site of the Mission House by the water side has been bartered to the Royal Niger Company in exchange for a house which they are constructing in the town, and the King has presented a site for the new buildings, including a Church. Several of the people have expressed a desire to be married according to the Church's Marriage Service. Asaba, like Obotshi, has in its immediate neighbourhood a considerable population of Ibo-speaking people, among whom cruel rites, such as human sacrifice at the death of kings, are reported to be not uncommon. Mr. Dobinson and Mr. Spencer made a preaching excursion among these large towns in December. Asaba.

When the Niger Mission was commenced IDA, in the Igara country, was an important place, and its King claimed the country to the north, including Lokoja. Now, however, although a station of the Royal Niger Company, it is very isolated, being called at by steamers only at long intervals. It was first occupied in 1859, and was reoccupied by a catechist in 1887. The Rev. P. J. Williams went there in May, arriving on Whit Sunday, when he found fourteen present at the morning service and seven in the evening. Until a little before his arrival the services had been usually held under a large tree, and were liable to be prevented by bad weather. Mr. Williams collected a small sum of money and erected a building of bamboo poles, 42 feet by 24, which was grass-thatched and ready for use by the end of July, and the average attendance has since been forty-five in the morning, and thirty-six in the evening. Mr. Williams has translated the Order for Morning and Evening Prayer, the Litany, the Ante Communion, and the Collects into Igara; he has revised parts of the New Testament which he had previously translated, and commenced the translation of the Old Testament Proper Lessons Ida. Translation labours of an African Agent.

for the Sundays of the year; he has also revised his vocabulary of Igara words, collected 60 Native parables, and commenced a glossary of difficult words in the Holy Scriptures. There is a small class of inquirers.

SOUDAN AND UPPER NIGER.

THE Rev. J. A. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. G. Wilmot Brooke, the Rev. Eric Lewis and Miss Lewis, reached LOKOJA on Good Friday, April 4, and Dr. C. Harford-Battersby, who had made a short stay at Lagos en route, arrived on April 22. Political changes of some importance had taken place at Lokoja since Mr. Brooke had left it in the autumn of 1888. This place formerly belonged to the then powerful Kings of Ida, but was wrested from them some twenty-five years ago by the Amir of Nupé, and has since become the possession of various Nupé princes, who have levied unconscionably heavy taxes from the people. Encouraged by the weak rule of the present Amir the rapacity of these princes increased, and in September 1889 one of them entered the town and plundered the inhabitants, being followed a few days later by another still more powerful prince who assumed the authority of king. This conduct led the British Commissioner and the Agent-General of the Royal Niger Company to assert by a display of force the claims of the British Government acquired by purchase from the King of Ida thirty years before. The prince retired, and the British rule was formally re-established. Peace and security have since reigned, a condition of things of great consequence to the Mission, seeing that ladies were to form an important branch of the staff.

Political changes at Lokoja.

But while these circumstances and the easy accessibility of Lokoja by means of the Company's steamers give it great advantages as a Mission station, the multiplicity of languages spoken by its inhabitants renders it a place of peculiar difficulty. Hausas, Nupés, Yorubas, and Kakandas are found there in about equal proportions, with a large admixture of three or four other races in addition. Hausa and Nupé are, however, unquestionably the most important languages, both for work in the town itself, and for advance further into the interior, and to these the Missionaries have diligently applied themselves, commencing their labours with Mr. Brooke's assistance on the passage out. Mr. Lewis alone took up Nupé, the rest laboured at Hausa. With such success, by God's blessing, were their efforts attended that Mr. Robinson preached his first Hausa sermon on June 1, and Mr. Brooke was able at the same time to preach in the streets without notes or an interpreter. Mr. Lewis' tongue was loosed for preaching in Nupé by the end of the year. Dr. Battersby's studies have been interrupted by his four months' absence from the Mission, accompanying Mr. and Mrs.

Languages

European Staff.

Brooke to Madeira, and Mr. Eden to England, but he, as also the ladies, has made good progress.

Mr. Robinson was absent down the river initiating Mr. Eden into the duties of Secretary of the Lower Niger during the greater part of April, and subsequently the superintendence of house-building and other secular work, as well as a general responsibility as Secretary and joint leader for the direction of the whole Soudan Mission, made a heavy charge. It is a matter for deep thankfulness that his health has continued good, and that his mental and physical strength have borne the peculiarly heavy labours and cares of the year. Mr. Brooke devoted several hours daily during May and June to receiving Moslem visitors, and gave assistance in preparing a dictionary and sundry translations. Mr. Lewis took the pastoral charge of the congregation, and gave help in translation work by checking the same with the Greek. Dr. Battersby commenced his hospital work almost immediately after his arrival. Mrs. Brooke and Miss Lewis, in addition to the housekeeping responsibilities and the study of Hausa, started very soon direct efforts for the women, Mrs. Brooke taking a Bible Class and Miss Lewis visiting the female members of the Church, and nursing the hospital patients.

The Congregation was found to consist of about 100 attendants, of whom one third were children. There were 30 communicants; very few of them, however, were found to have an intelligent grasp of the plan of salvation, and it soon became sadly evident that a very low standard of morals was held to be consistent with an open confession of the Christian faith. It was endeavoured during the first three months, by careful and pointed instruction, to bring home to their minds and consciences the incompatibility of such a profession with notorious evil living, but without apparent effect. Most of them were settlers from Sierra Leone, whose parents had been taken to Lokoja by Dr. Baikie in 1857, others were English-speaking Sierra Leone young men—clerks and subordinate officials of the Royal Niger Company. The attitude of these latter is well expressed by Mr. Lewis, and it is not surprising, considering the influence which these comparatively well educated young men would naturally exert, that the words which describe them are applicable to the rest of the congregation. Mr. Lewis says:— Congregation.

My Bible-class and friendly intercourse with them soon revealed that beneath an outward profession of religion their moral standard of practice was terribly low. They enjoyed coming to class, they were quite ready to talk religiously; but when it became a question of giving up a life of sin if they wished to follow Christ, and to call themselves by His name—no! I was perplexed. At home the man who is living in open sin at least makes no pretence of being a Christian, nor does he attend prayer-meetings, and fill his lips with pious phraseology and Sankey's hymns. This strange combination was a totally new thing to me. A sad perplexity.

Measures of discipline,

It was accordingly deemed necessary to resort to strong measures of Church discipline, which promptly reduced the number of Communicants to about one-sixth of what they had been. With what feelings these painful steps were taken, and with what effects, is shown by the following quotation from Mr. Robinson's Annual Letter, written six months later :—

To friends at a distance, and in a country where Church discipline is unknown, it could not but appear somewhat harsh, and the outcome of an unreflecting zeal for a pure Church. It must also wear an aspect, which we could not deny, though the necessity for it we most humbly and earnestly deplored, viz., of reflecting unfavourably upon the former workers and their work. These thoughts were present to our minds at the time, and made us very conscious of our need of guidance by the Head of the Church. No step was taken without much prayer, and I believe that the sense of unworthiness, and of love and sorrow for the wandering sheep, which filled the hearts of those who were responsible for these measures, was also shown in the manner in which they were carried out. Nearly six months have now elapsed since we took these steps, and we have had no cause to regret what was done, but much reason to thank God that we were led to act as we did. This will appear if we review the effect of our action on those who were denied Church-membership. At first there was great astonishment ; such steps had never been deemed possible. Then followed indignation and questioning : why should we adopt so high a standard, and break down the work of our predecessors ? This caused a general abstention from public worship and instruction. After a few weeks there were signs of a better spirit, of searchings of heart as to the causes of their exclusion, of a return to instruction, of a desire to put away the open sins from among them. At the present time many of those who were excluded are seeking re-admission, and show signs of real repentance, so far as man can judge.

Writing a month later still, Mr. Lewis says :—

A new era.

We had the joy on Christmas Day of welcoming back into Church membership eleven persons out of seventeen applicants for readmission from among those who have been receiving regular instruction in the classes. This will, we believe, mark a new era in the work here ; for our people seem at last to have really taken in that if their life is to be changed their heart must be changed, and that it is possible in the strength of the Holy Spirit to live according to a Christian profession. They have just begun attending short daily prayers from 5.30 to 6 A.M., which hitherto have only been designed for the school children. We trust this will be a real help to them and bond of union.

Moslem visitors.

A considerable number of Moslem Visitors called upon the Missionaries, or were introduced to them by friends, from the time of their arrival, generally in parties of from three to six. Mr. Brooke had conversations with two men from Tripoli, one from Wadai, several from Gando, several from Sokoto City, and many from Kano, Bida, Kaffi, and Illorin. One of the chief Moslem teachers in Lokoja made several visits secretly by night to hear the Gospel read and explained. Mr. Brooke thus describes these interviews :—

They would generally arrive about 3 P.M., and send to call for me. Mats were then spread in the verandah and we would all sit down. Greetings were then exchanged at great length, and a moment's silence would follow, after which one of my Hausa friends would introduce the strangers and say that they had come to hear the Gospel read, or perhaps to hear the sermon of last Sunday repeated. I would then bring the Gospel translation to which he referred, transcribed in Arabic characters, and give it to them and read it with them. The native friend who had brought them would usually give the explanation which he himself had learnt two or three days previously. In several cases the paper read to them was taken away by them to copy, and returned the next day. The business-like manner in which the visitors came to get spiritual instruction, the keenness of their apprehension, their ability to read, all made it possible to evangelise a very considerable number in a very short time.

Hospital.

The first in-patient in the Hospital was a little Hausa boy who was both lame and blind. Early in June Dr. Battersby had five in-patients representing four different races—Hausa, Nupé, Yoruba, and Igbira; and of the little boy Dr. Battersby wrote, "he is now quite fat, very happy, I trust with a real knowledge of the Saviour, having abandoned his Arabic prayers, with very fair sight, and soon, I hope, he will be able to walk." Mr. Lewis gives a touching account of one of the in-patients, a Mohammedan, whom he was privileged to baptize on his death bed:—

A Mohammedan In-patient:

I think it was in June last that Mr. J. J. Williams, who is quite indefatigable in visiting the Natives, found a poor man lying at death's door uncared for in the Nupé quarter. He took me to see him, and between us with difficulty we induced him to come up to the hospital. He had a terrible abscess in the back, and was very weak, needing both our arms and frequent halts for breath to get him there. Soon after his admission the doctor had to pronounce his case a hopeless one, though he might linger long. Poor fellow, he had been sleeping on the damp ground under a low shed that was but a poor protection from the rain, apparently uncared for by any one. As far as we could find out he had no friends; but here the old or sick too often have no friends, and are just cast out to die when no longer of any use. He was not an inviting patient unless from a surgical point of view—dirty, ragged, sullen in manner, and never content, though he had certainly never known before what such care and attention were. But gradually he began to take an interest in the message daily given at the ward service; he became less querulous, and showed more appreciation of the efforts made both for his body and soul, and at last definitely professed faith in Jesus. He was frequently visited by Mr. J. J. Williams, who speaks his own tongue, the Yoruba.

About the middle of August, when Mr. Robinson and Mr. Brooke were away at the Finance Committee sitting at Onitsha, the doctor came one day and told me that there was a distinct change for the worse in his patient, Taiwo, and that he probably would not live many days, and urged upon me the duty of baptizing him while he remained in full possession of his powers, if he should desire it and give evidence of a real, intelligent faith in Jesus as his Saviour. So, with Mr. Williams to interpret for me, I had a long talk with him, and, finding that he appeared to have received the Gospel message with his heart, put before him the duty of confessing Christ by baptism. He welcomed the thought, and so next day, after consultation with Dr. Battersby and Mr. J. J. Williams, I examined him for Baptism, writing down his answers. They were so eminently satisfactory that we all felt it would be wrong to risk deferring his baptism until Mr. Robinson's return, which might not be for a fortnight or three weeks. His answers would be too long to give here. Two things I cannot refrain from mentioning which strengthened our belief in the reality of his profession of faith. When he expressed eagerness to be baptized I told him that it meant confessing to all the world that Christ was his Saviour: would he hesitate if those among whom he had lived in the town were invited to be present, that they might hear of the step he was taking? "Oh, no," he replied; "let them all come! Why not? Why should I be ashamed for them to hear the news?" All who know at all what it costs a Mohammedan to publicly profess faith in Christ will understand our joy and deep satisfaction at such an answer. One other proof we had—his face had changed from sullen discontent to bright peacefulness. It was impossible to help noticing it; no more complaints were heard, sure tokens of a change within.

His baptism,

His baptism took place in the hospital on the afternoon of August 20. Almost all our Church and class members were there, and a few Mohammedans. (The men from Taiwo's own compound, though they promised to be there, did not turn up.) The closest interest was evinced. I read the service in English, simplifying the words where necessary to make them intelligible; Mr. Williams translated sentence by sentence into Yoruba, and Mr. Bako into Nupé, so that all present could follow. We baptized him by the name of Yahaya (i.e. John) Taiwo, and Dr. Battersby and Mr. Williams stood as his witnesses. His answers, given audibly and unhesitatingly in spite of great weakness, in his own Yoruba, were translated into Nupé and English. In answer to the questions of the service, he not only professed faith in Jesus, the Messiah, the Son of God, but when I asked him emphatically, also renounced all faith in "the prophet" before all. At the close of the service our Church members pressed forward and gave him a warm welcome, which he evidently understood and appreciated. After his baptism he only lingered for a week, becoming almost immediately very much weaker; but to the last his faith never faltered. Again and again he said he had no fear of death, "he belonged to God, body and soul, and God would keep him night and day." Eight days after his baptism we once more assembled at the hospital to commit his body to the ground in sure and certain hope of a glorious resurrection.

Among the out-patients were numbered strangers from Kano, Sokoto, Bida, and Illorin. Dr. Battersby considered the visits to the homes of his patients the most encouraging part of his work. Everywhere he received a cordial welcome, even in some of the most influential Mohammedan households. Several of these out-patients became regular attendants at the Church services. Dr. Battersby also conducted a Children's Service by interpretation in the verandah of the Mission House.

The building which was formerly used for a Preparandi Institution was found to be too large and too pretentious to be suitable for the purposes of the Medical Mission, and it has been sold to the Royal Niger Company, who have erected on a beautiful site on the side of the mountain a hospital capable of receiving eighteen in-patients, as well as houses for the Missionaries, in part payment.

Through the little Hausa patient, Aboubekr, referred to above, Miss Lewis gained admission to his home, and thus an opening for work among the Hausa Moslem Women. She says:—

Moslem Women.

The women are always out in the compounds, cooking, and only disengaged for a short time in the afternoon. The time when it is cool enough for me to go out is only from 4 to 6 P.M. In the morning early, even if I could manage it (which, owing to household duties, has hitherto been impossible), they are all out marketing, or else too busy to listen. Of course at first they were all curious to see a white lady, and all crowded round with such excitement that to get them to listen was almost impossible. They were quite taken up in looking at my dress, hat, book or umbrella—everything but the things I wanted them to be interested in. I used to find then (and do still when I go to a fresh compound) that singing a little Gospel hymn, translated into very easy Hausa, was the only way to get their interest or attention.

Native dress.

The adoption of Native dress by the Missionaries is considered to have been a great help in obtaining a ready access to all classes of Natives, and the loose, flowing, Hausa garments are found much more comfortable and suitable to the climate than European clothes. Dr. Battersby wrote :—

The turban, I believe, is far the best protection from the sun ; the tobe or gown, which is very loose, admits of free ventilation, and at the same time can be modified to suit almost any change of weather, except rain. Below we have the loose trousers and sandals for the feet, very comfortable.

Translations.

Much time and attention has been given to the work of Scripture translation. The Native Agents, encouraged and assisted by the European Missionaries, have revised existing translations in Igbira, and Hausa, and Nupé ; and manuscript copies have been largely made of portions of the Hausa Scriptures, after revision, into the bold square form of the Arabic character, which is written and read all over the Hausa provinces, and some of these have been carried into the interior.

Gbebe.

Gbebe has a resident catechist, Mr. Obadiah Thomas, and has been visited once a week by one of the European Missionaries. A new church was opened in June, and there has been an average attendance of fifty-four and forty-seven in the mornings and afternoons respectively. Mr. Thomas has a Catechumens' Class of thirty members. A branch dispensary was opened here at the beginning of May. "There is much that is very cheering at Gbebe," Mr. Brooke wrote in May. "There is a little group of very true hearted though somewhat ignorant Christians who are very pleasant to meet after the apathetic professors who, for the present, hang round the work at Lokoja."

The station at Kipo Hill has been closed.

Statistics of the Niger Mission.

No statistics have been received. There are 4 European Ordained Missionaries ; 6 European Lay Missionaries ; 2 European Female Teachers (including the wife of the Missionary) ; 8 Native Clergy. According to the last Report the other statistics were : Native Lay Teachers, male, 19, female, 21 ; Native Christians baptized, 2,702 ; Catechumens, 785 ; Communicants, 902 ; Schools, 10 ; Scholars, boys, 280, girls, 246 ; Seminaries, 19 ; Native contributions, £332. 14*s.* 10*d.*

Bishop Tucker's Journey to the Lake.

SELDOM, surely, have travellers been so much upon the minds and hearts of God's praying children as have Bishop Tucker and his little band of Missionary companions in their journey from Zanzibar to the Victoria Lake. Leaving England on the evening of April 25, the day of his consecration, the Bishop arrived at Frere Town on May 14, having suffered, together with most of the passengers, from a dangerous sickness, due to some unascertained cause, on board the steamer which conveyed him from Aden to Mombasa. The following six weeks were very busy ones. The Bishop managed to see all the Missionaries associated with Frere Town, Rabai, and Chagga, except the Rev. A. R. Steggall. He ordained four deacons and two priests, and confirmed at Frere Town and Rabai 207 candidates, and he visited Zanzibar. At the end of the same month, after a very solemn farewell service and the administration of the Lord's Supper, he left Frere Town, and after some delay at the Coast, owing to difficulties experienced by Mr. Stokes in organising his immense trade caravan of 2,500 porters, with which the Bishop's party had arranged to travel, they started from Saadani on July 21. The Bishop's companions who went forward with him were the following: the Revs. Douglas A. L. Hooper, J. W. Dunn, and J. V. Dermott; and Messrs. G. L. Pilkington, G. K. Baskerville, F. C. Smith, and H. J. Hunt. Mamboia was reached on August 6, and Mpwapwa a fortnight later. At the latter place two of the Usagara missionaries were admitted to Priest's Orders, 80 candidates were confirmed, and a conference of the missionaries was held. Kisokwe was left August 25, and Usambiro reached by the Bishop, as usual a few days in advance of the rest, on October 18. Here, in the mysterious providence of God, the party was delayed for several weeks, during which the Bishop visited Nasa. On November 28 the C.M.S. boat Kulekwa arrived from Uganda, and on December 4 the Bishop, with Messrs. Hooper, Pilkington, Baskerville and Smith, sailed for Uganda, which they reached December 27. After four weeks, during which two of the Missionaries received Priest's Orders, and 70 Natives were confirmed, the Bishop and Mr. Hooper started on the return journey on January 22, and arrived at the Coast at the commencement of April. The Bishop reached England in May.

Travelling Mercies.

The journey was attended by many travelling mercies; "the Lord went before them" in very deed. In the first place, no previous caravan had accomplished the journey from the Coast to the Lake in so short a time—somewhat under three months. Then the health of several members of the party gradually improved as they proceeded. Messrs. Baskerville and Pilkington had attacks of fever at Frere Town, and they were a source of great anxiety during the early stages of the journey; but from Mpwapwa forward the whole party were well, and they arrived at the Lake, as one of them wrote, "in splendid health." And thirdly, they were preserved from dangers not a few, "perils of robbers," "perils in the wilderness"; "weariness and painfulness" they experienced, and "thirst" often. "I have swallowed more mud in water," the Bishop wrote, "during the last two months, than in all my life previously; and not only swallowed it, but swallowed it thankfully." While camping on the confines of Ugogo, the country to the west of Mpwapwa, the Bishop received the startling news that an Arab caravan of 500 porters had been almost utterly destroyed—men, women, and children all massacred—within a few miles of the Mission encampment. A few days later two German soldiers were murdered, about 20 of them under Lieut. Siegel having accompanied the caravan from Mpwapwa to Usonga, and the night of Saturday, September 6, was spent in hourly expectation of an attack, Mr. Stokes and a large part of the caravan being some distance in the rear. The Bishop wrote:—

Muddy water.

The German officer in command had only seventeen soldiers now left. It is true they were armed with breechloaders, but it was a force altogether insufficient to deal with the mass of men which filled the country in front. Our trust was in the Lord God Omnipotent. We placed men to watch during the night, and committed ourselves into the hands of our Keeper—the Keeper of Israel—who neither slumbereth nor sleepeth. I could not help being struck with the evening portion of "Daily Light," which I read as I turned into my tent: "Watchman, what of the night?" I slept from nine till four in the morning, and then rose. The lieutenant was of opinion that if an attack came it would be about half an hour before sunrise, that is to say, at about half-past five A.M. We were on the alert, but happily no attack came, and as the sun rose above the level of the plain we felt that we, through the goodness of God, had escaped a great danger. Of course you know that we (missionaries), as a party, are entirely unarmed. There is no doubt at all that had the Wagogo chosen to attack us during the night, they could easily have massacred the whole lot of us—even had we been armed. I do not regret in the very least coming without arms. We should not have used them, and they would only have been a temptation to the men and boys. A little after eight o'clock on Sunday morning Mr. Stokes arrived, and I felt at once that, humanly speaking, things would be arranged. The Master has indeed been with us, guiding, keeping, strengthening, and comforting us at all times.

An anxious night.

Missionaries unarmed.

God's mighty aid was indeed vouchsafed not only in defending His servants in all their dangers, but also in comforting them in all their adversities, of which they experienced not a few.

Deaths: Mr. J. D. M. Cotter,

The first words with which Bishop Tucker was greeted on arriving feeble and unwell at Mombasa were, "Cotter, dead." "Truly," he wrote, "I had fainted unless I had believed to see the goodness of the Lord. 'I was dumb, and opened not my mouth, for it was Thy doing.' These words only can describe the intense anguish of my mind when, with such tidings ringing in my ears, and feeling physically weak and ill, I set foot for the first time on the shores of Africa." Mr. Joseph D. M. Cotter was B.A. of Trinity College, and was also a student of Ridley Hall, Cambridge. He was one of three, the other two being Messrs. Baskerville and Pilkington, who had responded to Mr. Douglas Hooper's appeal at the close of 1889, and had been dismissed with Mr. Hooper the following January. One who was with him during his last moments forwarded the following touching details:—

On May 14th, at 10.45 in the morning, he peacefully passed into his last long sleep. His favourite text, to which he clung with an iron grasp, was, "The blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth from all sin." He would persist in having this text cut out of his Bible a few days before. He kept that bit of paper clutched tightly in his hand, and finally desired to keep it there, even in the grave. Dr. Edwards was with him at the last moment. Hooper and Smith arrived just after. Then the telegram was sent home: "Cotter at rest."

One of his last requests was, that Ishmael, the Native pastor, should bury him, as he was the pastor of the people for whom he had given his life. Another was that a copy of "Olney Hymns"—of which he was so fond—should be given to each one of us in Frere Town. And this we have now received, as a remembrance of one whom we loved.

A few weeks later, while Bishop Tucker was marshalling his little party of eight men at Saadani to commence their march up-country, the Divine Captain of the Lord's host said, "The people that are with thee are too many," and one of the eight was withdrawn. This was the Rev. J. W. H. Hill, who had sailed from England on May 10, one of four, at a few days' notice, as related in the last Annual Report. He was a graduate of Corpus Christi College and Ridley Hall, Cambridge, and had been accepted as a candidate for the Bishop of London's Trinity Ordination, having passed in the first class the Oxford and Cambridge Preliminary Examination; but through the sudden determination of his destination he was, instead, ordained deacon by Bishop Tucker at Frere Town on June 22. He was not thoroughly well from the time he left England, but his serious illness commenced at Saadani. By the advice of Dr. Wolfendale, a Medical Missionary of the London Missionary Society, who had crossed over from Zanzibar to see him, he was conveyed to the French Hospital at Zanzibar, where he died on July 20, tenderly nursed by Dr. Wolfendale, and by the members of the Universities' Mission. It was a great joy, as it would have been in any case, to Bishop Tucker, two months later, to have an opportunity of reciprocating Dr. Wolfendale's brotherly kindness by sending an armed escort to assist his caravan in the Ugogo country, and to lead it safely to the Bishop's own encampment.

And still again it is said, as to Gideon of old, "The people are yet too many." The eight have become seven, the seven must become five. The fatigues and perils of the long land journey safely surmounted, the great Lake which stretches to Uganda safely reached, at Usambiro, where Blackburn and Bishop Parker had died in 1888, and where Mackay had died nine months before, on November 14 and 20, of malarial fever, Mr. Horace James Hunt and the Rev. James W. Dunn departed this life in humble faith and hope. Mr. Hunt went out to East Africa in the employment of the Imperial British East Africa Company, and offered his services to the Society through Bishop Tucker at the Coast. He had been particularly well throughout the journey up-country; indeed, his fatal illness was the first he had experienced since reaching Africa twelve months before. "He was a man thoroughly in earnest," the Bishop wrote, "devoted to the work to which he had given himself, a consistent humble follower of the Saviour whom he loved." Mr. Dunn was another of the four who volunteered in May 1890 to go out at a few days' notice. He was an Islington student, and had passed the Oxford and Cambridge Preliminary Theological Examination in the first class, and was ordained deacon by Bishop Tucker at Frere Town on June 22. He was buried at sunrise, November 21, by the side of Mackay and Hunt, African children singing over his grave the hymn which he had taught them, "There'll be no parting," &c. The Rev. W. Allan, Vicar of St. James's, Bermondsey, in which parish Mr. Dunn had worked as a lay-agent for eighteen months before entering Islington, in the course of a sermon bearing very affectionate testimony to his zeal and humility, said:—

Mr. H. J. Hunt, and Rev. J. W. Dunn.

Our friend, Mr. Bambridge, knowing his value, had written home urging that he should be assigned to an important post then vacant in the North West of India, but just as he was engaged in the Examination Room, prior to his expected Ordination by the Bishop of London, and little expecting, perhaps little desiring, to be assigned to Central Africa, he heard the voice of Jesus calling him to go where our brother Pearson had gone before, and without a moment's hesitation he replied, "Here am I, send me." Individual preferences were cast to the winds, any question of likes and dislikes was banished from his mind; ordination at home, on which from a worldly point of view much depends, weighed not a feather in the scale; the matter of life or death he could leave calmly in the hands of God, and though the call never reached him until Wednesday evening, the 7th of May, by the end of the week he was on his way to Africa, having in the meantime bidden farewell to his mother and friends in Northumberland, received the instructions of the Committee, and made all the necessary preparations for his journey. The spirit in which he went forth is well shown by his own account of his final visit to his home: "On Friday I had a very happy time at home, though there was much sadness. In the evening at family prayer it especially seemed as though the Lord was truly near us. There were present a large number of our own friends. We sang together, 'When peace like a river attendeth my way.' Then we had a few suitable passages of Scripture, after which I led in prayer, during which time the true peace of mind I had was inexpressible. We finished by singing, 'Take my life, and let it be Consecrated, Lord, to Thee.' It was truly a time of renewing old vows. God grant I may ever have such true peace as is given only by the Lord Jesus Christ. I believe God has guided me in this affair, and I am rejoicing in the fact that I am now on my way to work that I have longed for for many years." I was present, like some of yourselves who attended at his own request, on the Saturday afternoon at his valedictory dismissal at Islington, and I was requested to commend him in prayer to God, but through deep emotion I could not do so, and requested that another might be asked to offer prayer instead. Truly did the Church Missionary Intelligencer say of that farewell meeting, "No one who was present will ever forget it. Few eyes were dry; an overwhelming sense of the Lord's presence and power filled the room."

Valedictory Dismissal of May, 1890.

Ordinations.

Those ordained at Frere Town by Bishop Tucker on Trinity Sunday, June 1, were the Revs. W. Morris and A. G. Smith, admitted to Priest's Orders, and Mr. Douglas A. L. Hooper to Deacon's Orders; and on June 22 Messrs. J. W. H. Hill, J. W. Dunn, and J. V. Dermott were admitted to Deacon's Orders. At Kisokwe, on August 24, the Bishop admitted the Revs. H. Cole and A. N. Wood to Priest's Orders. At Usambiro, on November 30, the Revs. D. A. L. Hooper and J. V. Dermott were admitted to Priest's Orders, and Mr. G. K. Baskerville to Deacon's Orders. And at Mengo, the capital of Uganda, on January 18, 1891, the Revs. E. C. Gordon and G. K. Baskerville were admitted to Priest's Orders.

Treaty between England and Germany.

The treaty between England and Germany, for the delimitation of East Africa which was effected in 1886, has been revised during the past year. The sultanate of Zanzibar, including the islands of Zanzibar and Pemba, is now placed under the sole protectorate of Great Britain. This important concession, which has been obtained by the surrender of Heligoland to Germany, will confer upon the British Government great advantages in its efforts to suppress the maritime slave trade. The boundary line of the region between the Victoria Lakes and the East Coast remains as fixed in 1886, and is shown on all recent maps of Africa. The territory, however, which Germany had previously claimed to the north of the British sphere of influence, is now recognised as under Great Britain, whose power now extends on the Coast to the mouth of the Juba River. But the most important effect of the present agreement to the Society's Eastern Equatorial Africa Mission is that which regards Uganda and the regions bordering the Victoria Lake. The first parallel of south latitude, which divides the Lake into two nearly equal parts, determines the boundaries of the respective spheres, Great Britain claiming the countries to the north and Germany those to the south. The line on the maps to the west of the lake indicates the boundary, the deflexion to the south is made to include the mountain Mfumbiro (10,000 feet high) within the British sphere. The line running north and south separates the two spheres from the Congo Free State.

Anti-Slavery Decree of Sultan of Zanzibar.

An early consequence of the recognition of British influence at Zanzibar was a decree which the Sultan issued on August 1, 1890, the 56th anniversary of the abolition of slavery in the British dominions, striking an effective blow at slavery in East Africa. By this Act all exchange, sale, or purchase of slaves, domestic or otherwise, is prohibited under severe penalties. Restrictions are placed on the inheritance of slaves. Arabs ill-treating their slaves are rendered liable to severe punishment. Every slave enjoys the same rights as other subjects to urge complaints or claims before the officers of justice, and is entitled to purchase his freedom at a fixed tariff.

Mr. H. M. Stanley's interview with the Committee.

The Committee recall with pleasure an interview with which Mr. H. M. Stanley favoured them on July 1, and the warm testimony that he bore to the character and work of the late Mr. Alexander Mackay, with whom he had spent three weeks, from August 28 to September 17, 1889, and to the constancy and consistency of the Uganda Christians whom he met in Ankoli. Of the latter he said :—

The Waganda Christian exiles.

> Now, I noticed that as soon as they left my presence, they went to their own little huts, and took out little books that they had in their pockets in their skirts. And one day I called Samuel to me and asked, "What book is that that you have? I did not know that Waganda read books." And that was the first time I knew they had the Gospel in Kiganda. Then I took greater interest, for I found that almost every one of the party had a small pamphlet in Kiganda—prayers, and the Gospel of Matthew, and, I think, of Luke. I remember very well seeing the word Mathaio, or Matthew, on the top of the book—on its title-page. I noticed that after the Conference, where the prince and leaders of Ankoli ceded their country, they retired to their huts and threw themselves upon the ground, and took out the books and began to read them; and they gathered together and began to talk.
> The more I heard the story of Zachariah and Samuel and others, looking at their cleanly faces, hearing them tell the story of how they endured the persecutions of Mwanga, I was carried back to the days of Nero and Caligula, how they persecuted the Christians at Rome; just the fortitude I had read in books of the martyrs of the early Church. Really there were instances here of equal courage, of equal faith, of equal devotion to the cause they had embraced. And I think the future of that country will be a very bright one indeed.

And a few months later, in a letter to the Times appealing to the public to supply funds to provide and place on the Victoria Lake a steamer for the service of the Missionaries, Mr. Stanley wrote :—

"The Pearl of Africa."

> The Germans call Uganda "the Pearl of Africa." It is rightly so called, both for its astonishing fertility of soil and the intelligence and number of its people. The Waganda number three millions, and are under the rule of one man and his Council of Chiefs, who have been converted, and are either Roman Catholics or Protestants. The Catholics are well directed and splendidly supported. Many tons of goods have been lately sent to them. German soldiers escorted them to the Lake, and German officials have been lately known to have expressed high approval of their methods of work. But whatsoever good thing may be said of the Roman Catholics may honestly be repeated by me of the Protestant missionaries in Uganda. They have laboured bravely and patiently at proselytizing the Pagans and teaching the children, they have been wonderfully successful; they have abstained from politics, they have neither meddled nor marred; they have borne their troubles meekly; their Bishop was foully murdered; another Bishop died, but the Mission continued its work until it triumphed. The Nero who persecuted them is now the Christian King of Uganda, the actual murderer is now a willing British subject. The ministers who urged the fatal deed have been replaced by devout Christians. Uganda itself is now British territory. Well, then, why should these missionaries, who have performed such a worthy work in their own sphere and who refrained from marring the political work that was being done by others, be neglected?

Testimony to Protestant Missionaries.

Reinforcements.

The Rev. Robert Pickering Ashe, B.A., having intimated his purpose to return to Uganda, was invited by the Committee to rejoin the Society as one of its Missionaries in that country, and accepted the invitation. He was one of the party which was led up by the Rev. J. Hannington (afterwards Bishop) in 1882 (the Rev. E. Gordon was another member of the party; so also were the Revs. J. Blackburn and W. J. Edmonds, both since dead), and was in Uganda from May, 1883, to August, 1886, that is, during the last year and a-half of Mtesa's reign, when numerous baptisms occurred, and during the first two years of Mwanga's reign, when the terrible persecutions of the Church took place. His book, The Two Kings of Uganda, gives a graphic account of the events of this period. The following have also been appointed to this Mission: the Rev. George Henry V. Greaves, B.A., of Corpus Christi College and Ridley Hall, Cambridge, Curate of St. Silas, Birmingham (the Rev. C. G. Baskerville's Parish); Mr. Gaskoin Wright, L.R.C.P., London, and M.R.C.S., of Manchester; Mr. E. H. Hubbard, a third year student of the Islington College; Mr. Walter Collins, who was under training at Clapham; Miss Eleanor S. Perrin; Miss Maria A. Ackerman; and Miss Mary Caroline Brewer. Another name must be added, of one whose appointment to the Mission has less entirely rested with the Committee, but who, they believe, as the wife of Dr. Edwards, will be a valuable accession to the staff—that of Miss M. Weitbrecht, Secretary of the Y.W.C.A., and sister of the Rev. Dr. H. U. Weitbrecht, of the Punjab. Except Miss Perrin and Miss Ackerman, who sailed in October, all the above sailed in May, as also did Mr. T. S. England, returning from furlough and from an interval of further theological training at Islington College. The following have come home: Mrs. Baxter in March; Mr. and Mrs. Burness in July; the Rev. H. Cole, of Kisokwe, in October; the Rev. H. T. and Mrs.

Robson in March; and the Rev. A. G. and Mrs. Smith, and the Rev. W. Morris, in May. Ill health was the cause which necessitated their return, with the exception of Mr. Cole and Mr. Morris, whose furloughs were due.

I. MOMBASA MISSION: FRERE TOWN AND RABAI.

Frere Town.

THE Secretary of the Mission, the Rev. H. K. Binns, who resides at FRERE TOWN, remarks upon the great changes which have taken place in this whole district since he left it to come home in 1888. One change, and that a pregnant one, is indicated by the fact that in August he was invited by Sir Francis de Winton, the Administrator of British East Africa, to publicly invoke God's blessing on the occasion of the commencement of a railway from the Coast towards the Victoria Lake. Bishop Tucker wrote a few days after his arrival:—

Bishop Tucker's first impressions.

I have scarcely had time yet to take in all that forces itself upon one's attention in this—in many respects—wonderful place. The beauty of the scenery and the delightfulness of the climate of course immediately challenge attention. They are both indeed wonderful. But, of course, with greater interest does the Christian look around him for signs of the blessings of the Gospel of Christ. And surely he is not disappointed; here is the girls' school, and there the boys'; and here the church. Hark! what song is that? It is the evening hymn being sung with a depth of feeling, a precision and beauty of resonance that would do honour to any school in England. The outward signs of God's blessing on the work are indeed many and great. God grant that I may not be disappointed as I penetrate (as I mean to do) beneath the surface.

As already mentioned, the Bishop held ordinations at Frere Town on Trinity Sunday and on June 29, and on June 19 he confirmed 52 candidates.

Schools.

The Boys' School was under the Rev. H. T. Robson until September, when Mr. Robson removed with his bride (née Miss E. C. Scott) to Shimba. Since that time the Native head master, James Deimler, has had entire charge. The number on the roll is 140, about one-half of whom are boarders—freed slaves and others—who are supported entirely by the Mission. The rest live with their parents, who are Wanyika settlers or former freed slaves. Four of the five pupil teachers reside with Mr. Binns, who makes a point of being much with the boys, especially at play and meal times. The Girls' School is the charge of Miss M. W. Harvey, assisted by Miss A. Wardlaw Ramsay and Miss E. S. Perrin. Miss Harvey writes in high terms of the Native women teachers; one especially, the daughter of the Native pastor, she describes as "my dear friend, who is perfectly competent to take charge of the school in my absence, one to whom I can turn for advice and help." There are 94 girls in the school. A quotation from a letter written by Miss Mabel Barton

(now Mrs. A. G. Smith), when she was helping in this school, furnishes a good example of a most real difficulty. Writing in July, Miss Barton said:—

Language difficulties.

A class which would simply be play if given in English, becomes a hard lesson in Swahili to the teacher out here. The language is so poor, one word having to do duty for six English ones. For instance, they use the same word for God's throne in heaven as they use for a tiny three-legged stool—all the chair they know of. What idea of the throne can they have? Also crown is the same word as turban. The children have never seen a crown, and must imagine that "a crown for little children" is something like the head-gear worn by the Arabs! The idea of "sacrifice" too—I wonder they can take it in at all. The word used for "offerings" means to them putting a few pice in the bag on Sundays. We think they must have wonderful intellects to have grasped what they have, and of course it falls upon us to explain all these words, which is not easy in a new language.

The Sunday Services, Mr. Binns says, are very well attended, and the people well-behaved and attentive. As many of them are now able to read, they join heartily in the psalms, singing, and responses. There is daily morning worship in church at 6.30, at which the attendance is also good. Except Saturdays classes are held each day in the week for catechumens, candidates for confirmation, and communicants. The Rev. I. M. Semler takes most of these classes. In his Annual Letter Mr. Semler makes an interesting allusion to the Protestant Waganda envoys who accompanied Mr. Jackson of the I.B.E.A. Company from Uganda to the Coast, who were at Frere Town in September. He says:—

Waganda Christians at Frere Town.

The Company's safari brought some of the Waganda Christians from King Mwanga, who are returning again to their own country with the Company. Oh! they told us pitiful stories about their persecution by the king, and their fight with the Arabs, and how thankful they are to God that the country is theirs. They were very anxious about books to take to their country to distribute to their countrymen; they were also very anxious to learn while they were here, especially the headmen, Samuel, Titus, and Noah. Samuel never got tired of sitting and asking questions. I used to be very glad for him to ask me several questions. He chose several verses from the New Testament to protest against the Roman Catholic religion in Uganda, which is a great confusion to them. They were very punctual in coming to the house of God on Sundays.

Hospital.

The Hospital at Frere Town is described by Dr. C. S. Edwards as "an old native hut, with additional sheds of poles and palm leaves, which afford what shelter they can to some forty to sixty patients." Miss M. R. Gedge visits the patients almost daily, and sings and reads to them in Kiswahili, and teaches them texts of Scripture. She says:—

The hospital has been a very happy bit of work, and it is encouraging to see the fixed attention and the patient way the poor sick folk repeat the text that is being taught, saying it over and over and over again, and then, when some kind friend comes to speak to them the "wonderful words of life," they listen with eyes and ears open, and carry away "the sweet story of old" to the different places from whence they come—and who can tell "whereunto it may grow"?

Dr. Edwards mentions several persons met with in the course of a journey by land from Melinde, who had been treated by him at Frere Town, or whose relatives had been so treated, and invariably he found a readiness on their part to return his kindness in such ways as they could.

Mombasa

On the island of MOMBASA, the Sultan of Zanzibar has generously given a convenient site of some twenty acres for a hospital and doctor's residence, and Dr. Edwards has commenced building operations, for the cost of which he has undertaken the responsibility. The site is on the north of the island, immediately opposite Frere Town.

New Station at Railway Point;

RAILWAY POINT is a new station which the Rev. F. Burt occupied in October. It is on the mainland, opposite the west side of Mombasa, where was a Native village called Changamwe. At this point the new railway takes its start, and a large number of the Wanyika, also people from Rabai and Fuladoyo, many of them escaped slaves anxious to work out their freedom, have gathered. Mr. Burt is assisted by Paulos, the Catechist, who was previously working in the Giriama country.

It was mentioned in last year's Report that the inhabitants of the district around Mwaiba were migrating northwards towards the Sabaki river. It was decided by Bishop Tucker in May, in conference with the Missionaries, to request the Rev. A. G. Smith to visit JILORE, a place about twenty-four miles from Melinde, which he did, returning to Frere Town for the ordination on Trinity Sunday. Mr. Binns had previously spent some weeks there, and built a small cottage, &c., and Mr. Smith, accompanied by Messrs. Cotter and Baskerville, made a tour thither, returning by land, in April. In September, soon after Mr. Smith's marriage with Miss M. Barton, Mr. and Mrs. Smith took up their residence at this place. In October, in consequence of the reprisals of the British Government against the Sultan of Witu, Sir Francis de Winton advised Mr. and Mrs. Smith to remove temporarily to Melinde, and there Mr. Smith had a bad illness. They returned early in December, but have since come home. Mwaiba has now only the catechist Andreas as a resident teacher.

And Jilore.

Rabai.

On the departure for home of Mr. and Mrs. Burness, in June, the Rev. E. A. Fitch, and his sister, Miss Caroline Fitch, at the Bishop's request, took up their abode at RABAI. The increasing population owes a debt of gratitude to Mr. Burness and to Dr. Edwards, for making a reservoir to safeguard them against the effects of drought. Mr. Fitch, whom the Bishop has appointed his examining Chaplain, has recommenced a Divinity Class with four students, all married men, whose support is debited to the Native Missionary Fund, which fund also supplied the cost of erecting their houses. Miss Fitch has charge of the Girls' School, and Miss M. L. Holmes labours among the women. Miss M. A. Ackerman is also stationed at Rabai, where she is engaged in the study of the language. There is a morning service at 6.30, and the Native pastor, the Rev. W. H. Jones, takes classes daily for inquirers and others. After a careful examination by Mr. Binns, 78 adults were baptized in the early part of the year, and the Bishop confirmed, in June, 138 candidates. The Rev. W. E. Butcher, chaplain on board H.M.S. Conquest, visited Rabai with the Bishop on this occasion, and wrote a very pleasing account to the Gleaner. He said:—

A Naval Chaplain at Rabai.

> At nine came Sunday-school. A most pleasing sight this was; as many as eighty-six scholars were present, as well-behaved and attentive as any I have seen anywhere; I am sure their teachers, Mr. and Mrs. Burness, Miss Holmes, Miss Scott, and some Native young men, converts, must rejoice in their scholars. Mr. Burness gave me an opportunity of addressing them. And the Native teacher who kindly interpreted for me thanked me as I left for the "words I had spoken." I have spoken of the Sunday-school as a most pleasing sight: how shall I describe the impression which the morning and afternoon services left on me? Simply most inspiriting. To find a large church crowded with worshippers, some 400 I should think being present, and all so mindful, seemingly, of why they were there, so decorous and earnest, was indeed most cheering, and one that may well encourage us Gleaners in our desire to further our Master's last recorded command. At the morning service a very bright-looking lad was baptized by Mr. Jones, the Native pastor, who had prepared him as well as the candidates for confirmation; he also took the greater part of the service, Mr. Robson preaching in Swahili. The afternoon service was almost as well attended. Something like 150 candidates, almost all fully grown men and women, a remarkable sight to myself, who had never before witnessed a confirmation in the Mission-field, were offering themselves for that rite. The Bishop, with Mr. Jones as his interpreter, spoke to them of the decided step they were taking, and of what, by God's grace, was expected of them; and having exhorted and encouraged them, he laid his hands on them.
> In the little daylight that was left us we had a quiet stroll, and, after our evening meal, we met with the lads to have some singing, bringing back to my mind Sunday evenings in the old country. It was again a most pleasing sight on the Monday morning to find as many as 200 present at the 6.30 service, for what could be more helpful to the Rabai people than to begin the day with a hymn of praise, and prayers to a loving Father, and to listen to some Bible story and a word of exhortation from their pastor? Truly it did seem that the people of Rabai were in earnest.

Confirmation Service.

Among those confirmed was a chief of Kisimani, an out-station, where Jonah Mitchell, a catechist, is stationed. At this place, as also Chaa-Ngombe, there is a small church. Mr. Jones says:—

> During the week-days, when nothing prevents, I go preaching among the Wanyika. These people are not very far from the kingdom of God. Many of the superstitious, cruel, and wicked customs of these people have now ceased. Infanticide is becoming a thing of the past. Many of their foolish sacrifices to the dead are now forgotten. They all observe the Christian Sabbath, on which day they cease from all their manual work. On the Lord's Day many of them attend the service at our church.

Dr. E. J. Baxter, finding few opportunities at SHIMBA for his medical work, was instructed to go forward to Mochi in June, and was succeeded by the Rev. W. Morris. The Rev. F. Burt and the Rev. H. T. and Mrs. Robson were also stationed at Shimba for a few months. The objects aimed at in choosing this station were the formation of an agricultural settlement for youths after their passing through the Frere Town Schools, and to obtain a sanatorium for the European Missionaries. It has not, however, proved so healthy as was hoped, and the need for such a settlement as was proposed is not felt in the same degree since the advent of the I.B.E.A. Company. The few people at Shimba are mostly settlers from Frere Town and Rabai, and in respect to thrift and industry they are but little in advance of the Heathen Natives around them. Almost all in the place regularly attend the daily services, and there are small classes for adults and a school of 13 children. Mr. Morris' chief work consisted in itinerating among the Wadigo, who generally manifested interest in his message. He wrote :— Shimba.

As I travel very lightly, rarely taking more than one or two men, and wear Native sandals, except for long distances, sitting with the people Indian fashion, and sleeping in a small calico tent I made, the people often call me the "poor man," especially as I do not carry many pice, so that is rather a good thing, and in consequence I am not troubled much. You may be interested to hear that my general name is the "Mtu wa bara" ("the man of the wilderness"). "The Man of the Wilderness."

II. CHAGGA.

SAGALLA, the station in the Taita country, about 100 miles from Frere Town, which had been occupied since 1883, with very slight encouragement, was vacated in May, the catechist Jeremiah being transferred to Shimba. The Rev. W. Morris spent several weeks there in March and April. The Rev. A. R. Steggall has continued at MOCHI, which is some 80 miles further from the coast than Sagalla. Mr. Morris left in the spring, and Dr. E. J. Baxter arrived in July. Mr. Steggall considers the immediate prospects decidedly hopeful. Since May, when Mr. Binns, accompanied by Mr. Pilkington, visited Mochi and had a satisfactory interview with the Chief Mandara, all opposition has been withdrawn to youths attending school. For the few months previously a few lads had visited the Mission with more or less regularity, but it had to be done clandestinely, and the teaching conducted in a darkened room and in whispers for fear of detection. Since May the average daily attendance has been about seven. An increasing number has been present at the Sunday morning service, at which Kichagga prayers and hymns are gradually, as Mr. Steggall's knowledge of the language increases, superseding those in Kiswahili, which is understood by some of the people. Sagalla. Boys' School.

During three months Dr. Baxter treated 500 patients, and he had several interviews with Mandara, who calls him his Mzee, or elder. At Taveta, which is thirty miles nearer the Coast than Mochi, and, unlike Chagga, is within the British sphere of influence, Mr. Steggall has been much encouraged by the readiness of the people to listen to the Gospel whenever he has visited them. A Taveta boy named Nene, who joined Mr. Steggall on his journey up from the Coast, has continued with him, proving an apt pupil, and giving in his turn considerable help in translating St. John's Gospel. Mr. Steggall describes him as "a model boy, most willing to work, most eager to get on, most useful as an interpreter, and, I fully believe, a faithful lover of the Lord Jesus." This youth went in January to Taveta where he was engaged in teaching several other boys to read. The Creed, the Lord's Prayer, the Ten Commandments, the General Confession, and John iii. 16., have been printed in Kitaveta at the small Mission press.

III. USAGARA, U-NYAMWEZI, &c.

UNLIKE 1889, the past year was one of freedom from alarm and of regular communications. The Bishop visited the stations on his way to and from the Lake, and one of the party which accompanied him, the Rev. J. V. Dermott, was left at Nasa to labour in conjunction with Mr. Deekes.

USAGARA MISSION: MAMBOIA AND MPWAPWA.

Mamboia.

The Rev. A. N. Wood has baptized seven adults at MAMBOIA, all Wamegi except one, the wife of Tofiki, the Mganda convert who has assisted Mr. Wood since 1886; she is a Unyamwezi. Four of them are youths, who, Mr. Wood says, are "splendid helps" in itinerating tours and in translation work. Mr. Wood was married in October, at Zanzibar, to Miss E. Bentley. Both suffered from illness at the close of the year, which interrupted work, but in January the classes of catechumens and others were again in progress, also a sewing class of about twenty. Fifty hymns, morning and evening prayer, reading lessons, the baptismal and marriage services have been translated by Mr. Wood.

Mpwapwa.

"The increased interest shown by the people of MPWAPWA in the Gospel," the Rev. J. C. Price writes, "has been an ample reward for all we went through last year, and a sufficient justification of our perseverance in refusing to act on the Consul's wish that we should leave the country with the escort he sent to fetch us." About 200, including several headmen, have given their names, expressing a wish to be taught more about the Gospel. The outer walls of the Mission-house, which were nearly all that Bushiri left standing in July 1889, have been roofed over, and serve as a schoolroom and church. About twenty youths and children live with Mr. Price, of whom he says:—

Some have come of their own accord, others have been sent by their parents, with the wish that I would teach them. I cannot well give them more than two or three hours a day in the way of teaching. We feed together, as I live almost entirely on Native food now; and they do not cost much to keep, and do a little work three or four hours a day as part compensation. Three or four of these lads are able to help me in teaching the elementary classes, and two of them are also employed in translation work. They help me in my own translations, and are also doing a little by themselves —from Swahili, of course. At present one is engaged on St. Mark's Gospel, and the other finishing Genesis, which I left uncompleted some time ago.

Fourteen candidates from Mpwapwa were confirmed by the Bishop on August 24, at KISOKWE, together with sixteen of the latter station, and the same day the Revs. H. Cole and A. N. Wood were admitted to priest's orders. Mr. Cole left Kisokwe for the coast and for home immediately afterwards. The Bishop wrote during this visit:— Kisokwe.

Hundreds are coming forward from amongst the very people who formerly were the bitterest opponents of Christianity. Mr. Cole has just completed the building of a new church, and it is crowded on Sundays from end to end. How wonderfully God has brought good out of the troubles and distresses of last year! Mr. Cole and his colleague, Mr. Beverley, as you can imagine, are greatly cheered. New Church crowded.

U-NYAMWEZI MISSION.

Mr. Deekes was alone at USAMBIRO after the death of Mr. A. M. Mackay in February until May 18, when the Rev. R. Walker arrived from Uganda. He was very ill in February, but he had in a great degree recovered his health before Mr. Walker's arrival. Their united efforts succeeded in placing the boat, Kulekwa—about 50 feet long and 7 feet wide, which Mr. Mackay had constructed—on the Lake, and a large number of reading sheets in Luganda were struck off from the Mission press. In this boat and with these sheets Mr. Walker recrossed the Lake in October, a few days before the arrival at Usambiro of Bishop Tucker. In the course of the few following weeks nearly all the party accompanying the Bishop, and the Bishop himself, were seized with fever, and, as already stated, two missionaries fell victims to its power in November. On the 27th of that month the Bishop wrote:— Usambiro. The boat Kulekwa. Illness of the Bishop and his party.

I am writing to you in the midst of sorrow and sickness, with clouds and darkness on every hand. And yet there is a wonderful power sustaining us. I want to bear witness to the might of this power. Though possibly we are in more difficult and trying circumstances than (I was almost going to say) ever man was called to pass through, yet not a murmur, not a vain upbraiding, has fallen from the lips of any of the dear brethren whom it is my privilege to have with me here.

Three times have I been stricken down with fever. Hooper is very ill. Baskerville and Pilkington are still very weak. Hunt and Dunn have passed to their eternal rest. Smith and Dermott are the only two men of the party who are at present well and strong. But, as I know, there is a mighty power sustaining us, turning, oftentimes, our darkness into light, our sorrow into joy. It is the presence of the beloved Master Himself, who has sent us out here, and who will be with us, according to His own promise, even though, like Mackay, Cotter, Hunt, and Dunn, we may be called to pass through the valley of the shadow of death.

The Presence of the Master.

The day after these words were written the C.M.S. boat, so ardently looked for, arrived from Uganda. An ordination service was held on the 30th, although the Bishop was nearly blind from ophthalmia, and was suffering from extreme weakness after four attacks of fever. Four days later the Bishop and his companions sailed to cross the Lake, leaving instructions to Messrs. Deekes and Dermott to remove from Usambiro to NASA, the comparatively healthy station on the Speke Gulf, which has not had a resident missionary since Mr. Walker and Mr. Deekes left it in August 1889. A new chief there expressed himself to Mr. Deekes, who visited the place in June, as most anxious for the "white man's" return. Mr. Deekes left a Uganda Christian, Malachi, in charge of the Mission goods, and he was transferred to Usambiro to protect the property at that station on their leaving it.

IV. UGANDA.

Public events in Uganda during 1890.

As in the former year, though less pronounced in degree, alternations of prosperity and of panic marked the course of public events during 1890 in Uganda. The beginning of the year found King Mwanga on the island of Burungugi, in Murchison's Creek, whither he had fled the previous November on receiving tidings of the defeat of his forces engaged against Kalema, the former Mohammedan king. On February 11, reinforced by new supplies of ammunition from Magu as the ransom price of a wealthy Arab who had been taken prisoner a few months before, the united armies of Mwanga from Budu, the extreme south-west, and from Chagwa, the extreme east of Uganda, inflicted a defeat upon Kalema, forcing him to retreat again to the borders of Unyoro. This encounter it was thought would prove to be the final one, Kalema's power and prestige had so greatly dwindled, and an indication of this feeling was shown in March by an incident mentioned by Mr. Walker:—

The Mohammedan party.

> Even the very spot on which Kalema's camp stands has been gladly accepted as a promising garden by Thomas, one of the church elders, which will remind you of Caleb's choice of a piece of land; and then of the sale of the site of Hannibal's camp near Rome.

Within a few weeks, however, reports reached Mwanga that the Mohammedan army was again marching on the capital. They retired on the advance of the Christians, and for the next few months Mwanga's soldiers kept them at bay on the north-western frontier, and recovered from their keeping the body of Kalema, who had died during these months, and interred it in Uganda. After this the Mohammedans were reported to have sought permission (which was refused) to pass through Kabronga's territory with the view to joining their co-religionists in what was Dr.Emin's province, to the north-west. Notwithstanding, in October, on Sunday night, the 26th, the capital was again disturbed by rumours of their near approach, and a victory gained by them in a small engagement led Mwanga to prepare once more, at the beginning of November, to remove to the islands. Mr. Walker wrote:—

Kalema dead.

> To have to run away means the burning of all the houses that have been built, and the destruction of all the gardens. When food is so scarce, and the people so few, it would be a terrible calamity to lose all that has been gained by eight months' hard labour.

A few days later news arrived that they had been driven back into Unyoro. Of the effect on this district produced by the disturbances kept up by the Islam party, Mr. Walker said:—

Effects of the war.

> The whole country of Buganda on the borders of Bunyoro is a desolation. The houses have been burnt, the gardens destroyed, and the people carried away into Bunyoro as slaves. The whole country of Singo, "the Earldom of Mukwenda," as Ashe calls it, has been depopulated and destroyed. Just about the capital here the land is cultivated, and the people are numerous, but in all other parts the country is desolated: from plague, war, and famine, thousands have died. When I read in the papers of Buganda being a garden, and its population 2,000,000, I see what Buganda once was, not what it is now. It is very difficult to judge of numbers; still, I do not fancy more than 10,000 fighting men could be found in the whole land.

Dissensions between Roman Catholic and Protestant Native Christians.

The dissensions between the Roman Catholic and Protestant chiefs evidently proved an encouragement to the Mohammedans to persevere in their aim to recover the country, and were largely the cause of the indecisive nature of many of the engagements. Disputes about the land and personal quarrels between the influential chiefs were of frequent occurrence, and on one occasion (notwithstanding an oath taken by both sides while on the island of Burungugi that they would not when in power make war on one another) there were appearances of an impending resort to arms. In view of these considerations the intervention of some external power seemed an essential prerequisite to peace and settled government for the land, and the importance of the Anglo-German agreement, which commits to Great Britain the responsibility for its future protection and development, is enhanced.

The timeliness of the Anglo-German Agreement.

The providential timeliness of this agreement has been brought into strong view by the course of events. In February Dr. Carl Peters, the leader of the German Emin Pasha Relief Expedition, arrived in Uganda, and, notwithstanding that Mwanga had accepted from Mr. Jackson, the representative of the Imperial British East Africa Company, a British flag two months before on the understanding that he placed himself thereby under British protection, he and the Roman Catholic chiefs signed a treaty presented by Dr. Peters inviting the Germans to visit Uganda, and a declaration was publicly made that the promises made by letter to Mr. Jackson were dissolved. In April Mr. Jackson himself reached the capital, accompanied by Mr. Gedge, and presented a treaty offering protection and asking for the taxes of the country in return. To this condition the Roman Catholic chiefs persistently objected, and it was eventually agreed that Mr. Jackson should return to the coast, conveying letters and accompanied by delegates from both parties, the Protestants and Roman Catholics, to submit the question in dispute to the European Consuls at Zanzibar, Mr. Gedge remaining in Uganda. A few months later the report was received of the arrival at Ukumbi, the Roman Catholic station on the south of the Lake, of Dr. Emin Pasha, and Mwanga warmly supported the solicitations of the Ukumbi priests that he should cross the Lake to Uganda, sending 150 canoes for his conveyance. By this time, however, the tenor of the agreement between the Governments of Germany and Great Britain had reached the Lake, and was made known in Uganda at the end of October by Mr. Walker, who arrived on the 25th from Usambiro just when Dr. Emin's arrival was being looked for. At the beginning of January a treaty was successfully effected in behalf of the British East Africa Company by Captain Lugard, who reached Uganda on December 29, two days after the arrival of Bishop Tucker.

Dr. Peters in Uganda,

And Dr. Emin Pasha invited to go thither.

It is thankworthy that the health of the Revs. E. C. Gordon and R. H. Walker has continued good throughout the year. Even when on the overcrowded island of Burungugi, where food was very scarce, and where the plague broke out and spread so rapidly that all were obliged to leave that island and find refuge elsewhere, they kept well. Mr. Walker had numerous patients almost daily, and his thoughtful attention to the wounded and success in performing some remarkable surgical operations gained him many friends. The grateful kindness of the Christians towards their friends and spiritual guides never ceased. Wherever they were, on the island or on the mainland, houses were put up by the chiefs for their accommodation, and such food as was procurable was freely and cheerfully bestowed. The following from one of Mr. Walker's letters written on Burungugi, where provisions were especially scarce, illustrates this :—

Gratitude of the Christians to Revs. E. C. Gordon and R. H. Walker.

Christmas Day.

To-day is Christmas Day, and I must just branch off from my subject to illustrate the kind of life we live. Yesterday our Christmas cheer was plantains and salt three times in the day, and tea, without sugar or milk, which had been under water in Mr. Stokes's boat. Last night (Christmas Eve) one Christian sent us a fat goat, and another sent us a cow with a calf, so to-day we have mutton, and milk in the tea. These may seem trifles to you, but they are of much importance to me; they come under the head of "daily bread," for which we pray, and coming as they do, I feel He hath "so done His marvellous works that they ought to be had in remembrance."

On April 22 the intelligence, "Mackay is dead and Deekes is dying," was brought by a native from Usambiro, and it was arranged that Mr. Walker should immediately cross the Lake, which he did, although owing to vexatious delays in procuring canoes and to rough weather he did not reach his destination till the middle of May. He was absent some months from Uganda, and thus the solemn but happy charge of shepherding the native church during the greater part of the past year devolved entirely upon Mr. Gordon.

While on the island Mr. Gordon regularly held services on Sundays, which large numbers attended, and one of the first acts of the Christian chiefs on returning to the mainland was to commence the building of a church on the piece of land given to the Mission, about one mile north of Mengo. Mr. Walker wrote in March:—

First church in Uganda—built by the Native Christians.

A few days ago witnessed a remarkable sight. The first pole was set up of the first public Christian building in Buganda. In the heart of the Dark Continent a Native building is being erected for the sole use of worshipping God. It requires no very deep spiritual impressions, no extensive poetical imagination, to feel considerably moved by the sight of this building. The building is only a temporary one, and we hope some day to see Christians engaged in building a church worthy of the place and builders. Still, this that is now rising is no mean affair, considering the hovels that the chiefs themselves live in and the general poverty of the land. I have measured the length and find it 27 yards (81 feet), and the breadth 8 yards (24 feet). I cannot give you the height at present. At last some of the very poles of Buganda "praise the Lord." There they stand pointing up to the sky because man recognises his Creator. The branches of palm-trees once were strewed for the honour of Jerusalem's King; now palm-trees again lift up their slender stems to support a house to the glory of the same King. I believe March 11 was the day on which the first pole was set up for this more than interesting building.

Crowded and attentive congregations.

This church was opened on Trinity Sunday, and from that date crowded congregations attended the Sunday morning services. Owing to the difficulty about food the number at the afternoon services was much smaller. Mr. Gordon wrote, "It is a great delight to be able to speak to such an attentive congregation." At the same time, in August, Mr. Gordon wrote:—

There is plenty of work to be done here. The people are so willing to be taught, so willing to listen, but not so ready to obey. There are many who know Christ as a personal Saviour, who daily fight the Christian warfare against Satan, sin, and self, and who overcome. These want more and higher spiritual teaching and encouragement to growth in grace. Then there are many, very many, who have only got a knowledge of the Saviour in their understanding, and whose hearts are not changed, and who have not learnt their need. These want to be taught the spiritual nature and the life-giving power of the Gospel. There are very, very many, who know the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments off by heart, but probably very few really understand the deep spiritual meaning of the words, "I believe in the forgiveness of sins," and others which they can repeat without mistake. So in church the responses are repeated probably more heartily than in many a church at home, but with the majority I would fear it is lip service. Yet God's Holy Spirit is working here, and your prayers are not in vain. There is great reason for joy, hope, and encouragement in the work here, and all who come here will say the same.

A few months before, on the eve of the decisive battle with the Mohammedans in February, Mr. Walker gave a striking illustration of the transition state of the character of many of the Christians—the influence of new and heavenly principles, and the power of old and cruel practices:—

Twilight Christianity.

Our chiefs are a curious mixture of Christian conscientiousness and heathen cruelty. They believe that God will not give them the victory if they do anything wrong, and therefore they do not like to take any advantage of their enemy. They thought it necessary to write and tell the enemy that they were coming to attack them, lest they should be taken off their guard. Yet when they are victorious they have more than once speared the leader of the opposite side when he was taken prisoner. They complain of the unfair advantage the Mohammedans take by lying in wait in the long grass and attacking the Christians on the march. This is a sort of twilight Christianity. They are anxious to do what is right, and when they get more light and see plainly I believe they will walk in the light.

The number of baptisms has not been mentioned. Mr. Gordon wrote in August:—

Those recently Baptised.

Of those who have been baptized lately, I may hopefully say that I have been satisfied of their spiritual condition, as far as man can judge. In some cases, too, I have been gladdened and rejoiced at their understanding and answers, at their sense of sin, their penitent and humble spirit, their trust in the Saviour for true repentance and newness of life. For a long time past I have made the candidates learn by heart the greater part of the baptismal service for adults. This forms the basis on which to found questions that may make the way more plain, and affords opportunities for putting the Gospel plan of salvation before them.

And again in October:—

Classes of Candidates for Baptism.

I have some interesting classes of candidates for baptism. The class is composed chiefly of young men and elderly lads, but women also attend. It is very encouraging to find what good knowledge all seem to have of the plan of salvation. I am gladdened and thankful to find such good hold on their minds of the central truths of the Faith. There is plenty of head-knowledge—even the princesses who were baptized a short time ago were able to give very satisfactory answers to the questions asked—yet it is most difficult to know whether the heart understands the truth.

All of those who are brought forward for baptism are presented to me by those who have preceded them in the Faith, and all the instruction they have had has been got from their elders, or their masters in some cases, who have themselves been baptized in the former time of persecution and danger. This speaks well for the elders, who all have a firm hold of the first truths of the Gospel, and know how to impart these things essential to others.

The first Bishop in Uganda.

The arrival of Bishop Tucker and his party in Uganda on Saturday, December 27, has been already mentioned. The journey across the Lake had greatly improved the Bishop's health, and he took part with much thankfulness in the services of the following day. He wrote:—

But now how shall I find language to describe the wonderful work of God's grace which has been going on in the land? Truly, the half was not told me. Exaggeration about the eagerness of the people here to be taught there has been none. No words can describe the emotion which filled my heart as, on Sunday, December 28, I stood up to speak to fully 1,000 men and women who crowded the church of Buganda. It was a wonderful sight! There, close beside me, was the Katikiro—the second man in the kingdom. There, on every hand, were chiefs of various degrees, all Christian men, and all in their demeanour devout and earnest to a degree. The responses, in their heartiness, were beyond anything I have heard even in Africa. There was a second service in the afternoon, at which there must have been fully 800 present. The same earnest attention was apparent, and the same spirit of devotion. I can never be sufficiently thankful to God for the glorious privilege of being permitted to preach to these dear members of Christ's flock.

Sunday Services.

The party consisted of the Revs. D. A. L. Hooper and G. K. Baskerville and Messrs. G. L. Pilkington and F. C. Smith, and these, with Messrs. Walker and Gordon and the Bishop, were welcomed by the king in open court on the 29th. The account of this interview is thus given by the Bishop:—

At about half-past nine a messenger came from the king to say that he was ready to see us. Outside the palace another messenger met us, his work being apparently to conduct us into the royal presence. I suppose he must have been the Chamberlain. As we came near the reed gate which separated us from the audience or reception-room, drums were beaten and trumpets blown. The gate was immediately thrown open, and we were in the presence of the king and his court. The former at once rose up to greet us, shaking each one by the hand. Our seats—for we had taken the precaution of bringing our chairs with us—were placed on the right hand of the king. He at once inquired about our journey and made various inquiries as to our ages, &c., &c., at the same time making remarks as to the colour of our hair, our height, &c., &c. With regard to the king himself, his appearance is certainly not prepossessing. The impression he gives one is that of his being a self-indulgent man. When he knits his brows his aspect is very forbidding. During the whole of the time we were there he kept giving his hand either to the Katikiro on his left hand or to the Admiral on his right, or to anyone who amused him and was near at hand. The atmosphere of the reception-room was oppressively close, and so we were not sorry when the king rose up from his seat as the signal that his audience was at an end. Instead of retiring to the rear, as his custom is, he followed us to the front of the barraza, not merely, I think, as a matter of courtesy, but in order to inspect us a little more narrowly.

Interview with King Mwanga.

A fortnight later the Bishop had a conference with one of the Roman Catholic missionaries regarding the differences—mostly based, the Bishop considered, upon political interests—between the two parties. By his request a written statement of alleged grievances had been drawn up by each side. It was mutually agreed to refer questions affecting civil rights and claims regarding property to Captain Lugard, and the Bishop and Père Brard undertook to satisfy complaints of robbery made against individual Protestants and Roman Catholics respectively, and to exhort all to assist in putting a stop to such practices.

Ordination and Confirmation.

On Sunday, January 18, the first ordination and confirmation services in Uganda were held. Messrs. Gordon and Baskerville were admitted to priest's orders, and seventy candidates were confirmed. The Bishop wrote:—

> It was a time of real blessing to many. The setting apart of one who, like Mr. Gordon, has laboured in this part of the mission field for eight years, was an event full of deep interest. But the public confession of Christ by these seventy men and women was, in many respects, even of deeper interest. Many of them had suffered persecution for the name of Christ. Many had been deprived of their earthly all. All were deeply in earnest, and those who prepared them and presented them were greatly struck by their deep sincerity and heart devotion to the cause of Christ. The 18th of January, 1891, was a day much to be remembered in Buganda. God was of a truth with us and gave us His blessing.

Native lay Evangelists.

Two days later yet another most important service was held, when not only were the newly confirmed admitted to the Lord's Supper, but six of them were publicly set apart for the work of lay evangelists. The names of these six are: Henry Wright Duta, Sembera Mackay, Mika Sematimba, Paulo Bakunga, Zacharia Kizito, and Yohana Muira. The names of most of these have often occurred in previous Reports as members of the Church Council. The three first declined chieftainships, as they wished to devote their lives, after further training, to the work of teaching and evangelizing their fellow-countrymen. They can read and write Luganda and Swahili, and have some slight knowledge of English. Henry Wright Duta was taught for a time, some years since, in the Universities' Mission School at Zanzibar, and there he met Mika Sematimba, who had proceeded to the coast with a caravan from Uganda. The latter had previously been a pupil of the French Mission, whose teaching was oral only, but on being told by Duta that the Protestants taught how to read, he resolved to apply to the C.M.S. Mission for instruction on his return. He was taught by Messrs. O'Flaherty and Mackay. Mr. Walker says of him:—

The Psalter the Christian Calendar.

> Regularly he has read the New Testament in Swahili, and the Book of Common Prayer—especially the Psalms, which are read daily by all Baganda Christians (hence they know the day of the month according to our way of reckoning). Mika has also read other portions of the Scriptures as they have come in his way, but is not very familiar with them. Of course he does not understand all he reads. The Psalms and the Epistles are in places quite unintelligible to him.

Sembera was Mr. Mackay's first convert, and was with him at the time of his death at Usambiro. A letter written by him to "all the Christians in England having sympathy with the religion of our Master," and concluding with, "Dear brethren, I am your friend, and I implore your sympathy on behalf of the religion of our Master, Jesus Christ, that you may come to help in His work, so that our church may be strong in Uganda," was printed in The Gleaner for November. Mr. Walker says of him, "Sembera is a right down good man, in heart and soul an earnest Christian, and in life a gentleman and affectionate friend. I am thankful to say he is one among many of the same sort." Zacharia is the elder who specially impressed Mr. Stanley during his interviews with the Uganda deputation which waited upon him in the Usagala country. The names of Yohana and Muira were often mentioned in the letters several years since.

"A right down good man."

Mr. Gordon, with the help of Henry Wright Duta and Sembera, has translated the service for the Public Baptism of Infants, and has added to the previous translation of the Marriage and Burial Services. He has almost completed St. Mark's and St. John's Gospels, Mr. Ashe's version of the former, and Mr. Mackay's of the latter so far as the fifteenth chapter, being fully availed of. The Native helpers used Bishop Steere's Swahili version as a basis. Vocabularies, English-Luganda and Luganda-English, by the late Mr. O'Flaherty and Mr. Ashe, have been lately printed by the S.P.C.K. and sent out to the Mission.

Translation work.

Before leaving Uganda with Mr. Hooper to return to the coast, the Bishop requested Mr. Walker to visit BUDU, to the west, where the Pokino Nikodemo, one of the staunchest friends of the Mission, is chieftain, to commence work there, in anticipation of men going out to follow it up. Mr. Gordon was also asked to do the same thing in USOGA, the chief of which, Wakooli, has placed himself under British protection. The people of this district, Mr. Gordon says, are "simple, well-mannered, and rustic; they have never been visited by the destructive Arab and coast trader." Wakooli's capital is seven or eight days' journey from Mengo. The climate is said to be good, and the food wholesome. It was in this country that Bishop Hannington met with his death. "What a glorious revenge," the Bishop writes, "to carry the Gospel of Christ to the murderers of Bishop Hannington!" The truly wonderful sequel to the Bishop's murder which Mr. Walker related may well encourage the hope that the people will be affected by such a revenge. Mr. Walker wrote:—

Extension to Budu, and Usoga.

The sequel of Bishop Hannington's Murder.

When Bishop Hannington was murdered, the same day his body was carried to another place, because the people feared that the dead body of a white man might bring evil on them. But the people of the next place refused to have it; and so it was carried from place to place, each refusing to allow it to remain in their country. A coastman, who we understand was one of Bishop Hannington's porters, accompanied the corpse. At last it reached a place on the boundary of Busoga, or in the country of the Bakeddi. Here they agreed to build a house for it, and on a framework, or bedstead, such as they make for smoking meat and fish on, the body was laid, and left to decay. An agreement was made with the coastman to live at this house and to take care of it, and in return the people would give him food.

To this place Marko, the messenger from Mwanga to Mr. Jackson, of the Imperial British East Africa Company, came on his way with letters. He seems to have heard that the people there had experienced bad harvests and drought of late years, and that they attributed this to the fact of their having the white man's bones; and he suggested that he would get rid of the bones by taking them to the white man. He passed the place twice, and I fancy it was on the second journey that he took the bones to Mr. Jackson.

The above is in substance what Marko says. Some of the details may be incorrect.

On his way to the coast, reviewing the four weeks spent in Uganda, and all that he had been permitted to do, Bishop Tucker wrote:—

A thankworthy Review.

We are now within a short distance of Bukumbi, where our mails must be landed, so I must bring this letter to a close. And as I do so it must be with praise to God for all His many, many mercies and loving-kindnesses. They have indeed been manifold. I leave the party in Uganda in excellent health. Pilkington and Baskerville are better than I have ever seen them. The work is progressing. The country is quiet. The differences between the two parties are apparently arranged. The foundation of a Native ministry in all human probability seems to have been laid. The Church, I trust, has been confirmed and extension provided for. Work amongst the young has been initiated. A conference of missionaries has settled the question of a constitution for the internal management of the Mission, and a secretary (Mr. Walker) has been appointed. And now in renewed health Mr. Hooper and I have been permitted to cross the Lake for the second time. For all this I thank and praise God.

EGYPT MISSION.

Cairo, 1882.

The work at Cairo was greatly interrupted by the absence of two of its three male European Missionaries during a good part of the past year. The Rev. W. F. and Mrs. Connor were invalided to England in June, whence Mrs. Connor was taken to her heavenly rest in October. Mr. Connor returned to Cairo as an invalid for a few months in the winter, to escape the severe weather in this country, and to give such help as his strength allowed in the Mission.

Dr. Harpur sent to Suakin.

In May the Committee instructed Dr. F. J. Harpur to proceed to Suakin to make inquiries as to the openings for a Medical Mission there. It was thought that the famine which was then raging in the Eastern Soudan would possibly present an opportunity for commencing work among the inhabitants of that district, and prepare the way for a future advance to Khartoum, the fund contributed to the Society in memory of General Gordon being available for this purpose. Dr. Harpur, accompanied by a Bedouin convert, Hamed, arrived in Suakin early in June, and, later, the British and Foreign Bible Society kindly sanctioned the services of one of their Egypt colporteurs being lent for the work. By means of funds specially contributed through the Committee, and help from other sources, particularly the Aborigines' Protection Society, Dr. Harpur received, within a temporary shelter of bushes, erected nearly a mile outside the city walls, between one and two thousand Hadendowas, to whom he daily administered relief and attended to their sick; he also opened a school for the children of those who were under his medical care, and for such others as represented themselves to be orphans. Dr. Harpur returned to Cairo in November, and General Haig, who arrived at Suakin at the end of October, and who had from the beginning taken a lively interest in the experiment, took over the charge of the relief work and the orphans. After a full consideration of the reports presented by General Haig and Dr. Harpur, the Committee did not think that such an opening existed as would justify them in taking steps to open a permanent Mission at Suakin at the present time. The Orphanage has since been closed, all the children having been claimed by the sheikhs. A Suakin correspondent of the Manchester Guardian wrote to that paper:—

Famine Relief Work.

The Soudanese learn that an Englishman has been kind to their countrymen.

> The work of Dr. Harpur has left lasting marks behind, and those who have been cured by his attention and made strong again by the nourishment given them, after thanking him for his kindness, departed for their homes to spread far and wide the news that an Englishman had done good to them.

Translation work at Cairo.

At Cairo, the Rev. F. A. Klein has translated Bishop Ryle's Commentary on St. Luke into Arabic, and also Dr. Koelle's Death of Christ on the Cross. He remarks upon the limited opportunities which exist for bringing the message of the Gospel to Mohammedans in Egypt. Religious conversations, the circulation of the Scriptures and other literature, education, and speaking to patients in the dispensaries—these, he considers, are practically the only means at present of reaching them. At the beginning of 1890 Mr. Connor had an interesting Bible-class, which was attended regularly by between twenty and thirty, many of them Moslems; and a similar class was commenced by Dr. Harpur in his house in December. In addition to the Old Cairo dispensary, a second was opened in Cairo in February, but both were closed on Dr. Harpur going to Suakin. Dr. Harpur says of the in-patients:—

In-patients in the Dispensary.

Although the hospital arrangements were very incomplete, consisting of a large rambling house, and one iron bedstead, still my most enjoyable times were spent in those bare rooms; there were usually three or four surgical patients lying on the floor in one of the large rooms—these people are generally fellaheen from the surrounding villages. It is seldom we meet with a patient who can read; at one time, however, there were three men in the same room who could read, one, a Syad (descendant of Mohammed), occupied the iron bed, the man opposite to him was Mahmud, a student of the Azhar (a fact which I have only since discovered); the third man's name was Ahmed—this last was an ignorant but bigoted Mohammedan. The Syad and Mahmud got interested in reading the Bible, but poor Ahmed opened the first chapter of the Gospel of St. John, and happened to see the thirty-fourth verse, "And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God." He fell over this stumbling-block, and somebody brought him a book of traditions, which he used to read while I was reading the Bible with the Syad and Mahmud. I almost always found these two reading, and they had often marked places they wanted me to read and explain. On their leaving they were both glad to receive a copy of the Bible (from Mr. Connor's store of Bibles for distribution). Ahmed was a very grateful patient, and actually before leaving accepted a Gospel; he afterwards brought a present of a lamb, which was kept for a respectable time, and then sold for the benefit of the Medical Mission.

Schools.

The four schools, two for boys and girls respectively at Cairo, and two at Old Cairo, are mostly attended by Moslem children. The first hour of each day is devoted to Bible instruction; and some of these Moslem pupils attend the Arabic services on Sundays.

The Mission was reinforced by the arrival of a widow lady and her daughter, Mrs. and Miss Bywater, the latter a Mildmay Deaconess, in November. Mrs. Harpur came to England in July.

Bishop Blyth's "Primary Charge."

THE publication in this country of the "Primary Charge of Bishop Blyth" at the close of 1890, addressed, as its title page intimates, "to the clergy and laity under the Bishop's superintendence," and (as a Report) to the Church which the Bishop represents, has attracted to the Society's work in Palestine an unusual measure of attention. The publicity thus given to the controversies between the Bishop and the Society has led the Archbishop of Canterbury, at the request of the Upper House of Convocation of the Province of Canterbury, moved thereto by an articulus cleri of the Lower House, to institute an inquiry regarding the matters in dispute, and he has invited some other prelates to be associated with him in making the investigation.

Investigation by the Archbishop of Canterbury.

In response to a letter addressed by the Archbishop of Canterbury to the President of the Society expressing his assurance that the Committee would assist him with any information and views upon the topics under discussion, the Committee passed the following resolution on March 10:—

(a) That the sincere thanks of the Committee be conveyed to the Archbishop of Canterbury for his kind letter, and they beg to assure his Grace of their earnest desire that the difficulties which have arisen between the Church Missionary Society and Bishop Blyth may be removed. (b) That the Committee will gladly render to the Archbishop every assistance in order that full information upon the topics under discussion may be brought to his notice. (c) That the Committee, however, desire to guard themselves from the admission of any right on the part of Convocation to control their action in regard to the conduct of their Missions.

The Committee invited the Rev. J. R. Longley Hall, the Secretary of the Mission, to come to England with a view to the Archbishop's inquiries, and he with his family arrived in May.

Mission Services conducted by Rev. H. E. Fox.

The year under review has naturally been a specially trying one to the labourers, both Europeans and Natives, but they have been much cheered and the congregations much edified during the recent spring by a visit from the Rev. H. E. Fox, Vicar of St. Nicholas, Durham, and Mrs. Fox. Mr. Fox conducted mission-services by interpretation at Jaffa, Jerusalem, and Nazareth. At the first-named place the special services were commenced with a "quiet day" observed by the workers, on March 17; at 6.45 A.M. the Holy Communion was administered; at 11 there was a service for confession of past shortcomings; at 2.30 P.M. a service of thanksgiving; and at 7 P.M. a service of consecration. Mr. Hall wrote:—

We have had a "mission" of very great and widespread blessing. We can never feel thankful enough that God chose out and sent Mr. Fox to us for our "mission." The services and meetings were all well attended, and the people listened in rapt attention. At the early morning daily communion the lowest number was forty-six, and on two occasions it was sixty. More than three hundred children attended each of the daily children's services, and about the same number of adults attended each of the mission services. There has unquestionably been very large blessing, and our hearts are full of gratitude and praise to God for what He has done for us. In a very marked way, I trust, the love of God has been shed abroad, and many have been drawn closer to Him. God's presence has been and is with us, and we have very many proofs that He is working mightily in our midst.

Directly aggressive work continues to be greatly hampered by the officials of the Turkish Government; nevertheless, a very real though silent change appears to be taking place throughout the country in the relations of Moslems to Christians, and in the attitude of the former towards Christianity. The Rev. C. T. Wilson writes:—

Change in relative positions of Moslems and Christians,

Islam, it is true, still holds the sword, but in the declining condition of the country this is a source of weakness, and not of power. Military service is compulsory on the Moslem population, while Christians are prohibited from bearing arms. This causes a constant drain on the Moslems, which is felt increasingly year by year. In the villages also (where the bulk of the population live), a much larger proportion of the Moslems remain unmarried than of the Christians. This is owing to their greater poverty. For, poor as the country is, and bitterly as all classes feel the oppression of the Government, the Moslems are worse off than the Christians. Russia has assumed the guardianship of the Greeks, and France of the Latins, and this fact acts as somewhat of a check on the Government. But in the case of the Moslems, there is no one to help them or speak a word for them. The immense influx of Jews into Jerusalem and other towns, causing the diversion of much of the trade and business of the Natives into their hands, has been severely felt by all classes, but especially by the Moslems. I have been told, on good authority, that there are many Mohammedan families in Jerusalem who a few years ago were well off, who are now on the verge of starvation from this cause. All these things are working together to equalise the relative positions of Moslems and Christians. The large numbers of travellers and pilgrims, and the ever-increasing interest shown by Europeans and Americans in the Holy Land, are not without influence.

and in attitude of Moslems to Christianity.

I cannot help thinking that there is a secret feeling in the hearts of many Moslems that Christianity is destined to be in the ascendant ere long in this land. I believe there are many at the present moment throughout this land who are in heart Christians, and I would beg God's people at home to pray earnestly that in the case of such it may be a real conversion to God, and not a mere intellectual persuasion that Christianity is true and Islam false. Such converts will be no strength, but rather a weakness, to those churches which they join.

Reinforcements.

The following reinforcements have been added to the staff:—The Rev. Frederick Field Adeney, B.A., St. John's College, Cambridge, formerly Curate of St. John's, Paddington; Rev. C. B. Nash, formerly of the Mid China Mission, and late of the North Pacific Mission; Miss Charlotte Low, who had for some years laboured with her mother at Haifa and acquired considerable proficiency in Arabic; Miss S. L. Barker; Miss Helen Attlee; Miss S. R. Savage; Miss E. G. Reeve; and Miss Frances Patching, a qualified lady nurse. Miss Barker reached the Mission in December; Miss Reeve in February; Mr. Adeney, Mr. and Mrs. Nash, Miss Savage, and Miss Patching in March.

The three senior Missionaries of this Mission visited England last year on furlough. The Rev. F. Huber left Gaza, with Mrs. Huber, in May, and returned in October; The Rev. J. and Mrs. Zeller left Jerusalem also in May, and returned in December; and the Rev. T. F. and Mrs. Wolters left Nazareth in April, and are still detained at home by the state of Mrs. Wolters' health. Miss A. S. H. Vidal and Mrs. C. T. Wilson came to England invalided in May, and Miss A. M. Elverson in June, but the two latter returned to the Mission in the autumn; Miss E. Armstrong has also since come home by medical orders.

JAFFA.

The work has gone on steadily at Jaffa. Mr. Hall writes:—"The sales from the Bible and Book Depôt have been much larger than in any previous year." Mr. Hall specially dwells upon the work amongst the women and girls. Mrs. Hall conducted a weekly meeting for the ladies of the Arabic congregation and another for women of the poorer class, which were a great success. Miss E. Armstrong held mothers' meetings and girls' classes, and taught in the two schools. She also held meetings in the camps of the Bedouins from Gaza and Hebron who visit Jaffa, and induced many of the women to attend her own regular meetings. But she regards her visits to the women at their homes with the Bible-woman as the most important and encouraging part of her work. Miss H. Campbell, who held a weekly class for ladies of the North Jaffa English congregation and was responsible for "a large quantity of miscellaneous work of different kinds," Mr. Hall says, has been lately transferred to Jerusalem. Miss Edith E. Newton, who spent a few weeks in England in the summer in lieu of going to Mount Lebanon, says:—

Work among Women at Jaffa.

My work in Jaffa consists chiefly of teaching in the school, to which I ride every morning, it being more than a mile away, and most of it deep sand; also of Bible-classes for the women and boys, which I am glad to say I take now principally in Arabic. The boys' class in connexion with the Scripture Union, held in my house every Saturday morning, is especially encouraging. The children come most willingly, considering it is their only holiday in the week. I wish you could see them, from fifty to sixty, sitting all round me on the floor of our hall, listening and answering most attentively. We have also a good Sunday-school, from ninety to one hundred attend every week. Of course a great part of my time is still taken up with learning the language; on an average three hours a day is given to studying it.

Syrian boys spending part of their holiday in studying the Scriptures.

Ramleh and Lydd have each a Native pastor, the Revs. Yusif Zorab and H. Damishky. The latter says:—

Some instances which I recognize this year in our mission-field lead me to hope that there will be further improvement. Some of our young lads who have been brought up in our school, while sitting in their shops, read their Bible diligently. They begin the Scripture Union portion, and meditate on its subject, and seldom leave it except for some special work. A man, a pedlar, on his daily rounds takes his Testament and Prayer-book with him, and reads daily some portions, and prays morning and evening; and so when the Moslem men perceived what he was doing daily, they said, "That is a true religion." Another man opens his shop every night till nine o'clock for those who are delayed at their work at the vineyards, and whom I occasionally visit. He boldly argues with them about Christ's divinity, and points out to them some passages of the Coran, testifying about Christ's Divinity, Nativity, Death, and Ascension, and His second Advent, and reads to them also some passages of the Bible.

A pedlar takes his New Testament with him on his rounds.

Mrs. Damishky conducts a women's meeting, which has a regular attendance of from forty to fifty, in spite of a rival meeting on the same day of the week opened by the Greeks. Miss Edith Newton visits Lydd and Ramleh, about once a month. They are both distant about 13 miles from Jaffa. At Abûd, about 25 miles from Jaffa, the catechist has had encouragement lately, after previous coldness and opposition on the part of the people which had rendered him ready to despair and anxious to leave the station. He wrote at the end of the year to Mr. Hall, "Thanks be to God! I feel a great blessing resting on my work, and God is giving me strength to fulfil my duty."

JERUSALEM.

This station has received an important addition to its staff of workers by the appointments of the Rev. F. F. Adeney, to co-operate with the Rev. J. Zeller in the educational work, and especially with the view of establishing a Divinity Class for training candidates for ordination, and of Miss S. R. Savage, to open a class for the higher education of girls and for training schoolmistresses. During Mr. Zeller's absence on furlough, the Rev. H. Sykes had charge of the Preparandi Institution and Bishop Gobat School. The Rev. Ibrahim Baz is the pastor of the Native congregation. The Evangelistic agencies in the city and neighbourhood, under the Rev. C. T. Wilson, have been maintained, he says, in full working order. The Schools hold their own, notwithstanding much opposition, especially from the Latins, whose attitude is illustrated by a remark made by some Latin nuns to a member of the congregation who was formerly a Mohammedan, to the effect that having become a Protestant she was now worse than a Moslem! On the other hand, the superstitious practices of both Latins and Greeks are a real stumbling block in the way of the Mohammedans embracing the Gospel. Miss A. M. Elverson says:—

Opposition from the Latins at Jerusalem.

> I find the impression among the Mohammedans of Christianity is that presented by Roman Catholics and the Greek Church. They see the images and pictures which are an offence to them, and hear of a Pope who forgives sins and releases from hell for money. No wonder they are prejudiced against such a religion! When they hear of our simple form of worship they are pleased, and say, with a certain amount of patronage in their tone, "You are more like us."

Miss Elverson found, even before she could speak Arabic, an opportunity of usefulness in the readiness of the people to accept portions of the Scriptures, tracts, and text-cards, and shop-keepers sometimes volunteered to place them in their shop windows. She held a class of young men in the Boys' School, teaching them French and English, the New Testament being the reading-book, and she believes that one Moslem of high birth was brought to a saving knowledge of Christ by the instruction thus afforded. Miss Elverson finds a ready entrance into Moslem houses.

Moslems attending classes.

Mr. F. T. Ellis, the head-master of Bishop Gobat School, has been called upon to bear the heavy trial of losing his wife from smallpox in April last, just a year after their marriage. Last year commenced with 54 names on the books of the School, of whom 35 were Protestants, 17 Greeks, and 2 Moslems. The boys are encouraged to make models in wood and stone of the farm implements used in the country, and £20 was realized for mission work by the sale of these to visitors. Of the latter, as many as 73 visited the school in 1890, and the following entries in the visitors' book are quoted by Mr. Ellis:—

Bishop Gobat School.

Amongst the first came the Bishop of Mauritius, who wrote:—"Most interested, and most pleased with all I have seen and heard."

Mr. Martin Hosking, Ballarat, Australia, wrote:—"I have visited Bishop Gobat School, and have been delighted with the courtesy of the teachers and the general efficiency of the boys."

Archdeacon Richardson wrote:—"Deeply interested, and most thankful to God for all seen here."

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sellwood, Cullompton, wrote:—"Most encouraging school; very delighted to hear their progress."

Rev. Sholto D. C. Douglas wrote:—"Thankful to find the same sound teaching imparted as when in the founders' days, twenty years ago."

Rev. Walter Bradbury, Weston-super-Mare, wrote:—"Glad to find good knowledge of Scripture."

The Bible Depôt at Ramallah, which was opened in 1887, has proved itself a valuable missionary agency, as it has afforded a place for meeting Mohammedans as well as Christians, and for speaking to them freely on religious subjects. Mr. G. Nyland believes the congregation increases in knowledge and in sanctification. The Native deacon, the Rev. Hanna Musa, assists in the Tayibeh School, and pays visits to the neighbouring villages and to the Bedouin tribes in the Jordan Valley. There are schools also at Jiffna and Bir Zeit. Mr. Wilson has the general superintendence of the work in the villages, of which there are, he says, about 115 in the Jerusalem district, and only about 15 of them have any Christian inhabitants. Mr. Wilson has visited about half of these villages during the past three years, but very few of them more than once. His dispensing simple medicines has secured for him almost invariably a warm welcome.

GAZA.

Dr. H. J. Bailey, who has been temporarily located at Gaza since his arrival in the Mission in April, 1890—except for a few weeks in the autumn, when he visited Rome to meet and be married to Miss M. H. Bailey, of Stroud, Gloucestershire—describes this station as a "complete Mission." He says:—

"A Complete Mission."

> Here we have in full operation the "Medical Mission," the pioneer, to show the most stubborn and prejudiced the practical love of Christians; we have flourishing schools, to instruct and train up the future generation; the missionary, to keep the flock together, and to guide those who wish to know more of the way of life. We have, moreover, three other useful and effectual adjuncts, which go to make up the complete Mission station, viz., a Bible-shop, to supply the wants of inquirers; a colporteur, to carry the Word to the villages around; and a Bible-woman, to instruct the much-neglected female portion of Mohammedan communities.

Services at Hospital.

The attendances at the Hospital during the year exceeded 12,000, and the Rev. Dr. R. Elliott observes a much more reverent and attentive demeanour on the part of those who attend the daily evangelistic services. He says:—

> Our audiences are very mixed, Christians, Jews, Moslems, and even Hindus; but we have no difficulty in speaking to them, as all alike know Arabic. Neither have we any trouble about the question of caste, high and low sit together without scruple. I am much gratified also to observe that our patients are beginning to recognize the object of our work, and many now well know that we are not seeking merely fame or wealth, but rather the glory of God, and the spiritual welfare of those among whom we live. The people also show in many cases great gratitude; such multitudes of curious presents are brought—sheep, roses, dates, walking-sticks, the latter being quite a common gift for the doctor; perhaps they have guessed his nationality!

Friendliness of Moslem Authorities.

The Moslem authorities have manifested the utmost friendliness, and rich and poor alike show that their respect has been won. Dr. Bailey, comparing the present with the past in this respect, says:—

> A few years ago, when only a half-equipped Medical Mission was held here, under the charge of a Native doctor, the Rev. J. R. L. Hall and the medical missionary tried to hold a service with the patients in the open air, but were at once publicly forbidden to do so by the "Mufta," or head of Mohammedan spiritualities. Now, this very man's wife and family are patients of ours, and not only attend the dispensary, but may frequently be seen seated with all the rest throughout the service, listening to the address and prayers. Gaza, together with Hebron and Nablous, used to have the reputation of being a bigoted stronghold of Mohammedanism. But let not Gaza be again included in this trio as bigoted or fanatical, for nowhere have I ever, whilst passing through the streets alone or with friends, met with anything but respect and welcome here. Other reasons there may be for this, but I feel sure one of the chief is because there is not a street, and scarcely a house, which has not at some time or other had to call in the services of the medical missionary.

In spite of strict orders to the contrary, many of the richer Moslems are sending their children to the Mission schools. One Mohammedan youth, after attending the Boys' School, begged for a Bible, and promised to read at home daily the portion assigned. In October Dr. Elliott baptized two of his own servants, a man and his wife, who are natives of the Soudan. They were sold in the Gaza slave market, the man for £10, the woman for £20, some 14 or 15 years ago. Their purchasers, Greek Christians, treated them kindly, and presented them with their free papers about three years since, on the day of their marriage. The authorities of the Greek Church appear to have been unwilling to baptize them, lest the Moslems should be irritated thereby. Dr. Elliott, after teaching them and watching their conduct for some months, baptized them publicly on October 12. He says they are intellectually weak, but he believes they are in earnest in their Christian profession. Dr. Elliott resided at Jerusalem prosecuting the study of Arabic during the autumn and winter.

Baptism of two Soudanese at Gaza.

NABLOUS.

The Rev. C. Fallscheer, who unfortunately fractured his arm in July by falling from his horse, reports that the Sunday services and week-day meetings and classes for the study of the Scriptures at this station are well attended. The book shop is frequented by many Moslems and Christians, also by some Jews and Samaritans. The Rev. Selim Gomri is the Native pastor. At Rafidieh there are two schools in which the Scriptures are systematically and ably taught by the Native teachers, a man and his daughter. At Nisf el Jebeel and Bourka the services are conducted on alternate Sundays by Choory Chalil, who was formerly a Greek priest. The latter place is a Mohammedan village, as also are Tobaz and Azzoon. There are small schools at all these places, but the one at Azzoon has been closed by the Nablous authorities.

Nablous.

NAZARETH.

The Rev. C. H. V. Gollmer has been in charge of Nazareth and out-stations since June. The Rev. S. Boutaji was transferred to El Husn in December, and the Rev. Chalil Jamal, of Salt, succeeded him as pastor of the Nazareth congregation. The average attendance at the Arabic Sunday morning services was from 130 to 150, in the evening about 40 to 60. There are schools at Shefa Amr, Abilene, Mujeidel, Kefrakenna, and Reneh, and a few people attend services at these places.

Nazareth.

At Haifa, Mrs. Low superintends the Bible-woman, and visits the homes of the people, while Miss C. Low spends four or five hours daily in the Girls' School. The latter says :—

In religious knowledge the first class can answer questions on almost any part of Bible history, and know the Church Catechism and most of the "Hundred texts," besides other portions of Scripture by heart. To these the Gospel can never be a sealed book, and their minds are being prepared for the harvest which we trust is coming; though only the Lord of the harvest can prepare their hearts. In the early spring a burst of Moslem opposition withdrew nearly all the Moslem girls to a powerful rival school started by the Turkish authorities; but a few held on in spite of threatened fines. Now some of those who left have returned, and we have about twenty Moslems among the pupils. Except the homes of the girls, I do not visit much, that being done more by my mother and the Bible-woman. In the Moslem houses we are almost always well received; no doubt we must attribute this partly to the ignorance of the women, who very seldom really know what their own religion is, not to speak of ours. With the Moslem men, who no doubt would show more bigotry and reason more, we seldom come in contact, etiquette requiring them to withdraw as soon as we come in. The Christians, too, generally welcome us, except those under Romanist influence.

Inquirers at Acca.

Acca has had the advantage of a resident European lady since June, namely, Miss E. C. Wardlaw-Ramsay, and of a second, Miss S. L. Barker, since January. In June six men of this place waited upon Mr. Hall and Mr. Gollmer, who stated that they represented some thirty men and their families who desired to become Protestants. Mr. Gollmer says:—

Mr. Hall and I explained to them that our object was not to get a register full of names, but to get names registered in the Book of Life. We said we should be very glad to help them nearer to Christ, and, if they thought they could learn from us what they could not learn in their own Church, we advised them to attend our meetings and services regularly, and after some months we would see what could be done. They appeared satisfied, and promised to attend.

Miss Ramsay accordingly has found these young men especially encouraging objects of her labours. A night school held three times a week, is attended by from 20 to 25 of them, of which Miss Ramsay says:—

The first half-hour is given up to a singing practice, which they thoroughly enjoy. At 7 o'clock hymn-books are put away, and the different English reading books are brought out, and soon the murmuring of voices is heard all over the room, the men reading and studying English with great earnestness. It is interesting to see their eager faces as they bend over their books. The variety of language that may be heard during these evening hours would amuse and astonish our English friends, for, in addition to Arabic, French, German, or Italian is spoken, whilst some of the most advanced of the scholars can speak a little English, so that the interpretation of the English is carried on in any of these three languages, failing the Arabic. At 9 o'clock the reading-books are put away, the Bibles are brought out, a few verses are read, and an exposition is given by the Native catechist, after which the school is closed with prayer. None the less eager are they to hear the Word of God read and explained, whilst some will ask most interesting questions, showing how they are seeking to know the truth. It is sometimes most difficult to get them to leave the room, especially if any friend is staying with me who can speak to them in their own language, and will answer their questions.

Eagerness to hear the Word of God.

The Girls' School has 55 on the list. The master of the school at Kefr Yasif is described as "very efficient," and as "a bright happy Christian"; he was a student in the Jerusalem Preparandi Institution. The sheikh of this village, who was referred to in last year's Report, is most anxious for the spiritual welfare of the place. Miss Ramsay states that in other villages in this neighbourhood the Bible is being read and studied.

SALT AND THE HAURAN.

The superintendence of this district is under the Rev. H. Sykes, who, however, as already stated, resided at Jerusalem for several months, from which place he visited Salt as occasion required. He returned to reside there in December. The congregation at Salt was under the Rev. C. Jamal until the end of the year, and he reported that they were hardly treated by the Government, being deprived of the rights formerly enjoyed of being represented in the local courts and of being recognised as a separate community. Moreover, Mr. Jamal said, they were disproportionately taxed. He added, however, "Through the Lord's mercy we are keeping our ground, and are enabled to bear it patiently." About 200 attend the Sunday morning service, and the average number of communicants at the monthly administration is 23, the number on the list being 75. The Sunday school has an attendance of between 70 and 90. The Rev. S. Boutaji is now stationed at El Husn, in the Jebel Druze; and a catechist has been placed at Madeba, in the ancient Kir Moab, to which place Mr. Sykes paid an interesting visit with the Rev. W. F. Connor in 1888.

PERSIA MISSION.

Death of Miss F. Valpy, and Miss Vansittart.

Of the four who joined the staff of this Mission at the close of 1889—namely, the Rev. C. H. and Mrs. Stileman, Miss F. Valpy, and Miss A. H. Wilson—it has pleased God to take one home to Himself, and to call another to labour elsewhere. Miss Florence Valpy died at Baghdad on Nov. 30th. She was the daughter of a missionary, the Rev. A. B. Valpy, formerly of the Tinnevelly Mission; the sister of a missionary, Miss K. Valpy, C.E.Z.M.S., Bengal; and she had given good promise by the earnestness with which she had devoted herself to the study of the language, and by her bright loving Christian character, of proving herself a missionary specially fit for the Master's use. Miss Wilson has left the Mission through the failure of her health, and is residing for the present in South India. Miss A. E. Vansittart, a missionary of the Female Education Society at Julfa, who went out about the same time, died in August. On the other hand, Dr. H. M. and Mrs. Sutton sailed in March to return to Baghdad; and Miss Laura Stubbs, of Sunderland, and Miss Mary Rebecca S. Bird, who was receiving training at the Willows, sailed in April to strengthen the Julfa staff.

JULFA.

Dr. Bruce's Translation work.

Of his own special work, which is the translation of the Old Testament in Persian and the revision of the translation of the New Testament, the Rev. Dr. R. Bruce says:—

> It is a work of supreme importance, and for which not one but three missionaries ought to be entirely set apart. The Committee of the C.M.S. in 1802 said, in their Annual Report, that one of the first works that should be accomplished for the evangelization of Central Asia was the carrying out a good idiomatic translation of the Bible in the Persian language. All missionaries in Persia agree that this has not been accomplished yet. It was for this special purpose that the sainted Henry Venn wrote to me, in the spring of 1871, to stay on in Persia. And it was that letter of Henry Venn that was, in God's hands, the real cause of the establishment of the Persia and Baghdad Mission. I have always felt it to be an honour of which I am most unworthy, and a responsibility too great for one man to undertake alone. And since commencing the work, now nearly fifteen years ago, I have made unceasing efforts to prevail on some other missionary to join me in it. I thank God that I have so far succeeded in this that Mr. Hawkes, of the American Mission in Hamadan, has most kindly promised to help in future in it, and has this year given valuable assistance by criticising the first revision of Genesis and Exodus.
> I have been permitted to bring out a first revision of the New Testament, and have a second revision ready for a second edition of it. I consider my first revision very imperfect indeed, and trust the second will be found to be in simpler and more idiomatic Persian, and better in every way. A revision of Genesis, Exodus, and Psalms is going through the press, and I have got as far as the end of the Book of Ruth, and I am now revising 1 Samuel and Job.

Labour involved in translating the Scriptures.

No one who has not had experience of it can at all realize the labour involved in bringing out a revision or new translation of the whole Bible: the amount of time that must be given to the study of Hebrew and Greek, as well as to that of the vernacular; the variety of style and subject-matter of that most glorious Book of books; the direct work of translation itself, the correcting the work of amanuensis and copyist, the correction of proof-sheets, and preparing book after book for the press; the feeling of responsibility and dissatisfaction with one's self, which one still feels after every effort to render the living oracles into a foreign tongue; the going over and over again what one has done, with the criticisms of others, which it is one's duty to solicit on all sides. Three men, as I said above, ought to be set apart for this, which is only one of three works which the Secretary of the Persia and Baghdad Mission has to try to accomplish alone.

In last year's Annual Report mention was made of the persecution of Babis and Jews in Julfa, and that in consequence of the sympathy and kindness shown to them by Mr. Norollah, a lay agent of the London Jews' Society, and by the C.M.S. Missionaries, several were applying for baptism. One of these, a Babi and a respectable tradesman of Ispahan, was baptized by Dr. Bruce in May. This man after his baptism was engaged by an Indian officer as his servant, and good accounts of his consistency and faithful witnessing for Christ in India have been received. Two other Babi inquirers were, in November, attending the Rev. H. Carless' daily Bible readings and joining the Christians in worship with heads uncovered. Dr. Bruce and Mr. Carless have each baptized an adult Jew, and these also are regular attendants at the services. Writing in November Dr. Bruce said:—

and of two Jews.

The Saturday before last Mr. Carless and myself had the privilege of assisting Mr. Norollah in opening an adult school in the Jewish quarter. After we had opened the school with reading of the Word of God and prayer, and loving words to the Jews and Moslems who were present, we went to the synagogue, where we found a large congregation listening to a sermon from a learned Rabbi, who had lately come on a visit to Ispahan from Jerusalem. The Rabbi, when he had finished his discourse, beckoned to me to come up on the platform and preach to the people, and I had the great privilege of preaching the true Messiah to a most attentive congregation.

Christ preached in a synagogue.

During April, May, and June Mr. Carless made a tour eastward from Julfa. He proceeded as far as Yezd, a city of about 60,000 inhabitants. On the road thither he met a pilgrim travelling from Kerman to Acre, to visit Beha, the leader of the Babis, and this man, after conversing with Mr. Carless, renounced his intention and desired baptism. Others with whom interesting religious conversations were held were: a sheikh from Kerman, who was "quite convinced of the truth" and joined in the Sunday worship; a rich young Khan in the service of the Prime Minister; and a young farmer from near Shiraz, who said he had been seeking the true religion for ten years. The last-named remained several days in Mr. Carless' company, and was baptized by him in Yezd. In Yezd itself Mr. Carless was visited by three Mullahs and some other Mohammedans, and one of the former, he wrote, "to show his love and respect, on leaving kissed me on both cheeks." From the Guebres, or fire-worshippers, in Yezd, Mr. Carless received an exceedingly warm welcome. He wrote:—

Baptism at Yezd.

An open door among the fire worshippers.

> They placed a house at my disposal, and their headman was untiring in his kindness. They are the remains of the old ruling people in Persia; they dress in a distinctive style, and speak the Zend language among themselves. In a worldly point of view they are not badly off, and they form a large and important community in Bombay, from whom the Parsees in Yezd receive much pecuniary help. Through this external help, they have been able this past year to open six boys' schools in Yezd and the neighbouring villages. I visited the school in the city one day, and was very pleased: a large, useful building; about 140 boys, two teachers; Persian, Zend, and English taught. Their religion is very strange, but has no inner hold upon the people, and I found them singularly open to receive the Gospel. I believe there is an open door amongst this people, and it would be possible for the Christian missionary to live amongst them in safety, and thus to reach Moslems as well.

Later, Mr. Carless made a tour of seventeen days, encircling Ispahan. The Medical Mission has been practically in abeyance since April, when Dr. Eustace resigned his connexion with the Society and proceeded to Busreh. There he has been doing useful medical work, and it is hoped that his medical skill may still be availed of by the Society in some part of its Mission field.

BAGHDAD.

The excitement occasioned by the baptism of the Persian Mullah in January 1890, his imprisonment in the Persian Consulate, and the banishment of the catechist Yusef to Bitlis, were related in last year's Report. This convert, after suffering much persecution for the name of Christ, had to fly from Baghdad, and is now engaged as an evangelist at Quettah. Yusef was only released on certain conditions, one of which is that he must not return to Baghdad. He went to the American missionaries at Sert on leaving Bitlis. Notwithstanding these troubles the Rev. C. H. Stileman writes hopefully:—

The Gospel furthered by opposition at Baghdad.

> Of course our work was very much hampered by these troubles, but at the same time I must express my full conviction that in many ways it has "fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the Gospel." Numbers of Mohammedans learned that a Mullah had accepted Jesus as his Saviour and Master, who would never have known it but for the persecutions. Greatly exaggerated reports were also circulated all through the country as to the number of Mohammedans who had become Christians in Baghdad, and thus in every direction it is now known that Christian instruction may be obtained here. I am convinced that in the future we shall have still further reason to be thankful for these troubles, though at the time they gave us much anxiety and disappointment, and seemed to put an effectual stop to the work that was going on. We miss Yusef's faithful work for Christ, but are thankful for the testimony which he was enabled to bear to Mohammedans before he was sent away.

A Bible Student near the ruins of Ancient Babylon.

Mr. Stileman visited Hillah, close to the ruins of ancient Babylon, with Dr. Lansdell, in the spring, and there he had some interesting conversations. He found a Mohammedan who has been reading the Bible for some years (see Annual Report for 1888–9, page 69), who is often addressed as "Christian," and has got into trouble with the Mullah for reading the Bible with other Mohammedans both at his house and in his shop. A Turkish official on the Euphrates has also corresponded with Mr. Stileman for some months. In one of his letters this man wrote:—

A miracle indeed!

Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, and our Saviour, by the blessing of the Holy Spirit has opened our inmost heart to His light by His love. I suppose it is a miracle that He has put His love and light in my heart, as He has done to many others also. We must, therefore, put aside earthly considerations and enter His service (my wife also) for our salvation. We are very anxious to learn, and there is no teacher here to teach us what we want to know, except only the reading of the Holy Bible.

Before returning, Dr. Sutton visited Constantinople to try to secure the registration of the Protestant Christians at Baghdad as a separate community. He succeeded in obtaining from the Turkish Government an endorsement of his application, and also a written permission, which it is hoped will have the effect of a school being opened in this city.

The Rev. T. R. Hodgson has been transferred to the British and Foreign Bible Society for work in Persia.

INDIA.

THE full report of the Census Commissioner on the census lately taken in India, and also the Decennial Missionary Census which will be taken at the end of the year, will be awaited with interest.

Increasing Influence of Christianity in India.

Meanwhile there are many indications of the growing influence which Christians are exercising in the country. At the last National Congress, for example, forty of the six hundred delegates were Christians, and their influence was sufficient to prevent any meetings being held on the Lord's Day. No difficulty is found in obtaining audiences of educated Natives in the large cities to listen to earnest Gospel addresses, and such visitors as Dr. Pentecost, the well-known American evangelist, and the Rev. W. Haslam, the veteran Mission preacher, have during the past cold season pressed the claims of Christ with marked effect upon English-speaking Natives in Northern and Western India.

It is opportune, while awaiting this expected report, to state once more some of the striking facts which were rendered evident by the report of 1881, incomplete as the returns were on which that report was based; and this cannot be better done than in the words of Sir Charles A. Elliott, the Lieut.-Governor of Bengal, addressed to the Annual C.M.S. Meeting at Simla in June, 1890, when Sir Charles was Lieut.-Governor of the Punjab. In reply to such opponents as he describes as "pessimists who maintain that the results of Missionary enterprise are nil, or else that what results there are are not worth having," Sir Charles said:—

Sir Charles Elliott's testimony.

Now, some will think that the simple story of their work, told by the Missionaries themselves, is a sufficient reply to these allegations. But to many minds the suspicion will arise that their evidence is likely to be affected by their personal feelings and their enthusiasm for their cause; and with such minds some weight may be attributed to the views of an impartial and unprejudiced witness, and especially of one who has been trained by a long course of service under Government to look closely into facts, not to accept assertions lightly, and to place a high value on principles of economy, and on the doctrine of payment by results.

In the first place, then, I will say a few words on the facts of the case, taking them not from missionary reports but from the unimpeachable basis of official statistics. Some of us were present in this room two years ago, and heard the admirable speech in which Sir C. Aitchison utilised the facts established by the census of 1881 to show the numerical progress which Christianity has made in India. But as audiences in India rapidly change, and facts like these are easily forgotten, and as it is important that they should be remembered, I will venture to go briefly over the same ground again. The main conclusion is that while the general population increased between 1871 and 1881 by 8 per cent., the number of Christians increased by 30 per cent. In the single province of Bengal, where the rise in the number of Hindus was 13 per cent., and of Mohammedans 11 per cent., the growth of the population of Native Christians was 64 per cent. In the adjoining province of Assam, of which I have personal as well as statistical knowledge, while the general growth of the population was 18 per cent., the Christians had increased in the eight Valley Districts by 140 per cent., and in the Khasia Hills, where a devoted band of Welsh missionaries, with whom I am well acquainted is at work, the increase had been at the remarkable rate of 250 per cent. We are now on the brink of another census, and in two years' time speakers in this place will probably be able to tell you what the results of the decade from 1881 to 1891 have been, and how far the prediction of the late Census Commissioner, Sir W. Plowden, has been verified, who prophesied that we should find that the seed sown had multiplied still more abundantly than in the foregoing periods. However this may be, so far as our present knowledge goes, the growth of Christianity in India has been a solid fact, and sufficiently rapid to give all needful encouragement to the supporters of Missions.

Explanation of a too common phenomenon.

Now this being the case, it will seem at first sight very strange that so many residents in India should be ignorant of what is going on under their eyes, and that we should so frequently hear sneers and cavils at the small result of missionary effort. The simple explanation is to be found, I believe, in the extremely narrow limits of our opportunities for observation, and these limits are mainly imposed by the excessive absorption of every one in his particular work or office. There is no leisured class among us who have time to look round and collect and digest information and give it out to us in a literary form. We are all slaves of the desk, and slaves to such an extent that we seldom realize the extent of the slavery of other classes. The fact is that we most of us work more incessantly than almost any class in any other country, and this lies at the bottom of such assertions as those I have referred to.

Testimony of Orthodox Hindus.

In corroboration of this testimony formed by a Christian eye-witness may fitly be quoted the testimony of orthodox Hindus, as declared in a tract entitled, "Are we really awake? An Appeal to the Hindu Community," which has been largely circulated during the past year in Calcutta and other parts of North India. The writer of the tract declares :—

> The life-blood of our society is fast ebbing away, and irreligion is eating into its vitals. Looking beneath the surface, we find the mischief under which we Hindus at present labour is owing chiefly to the influence of Christianity, brought steadily and constantly to bear on our national mind for nearly a century and a half. . . . The countless Christian Missions at work in this country, especially in Bengal, are in a fair way of achieving their object, not so much, however, by carrying conviction to our hearts about the superiority of their religion, as by slowly and imperceptibly changing our ideas with regard to our moral, social, and domestic life. The unflagging energy and the systematic efforts with which these bodies are working at the foundation of our society will, unless counteracted in time, surely cause a mighty collapse of it at no distant date.

Sir Charles Elliott's concluding words expressing his conviction regarding the imperative duty of persevering in the work of evangelizing India deserve special attention, and it is a matter for exceeding thankfulness that in God's gracious providence there have been and are among the Anglo-Indian officials of the first rank so many who have shared and do share these sentiments. Sir Charles said :—

The Church's Duty.

> I will venture in a very few words to lay before you the views I hold as to the position of missionary enterprise in this great Empire. The point that I would insist on to-day is this, that, whether successful or not, the work of offering Christianity to the people is one that ought to be persevered in, since without it we should fail to utilise one large section of the influence which the European ought to have on the Asiatic mind. I hold that it is the part of Missions to carry on and complete the work which England is placed here by Providence to effect, and which would be imperfect without them. The Government of India can do much; if it could not, we who are its servants could not feel the pride and enthusiasm with which we serve it; if we did not believe that it is following the course which the finger of God has marked out for it in this country, we would not serve it at all. The civil and military government can do much; it can ensure internal peace and security of life and property; it can provide good laws and good courts to administer them; it can remove many hindrances in the way of material progress, and to a great extent can protect the country from famine; it can give opportunities for honour and distinction to the worthiest of our Native fellow-subjects; it can bestow education on the masses, and can even offer, with a doubtful and hesitating hand, a maimed and cold code of morals. But it can go no further and there its influence stops. Consider for a moment what a vast hiatus this stoppage implies. Government cannot bestow on the people that which gives to life its colour and to love of duty its noblest incentive: it cannot offer the highest morality, fortified by the example of the Divinely perfect Life. It is here that the missionary steps in to supplement the work of the official. If we look back on our own life and consider what a difference it would have made to us if those influences which surrounded our childhood and moulded our character had been removed, we shall easily see how important a supplement that is. And it is for this reason that I make bold to say that, if Missions did not exist, it would be our duty to invent them. This is what was said by the famous men who built up the administration of the Punjab, and who, when it was annexed in 1849, among their first requirements, along with courts and codes and roads and police, wrote home to the Church Missionary Society for a supply of missionaries. But we are not now in their position. Missionaries do exist—nay more, they progress and prosper—they are numbered now by thousands and their converts by hundreds of thousands. All that is left for us to do is to aid and support them with our money, with our friendly counsel and sympathy and co-operation.

What the Government cannot do.

The extensiveness of the operations of these India Missions and the measure of thought and care which are bestowed upon their administration, both in India, by the friends who form the several Corresponding Committees, and at home by the Parent Committee, are realized by very few. More than two thousand documents and letters, most of which were written by or passed through the hands of the Secretaries of the Corresponding Committees, were received at Salisbury Square from India during 1890, which were then printed in précis and brought under the attention of the India Sub-Committee. The Society is greatly indebted to the members of the Corresponding Committees, most of whom are exceedingly busy men with engrossing official duties and responsibilities, for the unwearied attention they apply to the innumerable matters of business which pass under their consideration, questions involving great principles of finance, or administration, or of high policy, and questions affecting the health, or the mutual relations, or the general effectiveness of the agents, European and Native. Nothing is small which concerns so great a cause as the winning of India for Christ. The Committee would solicit in their behalf continued and earnest prayer. Their share, as instruments, in the past progress which the Lord has vouchsafed to the Society's work has been second only to that of the Missionaries themselves, and as that work enlarges so their need increases of Divine wisdom and grace. The following are the members of these Committees:—

North India.—The Bishop of Calcutta; the Rev. S. B. Taylor; Cols. W. L. Knyvett, J. M. McNeile, and G. W. Sawyer; Major J. Broadbent; and Messrs. J. B. Braddon, Stephen Jacob, and J. N. Stuart. The Bishop, Col. W. L. Knyvett, and Mr. J. N. Stuart, are now in England. The Rev. A. Clifford is the Secretary.

Punjab and Sindh.—The Bishop of Lahore; the Rev. F.J. Montgomery; Col. J. B. Hutchinson; Majors J. A. Fergusson and J. A. L. Montgomery; Dr. Dickson; and Messrs. F. C. Channing, H. Garbett, R. Machonachie, and W. Mackworth Young. The three last mentioned are now in England. The Rev. R. Clark is the Secretary.

Western India.—The Bishop of Bombay; the Hon. Justice H. M. Birdwood; Cols. F. W. Major and D. V. Shortland; and Messrs. A. F. Cox, C. E. G. Crawford, E. Hosking, G. Jacob, and J. Jefferson. Messrs. Cox and Jacob are in England. Rev. R. A. Squires is the Secretary.

South India.—The Bishop of Madras; the Ven. Archdeacon Browne; the Revs. W. W. Elwes, S. Morley, C. H. Pelly, and J. W. Walker; Cols. Clarke, Cox, and T. Walker; and Captain Hayne. Archdeacon Browne and Col. Clarke are now in England. The Rev. E. Sell is the Secretary.

NORTH INDIA MISSION.

(European Missionaries first arrived 1816.)

THE Committee have not yet been able to make provision for the division of this Mission into two by the formation of a Corresponding Committee of the North-West Provinces, as they hope to do at an early date. The boundaries of the mission still include stations more than one thousand miles apart, and extend from Calcutta in the East to Kherwara in the West, and from Mandla in the Central Provinces to Annfield at the foot of the Himalayas. Nevertheless, the unity of the Mission consists in little more than its being under the same Bishop, and under the administration of the same Local Committee. A linguistic barrier has from the first effected a real division, Bengali being the prevailing language in the lower basin of the Ganges, and Urdu and Hindi in the North-West Provinces. Each of these great sections has its own Missionary Conference—an annual gathering of all the missionaries within its area; each its own District and Central Church Councils, representing the Native congregations; each its Divinity School; and each its Normal Training School, for male teachers. The Santal Mission, where the language again is different, has a Conference and District Church Council of its own.

Extent of the North India Mission.

Ordinations.

The Bishop of Calcutta admitted, on March 30, the Revs. J. A. Cullen and Mark Drummond to Priest's Orders, and Babu Dukhla Biswas and Isaac Vincent to Deacon's Orders, at Calcutta. On April 12, at Taljhari, the Rev. Gopal Biswas was admitted to Priest's Orders, and Babu Baijonath Murmu to Deacon's Orders; and on December 21 Tushtu C. Tarafdar received Deacon's Orders.

Bengal Central Church Council.

THE Bengal Central Church Council, representing the Calcutta and Krishnagar District Church Councils, met on January 16, at Calcutta, under the presidency of the Bishop. The questions of "How to secure a faithful attachment to the Church," and "How to encourage young men to offer for the Ministry," were discussed with considerable animation. The Bishop, who takes a deep interest in these gatherings, pressed home the duty and privilege of Christian parents dedicating their children to God for the work of the Church, without regard to their future monetary prospects: "Give your children to God, and your best child to God's work. God will provide, and God's people will never let you starve."

Deaths: Rev. H. Williams,

A footnote in last year's Annual Report recorded the death of the Rev. Henry Williams, of this Mission, which occurred as that Report was passing through the press. Mr. Williams was ordained from Islington College by the Bishop of London at Christmas, 1876, and read the Gospel at St. Paul's Cathedral as first deacon. The following autumn he joined the Rev. James Vaughan in Krishnagar, at a time when he was engaged in a strenuous struggle with caste feeling among the Native Christians, and Mr. Williams' arrival was a great comfort to his veteran brother missionary. After Mr. Vaughan's death, Mr. Williams ably carried on the work, and, as Chairman of the Native Church Council, was the leader and adviser of the Native clergy and catechists in charge of the various congregations. Mr. Williams was ordered home in March, on account of serious illness, and underwent after his arrival a painful operation, from which, although it was successfully performed, he never rallied. The Bengal Missionary Conference, which met in November, recorded their sense of Mr. Williams's character and influence in the following terms:—

> Mr. Williams has left behind him a fragrant memory, and a stimulating example of what a missionary in this country should be. His independent mind, high spirit, and keen insight were tempered by a warm and brotherly love, which made him not only forcible in counsel and strong in action, but also quick in sympathy, and practical and effective in help. His genuine affection for the Bengali people was one of the most prominent features in his character, and this, joined to his sustained enthusiasm and thoroughness in the work of Christ, made him a truly useful and influential missionary.

Mrs. Williams is a sister of the Rev. A. Clifford, the Secretary of the Calcutta Corresponding Committee, and of Mr. Edward Clifford, who took part in the India Winter Mission of 1887–88, and afterwards visited Father Damien at Molokai.

Mrs. Bradburn,

In December the wife of the Rev. C. H. Bradburn was taken to her rest. She went out—as Miss M. Birds—in the autumn of 1887, to be married, and she at once gave herself, as a friend who had opportunities of observing her labours has written, "with cheerful hope to the task of relieving the burden of care and work which had rested too heavily upon her husband as Principal of the Calcutta Boys' Boarding School, and which up to that time had seemed to strain his powers almost to the point of a serious breakdown in health. The details of school finance, the medical treatment of her many small patients, the boys' Bible-class, the meetings for communicants, the gatherings after Sunday evening service for hymns, and the other manifold duties of a school-world, all won her interest and attention, although not herself strong. In no common way did she fulfil the apostolic counsel to 'give thyself wholly' to the work for which God's Providence led her to our Calcutta Mission, and Bengali and English friends will remember her example with that of those others of God's Missionary servants whom He has called into His presence from among our number."

Revs. S. Biswas, F. J. de Rozario, and M. S. Seal.

The Rev. Sartok Biswas, who was ordained deacon in 1873, and priest in 1879, died in May; the Rev. Felix Justus de Rozario in July; and the Rev. Modhu Sudun Seal in August. Mr. de Rozario was of mixed Portuguese descent, and was originally a Roman Catholic, but joined the Church of England when a young man. He entered the service of the Society in 1833, as a schoolmaster under the Rev. J. J. Weitbrecht. From 1843 to 1878 he was at Agarpara. He was ordained by Bishop Cotton in 1863. In 1878 advancing age—he was 84 at the time of his death—compelled him to retire from active service. Mr. Seal received his early education in the General Assembly's Institution, under Dr. Duff. He was baptized at Cawnpore in 1836, and after working as a catechist in Sindh, was ordained by the Bishop of Bombay in 1855. Five years later he returned to Calcutta and was appointed to the charge of Kidderpur, where he laboured until his retirement in 1887. He was 75 when he died. During his last illness he was much troubled with doubts, and he had to fight over again the battle of the faith which he had fought successfully fifty years before. At such times he would ask for passages of Scripture to be repeated to him, and then he would recite the Apostles' Creed with great fervour. The time of cloud and trouble passed away, and was succeeded by tranquility and quiet, resting in God as revealed in Christ. On more than one occasion he said, grasping the hand of a friend who was visiting him, "Oh, I am so glad I am a Christian!"

"So glad I am a Christian."

The Rev. C. S. Harington, who, with Mrs. Harington (a sister of the late Bishop Parker), laboured with much devotion for ten years in connexion with the Old Church, have gone to the Seychelles Islands, where Mr. Harington has accepted an Acting Civil Chaplaincy. The Rev. A. H. Bowman, Mr. Harington's successor at the Old Church, has been obliged to return home the climate of Bengal not agreeing with Mrs. Bowman. Mr. Bowman has been appointed by the Committee Association Secretary for East Yorkshire.

The Rev. G. H. Parsons, who volunteered to defer his furlough, already overdue, upon the illness of the Rev. H. Williams becoming known, was obliged, by the state of his health, to come home, with Mrs. Parsons, in October. In February the Rev. F. T. and Mrs. Cole left on furlough; and the Rev. H. and Mrs. Brown, the former having suffered seriously from fever during winter, came home on sick leave. The Rev. W. H. Ball, who had a bad attack of typhoid fever, which necessitated his going to the hills at Darjeeling in the spring of 1890, and which left him very weak, came home on furlough with Mrs. Ball, in March; and Miss Neele, also on furlough, in April.

Reinforcements.

The reinforcements sent out during the year were the following: The Rev. Herbert Gouldsmith, M.A., of Exeter College, Oxford, Senior Curate of St. James's, Hatcham, and Mrs. Gouldsmith; the Rev. Edward T. Sandys, M.A. of St. John's College, Cambridge, Curate of Aston, Birmingham, whose father, the late Rev. T. Sandys, was for forty-six years a Missionary of the Society at Calcutta, and whose mother is Secretary of the C.M.S. and C.E.Z.M.S. Ladies' Candidates Committees, and sister of Mr. James Stuart, Hon. Secretary of the C.E.Z.M.S., and of the Bishop of Waipu; and the Rev. Arthur George Lockett, B.A. of London University, Curate of St. Paul's, Dorking. The Rev. James Brown and Miss A. Sampson have returned to the Mission. All these sailed during the autumn.

CALCUTTA.

Calcutta has been greatly privileged by being visited by a succession of earnest and experienced Evangelists from America and England during the recent cold season. The addresses of Dr. Pentecost to educated Natives appear to have awakened a deep spirit of inquiry. The following extract from an account of one of these addresses is quoted from the Statesman and Friend of India:—

Dr. Pentecost at Calcutta.

> Dr. Pentecost brought a most impressive and stirring address to a close by solemnly averring that God had declared His decree to the effect that all Heathendom and all princes and people and all the powers of this world must either surrender to the Living Christ or be dashed to pieces like a potter's vessel. He pointed out how all the heathen empires of the world which had resisted Jesus Christ had gone down under appalling calamities, and how all nations which, having once received the Gospel, subsequently closed the Bible, had, as by an irreversible decree, fallen steadily away from their former greatness and sunk into second and third class powers. He appealed to his Indian hearers not to put themselves in opposition to the Lord and His Anointed, reading the 2nd Psalm as the basis of his closing appeal to them. The interest of the audience was intense, and it almost looked as if some unusual movement would follow the appeal. It is impossible to estimate the full results of these meetings; but that the greatest interest is being manifested in them by our Indian brethren is an evident and palpable fact.

Baptisms.

Nineteen adults were baptized by the Rev. J. W. Hall, who is responsible for the evangelistic work carried on by the Calcutta Church Missionary Association. In November, a Marathi gentleman, in the Government Survey Office, with his two daughters and a young nephew, were baptized in Trinity Church. He had first heard the Gospel from his father, who was a doctor in the army, and who both read the Bible and prayed and taught his children to do so, but died unbaptized soon after the Mutiny. Family troubles at length led B. S. to confess publicly the truth in which his reason had acquiesced for many years. Mr. Hall refers to many who are at present in secret deep sympathy with the work of Christ in India, who remain as yet unbaptized. One of these said to him, "When first I began to read the Bible, I did not believe it to be true; later on, I began to suspect that much of it might be true; now I know it is all true." The Gospel is regularly preached at eight different preaching stations, and God's Word is taught and declared in three hospitals, in the Leper Asylum, the Almshouse, and at the several out-stations. In forty-one schools 2,200 children are under instruction, who compare favourably in respect to Scripture knowledge, Mr. Hall says, with many children in England. The Calcutta District Church Council, of which Mr. Hall is chairman, has thirteen congregations connected with it.

Progress from unbelief to conviction.

The Committee have much regretted the necessity of transferring the Rev. Philip Ireland Jones from Calcutta to occupy for a while an important post left vacant in Krishnagar. The Rev. W. H. Ball coming home on furlough at the same time has involved the closing for the present of the Divinity School. As, however, all the eight students, except one, had completed their three years' course—two, Babus Dukhla Biswas and Tushtu Tarafdar, were admitted to Deacons' Orders, and one, the Rev. Gopal Biswas, to Priest's Orders, and the rest went out to labour as catechists—the inconvenience will be much less than it would otherwise have been, while the experience gained in the work among the Krishnagar congregations will be of great value to Mr. Jones in his future work at the Divinity School. Besides the eight students just referred to, some converts and others have been under training for longer or shorter periods. Two opposite dangers which threaten the future Church are kept in view in the instructions, namely, ritualism on the one hand, and, on the other, the rejection of a regular ministry, a belief in sinless perfection, and an inclination to oppose all rule and order. Mr. Ball says:—

Opposite dangers.

> There is no doubt but that three years' continuous study in Calcutta has a great effect upon the men. Their minds are enlarged, the spiritual life is deepened, and they gain an intelligent understanding of what it is to be an Evangelical Churchman; besides which there are the refining influences of living in Calcutta, and mixing with Native Christian gentlemen.

The Sunday evening English services for Hindu College students have been continued with a fair average attendance; and the Sunday Bible Class for non-Christians had a better attendance than the previous year. The majority of the members of the latter, Mr. Jones says, are examining curiously into Christianity, though without at present any thought that their investigations will lead them to forsake Hinduism. Yet one young student remarked, "Yes, I see we must all be Christ's"; and another, "I want to feel Christ's presence as my hand feels the fire." The out-door preaching, owing to Mr. Ball's illness, has been less regularly maintained. One convert, a young man named Russick Lal Roy, was vouchsafed to these labours. He had been sent to Calcutta because, having heard the Gospel in his own village, he had expressed a desire to become a Christian. For some time he did not meet with any Christians in this city, then he heard the out-door preaching, and at once enrolled himself as an inquirer. Before his baptism he returned to his home and confessed Christ among his friends, enduring a good deal of persecution. He was baptized on December 27. Mr. Jones is one of the examining Chaplains to the Bishop of Calcutta, and in that capacity has much important and interesting work with candidates for Orders; he also is a member of the Committee for the revision of the Bengali Bible; and, as acting Joint Secretary of the Corresponding Committee, he has had a share in the arduous work of the Rev. A. Clifford. Mr. Ball has acted as Secretary of the Bible Society, involving the supervision of that Society's colporteurs, and in his house the weekly meetings of the Translation Committee, consisting of ten Bengali gentlemen and five Europeans, with a Native gentleman, Mr. K. L. Bannergee, as Chairman, were held. At the request of the Calcutta Tract Society Mr. Ball has written a Companion to the Bible containing a full introduction to each book of the Holy Scriptures. This book, in two parts, will contain about 900 pages, and will be the largest theological book yet published in the Bengali language.

An inquirer sent to Calcutta to escape the Missionaries.

Extra labours of the Divinity School Staff.

He has also prepared and published The Gospel in the Old and New Testament, in Bengali, the original being by Major Giberne; The Pathway of Safety; and The Catechists' Manual, an explanation of the Catechism, Creed, Lord's Prayer, and the Sacraments, for the use of pastors and catechists. The C.M.S. Book Depôt, which the late Bishop Parker and the Rev. W. R. Blackett started some ten years since, is under Mr. Ball's charge. It is the only Christian book depôt in the whole of the Native part of Calcutta, and it is very satisfactory to observe that the sale of Christian books was last year more than twice as large as during any of the four previous years. Literary work.

The Rev. Jani Alli, who superintends the Mohammedan Mission, reports three adult baptisms. Services in Hindustani are held on Sunday mornings in the Old Church, and in the afternoons in the Welland Hall, while Moulvie Hasan Ali preaches in different parts of the city and visits the hospitals and melas in the neighbourhood of Calcutta, seeking for the followers of Islam. He has also visited Patna, at the invitation of Miss Abraham, of the I.F.N.S., and of a leading moulvie, and there Hasan Ali addressed a meeting of the leading Mussulmans of the place. Twenty-four of these wrote to Mr. Jani Alli expressing their gratification at the meeting, and asking that other similar meetings might be held. Mohammedan Mission.

The Garden Reach Anglo-Vernacular School, which, since the Government took the former buildings for the purpose of enlarging the city docks in 1885, has been held in a hired house, has now again its own buildings. On April 15, 1890, Lady Stuart Bayley, wife of the former Lieut.-Governor of Bengal, laid the foundation stone; and on January 30, 1891, the new Lieut.-Governor, Sir Charles A. Elliott, opened the new building. On the latter occasion Lady Elliott distributed the prizes earned at the previous examination. The school opened with 240 on the roll. Mr. Herbert A. Stark, M.A., son of the Rev. Alfred Stark, of the Santal Mission, is at present acting as head-master. In the Mutyaburj School the number on the roll has risen from 104 to 125. Mr. Masih Manzer resides at Mutyaburj where he labours as a lay evangelist, taking some classes in the school for the purpose of influencing the boys, and of reaching through them their relatives and friends. The Oudh princes continue to show an interest in the school. Mr. Alli says:— Opening of Garden Reach School.

> In the last annual examination, held in December last, three of the Oudh princes took part, and one of these, Prince Mirza Babar, was so well pleased with the result that he gave three prizes; also he has shown his interest in the work by visiting the school, and telling the boys in rather strong terms that the education they were receiving was the only thing to raise the Mussulmans. I believe this is the first instance in the history of India of a Mussulman prince examining a Mission school and encouraging the boys by giving prizes. "It is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes." A Mussulman Prince examines a Mission School.

Boys' Boarding School.

The Rev. C. H. Bradburn very justly says in his Annual Letter that the Boys' Boarding School has suffered a very great loss by the death of his wife, and it has since suffered a further loss by Mr. Bradburn's transfer, at his own request, to the Santal Mission, exchanging spheres with the Rev. F. B. Gwinn. The high ideal which Mr. and Mrs. Bradburn kept before them is well exhibited in a quotation from one of her letters :—

> We need the prayers of our friends, as well as their sympathy, for if we are to succeed it must be by the grace of God. And succeed we must, the thought of failure is too terrible. For a boy to leave this school with only his intellect quickened would be almost time thrown away: it is the soul we wish to see made alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

"Let us have more boys like that one."

"A veteran master of great repute."

The respect and affection entertained for Mr. Bradburn by the teachers and the boys were exhibited when he left by their presenting him four handsome vases of Indian metal work and an address. A Boarding School boy succeeded in obtaining one out of ten vacancies in the Telegraph Department for which there were nearly 200 competitors, and the superintendent of the Department said subsequently to Mr. Bradburn : "If you have any more boys like that one, let us have them." The head-master of the school is Babu Rassick Lal Sircar, whose baptism was mentioned in the Annual Report for 1888–9, pages 78 and 81. "He is a veteran master of great repute," Mr. Bradburn says, "and is spending his remaining days in this school, which to him must seem a small one, but eminently the vineyard of his Master who redeemed him."

Girls' Boarding School.

A Christian girl matriculate at Calcutta University

The Girls' Boarding School, under Miss H. J. Neele, still continues in the too limited quarters afforded by the old Parsonage in the Christ Church compound. Numerous applications for admission have had to be declined, which shows, Miss Neele says, that the religious and moral training given in the school is highly valued by the Native Christians for their daughters, as other institutions afford equally good secular instruction. In this latter respect the Boarding School stands well, however. One pupil passed the entrance examination of the Calcutta University during the year, while six passed the Government primary examinations, two obtaining scholarships. Nearly all the junior teachers in the school are former pupils, and some of them are exercising a very good influence over the girls. The letters of one of them to members of her class during holiday time, Miss Neele says, "have evidently been written with prayer, and must be blessed of God." Miss Alice Sampson received a warm welcome on her return from furlough, and, on Miss Neele leaving, she assumed the charge of the school assisted by Miss Margaret Hall. Miss E. M. Hall relieved Miss Harte, who had very generously accepted the temporary charge of the Agarpara Orphanage, in November. Forty-four children and seven infants are inmates of this institution.

The ministrations of the Rev. A. H. Bowman at the Old Church during his two years in Calcutta were much valued by the congregation. Through his exertions a spacious hall was erected last year in the compound of the Welland Memorial School, to be used as an infant schoolroom, and also for evangelistic and temperance meetings. The Rev. H. Gouldsmith took charge of the work in February. An eight-days' Mission was held by the Rev. W. Haslam in January, at which time Mr. Bowman was conducting a special Mission in Rangoon. Old Church.

BURDWAN.

Two converts were baptized by the Rev. H. Brown in February. One, Dharmananda, was a villager of the Krishnagar district, who, upon the death of a friend and of his wife, had visited many sacred places seeking the truth. Mr. Brown met him when on a visit to Krishnagar as he was preaching by the river side, and a few months later baptized him at Burdwan. Dharmananda then went back to his own village and read the Bible with several of the people there. He wrote on the door of his hut: "This house is used for prayer and Bible reading." The second convert was an old man who had been a believer for many years, and had been a teacher in the Mission School for some time. The Rev. R. K. Bose also baptized two converts, a Mohammedan, Mehir Ali Mir, 23 years of age, who was after his baptism received for a short time in the Calcutta Divinity School; and a Hindu, named Lazarus, a leper, about 45 years of age. The latter was found lying under a tree in Burdwan, being on his way to visit places noted for sanctity. Mr. Bose conversed with him and he visited the Mission compound, and soon requested baptism. He has been received into the Calcutta Leper Hospital where he is, Mr. Bose says, "an example of steadfast faith and patient endurance." Mr. Bose also baptized 16 Bowris in the neighbourhood of Assensole, which is 66 miles north-west of Burdwan. The old man, Kali Charon, who first took the message of the Gospel to these people still works on faithfully. Mr. Bose was transferred to Calcutta in September, on account of his health, and Mr. Brown having come home in February for the same reason, Burdwan has at present no ordained Missionary; the ladies of the C.E.Z.M.S., however, continue bravely to "hold the fort." Burdwan. "This house is used for prayer and Bible reading."

KRISHNAGAR DISTRICT.

When the Rev. G. H. Parsons came home in October, the Rev. P. Ireland Jones was requested to assume temporarily the important charge of the Native Pastorates and the Chairmanship of the Krishnagar District Church Council. Mr. Jones is deeply impressed with the importance of the work entrusted to him of seeking to deepen and strengthen the spiritual life of individual believers, and to build up the Church in Krishnagar in faith and love and good works. He rightly considers this to be the surest and in the end the most speedy method of aggression on the abounding heathenism of the district.

Floods in Nuddea District.

In the summer Krishnagar was visited by floods of unusual extent. Probably so large an area has not been inundated during the past fifty years. The rice crops were destroyed, many houses fell, and much sickness was consequent on the discomfort, scarcity of food, and the unwholesome substitutes for their ordinary diet to which the people were reduced. An appeal made in the newspapers by the Revs. A. Clifford and G. H. Parsons was liberally responded to, and the Bengali Christian community in Calcutta exhibited their sympathy by gifts amounting to Rs. 541. It is painful to record that the Roman Catholics in the district took occasion from the distress of the people to offer them assistance on condition that they went over to their church, and a number were accordingly re-baptized by the priests, and received a regular monthly allowance at a fixed rate per head. Mr. Jones says :—

Liberality of Native Christians.

> In one village only two families remain with us, and it is a problem of no little difficulty to deal with them, and not to descend to the methods of the Romanists. Such defections are cause for keen sorrow over the ill-taught and little-caring souls who for a few pice are quite willing to cast in their lot with an erring Church—of whose errors they know little and care less.

Special meetings for spiritual refreshment and mutual encouragement and edification, were held on November 29 and 30, at Chupra, for the female agents of the C.M.S. and C.E.Z.M.S. Miss Good of the latter society gave the addresses, the subject being "The work of the Lord Jesus Christ for us, in us, and by us."

Bishop of Calcutta in Krishnagar.

In December the Bishop of Calcutta visited the district, and held confirmations at Krishnagar, Chupra, Bollubhpur, Rutnapur, Joginda, and Nutongram, the Christians gathering in to each of these centres from the neighbouring villages for the confirmation in the evening, and Holy Communion the following morning. The number of those confirmed was 259 in all, and the communicants were 379. Mr. Jones says the Bishop remarked several times on the improvement in the demeanour of the candidates and the general attention of the congregation, as compared with his experience of thirteen or fourteen years before. On January 7, the Krishnagar District Council held its meeting at Rutnapur, and the Rev. W. T. Hollins, Rector of St. Peter's, Bristol, addressed the members from St. John xv. 26, 27. The two most important subjects discussed were, "Work among Christian women," and "Schools for Christian children."

Training Schools.

The Training School at Krishnagar had twenty-four students at the beginning of 1891, viz., thirteen in the Normal School and eleven in preparatory form attached. The Rev. E. T. Butler says, "I believe that a real desire to glorify God, and to be made meet for the Master's use, animates the lads." Twelve of the students were confirmed in January. In a recent open competitive examination on Scripture knowledge, two out of ten candidates from the school obtained valuable prizes, and the other eight certificates. Mr. Butler preaches twice a week in the bazaar, often exhibiting Scripture views with his lantern, and one night of the week is devoted to visiting Babus in their own homes. The Rev. W. Wallace is stationed at Krishnagar for itinerant work, and the Rev. I. W. Charlton resided there until June, when he removed to Bollubhpur. The latter had typhoid fever in August, which necessitated his going to Darjeeling. A new Girls' Boarding School has just been opened (April, 1891) at Krishnagar by Miss Harding and Miss Annie Sampson, both of the C.E.Z.M.S.

Associated Evangelists.

New Church at Shikarpur.

Shikarpur, to the north of the district is the home of the Associated Evangelists, Messrs. S. W. Donne, A. Le Feuvre, and P. H. Shaul. On Sunday, December 7th, the Bishop of Calcutta dedicated the new church at Shikarpur, which has been erected at the cost of the same generous anonymous donor to whom this Mission owes so much. Most of the C.M.S. Calcutta Missionaries, and a considerable number of English planters, were present. The Bishop preached at both the morning and afternoon services. The building operations have, inevitably, interfered with the proper work of the Missionaries. Mr. Donne, who had the general responsibility, as temporary leader, dwells in his Annual Letter upon the difficulties involved in building 25 miles from a railway, when every ounce of material must be transported 130 miles, where there is no contractor, and the workmen have never before attempted such a style of work. Some of his occasional journeys to Calcutta were somewhat formidable undertakings. For example:—

A trying journey.

> At one time, the only way to reach the railway was by a journey of thirty miles by river in a small country boat, which took ten hours, and made me "sea-sick." I then had to wait four hours at the little wayside station, and then only got a luggage train, for the privilege of travelling by which I had to pay first-class fare, and which took three hours to reach the only station on the line which boasts of a refreshment-room, where I was able to get a little brandy to stop the sickness. I had to wait there three hours more for a passenger train, which in its turn took five hours more to reach Calcutta. My return journey was even more trying, and occupied five days, during three of which, my supply of food which I had taken with me having gone bad in the heat, I had to live on curry and rice, eaten with the fingers, prepared for the servants of the little Native steamer by which I was travelling, and that only twice a day; and my drink, the muddy water of the river, about the colour of weak tea. My only washing during that period was to rinse my hands and face in water and let them dry in the sun.

But the great work was not forgotten in the distractions of the smaller. Mr. Donne says:—

"Putting up" and "taking up" the Cross.

Our head-mistrie (workman) has been known as an inquirer for some time, in fact he is fully convinced of the truth of Christianity, and even attends Christian worship and contributes voluntarily to collections, &c., but does not take the final step, saying he is waiting for his wife to come too. One day, as we were sitting alone on the very top of the bamboo scaffold on one horizontal bamboo tied to two upright ones, like an ordinary horizontal bar in a gymnasium, with the spire finial coming up between us, fixing in an iron cross, I tried to point out to him in broken Bengali how he was willing to put up the cross, but not willing to take up the cross.

The other members of the band have itinerated, in tents during the cold season, from November to March, and in boats during the rainy season, from July to October, "trying," as one of them writes, "to fill the land with the story and music of the cross." In one village a Mussulman said: "I have been praying to God every day since you came here last that He would teach me His truth." Mr. Le Feuvre says:—

No romance but plenty of work.

There is little or no romance about the work, but plenty to call forth the energies of a Samson, the meekness of a Moses, the patience of a Job, the love of a John—in fact, the life of an Associated Evangelist will require and put to the test all the graces or fruits of the Spirit.

The Rev. A. G. Lockett arrived and assumed the leadership in November, having landed at Bombay and travelled via Jabalpur, where he conferred with the Rev. C. H. Gill. He commenced at once the study of Bengali.

SANTALIA.

Death of Rev. E. Droese.

THE Rev. E. Droese, who laboured in this Mission at Bhagalpur thirty-two years, and was the first to carry the Gospel to the Santals and Paharis of the Rajmahal Hills, died in April at Landour. He went to India under the Berlin Society in 1843, but in 1849 he entered the service of the C.M.S., and was ordained by Bishop Daniel Wilson. In later years he has resided at Mussoorie in the North-West Provinces, where he has continued his work of translation into the Malto language, of which he had a more intimate knowledge than any other European. A short time before his death he sent home the Book of Psalms and a series of Bible stories in Malto.

The difficulties of the past three years, arising from the inadequacy of the European staff in this Mission, continue. Owing to the absence of the Rev. A. Stark on furlough in the country most of the year, Bhagaya was added to the already heavy charge of the Rev. A. J. Shields, and the three districts of Taljhari Bahawa, and Hirampur, each of which had a resident Missionary in 1887, continued under the Rev. F. T. Cole. The last named has now come home on furlough, and the Rev. J. Brown, who returned in the autumn to the Mission leaving Mrs. Brown in this country, succeeded him in the superintendence of the above districts and in the Chairmanship of the District Church Council. The Rev. C. H. Bradburn, formerly of the Calcutta Boys' Boarding School, under circumstances already stated, has taken charge of the Boarding School at Taljhari, the Rev. F. B. Gwinn, who had been studying Bengali in Krishnagar with the view to work in Santalia, being now attached to the Calcutta Mission.

Mr. Cole says that there has been no retrogression, but, on the contrary, "real progress" in the three districts under the District Church Council. The number of baptisms, 74 adults, was greater than in past years when there were three European superintendents, and, he says, "there is more corporate life and shoulder-to-shoulder effort" on the part of the Native Christians. Much earnestness in supporting Native Missionary agents and in Church building is displayed. Mr. Cole says:—

More shoulder-to-shoulder effort."

Nearly every pastorate has, or will have during the coming year, an agent of its own, supported for the most part by the rice and pice given on the third Sunday in every month. On the afternoon of that day a missionary address is given, and very often the Native Missionary himself stands up before the congregation and gives an account of his labours. In blessing others they are blessed themselves. On all sides we hear of new life, and though, sad to say, we have a dead weight of unconverted Christians, and a rising second generation, who do not always follow in the footsteps of their parents, yet I believe the majority are leading lives immeasurably superior to those of their heathen relatives.

Missionary efforts of Native Christians.

Church building seems to have been the rage during the past year, and all at the people's expense. The Atgoan people have made a capital church for themselves, and have shown great energy in raising the necessary funds. The Lakipur pastorate has raised three times as much as they did last year and, strange to say, there have been thirty-two baptisms in this pastorate against ten last year.

Our harvest thanksgivings have been such joyous times! I have been present at sixteen of them lately, and the total amount of grain given has been 145 Santal maunds (60 lbs. to a maund). Last year we considered it very good when they gave 113 maunds. One man set apart a field and gave the produce of it. Another put by a sheaf every day during his reaping time. This brought over four maunds.

Harvest Thanksgivings.

The Bahawa Girls' School has been superintended since October by Miss Mary Gore, of the C.E.Z.M.S., and Miss Leffler, of the same Society, has since joined her. There are 87 boarders and five day scholars—all Christians except one or two.

Of the evangelistic work in the GODDA district the Rev. A. J. Shields writes:— Godda.

This is a red-letter year in the Mission in the number of inquirers, and everything points to a large increase of the conversions in no distant future. At a recent visit to Telgawa, seven families said they wished to become

A "red-letter year."

Christians; and in two neighbouring villages the people were asking most earnestly that they might be frequently visited. Again, at Mohonpur, when I was there a week ago, three families were under instruction, and a number of others all round were listening gladly.

Round our head-station here we are having great encouragement. Two most out-and-out Santals were baptized with several others on Christmas Day, and these men are working as hard as paid agents, with another convert of three years ago, and results are not long in appearing, one family having declared themselves since then, and some fifty others are talking of coming out.

The monthly perusal of the agents' diaries, coupled with my own observation, shows that there is a growing feeling of dissatisfaction with Heathenism among the Santals. It seems as though it needed only a little more prayer and faith in us and the intercederes at home to move the Arm that moves the world to work marvellous things here.

The Rev. F. Etheridge resided at Godda while studying Hindi. Having had a course of training in medicine and surgery at King's College, London, before going out, he was able to take charge of the Dispensary, and over 2,000 cases passed through his hands during the year, some travelling, he says, almost incredible distances in the hope of getting their sufferings alleviated. He has been assigned to the Pahari work. Mr. Shields has opened six new village schools among these people, the Government defraying the expense, and he appointing the teachers. Two agents of the Church Army were sent out two years ago to work under Mr. Shields, one of whom was transferred to Calcutta at the beginning of 1890, to work in the Old Church parish. The other has now, Mr. Shields says, "fairly mastered Santali, and is a most distinct success as a missionary—humble, earnest, and with a zeal for souls which has never flagged since he landed." Another evangelist has been sent out lately to Mr. Shields.

The Rev. W. Sido resided at BHAGHAYA from June till December, taking the Hindi and Santali daily services, and preaching with the catechists in the district. The 46 boys of the Pahari Boarding School were transferred to Godda, together with the problem of feeding, clothing, and educating them on the Government grant of Rs. 143 per annum. Mr. Shields thinks the school may lay claim to being "the cheapest boarding school in the C.M.S. Missions—probably in the world." The Girls' School has been temporarily closed.

BHAGALPUR.

Bhagalpur.

Upon the Rev. G. H. and Mrs. Weber taking furlough in April, the Rev. J. A. Cullen was appointed to this station. His daily preaching with the two catechists in the bazaar, and in the villages near the city, rarely meets with opposition; on the contrary, it is a common occurrence for some to wait till the close of a meeting to ask questions, and Mr. Cullen expresses his conviction that many are convinced that Jesus is their Lord and Saviour. A wealthy Brahmin told him that he trusted Christ as his Saviour, and that he read the Bible and prayed to Jesus every day, but could not see the necessity of being baptized and confessing Christ before men; and a Mohammedan lad, the son of a moulvie of good position, said he had come to the conclusion, after listening in the bazaar, "that salvation could only be obtained through Jesus." Evening visits to the homes of educated Natives have been welcomed. "The Brahmins of Bhagalpur," he says, "seem to be an exceptionally good lot of men, and are really searching after truth, and pray daily for more light. They appreciate the efforts of Christian missionaries, and confess that all the light they have has come through the missionaries." He continues:—

Brahmins appreciating Missionary efforts.

A young Bengali wrote to me some time ago, saying that he wished to be a Christian, so I invited him to come and see me. He said that he had been taught by the Brahmins about Christ, and now he wished to become a Christian. Two companions came with him "to try and keep him from making a fool of himself," as they said, so I talked to them, preaching Christ for several hours. At the end this lad said now he was more determined than ever to become a Christian; while his companions exclaimed, "We came to stop him, but now we want to hear more." He bought Bibles from me, and I promised to have a Bible-class for them once a week at the vestry of the English Church, which is near their homes. The Bengali lad has been receiving instruction, and went the other day to visit his father, and tell him of the step he is about to take.

Coming to oppose, waiting to hear.

In November Mr. Cullen started on a preaching tour, travelling southward as far as the Godda district. He says:—

Our tent kept to the main road, while we divided into two parties, and took the villages for about three miles on each side of the road. After prayers in the morning, we left camp and worked on until dark in the evening, then, having had some food, we exhibited a magic-lantern to between 500 and 800 people every night, who had followed us from the villages we had preached in during the day; frequently we were obliged to go on talking up to eleven and twelve o'clock with men who asked "to hear more about this Jesus." Everywhere we were told that they had never heard the Gospel before, and it was quite touching sometimes to hear old men repeating over and over, lest they should forget it, "Isa Masih," "Isa Masih." But what results can one expect if the Gospel is preached to these people only once a year? It does seem like playing at missionaries to put one man here in Bhagalpur to work this vast district.

NORTH-WEST PROVINCES.

Agra, commenced 1813; Mirat, 1815; Benares, 1817; Gorakhpur, 1823; Azimgarh and Jaunpur, 1831; Lucknow, 1858; Allahabad, 1859; Faizabad, 1862; Aligarh, 1863.

VERY inadequately in proportion to the need, but to the best of their power, the Committee have endeavoured to strengthen the Mission by assigning to it five of the year's recruits, two graduates and three Islington students. The Rev. J. P. Hay-

Reinforcements. thornthwaite, M.A. St. John's College, Cambridge, Association Secretary of the Society in the south of Ireland, was appointed to the Principalship of St. John's College, Agra; the Rev. J. N. Carpenter, B.A. Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, and C.M. College, Islington, who was admitted to Deacon's Orders by the Bishop of Bedford, at St. Augustine's, Highbury, on July 27th; and the Revs. W. G. Proctor, A. E. Keet, and W. L. McLean, of the Islington College, who were admitted to Deacon's Orders on Trinity Sunday, 1890, by the Bishop of London; these all arrived in November, except Mr. Haythornthwaite, who visited Ceylon and the South India Mission en route, and did not reach the Mission until February. The Rev. B. Davis returned to Benares from Australia in July; the Rev. A. H. and Mrs. and Miss Wright returned from England in December, as also did the Rev. A. E. Johnston, after short leave, with his bride (née Miss Cooper, of Dublin) and Mrs. J. W. Stuart. The Rev. G. E. A. and Mrs. Pargiter, the Rev. J. and Mrs. Erhardt, and Miss Droese, have come home on furlough. Mr. Erhardt had a serious illness in the spring of the year, and was ordered by the medical authorities to winter in Italy. Within two months of his reaching Genoa, little improved by the voyage, he was called upon to suffer the loss of Death of Mrs. Erhardt. his beloved wife, who died on April 8th. Mrs. Erhardt had the charge for many years of the Secundra Orphanage, and was a devoted and faithful servant of Christ, and a very true helpmeet to her husband in his work. Mrs. Treusch, wife of the Rev. John Treusch, a retired Missionary who formerly laboured at Benares, died on August 20th.

The District Church Council, at its thirteenth meeting in October 1889, adopted revised rules framed on those already adopted in Bengal, and in accordance therewith the pastorates of the Mission were divided into two groups, and placed in connexion with two separate Councils, the Northern and Southern Church Councils. District Councils respectively. A Central Council was also formed, to consist of delegates from the District Councils, and of others whom the Parent Committee may appoint. On October 22nd last these District Councils met at Meerut, under the presidency of the Rev. G. B. Durrant, and determined the various matters affecting the finances of the Native congregations. On the following day the first meeting of the Central Council was held at the same place, and was presided over by the Bishop of Calcutta.

Benares.

Benares. The Rev. Brocklesby Davis thankfully reports that his recent illness, which sent him to Australia for a few months last year, was the first occasion in the course of his thirty-one years in India that sickness has caused any interruption to his work. His place at Jay Narain's School during his absence was supplied by the Rev. J. J. Johnson. Two of the boys passed in the second and third classes of the Entrance Examination of the Allahabad University, and two obtained prizes in the Scripture Scholarship Examination, one being a Christian the other a non-Christian. The printed Report for 1889 stated that 12,651 pupils had been admitted to the School since it was opened in 1836. Mr. Davis preaches in the bazaar, and assists the Native pastor, the Rev. D. Solomon, in the Sunday services at St. Paul's Church, Sigra, usually relieving him of the afternoon service while he ministers at the Drummers' Chapel. Two inquirers, both Mussulmans, are mentioned. Jay Narain's School.

The Normal School, under the Rev. G. Litchfield, contains some 80 girls, collected from the several stations of the Mission, who are under training for future usefulness as Zenana and school teachers and Bible-women. Mr. Litchfield expresses his aim and his frequent discouragements in the great work entrusted to him:— Normal School.

"Spiritual women for spiritual work" is the key-note of our efforts, and our most pressing need is a baptism of the Holy Spirit, so that every scholar may be a real child of God, and be made like Him whose Gospel she is preparing to proclaim. Our hearts are sometimes saddened by the want of truthfulness, obedience, and even honesty that we see, and, although we are not so sanguine as to hope they will attain all at once to that high Christian standard which centuries of training have developed at home, yet we do pray for and expect far greater results than exist at present. They need more backbone in their Christian character, more ability and courage to stand alone; in other words, a more simple and thorough following of Christ. Discouragements.

At the same time, notwithstanding this element of weakness in the material from which we are called to train the future teaching staff for this part of India, we have had many signs of encouragement to cheer us during the year just ended. There are a few scholars whose consistent Christian walk is a great comfort to us and must influence the rest, others in whom a decided change seems to be taking place, while we trust that a better tone is gradually spreading throughout all the classes. We are thankful also for the ready response that has been made to the call of Medical Missions. Two of our number are now studying for their medical degree; one is finishing her course of training as a nurse, while two others are about to begin the study of "compounding" at the Victoria Hospital.

In order to give English girls some idea of what their Indian sisters do in Bible study, Mr. Litchfield gives the translation of an examination paper on the books of Joshua, Ruth, Hebrews, and Romans, some of the answers to which, he says, were excellent, and would have done credit to a class of English students:—

(i.) What do you know of the following: Id, Golan, Jebus, Mahlon, Eliezer? (ii.) Describe fully the battle of Beth-horon. (iii.) When and how was the curse pronounced upon Jericho fulfilled? (iv.) Write a brief analysis of the book of Ruth. (v.) What special honour is given to Rahab in the Bible? (vi.) Name the six cities of refuge, and state how they were A Scripture Examination Paper.

situated among the tribes. (vii.) Give the real meaning of the following words, "righteousness," "covenant," "apostle," "salvation," and a brief account of Melchizedek. (viii.) In what points is the high priesthood of Christ superior to that of Aaron? (ix.) How is Christ proved to be higher (a) than angels, (b) than Moses? (x.) Explain the sentence, "They shall not enter into My rest," and state what spiritual instruction the writer draws from it. (xi.) How does St. Paul prove that both Jews and Gentiles are alike guilty before God? (xii.) Quote a verse from the Epistle to the Romans to show the terms upon which salvation is offered to sinful men.

Orphanage.

Two widows, a mother and her daughter, with the two children of the latter, were baptized in October, the fruits of efforts made by the ladies of the Girls' Orphanage, viz., Miss Goetze, the superintendent, and Miss Sundri, the matron. The latter is one of the two women whose names were so prominently before the public in India, and indeed in England, in the celebrated "Patna case." She has been working at the Orphanage since that event, and her bright and loving influence was chiefly instrumental in bringing the above-named converts to Christ. In December Mr. Davis baptized six converts brought by Miss Patteson, of the I.F.N.S. The Rev. J. J. Johnson's evangelistic work among the Educated Natives, especially in visiting the Hindu monasteries and other resorts of the learned and religious in Benares, meets with continued success, so far, at least, as readiness to hear and talk about religion is concerned.

Visits to Hindu Monasteries.

Services are held at Azimgarh for the little community of nineteen baptized Christians by Mr. G. C. Bose, the head-master of the Anglo-Vernacular High School. This school has 300 boys; twelve passed successfully the Allahabad Entrance Examination and thirteen the Government Middle-class Anglo-Vernacular Examination, while three obtained scholarships for Scripture knowledge. "Most of the boys," Mr. Bose says, "revere the name of our Saviour." There are besides the High School three branch schools and one Girls' School in this place. The other out-stations are Gharwah, Ahrunrah, and Chunar.

Out-stations.

Gorakhpur

Two civil districts, with over four million people, form the Rev. H. Stern's parish. The number of baptized Christians is 863, viz., at Gorakhpur, 283; Basharatpur and Dharmpur, 477; Sternpur, 70; and Basti, 33. One of the oldest and most respected of the Native Christians, who was in Government service, and was known as a man who under no circumstances would accept a bribe, died during the year. The average daily attendance at the sixteen schools is 1,023; 238 are Christians and 330 are girls. The two High Schools, at Gorakhpur and Basti, passed ten in the Allahabad Entrance and 33 in the Anglo-Vernacular Middle-class Examination. Indeed, while Mission schools generally obtained a good proportion of the total number of passes in the latter examination, the one at Gorakhpur stood first on the list of these schools with 21 passes. Of the attitude of the pupils towards Christian truth, Mr. Stern says:— Success in Government Examination.

Some of our former pupils have taken to lecturing to their fellow-students. Thus, one delivered a lecture in the schoolroom on temperance, and the other selected for his subject a Scripture text, St. Luke x. 2, "The labourers are few," &c. They also indulge in penny readings, and in one of them tried to exhibit the evil of opium-smoking by a dramatic representation of an opium-smoker. During the after-discussions on several of these occasions, being always elected chairman, I had many opportunities of seeing the real feelings of most of these young men towards Christianity, which is not one of hostility, but of goodwill, always expressing the highest regard for Jesus Christ. Their great doctrine is: truth is many-sided, and in no religion is found the whole truth; there is some truth in every religion, and, whilst tolerant of all, we should try and search out the truth contained in all religions. Attitude of former pupils towards Christianity.

The Native Christian head-master of the Basti School, Mr. N. C. Thomas, died during the year, and the teachers and scholars showed their affection for his memory by contributing Rs. 100 for his bereaved family. Babu Rallya Ram, a Christian of some standing from the Punjab, has taken his place. Mr. Stern says, "There is a widespread impression that Christianity will win its way, though many years may elapse before it will supplant the present dominant religion."

ALLAHABAD.

"A year full of incident" is the Rev. H. M. M. Hackett's description of 1890. It commenced with the annual Christian mela in the compound of the American Presbyterian Mission, which some 1,000 Native Christians attended and were addressed by the Rev. George Müller, the well-known founder of the Bristol Orphanage. A Hindustani branch of the Gospel Temperance Union Total Abstinence Society was established on this occasion, and 120 pledges taken. A few weeks later Mr. Hackett, with the Rev. A. E. Johnston and a band of 24 fellow labourers, went on a three weeks Evangelistic tour, during which they proclaimed the Gospel to over 58,000 people, aided in many places by lantern pictures. There were fourteen students in the Divinity School during the year, twelve in the upper and two in the lower class; among the former were the Rev. Mark Drummond and Mr. Isaac Vincent, who left in March, 1890, and were admitted to Priest's and Deacon's Orders respectively. Two students, having completed their three years' course, passed out to engagements as catechists at Meerut and Bhagalpur. The following English lectures were delivered in the hall of the school, intended especially for non-Christian students of the Government College:— Allahabad Divinity School. English Lectures to non-Christian College Students.

"Choice of a Religion," the Rev. C. N. Banerji; "Conscience," the Rev. E. F. Brown; Introductory, the Rev. H. M. M. Hackett; "Early Institutions of the Western Aryans," the Rev. A. E. Johnston; "Moral Responsibility of Man," the Hon. Pandit Ajudhia Nath; "Follow Me," Mrs. Olive Grey; "Are Miracles Possible?" the Rev. H. M. M. Hackett; "Excise System of the North-West Provinces," Sarat Chander Ghose, B.A.; "Necessity," Awadh Behari Lal; "Religious Life amongst Students of Japan and other Eastern Countries," Mr. L. D. Wishard, B.A.

Three men were baptized, but all proved disappointing, two of them having been baptized previously, and being apparently "upon a tour of baptism" for worldly considerations. Six women, five from the Anderson Converts' Home of the I.F.N.S., were also baptized.

The Rev. D. Mohun has retired from Muirabad, the Pastorate of which he has occupied for nearly thirty-three years. He writes:—

A Native Pastor's work.

> This is my last report in connexion with the Muirabad Church. It is a great satisfaction to me to think that I have done the work for which the Lord brought me to Allahabad. I have built the Christian village, the church, the school, the parsonage, and a cemetery—everything complete for a parish. Everything requisite has now been provided for, and the people have not to depend for anything on others. My only prayer now to the God of all grace is that He may rule over His people in the parish, and at last make them heirs of His kingdom above.

The pastorate has now been placed, by the Bishop's request, under the Principal of the Divinity School, and the Rev. Mark Drummond has been appointed to labour under him in this ministry. The latter mentions a member of the congregation, poor, old, and blind, who said to him, when visiting him during his illness just before his death, "The cross of Christ my Saviour is always before me; there is nothing to be feared. His blood has washed all my sins."

A dying Christian: "Nothing to be feared."

The new University at Allahabad has two missionaries of the Society on its Senate as Fellows, the Revs. G. E. A. Pargiter and H. M. M. Hackett.

Lucknow.

The Rev. A. I. Birkett has been relieved of the "great burden of solitude" in LUCKNOW, the largest city in the North-West Provinces, by the assignment of the Revs. W. G. Proctor, and W. L. McLean to reside in this city while studying Urdu. Four adults have been added to the Church by baptism, three being servants in a family in the city, the other an old woman from Mhow, one of the out-stations, so old that she could scarcely speak intelligently, "but with a very bright view of Christ as her Saviour." The Mission High School is only one of seven such schools in Lucknow, a Mohammedan school having been opened during the year. Mr. Birkett expresses a fear lest the Government grant may be lost through the falling off in the number, most of the Moslem lads having been removed, but the schools are encouraging in other and higher respects. Mr. Birkett says:—

From a missionary point of view we have had very great encouragement in our school-work. In the spring, a whole class of its own accord stayed in after school and asked the head-master to explain a difficult passage of Scripture. Quite lately a boy in the lowest class asked me about repentance. An old pupil, now holding a Government post, has had several long talks with me about a question that troubles him: "What shall I answer before God when I die?" A boy who was in our highest class last year, and is now a teacher, asked me to establish a Bible-class on Sunday, as he wanted to read the whole Bible; and now that the Rev. W. Maclean has begun one he regularly attends. The seed sown in past years in our school is even now bearing fruit. The Rev. G. B. Durrant reports the baptism of a former pupil of the Lucknow school. So we have every reason to thank God and take courage.

Solemn questions

The Rev. A. M. Levi is the Native pastor of the congregation. The Rev. A. W. Baumann conducted a week's mission at Lucknow in September.

At his own station, FAIZABAD, Mr. Baumann reports a diminished Native congregation, several families having removed from the place, and the total number of adherents is now eighty-two. But, on the other hand, so many inquirers from various places have been drawn to Faizabad that a special house to serve as a hostel during their probation has been put up for them in the Mission compound. Thirteen adults were baptized, and Mr. Baumann gives an interesting outline of the history of some of them. Daud Shakoor was a bigoted Mohammedan, a water-carrier in the service of the I.F.N.S. ladies; he was first attracted through the simple teaching given to the crowd of beggars who assemble in the Zenana Mission compound on Sunday mornings, where this man was employed to distribute the weekly dole of rice. Rahmat Masíh was a Hindu who served as a shepherd lad under a Roman Catholic Zamindar; he was struck by the fact that the village catechist had family-prayer every day, whereas his master had not; in answer to his inquiries, his master showed him a figure placed in a niche in his room before which he offered prayers whenever his priest visited him from Lucknow; this led the youth to inquire further, and he was taken to Mr. Baumann for instruction. Victor Fazl, a Hindu of the Khattri caste from the Punjab, twenty years of age, first received a Gospel from a colporteur while a youth at school; to escape violence he went to Delhi, where he was robbed by a Mohammedan of his money and books, including his Bible, and thence he journeyed to Ajmere and Jodhpur; here he settled down in business, but his desire to know more of Christ was revived by hearing a Mohammedan reading in a book about the Virgin Mary; he went to Allahabad, and stayed several days at the Divinity School; there he was enticed to the house of the Secretary of the Arya Samaj, and detained three days; Mr. Hackett then sent him to Faizabad, and after four months' teaching he was baptized in December. Mr. Baumann says of this young man:—

Temptations of a young Convert.

> He read with me for four months, and I found him a straightforward, intelligent, though rather timid youth. About one week before his baptism, in December, his uncle, a cousin, and other relations arrived from the Punjab, and tried their very best to dissuade him from becoming a Christian. His uncle, a well-educated Punjabi gentleman, in Government employ, and a member of the Arya Samaj, with the help of other influential Babus of this town, left no stone unturned. Finally they offered him Rs. 500, and a young wife to boot, and tried to harass his feelings by telling him what a shock this would be to his widowed mother. When nothing would move him they tried to make him return with them on the promise that he might be baptized at Jullundur. But, thanks be to God, he remained firm through the ordeal, and was indeed a "victor by grace," as his name implied. Since his baptism he has cheered up considerably, and is determined to read and study further, in order to be better fitted for the Lord's service.

Another of the converts belonged to the Káyasth (writer) caste, and another was a young Brahmin from Ajudhya. The Rev. B. Tobit is at the Allahabad Divinity School, preparing for Priest's Orders. The congregation at Sultanpur consists of twenty souls, that at Jaunpur of forty. Three Hindu adults were baptized at the former place, and a Mohammedan woman from Benares at the latter. The Jaunpur High School, under its Christian head-master, Babu P. N. Ghose, passed six in the Entrance and seven in the Middle-class Examinations, while three pupils obtained prizes and two scholarships in the Scripture Scholarship Examination.

AGRA, MATTRA, AND ALIGARH.

The European labourers continued through 1890 as enumerated in last year's Report, but the past few months have witnessed several changes. The Revs. G. E. A. Pargiter and J. Erhardt have come home, the former on furlough, the latter on account of illness. The Rev. A. H. and Mrs. Wright have taken up the work of Mr. and Mrs. Erhardt at Secundra; the Rev. J. P. Haythornthwaite has succeeded Mr. Pargiter as Principal of St. John's College, Agra; and the Rev. J. N. Carpenter has joined temporarily the staff of the same Institution.

St. John's College, Agra.

St. John's College, which for the three previous years in succession gained honourable mention by the Director of Public Instruction on account of the success of the First Arts Class, last year excelled all other colleges in the province in the proportion of passes, viz., nine out of thirteen. Of these nine no fewer than five were Christians, a larger number of Christians than has ever passed before from any College in North India. These Christian youths are sons of Government officials and of Mission Success of Christian Students in Examinations.

Agents; three of them have joined the Agra College B.A. Classes and one the Law Class, all residing in the Mission Hostel. When the College reopened in July it had 33 in the College Department, 21 in the second year and 12 in the first, a larger number than ever before. Mr. Pargiter says:—

The present second-year class, about which, as the first-year, I said so much in my Letter last year, has gone on steadily improving in every way, and I do not think I ever had a class where the power of the Gospel over the students' minds was more powerfully shown. All carping opposition has gone away—nay, even all desire to oppose—and in its place a reverent study of the Word has come, and of several of the young men I can truly say that they are not far from the Kingdom of God.

Power of the Gospel over Students.

In the School Department the Rev. T. F. Robathan gives instruction in the Scriptures and some other subjects, and Mr. Pargiter takes the matriculation class in history. The rest of the work has been done by the Indian Staff, of whom five are Christians, one of them, Mr. S. Thomas, being supported by the Haileybury College boys. The whole staff, Mr. Pargiter says, worked well and conscientiously. Athletics are encouraged. Mr. Pargiter says:—

There are several elevens for cricket in the College, as well as a good deal of football playing, while the Christian boarders are proficient both in cricket and football, under the able tuition and example of Mr. Robathan. The Christian lads are becoming strong and self reliant, thanks to their faith and their freedom from the evil consequences of early marriage. The non-Christians cannot help seeing how beneficial is the freedom and purity of Christian communities taken as a whole, and thus one hopes that they may be attracted to inquire into its cause, and be led on at last to a saving knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Athletics and Christianity.

The Christian Hostel had 42 inmates before Christmas. The Rev. G. B. Durrant conducted a Mission for the boarders in November. Mr. Robathan, under whose superintendence it is, says:—

Hostels for Christian,

Thank God, there are among the boarders some true Christian young men, whose earnest desire is to walk before God, and one looks forward to them being a blessing to many when they go forth into the world. One of these is a young Brahmin convert, baptized some seventeen months ago.

In July Mr. Pargiter opened a Non-Christian Hostel in his compound, which had ten inmates at the end of the year, two Mohammedans and eight Hindus. Mr. Pargiter writes:—

and non-Christian boys.

I have been very much pleased with the results of this new departure, and so hope that it will be largely developed in the future. I have often had the students over to my house to sing hymns, to listen to Bible exposition, and to join in prayer, while I have often gone among them, gathered them around me and sung with them, talked to them and prayed with them. They have been always very glad to come over here, or for me to go over to them, and I have had as free intercourse with them as if they were Christians. Two of them, Madan Gopal and Mohamed Hamid, came to me two months ago and said they wished for baptism, but needed more instruction first. I formed a catechumen's class for them, and have been teaching them a good deal, and placing before them the importance of quick decision for Christ. So far as I can see, a real work of grace is going on in their hearts, and they long for baptism, but, so far, fear of hurting their parents is keeping them back. I asked M. Hamid to be baptized first on the first Sunday in Advent, and then again on Christmas Day, but each time he has put it off, and I am afraid he will keep on putting it off, though he says he wants to be baptized before I leave for England on furlough. The father of the girl he was going to marry, hearing of his Christian tendencies, has broken off the projected marriage, and all his own relatives are turning against him, even his father telling him that he will kill him if he embraces Christ's religion. Already the young man is learning practically what the offence of the Cross is, and is standing firm, only outside the visible Church. He said to me the other day, "We love and respect our parents very much; they would be made very sorrowful if we were baptized, and we are not so brave, though we really love Christ, and believe Him to be the Son of God, the Saviour of the world."

A boy's difficulties.

Mr. Pargiter delivered lectures to College students on "Theories as to the Origin of the Universe," "The Attributes of God revealed in Nature," "The Constitution of Human Nature," and "The Fall of Man." He records his conviction, after seven years spent as an educational Missionary, regarding the mental state of the youth of India, and regarding the special function of Mission Schools:—

An educational Missionary's opinion regarding Indian youths.

Lord Lansdowne, in a speech made here when receiving an address from all the educational bodies of Agra, dwelt at some length on the failure of English education to impart real thought. My impression is, not that the young men cannot think, but that they are afraid to think. The religious and social ideas and customs of India are based on such radically perverse and unsound foundations that it is impossible to think sanely and logically and philosophically without coming into profound collision with them. Indian young men are not brave enough to endure the consequences of such a collision, and so they refuse to think, until this also grows into a habit. Moral courage is a necessary element in all true thinking, and this they do not possess. It will be possible for India to "think" only when Christ has broken her bonds, loosed her grave-clothes, and set her free. To that end Mission Colleges are working, patiently and without much show, and in the end sought for lies their justification as missionary agencies. We have nothing thrilling or romantic, capable of making a strong impression upon the public imagination; our work consists rather in the daily performance of duty under very prosaic conditions, and its results are seen not so much in striking conversions as in the secret moulding of the Indian mind towards a more intelligent appreciation of Christ and His Gospel.

The Rev. W. Seetal, the pastor of the Agra Native congregation, states that the organized opposition to the bazaar-preaching on the part of the Arya Samaj people and the Mohammedans is continued, but is less pronounced than it was.

The Rev. A. H. and Mrs. and Miss Wright arrived at SECUNDRA in December, and the Rev. J. and Mrs. Erhardt left a few weeks later.

Mattra.

The Rev. P. M. Zenker, of MATTRA, in his Annual Letter, cautions friends in this country against too sanguine expectations of the speedy conversion of India. On the other hand, the prediction of failure, he is sure, can only provoke a smile from such as have an intimate personal experience of Evangelistic work. He says:—

In my intercourse with educated Hindus and Mohammedans on my journeys through Mattra and Agra, in the railway carriage, or in my study, it seemed to me the impression is spreading that the war which Islam and Hinduism wage with Christianity is hopeless. With those who think, the feeling is gaining ground that slowly but surely Christianity is advancing, and resisting its progress is as vain as an attempt to stem the tide of the ocean. A Native visitor in my study admitted (rather unwillingly it seemed!), "Of course, ultimately Christianity will be the religion of India!" A Native fellow-traveller from Mattra, in the course of a religious conversation, called out, "Go on, you Christians will win the day!" A hopeless struggle.

Mr. and Miss Zenker superintend ten Native evangelists and eight Bible-women in Mattra; and four preachers, two colporteurs, and one teacher in Agra.

The Rev. J. W. Stuart* reports six adults baptized at ALIGARH, four of whom were Mohammedans from a Native State, who spoke of a colony of Native Christians in their midst, who have been baptized at different places and different times. One, Heera, is described as a "poet, the leader of our out-door orchestra." Mr. Stuart gives several examples met with in one short tour of a widespread knowledge of Scripture truth. In one place a man of education challenged Mr. Stuart to ask him any question on the Gospel; he failed in answering the first question, but he proved that he had a considerable knowledge of Gospel subjects. The Rev. N. Solomon is the Native pastor. He says the average Aligarh congregation on Sunday mornings is twenty-six, of whom sixteen are communicants. Aligarh. Widespread knowledge of Scripture truth.

MIRAT.

"A little improvement," the Rev. A. E. Bowlby thinks, is observable in the Mirat congregations, viz., the one in the town and the one in the cantonment, but an outpouring of the Holy Spirit is sorely needed. The Bishop of Calcutta confirmed fifteen candidates in October. The Native pastor, the Rev. D. Jeremy, is "most faithful," but he is old and his strength fails. Yet, as Mr. Bowlby says, they two are left alone to do the pastoral work of six stations, some near, some as distant as thirty miles. Mrs. Bowlby held a weekly Bible Class at Kankerkhera, and through the influence of one or two of the Christian women some forty or fifty, many of them heathen women, gathered together and listened with the greatest interest week after week. At Pilkhuah there are three Christians, surrounded on all sides by evil influences, for whom Mr. Bowlby asks special prayer. A catechist is stationed at the place. At the commencement of 1890 Mr. Mirat.

* The Committee learn with much regret, by telegram, while these pages are passing through the press, that the Rev. J. W. Stuart died on June 19, 1891.

Bowlby made a preaching tour in the direction of Baraut and Bhagpat. He says:—

This part of the district has not been visited within the memory of our oldest catechists, and is one very difficult to itinerate in, as there are no roads, except along the canal banks, and owing to the sand sometimes our carts were not able to move more than half a mile an hour. The catechists started on February 11, and we joined them a day or two later, returning on March 7. It was a most interesting tour. We found the Arya Samaj preachers had traversed the whole district preaching against Christianity, so that the people everywhere received us gladly, and were eager to inquire "What is this Christian religion of which we have heard so much?"—for the Hindus and Mohammedans do not love the Aryas, and were ready to buy portions and tracts.

Activity of Arya Samaj.

The reflexion which has forced itself on me as a result of this tour, and which constantly recurs to my mind, is this: How can we persuade the Christian Church to go up and occupy the land? Why must we allow the enemies of the Lord to be more active than we?

An urgent reflexion.

Another preaching tour was made in November, during which 242 Bibles or portions were sold.

ANNFIELD.

Annfield.

In this Native Christian colony the Rev. T. Carmichael finds himself obliged, he says, to assume the functions of an Attorney-General in defending their temporal interests against the agents of the owner, a Hindu Rajah. He relates an interview with which the Rajah favoured him:—

His Highness the Rajah came over to Annfield, and invited me to visit him, which I did. He was very agreeable, and assured me that he had no wish to injure the Christians upon his estate. He declared that he had the highest respect for the Christian religion, and was ready to build a church in his own independent State, Sirmür, if it could be applied to any useful work. He said he would encourage to his utmost any missionary work that could be done amongst his people; and then, lifting a book from the table in his tent where we were sitting, he said, "Padri Sahib, I read your New Testament every day, and believe it to be one of the best books in the world. If all your Native Christians would but follow that book, they would become good people. But they do not follow it; they are not real Christians." "Yes," I replied, "what your Highness says is true. If all our Native Christians, and all we Europeans in India, as well, were but to follow out fully the teachings and example of our Blessed Saviour, our Hindu brethren would soon be won to Christ."

A Native Rajah professes to read the New Testament every day.

While the people attend regularly the services and meetings, Mr. Carmichael bemoans the absence of a deep heart-conviction of sin. Twenty-two candidates were confirmed at Annfield, and nine at Mussoorie, the latter being mostly servants in European households. On inquiring from their employers Mr. Carmichael received very satisfactory reports regarding their conduct and character. The people in the Dun Valley prove very hard and unreceptive of the Gospel message, but the simple Hill-people, whom Mr. and Mrs. Carmichael visited in the summer, heard the story of redemption spoken and sung with unaffected delight.

CENTRAL PROVINCES AND RAJPUTANA.

Jabalpur, 1854; Mandla (Gônd Mission), 1879; Kherwara (Bheel Mission), 1880.

A REINFORCEMENT, consisting of the Rev. H. J. Molony, B.A. of Pembroke College and Ridley Hall, Cambridge, Curate of St. Stephen's, Newcastle, and Messrs. E. R. Jackson and James W. Goodwin, lay evangelists, was sent to the Gônd Mission at the end of the year; and Mrs. Williamson rejoined her husband at the same time.

JABALPUR.

Jabalpur. The Rev. G. B. Durrant, in addition to the charge of this station, is the Chairman of the two District Church Councils of the North-West Provinces, the duties of which offices have occasioned somewhat frequent absences, which he regrets. He had the companionship during several months of the year of the Rev. C. H. Gill, whose health, however, called for a lengthened visit to the Hills in the summer. The Rev. Isaac Vincent, who was for many years a catechist at this station, entered upon the duties of the pastorship after his ordination in March, 1890, in succession to the late Rev. Madho Ram, and received a hearty welcome from the people. A young Mohammedan, who was a pupil some years ago in the C.M.S. High School at Lucknow, where he received his first impression of Divine truth, was baptized in May. He had obtained a post of considerable responsibility at Jabalpur, and there he met an old school friend, a Christian, and the influence which had helped him in his school life was renewed and deepened, and he was led to make a public confession of his faith. A poor and illiterate Hindu, and the Mohammedan Ayah mentioned as an inquirer in last year's Report, were also baptized. The latter had become somewhat indifferent, but a sickness rendered her anxious for baptism. There are 13 Schools, namely, the Central School, which is a High School, with 399 pupils on the rolls; the Sadar Bazaar School, which is a middle school, with 217 pupils; and eleven branch elementary schools, with 559 pupils. Mr. K. N. Bose, M.A., has succeeded Mr. S. Nepal Singh as head-master of the Central School, the latter having joined the Allahabad Divinity Class to prepare for Holy Orders. Mr. Gill rendered assistance in teaching the Scripture and English in the school, and he says:—

A young Moslem Convert.

I must confess to experiencing a happy surprise about Bible-teaching in schools. Instead of finding it a dull process of driving unwelcome truths into the prejudiced minds of the boys, I have found each hour a good opportunity for a simple explanation of some passage of a Gospel, and a straight talk about Christ; and though occasionally a question or objection is raised by some captious boy, I find even that, as a rule, leads to some interesting point which would not otherwise have been noticed. Of course it all depends on the character of the boys in the class ; it might be, and very often is, very different, as others can testify. But I am thankful to see such hopeful signs in our biggest boys here ; it reflects credit on the systematic Bible-teaching and Christian influence brought to bear on them in the lower classes, and it leads us to believe for definite results some day.

Rev. W. Haslam at Jabalpur.

The Rev. W. and Mrs. Haslam and Mr. W. K. Campbell spent a week at Jabalpur in December, where services and meetings were held for the Native Christians, for Europeans, and for the heathen. Mr. Durrant wrote :—

We thankfully believe that the truth of Christ's power to keep, and rule over, and work through those who yield themselves unreservedly to Him, and trust Him wholly, came with fresh power to many amongst our people during those days. May He who has begun a good work perform it until the Day of Jesus Christ !

Murwara and the surrounding villages are diligently worked by Babus Timothy Noah and Paul Sarma, and the wife of the latter carries on an interesting work among the women.

MANDLA AND PATPARA (GOND MISSION).

Mandla.

Thankfulness and encouragement were the dominant feelings in the heart of the Rev. H. D. Williamson on his return to MANDLA in December 1889, at what he heard and saw of the proofs of God's preserving grace. He writes :—

God's preserving grace.

Left, as many of the village converts have had to be, altogether unvisited ; separated from all Christian communion, in some cases for months ; unable in their illiterate condition to draw strength and comfort from God's written Word—they continue to stand firm in the faith, and in several instances to show a growth in grace which nothing but the indwelling of Christ's blessed Spirit could have effected.

At Mandla itself the attendance at the Church services and Bible classes was "all that one can desire" on the part of the Christians, while Hindu visitors, attracted by the harmonium and hearty singing, often were present. Bhura, the first and only Gond convert in the neighbourhood of Mandla, who lives three miles out, is always found among the worshippers, and often he is accompanied by a neighbour.

Mission-house at Diuari.

DIUARI, forty-five miles from Mandla, continues to be the Rev. E. P. Herbert's headquarters, and the little primitive school-house his residence when not itinerating. In this place he even spent six weeks in the rainy season without bread or vegetables, the building proving itself to have a good thatched roof and a good plinth, though "few posts and far between." This school is slowly taking root, two Bhois, village head-men, having lately committed their boys to Mr. Herbert's care, and one of the pupils, a young Gond named Gore-lal ("white and ruddy"), about 20 years of age, having been baptized at Mandla at Christmas. Both Mr. Williamson and Mr. Herbert send interesting accounts of itinerating, in which they were together on several tours. The former says:—

Itinerating among the Gônds.

In three long tours I covered eight or nine hundred miles, the greater part on foot; visited 502 villages, and preached to nearly 9,000 people. But how little, after all, are we able to touch each year of this large Mandla district, with its 300,000 inhabitants scattered over an area of 5,000 square miles, not to mention the surrounding districts, with equally pressing claims, into which we are sometimes tempted to make short excursions! The interest with which the Gospel message is heard seems ever to be on the increase, and even when preaching in villages not visited perhaps for five or six years, we almost invariably find that the people have remembered the main points of our teaching, and that they repeat correctly and with reverence the Name of the Saviour Jesus Christ. His blessed Name is daily honoured now in hundreds of villages, though not, I am sorry to say, to the complete exclusion of their old religious worship (if worship it can be called). Love, I trust, is drawing them to Jesus, though fear and superstition still work mightily among them as Satan's agents.

Baptisms.

Some "very happy baptisms" are reported. A Kol lad, a servant to one of the Native Christians; a man named Rigle, not a Gond, but a man of the Punkha caste, "a sort of high priest among the devotees of Mahadeo in these parts," a very intelligent believer; a man named Punwa, a nephew of Prabhu Das; another Punkha named Jurri, the only Christian in his village, who has had to bear much petty persecution and for whom prayer is asked; Bhura, the Gond head-man living three miles from Mandla mentioned above; and a few others.

The Rev. H. J. Molony and Messrs. Goodwin and Jackson arrived in November at PATPARA, where they are preparing for their future work as associated evangelists.

KHERWARA (BHEEL MISSION).

Mission Schools for the Bheels.

The Revs. C. S. Thompson and W. B. Collins continue to labour at Kherwara. The number of baptized Christians is now returned as 15, four adults having been admitted into the Church during the year, all connected with the schools. Pema, baptized in January, had been two years in the Boarding-school; another student, Lalji, with his wife, were baptized in July; and the fourth apparently is a school-boy. The curriculum in this Boarding-school, in which the average attendance was about 28, is of a very elementary order. Mr. Collins says:—

Nothing beyond the "Three R's," a Scripture lesson, or a little geography has ever yet been taught here, as far as I can make out; and all the boys that I have known have been weak in arithmetic, none getting beyond the first four rules before going out to teach; though even so they are much the most learned people in their villages.

There are five village schools for boys, with an average of about eight pupils each, which illustrates the difficulty in persuading the people to accept education. A Girls' School at Kherwara has an attendance of from 25 to 35, who have made good progress under Mrs. Collins in learning to read the Scriptures, as also in writing and arithmetic. It is found necessary to support the scholars, and the cost involved limits the use of this means of influencing the future generation. Two services are held on Sunday mornings, one for heathen, school-children, and servants, the other for Christians; and meetings for prayer are held on Saturday and Sunday evenings. On other days any are welcome to attend prayers in the Mission House.

Death of Bishop French.

THE death of Thomas Valpy French, the first Bishop of Lahore, at Muscat, on May 14, occurred under circumstances in striking harmony with his previous life of singular devotion and humility. Educated at Rugby and at University College, Oxford, in 1846 he was placed in the first class in Literis Humanioribus, and was soon afterwards elected Fellow of his College. He was ordained Deacon by the Bishop of Ripon in 1848, and Priest by Dr. Lonsdale, Bishop of Lichfield, in 1849. The following year he sailed for India, and entered on his Missionary work of forty years as first Principal of St. John's College, Agra. In this city he was associated with Dr. Pfander, with whom he took part in a conference, which has become historical, between the Missionaries and several distinguished Mohammedan Moulvies. French was at Agra when the Mutiny broke out in 1857, and his persistent intervention secured for the little flock of Native Christians the protection of the fort. In 1862, after a furlough at home, he returned to India to commence the Derajat Mission. He spent from 1865 to 1869 in this country, recruiting his health. From 1870 he presided, for four years, as first Principal over the St. John's Divinity School, Lahore. He again in 1874 sought comparative rest in England, but soon returned a fourth time to India as the first Bishop of Lahore, to which he was consecrated on St. Thomas' Day, 1877. This office he held for ten years, resigning the See on St. Thomas' Day, 1887, immediately after ordaining two Agents of the Society, a European Missionary and the Rev. Kharak Singh, at Sukkur. During his short periods of rest at home, previous to his consecration, Bishop French held the incumbencies of St. Paul's, Cheltenham; Erith; and St. Ebbe's, Oxford. After resigning the Bishopric of Lahore, he spent some time travelling in the East, reaching England in 1889, but at the close of 1890, after a few months' rest, he started forth once more as a pioneer missionary to Arabia. On February 8, he arrived at Muscat, for the Word of God and for the testimony of Jesus Christ, and here on May 14 he responded to the summons of his beloved Lord. "Patience and long suffering with joyfulness" were the graces he sought to cultivate in the lonely and frugal abode where he prepared to assail by pen and tongue the great fortress of Islam in its most seemingly impregnable citadel—Arabia itself. He realized the severity of the impending conflict, and, while he invited the Committee to undertake it, he impressed upon them his sense of the extremely serious character of the work. But he added, "Yet the Lord shall overcome them; for He is Lord of lords."

The Committee had the pleasure of an interview with Bishop Matthew in March, when he reminded them that nearly one-half of the ninety-two clergy in his Diocese are Missionaries of the Society, but at the same time pleaded strongly for an early reinforcement of the frontier Missions.

Reinforcements.

Those sent out during the year, not all, however, for the frontier, were:—the Rev. Cecil E. Tyndale-Biscoe, M.A., Jesus College, Cambridge (he was coxswain of the Cambridge eight in 1884), and Curate of Whitechapel, under the Rev. J. A. Robinson; the Rev. George Richard Ekins, formerly of the Persia Mission, and Mrs. Ekins, daughter of the Rev. H. C. Mitchinson, Vicar of Christ Church, Rotherhithe; the Rev. D. Davies, of the Islington College; the Rev. Henry F. Wright, M.A., of Christ Church, Oxford, and C.M. College, Islington, Curate of Ripley, and Miss Annie Featherstone Wright, son and daughter of the late Rev. Henry Wright, Honorary Secretary of the Society from 1872 to 1880 (their eldest sister is in the Mid-China Mission); and Miss Clara Louisa Warren, of Canterbury. These arrived in the Mission in November and December, as also did the Revs. R. Bateman, E. Guilford, and R. J. Kennedy, and Dr. S. W. Sutton. Mr. Arthur Lankester, L.R.C.P., M.R.C.S., one of the house-surgeons at St. Thomas' Hospital, has been appointed to take temporary charge of the Amritsar Medical Mission during Dr. Henry Martyn Clark's furlough; he will sail (D.V.) in the autumn. Dr. and Mrs. Martyn Clark, as also the Rev. H. U. and Mrs. Weitbrecht, the Rev. T. Holden, and Dr. Arthur Neve, have come home, all, except Dr. and Mrs. Weitbrecht, on furlough. Mrs. Weitbrecht, who joined her husband at Batala in November, 1889, having remained in England when he returned from furlough in 1887, contracted typhoid fever in May, and was sent to Simla where she remained, part of the time in the Ripon Hospital, till November. The fever returned again and again, and eventually she was ordered home by long sea route. The Rev. Worthington Jukes, owing to Mrs. Jukes' state of health, has felt obliged to resign his connexion with the Society, and has accepted the living of Shobrooke in Devonshire. The Rev. R. J. Kennedy also presented his resignation and came home at his own charges in January, with a view still further to pursue his studies for the London B.A. examination. He has expressed his intention to renew his offer in the autumn after taking his degree, and to defray his own passage expenses back to the Mission.

The Rev. John Agar MacCarthy, Rector of Ickborough, Norfolk, who laboured in this Mission from 1856 to 1863, died in July.

The Bishop of Lahore admitted the Revs. F. Lawrence and H. J. Hoare to Priest's Orders on December 21, at Lahore. Mr. Hoare passed the Bishop's examination with "special credit." Ordinations.

The Rev. R. Clark, the Secretary of the Mission, visited Kashmir and Peshawar in October, and Hydrabad, Karachi, and Multan in January and February. In November he suffered from fever, but his illness proved of short duration. The Punjab District Church Council, of which the Rev. T. R. Wade is the Chairman, has adopted the regulations which were approved a few years since for Bengal.

AMRITSAR.

The labourers in and near this large and populous city of Central Punjab meet every Tuesday evening in the Alexandra Schoolroom for prayer regarding their work, the Missionaries conducting the meeting by turns. The Evangelistic Work in the city, consisting of daily preaching in the bazaar, and services in the Mission Room and in the Chapel of St. Catherine's Hospital, and lectures, is under the Rev. T. R. Wade. The baptisms in Amritsar and out-stations, not including Ajnala and Narowal, were 265 in number, of whom more than half were adults, the majority being in Tarn Taran and Bahrwal. One of those baptized in the city was a Brahmin pleader from Ajnala who had been taught by the Rev. Mian Sadiq. He had to suffer some pecuniary loss and petty persecution; but Mr. Wade mentions it as a remarkable illustration of the diminution of opposition that he was able, after a few weeks' absence, to return home, was rejoined by his wife, and was consulted as before by his clients. Another illustration of the same fact is afforded by the following quotation, and Mr. Wade's reflexions on the change in this respect will be read with interest:— Amritsar. A Brahmin Convert.

> I have just had a petition brought to me by a deputation, signed by 595 of the inhabitants of Jandiala, entreating that a Mission school might be opened for their children. We formerly had a Mission school there, but on account of the great opposition it was closed. Since receiving the petition, a deputation has waited upon me twice. These men said plainly that a few years ago they hated the very name of Christian, and dreaded the face of a missionary, and now they came, and were ready to fall at a missionary's feet to pray him to come to them and open a school for their children, towards the expenses of which they were ready to subscribe—about Rs. 20 a month. They were told plainly that Christian masters would teach the Scriptures in a Mission school if opened by the missionaries, and that perhaps some of their children would become Christians. Their only answer was, "Well, let them." In short, though opposition has not ceased—far from it—yet it has decreased, and I believe India was never more favourable to Christianity since it was first introduced than it is now. People are becoming accustomed to it, and seem to look upon it more as a recognized religion, and to expect Prejudice of heathens diminishing.

that it will spread and become a power in the country. I shall be surprised if the census, shortly to be taken, does not prove that the number of Native Christians has much more than doubled in the Punjab, if not in India, during the last decade. May God grant that they may all be worthy of the name they bear!

Inquirers.

Of inquirers Mr. Wade says:—

The number of inquirers continues to increase, especially in the villages amongst the low castes, but I have on my list, amongst those who visited me last year, the names of one Dewan, three Sardars, one Nawal, three Brahmins, one Quazi, a leader of a Mohammedan sect, and an official of Government of considerable influence, whose name I had better not mention. When this person confessed to me how he had studied the Scriptures for years, and what he believed, I said, "Then you are a Christian, and why are you not baptized?" He replied, "It is only a matter of time, but it is very, very difficult." We knelt down together in prayer, as we both felt it was grace rather than argument that was wanted in this case. To another official I have lent Butler's Analogy to read, and to another Farrar's Life of Christ.

"Only a matter of time."

The Rev. D. J. McKenzie has been assisted at the High School by the Rev. H. F. Wright. The number of pupils at the Amritsar and Majitha Schools, and the several branch schools, is 750, of ages from six to eighteen. Mr. McKenzie says that not a few of these boys are alive to the advantages of a Mission school education, and that he has spent many happy hours in trying to unfold to them the Word of God. Dr. Charles Martin has been appointed by the Corresponding Committee to the temporary charge of the Medical Mission until Dr. Lankester goes out. No written report has been received, but Dr. Martyn Clark gave an interesting oral report of his work at the Society's Anniversary Meeting in May. He mentioned that before he left Amritsar, between January 12 and March 14, there were twenty-two who were placed under instruction as candidates for baptism. And he told the following touching story:—

A Mohammedan Mullah and his son.

Some time ago there was a young Mohammedan, the son of a great Mohammedan saint and doctor, who had great anxiety of soul because of sin. He read the Koran through and through without finding light, when he found in it an expression referring to the Old Testament and the New Testament. The thought came into this young man's heart, "If I can only get possession of a Bible, I might get what I need." Most wonderfully, two ladies happened to be in the district, and he got what he wanted. He began with the Gospel of St. John, and by the time he got to the third chapter he was a free man, and desirous of throwing off Mohammedanism. When his father heard of it he offered a reward of 500 rupees to any one who would kill his son, and 200 to any one who would bring him the good news. For two years I had to watch over that young man, and then his father found him, and with much difficulty we managed to keep him safe. At last the old man went back with a New Testament. A year after he came again and said that he had brought together other mullahs and read it to them. He also said, "We have noticed that this is the New Testament; that shows me that there must be an Old Testament, and they have sent me to get the Old Testament." I had the pleasure of giving him one, and just before I left he came with his son and said, "The God of my son, whom I wished to murder, is now my God: baptize me, too, into the faith of Christ."

The Middle Class Girls' School, under Mrs. Grime, has seventy pupils. The school was highly praised by the Government Inspectress of Schools; and Mr. Wade, after examining the girls, reported that they have "an excellent knowledge of Holy Scripture, which reflects great credit upon the Superintendent. The girls really love their Bibles." Mrs. Grime says:—

Three times through the Bible.

My plan is to let the girls go three times through the Bible, if they pass through the school; the Epistles, of course, being only taught in my own class. Of course, the first time the little ones go through the Bible they only learn the chief stories, and then they gradually advance. The knowledge and understanding of some of the pupils in my class would put many grown-up people from home, who think they know their Bibles well, to shame.

The year has been a trying one for the Alexandra Girls' Boarding School. Typhoid fever attacked, in succession, three of the C.E.Z.M.S. ladies who were engaged in carrying on this institution for the C.M.S., and one of them, Miss Emma B. Davidson, sister-in-law of the Rev. F. A. P. Shirreff, unhappily succumbed. Miss Cooper was ordered home; but Miss A. J. Edgley, after a dangerous attack, was graciously restored and permitted to remain out as Principal. She was joined in the autumn by Miss Brannan and Miss Sharat Chuckerbutty, the latter a Native lady B.A.

Bahrwal.

The work at BAHRWAL, where the Rev. H. E. and Mrs. Perkins reside, has been strengthened and extended by the opening of a Zenana Hospital and of a small Boarding School. The attendance at the Sunday services has been very encouraging, and as many as 72 adult baptisms are recorded. Mr. Perkins says:—

Work among low-caste people.

The difficulties of a work exclusively amongst low-caste people are peculiar and many, and I am reluctant to mention any details of individuals, or to be too confident about the advance in the Divine life of the many newly-baptized persons, surrounded by so many trials from poverty, weakness induced by bad food and hard work (often at night), and so forth; but still we have cause for rejoicing in many that they are trying, according to their lights, to live by a new and heavenly law; and the simplicity of the faith that we are sometimes permitted to see is a source of cheering assurance that our labour is not in vain in the Lord.

The district of AJNALA has now become a pastorate in connexion with the District Church Council, the Rev. Mian Sadiq being the pastor. He reports 522 baptized Christians, and 42 adult baptisms during the year. There are two schools for non-Christian boys, and a mixed school for boys and girls.

Narowal.

An interesting report of the NAROWAL Mission has been received, which bears the names of the Revs. R. Bateman, and F. Lawrence, and Ihsan Ullah. Thirty Native agents are employed in the district, five in Narowal itself, and the rest in the villages around. There are two Boarding Schools, one for men of ages from 20 to 50, with fourteen inmates; and the other for boys, with fifteen carefully chosen pupils; all are converts from the Chupra community. The Anglo-Vernacular School at Narowal is now under the charge of the Missionaries of the station and not connected, as it formerly was, with the Amritsar High School. The boys have done well, both in the Government examination and in the study of the Holy Scriptures. In the Hospital 17,702 patients were treated during the year, 866 operations were performed, and 180 in-patients were received. In February, 1890, Narowal was visited by the Bishop of Lahore, and, a few months later, in addressing the Annual C.M.S. Meeting at Simla, at which he presided, the Bishop referred to the work in this district. He said:—

> Many converts had recently been gathered in, and all over the district congregations of seventy or eighty met in the simplest of little churches for worship. These churches had not cost more than a rupee per sitting, if he might use that term, for, with the exception of the Bishop, for whom, in consideration of his infirmities, a chair was provided, sittings there were none, the people all sat on the ground. The simple service was conducted and joined in with great fervour, and his heart was much touched by a beautiful custom they had of repeating Jai Prabhu Yesu (Victory to the Lord Christ) as they rose at the conclusion of their service.

Tarn Taran.

During the Rev. E. Guilford's absence, the Rev. H. E. Perkins superintended the work at TARN TARAN. Sixty-five persons were baptized during the year, fifty-three of whom were the inhabitants of a small village, of which they themselves are the proprietors. Soon after their baptism their constancy was tested by the Mohammedans of a neighbouring village, who made them offers of land and other worldly benefits as inducements to abandon their Christian profession. On the other hand they received encouragements to persevere from very unexpected quarters. A Mohammedan fakir said to them, "You have become Ahl-i-kitab ('people of the book'), hold fast to what you have received, and give no heed to what men may say to you. I myself am reading the Bible, and my firm opinion is that the time will come when all men will turn to Jesus Christ." Another, a Hindu of good standing, formerly a student in a Mission school, visited them and amongst other words of counsel said, "Now see that you walk worthy of your new faith."

Clarkabad.

As to most places in the Punjab, 1890 was a very trying year to the health of the inmates of the Christian village of CLARKABAD. An epidemic of measles was followed by fever and dysentery, and these by cholera in the neighbourhood. The Rev. T. Holden was assisted in his pastoral ministrations to the sick and dying, as well as to the hale, by Babu Sant Shah, the catechist. Miss L. Ellwanger gives the following account of the village and the people:—

A Christian Agricultural Settlement.

> Picture to yourself a nice village, with huts and brick houses, a very primitive church, to be enlarged, with no pulpit nor glass windows, and where the Native congregation takes the place of humility on the floor; then there are plenty of trees, shrubs of all kinds, shapes, and sizes; and large fields of cotton, mustard and corn, with pleasant avenues. Christians and non-Christians who live there are land cultivators: the former are chiefly from the lower caste, and they were baptized more or less in an advanced state of life; their outward culture, knowledge, and spiritual life are much lower in degree than those of the future generation will be. Their children are taught from early youth everything that is pleasing to God and man, and what will be useful to them in their future life. New converts come from different villages, for the sake of the land; they are very ignorant about the simple facts of the Holy Scripture, and I have a special class for them, also a weekly Bible-meeting for all the Christian women, and an instruction-class for the inquirers; some of them remain with us and receive baptism, some leave us and go back to their former life.

The secular work of the settlement is under the superintendence of Mr. Lennox, who is assisted by three Native overseers. The church has been enlarged to seat 600 worshippers. The Dispensary was visited by 5,486 patients, many from a distance. The year closed with 36 inmates in the Boys' Orphanage and Industrial School. The American Presbyterian Mission, which had accepted the responsibility for the evangelization of the surrounding neighbourhood, has surrendered the Chunian Tahsil, a district containing 500 villages, to the Clarkabad Mission, and Mr. Holden was much pleased with the interest shown in his message during a tour in December.

Batala.

Batala. The long illness of Mrs. Weitbrecht and the fact that the Rev. H. U. Weitbrecht himself was laid aside three times in the course of the year, have rendered the record of work in this district a broken one, but it is very far from being uninteresting. The Bishop confirmed 20 candidates at Batala in February, 1890. The Brahmin lad, Kunj Lal, an account of whose baptism was given in last year's Annual Report (page 125), has, to Dr. Weitbrecht's great surprise and sorrow, joined the Arya Samaj. On the other hand, a former catechist at Fathgarh, Narayan Prashad, who apostatized in 1887 (see Annual Report for 1887-8, page 116) to Mohammedanism, although previous to his baptism he had been a Hindu, together with his family of seven persons, has publicly abjured Mohammedanism, and they have been re-admitted to the Church as penitents. The apostacy of this man arose upon a question regarding his son's marriage, and such questions are of continual recurrence, as the following from Dr. Weitbrecht's Annual Letter shows:—

I believe we may say that the congregations are gradually making progress in Christian knowledge. That the process is gradual cannot surprise us, when we consider the religious and moral state of the low castes (and not the low castes only) in this country. In one of our Christian villages there was a man, professing to be an inquirer, who migrated for a time to another village in search of work, and there made friends with a chuhra of the place. One of this man's female relatives lost her husband, and the immigrant being single, his friend pressed him to marry the widow; but the stranger steadily refused, much to the annoyance of his host. At last the host said, "You are very obstinate; but as you won't be persuaded, what do you say to taking my wife? I am ready to make her and the family over to you, only I want to keep one of my girls, and then I'll marry the widow." The exchange was duly made, and in course of time our villager returned to his home provided with a wife and growing family. On being asked how he had come by them, he told his story, and was severely blamed by the community for being married without the help of a padri. In this same village a quiet, respectable man had been living with his married brother. The brother died, and, according to ancient custom, the man "spread his skirt" over the widow, or as the Punjabis say, "cast his chadar over her," in a case of the kind no regular marriage ceremony being considered necessary. I found out casually that they were living together as man and wife, and represented that this was contrary to Christian law, adding that, if the man would leave his sister-in-law, the Church would be responsible for her maintenance till she could be married again. This, however, he refused to do, and for the present he stands excluded—excommunicated one cannot say, seeing that he is not yet a communicant. The congregation has upheld the decision of the pastor, after some discussion; but the difficulty in such a case is that the former moral code of the community actually demanded this kind of marriage as an act of duty, analogous to the Levirate marriage of the Mosaic law, though not identical with it, because here the question of raising up seed unto his brother does not come into consideration.

That a transforming change is being wrought by the Gospel is, however, unmistakably witnessed. Dr. Weitbrecht says:—

Contrasts. Preaching one day in a village, I noticed a venerable and fine-looking Hindu apparently in great dejection. I asked him the reason of his grief, and he told me that his little grandson had just died. I spoke of having lost children of my own, and the comfort given by the Christian hope of meeting them again. "Yes," he said, "you hope to meet your child again, but I have no hope of seeing mine." Shortly after, I visited one of our Christian congregations, and inquired how they were doing. A Christian who had lost his baby replied, "My child, whom you baptized some months ago, has gone to the bosom of God the Father"—a current phrase among our people (partly, I suppose, with reference to the parable of Dives and Lazarus), and one which speaks volumes for the difference between the hope of the high-caste Hindu and the low-caste Christian.

The Christians' faith, hope, and charity. In another village some Christian children were playing by the well of the thatthi (sweepers' quarter), and one of them accidentally fell in. The others ran to give the alarm, but the men had all gone out to work. However, a Christian woman ran to the spot and jumped in to hold up the child, though not her own. Presently her husband arrived and got down to assist them both, and after a while all three were drawn out, the child first, with turbans tied together. In marked contrast to this, on the occasion mentioned last year, when a catechumen in the same village rescued several people from a burning hut, the Sikh cultivators refused to allow the Mohammedan leather workers to draw water from the well nearest by which happened to be theirs, lest it should be defiled.

The openings for work among non-Christians continually increase. The public preaching in Batala is listened to respectfully, and on Easter Day a recitation in the centre of the city of the story of the Passion and the Resurrection interspersed with appropriate hymns and bhajans attracted many listeners and made a marked impression. The catechist, Munshi Fath Masih, who has been recommended for ordination by the Conference and Corresponding Committee, has much influence with the Mohammedans of Batala, who have elected him a member of a society calling itself "Anjuman-i-Akhlaqi," or "Ethical Society." Dr. Weitbrecht says :—

A Catechist a Member of a Moslem Debating Society.

The members used to meet weekly to discuss moral questions, and though the object was not strictly religious, yet religious questions were often treated. When Munshi Fath Masih proposed that the meetings should be begun with prayer the suggestion was accepted, and he himself was asked to offer up prayer, as the Moslem is little accustomed to frame extempore petitions. After these meetings had gone on for some time, a prominent member of the society applied for baptism, and a great stampede ensued, so that the meetings have never been resumed. Neither this candidate, nor another from the City Mission School, have succeeded in really breaking loose from Islam; but I have more hope of a third gentleman, also a member of the "Ethical Society," and a petition writer, practically, that is, a solicitor for the lower courts. He regularly attends church, and is eager for religious conversation, and shows his friendship to us by doing all our legal work free of cost.

Two leading Hindu officials show much friendliness to the Mission, one being a frequent purchaser of Christian books, which he circulates among his acquaintances. Of the other, Dr. Weitbrecht writes:—

A Hindu recites the Sermon on the Mount to other Hindus.

The other told me that once, when living at another station, the Hindus of the place asked him, as a pundit, to give them a katha (recitation and expounding of the sacred writings) on Sunday, that being his free day. He agreed, and one Sunday gave them the Sermon on the Mount (I imagine, with adaptations). The audience were delighted, and averred that they had never heard so excellent a katha, and begged him to repeat it the following Sunday, which he did.

The Rev. E. Corfield superintends the Baring High School, and the Rev. N. C. Dass, in addition to giving assistance in the Sunday services (usually being responsible for one evening service, either in the Epiphany Church or in the Baring High School Chapel), is headmaster of the Anglo-Vernacular School, known as the "Mission Plough," which has 108 names on the roll.

LAHORE.

Lahore Divinity School.

The Rev. F. A. P. Shirreff continues at the head of St. John's Divinity School, but the Rev. T. E. Coverdale has been transferred to Batala, and the Rev. H. G. Grey, who has passed his second examination "with credit," has taken his place. Two of the students, Rahmatu'llah, who was referred to in last year's Report, and another who was baptized in 1889, Lakshmi Narayan, died during the year, both, apparently, of consumption. The latter remarked on his death-bed, "My present illness is very different from that of last year, before I was a Christian. Then both my soul and body were sick; now my soul is healed, and I can leave my body in God's hands. I am ready to go or stay as it may please Him." The former also contrasted his state as a Christian with his former condition, when he was in the darkness of Mohammedanism, and expressed his thankfulness for the great salvation which he enjoyed. One of the 1889 students, Wadhawa Mall, continued in the class; he is described as "a diligent student and an excellent bazaar preacher." An old student, Hamidu'llah, from Peshawar (see last year's Report, page 131), rejoined the class; and there were two new students, viz., Makkhan Singh Sodi, who belongs to one of the two principal families of Sikh Gurus, and Ali Baksh, a convert from Mohammedanism. Dr. Weitbrecht mentions both these, the former having been among the confirmees at Batala. He says:—

Christian University Matriculates and spiritual work.

Among the candidates confirmed at this time was Makkhan Singh Sodi, a young Sikh of good family, baptized by Mr. Norman in Amritsar. He passed the University entrance examination this year from the Baring High School, and in October joined St. John's Divinity School. We are particularly thankful that he has done so, not only because the Church has thus gained a well-educated and promising candidate for holy orders, but also because M. S. was first persuaded by friends to study for a secular career, such as offers many inducements to a rising young man, and he gave this up, as we have reason to believe, in obedience to the dictates of conscience, which led him to follow the call to work for Christ in the ministry of His Church, at some sacrifice of worldly prospects. I believe that the case of Makkhan Singh and one or two others is a token that our educated young men are beginning to realize more fully the claims of spiritual work. It is also a hopeful sign that Makkhan Singh was encouraged to give himself to the ministry by the father of his future wife, who is one of our leading Christians. Another student who has joined the Divinity School during 1890 is Munshi Ali Baksh, one of the Christian masters of the Baring High School. He too has matriculated at the Punjab University.

KANGRA, KOTGUR, AND SIMLA.

Kangra.

Since the Rev. C. G. and Mrs. Däuble's arrival at KANGRA, and mainly in consequence of their successful appeals for help to the local fund, the staff has been increased by a Christian head-master for the Boys' School, a catechist, three readers, three colporteurs, and four Bible-women. These, with their families, have added 27 members to the congregation. One of the readers was educated at Secundra and at the Allahabad Divinity School, and his wife was in the Gorakhpur Orphanage. This man's talent for music is found helpful in the bazaar preaching. Mrs. Däuble finds a ready access to many of the zenanas, her medical knowledge, acquired at Secundra, proving of great value, especially during the past year, when an unusual amount of sickness was experienced. Several out-stations are occupied by catechists. Four adults were baptized.

Kotgur.

The KOTGUR district, or Pargannah, contains about forty villages with 4,000 inhabitants, but it is surrounded by a number of Hill States under British protection, to which it is the nearest Mission station, and through many of which Dr. Prochnow in former days made itinerations from Kotgur, reaching Thibet and Ladak and Kashmir. In the cold season Mr. and Mrs. Beutel made a tour through Bisahir and Kulu, two of these States. Mr. Beutel says :—

In November last we set out on a mission tour through a part of Bisahir and Kulu. Our first halt was at Chuhan, on the bank of the river. During the two nights which we spent there in camp, more than 200 travellers from different places, to whom we could preach God's Holy Word, were camping there also in the open-air. They all were on their way to the Rampur Mela.

From Chuhan we travelled up the river, on its left bank, to Rampur, the capital of Bisahir, where we were received in a friendly manner, at his palace, by the Rajah of Bisahir. The fair was already in full swing. We preached on the following day, which was Sunday, November 9th, to many people in different places, in the bazaar. On the following Monday, at the Rajah's request, we preached also to some twenty of his people, who had assembled at his court; and also to some faquirs at a takya, amongst whom there was sitting, wrapped in a tiger's skin, a poor misled Englishman of Simla, all being engaged in smoking opium, and therefore they did not much appreciate the truth of God's Holy Word. We sold some portions, and distributed a good many tracts and monthly handbills, in Hindi, Urdu, and Thibetan, at the fair. The Rampur Mela—at the beginning of November each year—is not a gathering for idolatrous worship, but for trade of all kinds, and is attended by from 10,000 to 12,000 people, who come from all directions, even from Thibet and Yarkund. Preaching in a Rajah's Court.

We stayed at Rampur until the fourth day. On the morning of Tuesday, November 11th, we had to cross the river, just a little way above a rapid by mashaks (inflated ox-skins), in order to reach the other side. It took us over an hour before all (including our carriers and luggage) got safely over. Arrived in Kulu, the first thing before us was a steep climb of over three miles. We all travelled on foot, and only my wife had to make use of a dandi now and then when uphill; but as we had not many coolies, in order to save expenditure, she also walked a great deal on foot. After some hours we got at the top of the ridge, and then had to go down again till, at sunset, we reached Nirmaud, the largest village in Kulu.

In a number of villages and hamlets, which we passed on our way through Kulu, wherever there was an opportunity we sowed some good Seed of Life, and many people, who had never heard even the Name of Christ, have asked us to come again.

The ten schools, six within the Pargannah and four beyond it, have 200 children; a Sunday School is attended by 50 to 60 children, many of whom walk a distance of two to four miles to be present.

The Rev. T. Edwards says that there are signs of progress in spiritual things on the part of the SIMLA Native congregation. He reports four adult baptisms. Simla.

PIND DADAN KHAN.

This station, the centre for the itinerancy along the banks of the Jhelum River, which had not had a resident European Pind Dadan Khan.

Missionary since the Rev. H. Rountree left at the end of 1888, having been superintended from Lahore (150 miles distant), has now again received a Missionary and his wife, the Rev. W. E. and Mrs. Davies, transferred from Dera Ghazi Khan. The Rev. T. Howell has been Native pastor at Pind Dadan Khan since 1882. He has visited and preached at Charamdas, Joriam, Shahpur, Hiranpur, and the fairs held in April at Chuasidan Shah and Kitas. In most places, he says, the people listened well. He refers to a Mohammedan whom he instructed, and who afterwards went to Peshawar, where he was baptized in April by the Rev. W. Jukes. He gave Rs. 30 as a donation towards the Church at Pind Dadan Khan, which was again last year, as in 1888, destroyed by fire (the work, it is thought, of incendiaries), in grateful recognition of Mr. Howell's help. A leading Moulvie has published a book attacking Christianity, a reply to which has been prepared and published by Mr. Howell.

MULTAN.

Multan. The Rev. W. E. Davies took charge of this station in April, but was absent at Fort Monro, where he itinerated among the Beluchees (Mr. Davies passed the Government examination in Beluchi in the winter) during May and June. Upon the return of the Rev. R. J. Kennedy, Mr. Davies was transferred, as already stated, to Pind Dadan Khan, and the Rev. D. Davies, who joined the Mission in the winter, was placed with Mr. Kennedy at Multan. This arrangement only continued, however, a few weeks owing to Mr. Kennedy's resignation and return home, and the station has been in the charge of Mr. W. Khem Chand, the Native headmaster of the school, since January.

DERA GHAZI KHAN.

Dera Ghazi Khan. "A more trying year, on the whole, than any since I came out," writes Dr. Andrew Jukes, not only on account of much sickness—influenza at the beginning of the year and malarial fever later—but because two members of the congregation apostatized, one to Hinduism, the other to Mohammedanism, and for other reasons. Nevertheless, signs of the Master's blessing have been vouchsafed. The Native Christians, as a body, Dr. Jukes says, "are certainly trying to live godly Christian lives, and to do what they can to help their brethren and sisters and to extend the knowledge of the truth amongst those around." The Native pastor, the Rev. Malik Ishaq, derived much spiritual benefit, and was much stirred up by a visit to Delhi in November, to attend a series of devotional meetings, arranged for the benefit of the Native clergy of the Punjab and the North-West Provinces. His wife is "a good example of a happy Christian." The catechist, Ghulám Ládir Shah, is described as "very strong on the Mohammedan controversy, and a good preacher," and his wife as "an energetic zenana visitor and Bible-woman, who is also in charge of the female dispensary." The Mission Hospitals in Dera Ghazi Khan and Fort Monro continue to attract people from long distances.

DERA ISMAIL KHAN, BANNU, AND TANK.

Dera Ismail Khan.

"The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall one far from another." With these words, very appropriately, as describing the position of the frontier Missionaries, and of himself in particular, the Rev. F. Papprill commences his Annual Letter. With the exception of about twelve months, during which he had the companionship of the Rev. W. Thwaites, he was the only ordained European Missionary at DERA ISMAIL KHAN, from his arrival at the end of 1887 until the beginning of this year, when he was cheered by the location of the Rev. D. Davies at this station.

Isolation of workers.

Hostility of Arya Samaj.

The hostility of the Arya Samaj members has been especially pronounced. Mr. Papprill says:—

> The Aryans have left no stone unturned in opposing our work. No sooner do they hear of a man likely to become a Christian than they attack him and make his life a burden. When kindness fails they try abuse, their one aim being to prevent the man from becoming a Christian, whereas, if he gave himself up to licentious living, they would care but little, and leave him to himself to perish in his wickedness.

Two young men, both apparently earnest inquirers, who visit Mr. Papprill by night to read the Scriptures with him, were deterred by the opposition and threats of these people. But a third young man, of good family, the brother of the leading Aryan in the city, a pleader, steadfastly resisted both persecution and temptations, and, though his brother had him removed from the school, he visited Mr. Papprill and assured him of his determination to profess Christ in baptism. In a course of lectures which were delivered by the Aryans, the attacks on the Bible were so violent and irreverent that many who heard them were induced rather to sympathize with Christianity, and this feeling was much strengthened when the Rev. Kharak Singh, from Amritsar, soon afterwards gave a course of earnest addresses in the Mission school. Mr. Papprill says:—

Lectures for and against Christianity.

Forbearance of a Native clergyman.

> After each lecture an opportunity was given to those who wished to ask questions. Some took advantage of this to abuse and insult the lecturer; he, however, bore all with true Christian forbearance. One night they overstepped the bounds, whereupon a young Sikh rose to his feet, and, before the whole assembly, complained of the cowardly and insulting attacks which were being made. He said, "I could never have sat on my chair, had I been the lecturer, and listened to such insulting remarks; I should have knocked the man down; but we have been witnesses to-night of true Christian forbearance and patience." This testimony had a powerful effect on the meeting, as it came from such an unexpected quarter. The Pandit's visit has stirred us all up, and we know that God's blessing has rested on the lectures.

The High School did well in the Government Examinations, passing twenty in the Middle School and eight in the Entrance Examinations, out of twenty-five and twelve respectively presented. The Director of Public Instruction, after visiting the school, wrote, "There cannot be a doubt of the immense benefit conferred by this institution on the whole district of Dera Ismail Khan, and it is a credit in all respects to the Mission which supports it"; while the Rev. T. R. Wade reported on the Bible instruction, "The whole school is taught Scripture by Christian teachers, and taught well." An agent of the Mission who was dismissed for immorality was welcomed by the Mohammedans (although their mullah was informed regarding his character) and, after repeating the "Kalima," was recognised as one of their members. The Women's Dispensary, worked by the ladies of the C.E.Z.M.S. and Mrs. Papprill, had over 3,000 patients during the year.

A "credit to the Mission."

Mr. Papprill's Annual Letter makes no mention of BANNU, which is without a resident missionary. Of the Rev. John Williams's medical missionary work at TANK he says:—

Hospital at Tank.

Dr. John Williams still carries on his patient labours alone at the very foot of the hills, and within twelve miles of the Gomal Pass. 10,588 out-patients, 87 in-patients, and 1,948 operations tell us the work has not been standing still. Moreover, there is a small school in which he gives Scriptural instruction to the boys, many of whom are the sons of hillmen. I was particularly struck with the answers given when I examined the school in Scripture. He gives also addresses daily to the patients, and, thank God! the seed sometimes falls into prepared ground.

A dying Waziri's Confession of Faith.

An engineer was working in the Gomal Pass and heard a Waziri was dying. On going to this man he spoke to him, and found out he had learned something about Christ. "I am not afraid to die," said the man, "for Jesus Christ has died for the sins of the world." If you could but know the locality and the character of these hillmen you would indeed praise the grace of God for having taught this man this blessed truth. John Williams says there are several men in the hills who know the truth, and in Tank itself there are those who come to his house for prayer, and also read the Bible in their own homes.

A Native Clergyman's Visit to the Holy Land.

Mr. Williams visited the Holy Land in the early part of 1890, during a short leave of absence rendered necessary by his state of health. He is the second Native Christian from the Punjab who has made this journey, the other being the Rev. Mian Sadiq, of Ajnala. On returning home he wrote an account of his visit, in which the following remarks occur:—

I have seen the splendour and the power of the Bible. I never so much before loved or perceived the beauty of Holy Writ. They are full of glory and love and awe. Every word and iota of the Scriptures is full of deep things, PESHAWAR.

Peshawar. The Rev. A. E. Day returned to Peshawar in April, 1890, a few days after the departure for home of the Rev. Worthington Jukes. The arrival of the Rev. G. R. Ekins in December has raised the number of ordained missionaries at this important station among the Afghans to four, the Revs. W. A. Rice and H. J. Hoare being the other two.

Opposition. Much opposition was experienced during the summer of 1890, especially by the ladies of the C.E.Z.M.S., in Peshawar, from both the Mohammedans and Hindus. The latter appear to have been roused into opposition by members of the Arya Samaj. The combination succeeded for a time in almost emptying the schools and hospital of the Zenana ladies. A "Society for the Help of Islam" was started by the Mohammedans, and a pamphlet animadverting upon the work of lady missionaries was published, which concluded with the following words, conveying a strong testimony to their success:—

Testimony of Moslems to success of Zenana work. From all sides comes the cry that these ladies have converted to Christianity such and such a woman or girl, and yet . . . we willingly let them into our houses, &c. . . . The Mussulmans of Peshawar, seeing that their religion and the honour of their brethren is in an evil case, have awakened from their hare's sleep, and an Anjuman, which is called the Anjuman-i-himayat-i-Islam, has been established, by means of which instruction will be given to women and children, various kinds of handiwork will be taught, and the nourishing and training of orphans will be taken in hand to preserve their faith and honour, that they may not fall into the charmed claws of the people of other religions.

After the publication of this pamphlet special evangelistic services were commenced by Mr. Day in the Christian Anjuman or Institute, and the Mohammedan convert referred to under Pind Dadan Khan, Ashiq Ullah, was of great assistance. Mr. Day says of him:—

A Native Convert singing the Gospel. He sings bhajans (Native hymns), joined by nine or ten of our Christian youths, playing accompaniments on his rabâb (a kind of fiddle). Sometimes he sings alone songs of his own composition, telling the story of God's love in Christ, or describing the vanity of other religions or the folly of living for this life alone. Between these songs we have Gospel addresses, which are frequently listened to with attention, but sometimes people who have come in simply for the music, of which they are very fond, leave as soon as an address is commenced, or some Mohammedan starts up and departs in disgust on hearing Christ spoken of as the Son of God.

For a time much petty annoyance was suffered at these meetings, but patience and perseverance eventually had their reward, and they were allowed to be held without molestation. The "Society for the Help of Islam" soon split up into factions. The Literary Institute mentioned above is frequented by Moslems and Hindus for the sake of the newspapers, and opportunities are thus afforded for friendly and serious conversations. Many acquaintances are also formed in the Hujra, or guest-house.

High School.

The Rev. W. A. Rice, who has charge of the Edwardes' High School, says it requires much faith and energy and buoyancy of soul to make a mission school a happy sphere of work, owing to the large demands which the teaching of secular subjects makes on time and strength, and to the trials to faith and patience which the work involves. Nevertheless he testifies that it is a fascinating work, the interest of which grows and deepens. "Contact with all that young vigorous life begets a more earnest longing that the hearts of our boys may be filled with the Saviour's love."

"Fascinating work."

The Native Congregation is under the pastorship of the Rev. Imam Shah. From ten to twenty gather together at the daily morning and evening services, and about three times that number on Sundays and Thursdays, besides some few Hindus and Mohammedans who are generally present.

KASHMIR.

Kashmir.

"A busy year," and "one of material advance," write respectively the Rev. J. H. Knowles and Dr. E. F. Neve. In connexion with the Native Congregation a Branch of the Gleaners' Union has been formed, of which the members undertake to pray daily for some part of the Mission-field, and fortnightly meetings are held for prayer and missionary conversation. The number of boys in the two Schools, the one in Srinagar and the other at Islamabad, which went up in 1889–1890 from eighty to three hundred, has further increased to nearly five hundred. Mr. Knowles says of this work:—

Schools.

> Our aim is to educate these in the most extended sense of the word—physically, intellectually, morally, religiously, as ought to be done in a man's youth for the sequel of his life. We tell them bits of the Bible story day by day; the life and words and works of Christ have been the theme of our daily opening addresses, and other parts of the Scriptures the subject of the daily lessons. We give them a fair grounding in Urdu, Painan, Sanskrit, and English, the former and latter especially. One of our boys, who left us a little while ago in order to pass the Government Middle School Examination, has just passed that examination with high honours, heading the (Anglo-Vernacular) list of 1,838 names with fifty-three marks to spare to the lad next to him. We encourage them in their games—cricket, hockey, &c.
> During the past year especially we have been much encouraged by the improved character of very many of the boys. They are brighter and better in every way than when they first came to us. The more we have to do with them the more we feel satisfied of several of them being convinced of the truth of Christianity. Some, as you already know, have confessed themselves so. Two lack the courage to come forward for baptism, and two have asked to be baptized. We could quote many interesting incidents in connexion with the work of the past year: how that four of our boys were transferred to the State school (set up in opposition to ours) because their parents were often worried by their narration of the day's religious addresses and lessons; how that one dear lad was sent to the Punjab because he had avowed himself a disciple of Jesus, and would kneel down to pray when we knelt down, and wanted permission from his uncle to be baptized; and how that others have often called on us privately to inquire further of certain things that trouble their minds.

Forgive us, please, if we try to press this matter on your attention. Our school rolls, as we have just said, now number nearly five hundred names. Most of the lads will very soon be the leaders of society, religion, commerce, and thought in Kashmir. We are teaching every day for several hours the scion of one of the most aristocratic families here; the cousin of the chief magistrate of the city; the three boys of the head official at Anatnagh; the son of the chief Native physician; the son of one of the principal imams (religious teachers); the son of the master of the gaol; the three sons of our greatest merchant, who, so says report, could buy up the Maharajah and all the royal family; and many others of equal position and pedigree. All these will soon be centres of vast influence here. Son of leading families in Mission Schools.

The Rev. C. E. Tyndale-Biscoe has been sent out especially to assist in the work of influencing for Christ the youth in the schools. The acquaintance of several of the aristocracy of the city has been made through their sons, and on visiting their houses Mr. Knowles has been rejoiced to find the Bible there. The work of Itineration was much assisted by several visitors from other stations. Dr. H. Martyn Clark preached in many of the towns and villages in the autumn, and had "delightful times with the people." A Kashmiri convert of high family, who was baptized at Amritsar some years since, also spent two months witnessing among his own countrymen for Christ. The Rev. Pundit Kharak Singh, also from Amritsar, spent six months in the valley. Mr. Knowles says of his work:— Itineration.

The Rev. Pundit Kharak Singh, a faquir missionary from the Punjab, a man who has literally given up all for the Master, also came to see us, and spent six months or more in the valley, preaching, lecturing, and visiting the people, over whom, by virtue of his great Vedic learning and by the sanctity of his life and conversation, he had immense influence. Besides work in the city, this good brother preached in over three hundred towns and villages here, often twice and thrice, and now and again half a dozen times. He reckons that over forty thousand people must have heard the Word; and, from what we know of the man, we are assured that he is under rather than over the mark in his calculations. Whenever and wherever opportunity afforded he called on the chief folk of the place, and preached to the common people. In some places he was struck and turned out of the village; the Pathans, Sikhs, and Bramchari "log" especially gave him trouble; but generally the people heard him gladly, and in many places were kind to him, giving him shelter and supplying him with rice, flour, and water, &c. Here and there he met with secret believers in the religion of Jesus—people who had portions of the Gospels, and were reading them, and several came to him privately after his address and confessed themselves as wishing to follow Christ, and asking what they must do. The fakir Missionary.

The Hospital work, extensive though it is, is carried on without cost to the Society, except for the salaries of the missionaries. To the large number of out-patients who attend daily, addresses of from ten to thirty minutes were given by one of the two brothers, Dr. Arthur Neve and Dr. E. F. Neve, or by the Native doctor, Mr. K. B. Thomas, or by the dresser, Syad Ullah Khan, Hospital.

and usually a respectful hearing was secured. To the in-patients, more than sixty in number when the hospital is full, a systematic exposition of Christ's life and of the leading truths of Christianity was given. Dr. Ernest Neve writes of these services:—

A special advantage of Hospital Work.

> Oftentimes these are very pleasant gatherings. The patients appreciate them as a break in the monotony of their day; while the period of quiet and enforced rest gives them opportunity for thinking about the truths which they hear. But above all, the great advantage of medical mission work is that it presents such obvious facilities for showing that the Christian religion is not a mere collection of dogmas, that it is no barren philosophy, but a vital principle permeating the lives of believers. The patients can test our teaching by our lives. A wound carefully dressed, an extra visit, patience under the provocation of disobedience or ingratitude, justice in the control of a large establishment, the maintenance of cleanliness and all that goes to make up discipline, the opportunities for demonstrating the difference between honest work and eye-service—these things are more valuable than many a sermon. And when combined with teaching and preaching, they indicate that philanthropy is not distinct from Christianity, but included in it. And thus patients are brought into contact with more than one side of our religion.

Leper Hospital built by Kashmir Government.

A Leper Hospital was being built in November, when Dr. Neve wrote his Annual Letter, at the cost of the Kashmir Government, which also undertook to provide for the cost of administration, no restriction being placed on the preaching of the Gospel therein. The Women's Dispensary and Hospital, of which Mrs. Nisbet, wife of Colonel Nisbet the Resident, laid the foundation stone in October, 1889, was opened by the Bishop of Lahore on June 9, 1890, in the presence of the Resident, Rajah Amar Singh, the Prime Minister, the Commander-in-Chief, and many others. This latter institution is under the management of the C.E.Z.M.S. ladies.

QUETTAH.

Quettah.

The Rev. H. G. Grey returned to Quettah from his short visit to this country, enforced by his illness of 1889, in April, and Dr. S. W. Sutton in December; the former, however, was transferred at the end of the year to Lahore. From various causes nearly all (only two or three being left out of eighteen) the Native Christians removed from Quettah at the close of 1889. They were not Natives of Beluchistan, but had gone thither from India as clerks or servants to European officers, and were liable to removal at any time. As both the Missionaries were withdrawn at this very time, this fact was rather a relief. Mr. Grey engaged as a munshi a Persian, Yuhanna, whom the Rev. Dr. Bruce baptized at Baghdad in January, 1890. He had been imprisoned by the Persian Consul for six weeks, but was released on the remonstrances of Dr. H. M. Sutton on condition that he left Baghdad for Karachi. In this city Mr. Grey found him in April. He writes of him as "an able man who appears to be truly taught of God." Dr. Sutton had the disappointment, soon after his return, of seeing the new building for in-patients, put up in 1889, and other parts of the Hospital, destroyed by the excessive rains which fell from November to the end of February. Hospital buildings destroyed by rain.

SINDH.

THE Rev. J. and Mrs. Redman and Mrs. Heaton returned to the Mission in October; but the last named had to come home again with her husband, the Rev. R. Heaton, in March, he being ordered home on medical grounds, as also was the Rev. A. W. Cotton about the same time.

The Rev. W. J. Abigail was admitted to Priest's Orders at Lahore by Bishop Matthew, on December 21.

KARACHI.

Since the Rev. J. J. Bambridge arrived in Karachi in 1877, the population of the city has doubled, and its wealth has proportionately increased. Prosperity, however, has not apparently predisposed the people to attend to the claims of the Gospel; on the contrary, opposition is more determined and systematic than ever. Nevertheless, "decided progress in every department" has marked the year. The Native Congregation, under the Rev. B. N. Ghose's spiritual care, numbers ninety-two. "Bible-reading," Mr. Bambridge says, "and united prayer seem to be sustained and real. Help is readily given in the Sunday Schools for Hindu and Mohammedan boys, as well as in bazaar preaching." Miss Ghose, daughter of the pastor, superintends the Sunday School for Christian children; and Mrs. Bambridge and Miss Chaterjee conduct a Bible-class for Christian women. A Day School for Christian children was opened in April. Under Evangelistic Work, Mr. Bambridge mentions that the Rev. Kharak Singh delivered a course of lectures in the Native Town Hall, during the past winter; and the lectures to English-speaking Natives have been held as for several years. One adult baptism has taken place. Of inquirers two are specially mentioned:— Karachi.

The cases of two well-to-do Mohammedans are interesting, and call for much prayer. M. S. A. is an old Government pensioner, an excellent scholar, but stone-deaf. He was convinced of the truth of Christianity chiefly through reading the Bible and Christian books. Of the latter he has sufficient to stock a small book-shop! In carrying on conversation (?) with him we have to resort to writing. The Mohammedan community has issued a "fatwa" (decree) against him, but the old man still reads on, and pays no attention to the threats of the mullahs (Mohammedan priests). Such a case as this is a splendid argument for the work of our Bible and book societies. A stone-deaf inquirer.

T. H. is a young man, an "alumnus" of our Mission High School, and holds a good appointment under Government. He regularly attends our Church services, and has bought both a Prayer and a hymn book. He also comes to Mrs. Bambridge's Young Men's Bible-class. He says his mind is fully made up to receive baptism as soon as he can break free from the restraining influence of his family connexions. His wife, who belongs to one of the most influential families in Karachi, is most bigoted, and his chief difficulties are with her.

Happiness of Missionary Educational Work.

The Rev. W. J. Abigail's first year of missionary work has been given chiefly to the High School, and he writes of it as "one of the happiest years of his life." The school obtained a very indifferent report from the Inspector of Education, owing partly to the fact that the best boys are attracted to the Government school. Mr. Abigail began the needed improvement by considerably raising the fees; and the numbers, notwithstanding, increased from 110 to 150. A Native Christian master was also secured. Mr. Abigail says:—

I often wish Christians at home could see my class of big boys—Jews, Mohammedans and Hindus, from sixteen to twenty years of age—reading their (own) Bibles, and both hearing and asking questions on the things of God therein revealed: they would rejoice that the Gospel was being thus taught, and would feel sure a harvest must follow some day.

Witnesses to the preciousness of Christ.

One feature has been very helpful. Whenever I can I invite Christian men to give an address, instead of the ordinary lesson—a personal testimony to the preciousness of Christ. Lieut. Stileman, of H.M.S. Mariner, did this. He gave an account of his conversion, his long holding-out, and then his final yielding his will to the Lord Jesus, and the testimony and joy that followed. The boys listened with deep interest. Their idea is that we are born Christians, and are so reckoned without any effort on our part. Yesterday Pundit Gharak Singh told them of his conversion. They were particularly interested, as he is a Brahmin and a great Sanscrit scholar.

While the above shows how great a help to Missionary work the godly testimony of European officers is, Mr. Bambridge mentions an instance which proves that the ministrations of Missionaries are sometimes blessed to Europeans. The following letter, accompanied by a twenty-rupee note, was addressed to him:—

"Karachi, Nov. 9, 1890.

A grateful soldier.

"It was in this church on Christmas Day, 1888, that our Blessed Lord sent a message, by the Rev. ——, that first affected me. A few months later I was converted, and I cannot express my thankfulness to the Mission gentlemen during the three years that I have been in Karachi. I have always found them willing to do anything for me that was needful, and it lays not in my power to repay to the Mission what I owe in regard to what I have received. I leave the debt entirely in the hands of our Blessed Lord, who, I feel sure, will reward you for your labour. And now, as we are about to leave you, I earnestly trust that our Heavenly Father will touch the hearts of some others to take our places in the church, to enable the good work to be carried on.

"I trust he will continue to supply you with as good seed as He has been doing, and that you will find better ground to sow it on, and then the harvest will be greater. With these few lines I enclose a note for twenty rupees for the good of the Church. This may be the last time I shall have an opportunity of coming to it; although I am compelled to leave it I am not compelled to forget it.

"Allow me to remain,

(Signed) "A Driver in the Royal Artillery."

The Bible and Book Depôt sold 22,581 bibles, testaments, portions, and various books and tracts; being 10,000 over the sales of 1889.

HYDRABAD.

Hydrabad

The Rev. R. Heaton was alone at this station from April, when the Rev. A. E. Ball came home, until October, when the Rev. J. Redman returned. Of the Schools, the High School has 150 on the rolls, and the Vernacular 111. Of the latter school, the Rev. T. R. Wade's report of the Scripture examination mentions that the boys had committed to memory Psalms i., viii., xv., xxiii., xxxiv., xli., cxv., cxxi., and St. Matthew v. 1–12, St. Mark x. 13–16, St. Luke xv. 11–24, St. John xiv. 1–6, and six hymns. The Girls' School is under the charge of Miss H. Rhiem, who states that "the Anandhbai prize, which is given annually to the best educated girl in Sindh, was obtained by one of the pupils of this school." Mr. Wade reported:—"Such an institution with such teaching, conducted on such principles, must do an immense amount of, if not manifest and direct at least indirect and real, mission work." English Evangelistic Addresses have been given and well attended by educated Natives. Mr. Redman wrote soon after his return:—

The Scriptures committed to memory.

"The best educated girl in Sindh."

It is plain that there has been quite a stir during the past year, and Banerji's lectures, together with the English evangelistic addresses, have, under God, been the cause of it. God's Spirit has been working; this is evident from the opposition which has been raised. Lectures opposing Christianity have been organized, and one opponent has lately purchased a supply of Bradlaugh's and Ingersoll's tracts and books to lend amongst his friends. Banerji himself has certainly, so far as man can judge, been drawn very near to Christ. He publicly confesses his faith in the Lord Jesus as truly the Son of God, the Saviour, and realizes his need of Him as the atonement for sin—still he is not baptized. With regard to baptism, he quite acknowledges the privilege and duty, but says that the command to be baptized has not yet come home to his heart with living power; he waits for this. He says it may come at any time, and that he will not take the step until he feels thus constrained. He heartily accepts the Apostles' Creed, but is a little unsatisfactory on Revelation and Inspiration, holding that both the authors of the Vedas and the Rishis were, and also that earnest godly men now are, inspired in the same way as the writers of the Bible. He cannot abandon the idea of reconciling what he calls pure Hinduism with pure Christianity: he says he wishes to lead Hindus to Christ by means of their own sacred books. Of his earnestness and sincerity there can be no doubt, and he has considerable influence with some few others, to whom he has been a help.

English lectures by a Native Convert.

There are two especially who seem to be very near baptism. Permanand makes the New Testament his constant companion, and is as far advanced as Banerji, I should think, but being amongst his own people it is more difficult for him to come out; he teaches his mother and other women in his house Christian truths. He has much evident relish for the Word of God, and finds much enjoyment in studying it. He has been to me this morning with a friend, asking me to read an Epistle with them, saying that now he has a few days' vacation, and asking that we may meet every day for one hour to study it together.

Hopeful inquirers.

There are several others who seem to be following afar off. We have had more evangelistic addresses, one from Wade when he was here a short time ago, and another from Sandberg, the Chaplain; they have been well attended. We had an interesting baptism on Christmas Day. An old faquir, who says he is ninety years old, but perhaps may be between seventy and eighty, then publicly confessed his faith in Christ crucified.

Mr. Banerji, referred to by Mr. Redman above, is a nephew of Mr. K. C. Banerji, a Christian pleader in Calcutta; he was baptized in February.

SUKKUR.

Sukkur. The Rev. A. W. Cotton before coming home reported regarding bazaar preaching, bookselling (4,000 were sold during the year), English evangelistic meetings, house-to-house visitation, and the Sunday School at Sukkur. The Rev. Quasim Khan Nehemiah is the pastor of the Native congregation.

The out-station of Shikarpur manifests a marked difference in the treatment it now accords to the Missionary from that which he used to receive there.

WESTERN INDIA MISSION.

Bombay, 1820; Nasik, 1832; Junir, 1846; Malegam, 1848; Aurungabad, 1860.

THE Rev. Thomas Carss, who laboured in this Mission for twenty years, from 1862 to 1881, as Principal of the Robert Money School, died in October. The Rev. J. M. Macdonald returned home in August, after four years' work mainly in connexion with the English congregation in Bombay; and in October the Rev. W. St. Clair Tisdall and Mrs. Tisdall, of the Mohammedan Mission, came to England. The Rev. J. A. Harriss came home on short leave in January, and returned to the Mission with Mrs. Harriss (née Miss Prynne, of Plymouth) in May.

BOMBAY.

Bombay. The Rev. R. A. Squires, in addition to the work of the Secretaryship, is responsible, since the Rev. J. M. Macdonald came home, for all the services and other duties connected with Girgaum Church. These other duties include engagements similar to those of an active parish clergyman at home, such as Sunday School, meetings for Prayer and Bible reading, choir practice, and the administration of a considerable sum provided by the liberality of the congregation in various charities on behalf of the European and Eurasian poor. The Rev. W. Haslam conducted special Mission services at Girgaum Church in November, from which many acknowledged that they derived great help. The Marathi Work in Bombay was for many years under the charge of a Native catechist, Mr. M. Goray, until the Rev. A. Manwaring was appointed to it on his return to the Mission at the end of 1889. The following extracts from his Annual Letter convey a good impression of past work and of present opportunities:—

Girgaum Church.

Opportunities for Marathi work in Bombay.

Bombay is the most important missionary town under these bright Eastern skies. Considering its size—the second largest city in the British Empire; considering the manifold influences which, as the largest town in India, it has on the rest of the population; considering that there are in it 600,000 whose language is Marathi, it seems almost incredible that the Society should have been content to have but one Marathi-speaking Native worker engaged in evangelization.

It is only right to say that I have been very pleased to find how well the Society's catechist, Mr. Goray, has thus, single-handed, carried on aggressive work among the Hindus, and also cared for the intelligent body of Christians who form the congregation. During the past year I have had his valuable co-operation in both these works. The congregation numbers about 160; some are occupying a good position in society; some come, I fear, from a low depth, and they are engaged in all sorts of trades and occupations. There is much in the congregation, as of course there always is, that one could wish improved. For example, the morning service begins at eight o'clock, and our people are scattered over the town; the consequence is that some of them come rather late. But, on the other hand, most of the members attend regularly, and the responses and singing are very hearty.

Street preaching. In street-preaching in Bombay, we seem to get back to the atmosphere of the Acts of the Apostles. The preachers are often "unlearned and ignorant men"; the audience often filled with more than a prejudice, a hatred against the Name of Christ. There is no conceivable religious view that is not represented; but the one sad and terrible hindrance to the acceptance of Christ as a Saviour, is that the need of a Saviour is not really felt. There is no realization of the guilt of sin. I cannot remember meeting with a single instance during the year of a person who felt there was any great evil in sin beyond the evil of the punishment which some sins involve. The Christian sense of sin is not understood and not felt. Until there is the outpouring of God's Holy Spirit to convict of sin, there can be no earnest turning to Christ.

One of the most cheering works that I have been engaged in during the year is that among young men. Every Saturday evening the youths of the congregation to the number of twenty to twenty-six meet together in Mr. Goray's house. The first hour one week is spent in Bible study, in which I have been taking the Acts; and the next week in the discussion of a subject introduced by one of the members. After this some time is given to learning singing according to the tonic solfa system, in which the members have made good progress under Mr. Goray's tuition. As an outcome of this, two or three of the members are now engaged in voluntary street-preaching; and Young Men's Samaj. altogether this "C.M.S. Young Men's Samaj," as it calls itself, has encouraged me very much, besides being, in such a place as Bombay, a profitable and a pleasant rallying point for the members. We finished up the year on the Saturday after Christmas Day with a social gathering of fifty or sixty men and a few visitors. In the Bible-class a great variety of religious views fermenting in the minds of the members have come up in conversation; such as, whether the act of baptism is necessary (this from contact with the Salvation Army!); whether it should be administered at once to an absolute stranger (this from contact with other friends!); whether the wine at Holy Communion should be non-intoxicating, &c., &c., in addition to the odd difficulties that occur from the objections of non-Christians. Among the subjects brought forward for discussion have been "Unity," "Labour," "Self-improvement," "Independence," and so on. All the proceedings are in Marathi.

The Rev. J. G. Deimler was chiefly engaged in literary work during the year, and since the Rev. W. St. C. Tisdall left Bombay, has given to the Mohammedan Mission such help as he could render.

Robert Money School. The Robert Money School had 256 on the rolls and an average attendance of 215 during the year. Mr. J. Jackson says the boys take considerable interest in the religious instruction, and acquit themselves well in the Scripture examinations, while some of their essays might have been written by Christian boys. In January last a young Parsee, an inmate of the school, was Baptisms. baptized. He had been influenced and instructed in the first instance by Mr. Macdonald some nine months before. In February also Mr. Manwaring baptized an inmate of the Hostel, one of the Beni-Israel community, about seventeen years of age. When asked to what he attributed his faith in Christ, he answered, "To the Scripture teaching in the Money School."

NASIK.

Nasik.

In this large town of over 241,000 people, the "Benares of Western India," which is said to have 1,300 priestly families, and in the district around it, an area of about 6,000 square miles, the Rev. E. J. Jones engages in evangelistic work. During the rains he laboured in and near the city, preaching with two catechists each morning in two different parts of Nasik, or visiting one of the surrounding villages, and in the evening preaching again in Nasik. The members of a "Cow Protection Society" offered much opposition, appropriating beforehand the usual preaching place, and interrupting the preaching with shouts of "Victory to our mother the Cow!" Lectures on Christian Evidences to educated Natives were delivered by different missionaries. The Rev. W. A. Roberts spoke on "The Teaching of Jesus Christ"; the Rev. E. J. Jones, on "The Authority of the Holy Scriptures"; the Rev. R. A. Squires, on "The Witness of History to Christ"; and the Rev. A. A. Parry, on "The Miracles of Jesus Christ." The chair on each occasion was taken by a European gentleman, Mr. Ferguson. Mr. Parry, who was married in February to Miss A. H. Cole, is stationed at the Christian village of Sharanpur, about a mile to the West of Nasik, where his chief occupation has been the study of Marathi. The Rev. W. A. Roberts has charge of the Normal Class with 14 students, the Orphanage and Boarding School with 57 children, and a farm connected with the Orphanage. Two Scripture-readers are stationed at Yeola, which is about 50 miles from Nasik. Mr. Roberts visited this place accompanied by two catechists and two Divinity students at the beginning of 1890, remaining 10 days and preaching daily in several parts of the town to "most attentive gatherings."

POONA AND JUNIR.

Poona Divinity School.

The Divinity School at Poona, under the Rev. J. A. Harriss, had eight students during the year. Four of the previous year's class were presented to the Bishop of Bombay for examination in May, 1890. The Bishop wrote to Mr. Squires regarding these first candidates from the school:—"I am glad to congratulate the Divinity School heartily on its first fruits. Out of the four candidates presented, two, Messrs. Dayaram and David, have passed an admirable examination, Mr. Dayaram in all subjects, Mr. David in all but one. Both show a very ample amount of knowledge, and a good training in the way to make use of it. The latter point is what I regard as the real test, being that in which Natives of this country so seldom show to advantage." Mr. Squires, who had these students reading under his charge at Bombay, and assisted them in their studies, forwarded home the examination papers, remarking:—"You will see from these that, so far as the subjects go—and they are pretty extensive—the examination has been a rigorous one for Native agents, even though three of them have matriculated, especially when we remember that they have only been eight months under instruction." Two of the 1889 students died last year. Of one of these, who was labouring as a catechist at Poona, Mr. Harriss writes:—

> We were called out one afternoon from class, just as we were about to close the day's work, and we gathered round his bed to cheer him with our prayers and presence, as he passed away from us. I shall not soon forget the gentleness and tender care with which his fellow-students held him in their arms and watched over him at the last.

The Rev. C. W. Thorn is stationed temporarily at Poona while studying the language, and he accompanied the students in their open-air preaching, when they had, he says, "some splendid times." The Rev. Appaji Bapuji, in spite of increasing years—he is in his seventieth year—and his work as pastor of the Native Congregation, devotes usually four hours daily to the students. He mentions that they meet in the chapel every day to read a portion of Scripture and to pray, in Marathi of course, for the Missions of the Society, according to the Cycle of Prayer. Services and meetings were held in December by the Rev. W. Haslam and Mr. Campbell for Native Christians and for English-speaking Native gentlemen. Some 250 of the latter were present on one occasion and listened attentively for the most part to an evangelistic address in the Anandoubhad Theatre. By special invitation Mr. Haslam prolonged his visit for a second week, when special services were held for soldiers and for women and children, and visits paid to the Native Institutions and Schools, and to a Soiree held at the Joshi Hall for the members of the Prathana Samaj.

Rev. W. Haslam at Poona.

In the district around JUNIR the Rev. W. C. Whiteside meets with much encouragement in his itinerations, although he cannot yet write of baptisms. A young Brahmin, aged 18, and his sister, also a weaver about 60 years old, appeared to him to be hopeful inquirers. The first stands out boldly at home against the superstitious practices required from him as elder son in his father's absence; and the last is earnestly studying the New Testament and waiting for his son to join him in confessing Christ. In Junir itself a Reading Room has been opened, in which discussions on Christian and Hindu subjects are carried on. The Mohammedans have offered opposition from time to time. Mr. Whiteside says:—

have placed in the library, "The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord," and nailed it conspicuously on a wall. Next they bought a hymn-book and a tract, and borrowed a New Testament. Thus fortified, they sallied out, and began to sing and preach. A boy was dressed to represent my wife, and another to represent the reader. We rejoiced that, though in contention, still Christ was preached.

MALEGAM.

Four adults were baptized during the year at Malegam and out-stations by the Rev. F. G. Macartney. Two of these were the Sikh and his wife whom Mr. Roberts referred to in last year's Annual Report (page 143). Mr. Macartney supplies a few further particulars of this man's history:— Malegam.

The case of a middle-aged Sikh and his wife is interesting as showing the power of God's Word when received in the love of it. Daniel, as he is now called, found his way to Nasik last year and asked that his daughter might be baptized. He declared that he had been told in a dream to take his child to a missionary. The parents at the same time professed to be inquirers. Two evangelists visited these people at Vinchur, where they had been living for many years, but they removed to Nandgaon six months ago, as the man was able to obtain employment there, and he wished to be near Christians, so that he could get regular religious instruction. However, the man had been practically a Christian for some years. More than twenty years ago he was on his way from North India to a place called Nanded, in the Nizam's territory, where it would appear there is a tomb of some famous Sikh saint, to which pilgrims resort. Before he reached his journey's end, a Sepoy had given him a copy of the Gospels and the Acts, bound in one volume. He read it and became convinced that Christ was the true Guru. He is evidently of an inquiring turn of mind, for he received his first religious impressions by reading small Christian publications which fell into his hands more than thirty years ago at Ludhiana, in the Punjab. The leaven has worked, but it is only lately that he, in the providence of God, has been brought into close contact with Christians. During his residence in Nandgaon he has worshipped regularly with the little community of Christians at that place, and in fact has openly identified himself with our people there, although this has meant persecution from his wife's relatives, who also live at Nandgaon. I have been pleased with what I have seen of this man and his wife during my monthly visits to Nandgaon, and they and their little child were baptized there on Sunday, October 12. Of those I have baptized in a humble position of life, none, I think, have shown such simple, child-like faith as these adults, and the man certainly knows more, and has deeper convictions, than many who have been for years in the fold of the Christian Church.

Another of the converts walked 14 miles with one of his children on his back and two others by his side for the purpose of being baptized. Mr. Macartney spent six weeks of the itinerating season at Dhulia, in Khandesh, where a Scripture Reader is stationed. Manmad, another out-station in the opposite direction, is a railway junction; a colporteur makes a point of being at the station to meet all the trains passing through in the day-time, and has sold a large number of books. AURUNGABAD.

Aurungabad. The Rev. Ruttonji Nowroji is assisted by the Rev. Lucas Maloba in the work of this station and district in the Nizam's territory. Six adult baptisms are reported. There is an Anglo-Vernacular School which costs nothing to the Society, being maintained almost altogether by local funds. The village work, Mr. Nowroji says, is deeply interesting. The people are becoming familiar with Christian hymns, sung to Native tunes, and even the heathen mothers are learning to sing them. A few Bible-women are engaged in this district.

SOUTH INDIA MISSION.

Madras, commenced, 1814; Tinnevelly, 1820; Telugu Mission, 1841.

The Committee rejoice unfeignedly at whatever promotes the spirit of unity among those who are labouring for the evangelization of the heathen world, and they are persuaded that nothing so much does this as their meeting together for spiritual edification and for united prayer. Such meetings of South India Missionaries were held at Kodai-Kanal in March. Some sixty Missionaries of the C.M.S., American, and Wesleyan Missions being gathered together in the Pulney Hills for physical restoration, it was proposed to hold a five days' Convention after the pattern of the one which annually meets at Keswick. The Rev. E. A. Douglas wrote :— Devotional gatherings of Missionaries on the Pulney Hills.

> And indeed both the tone of the meetings themselves and the scenery round about were not very dissimilar to those of Keswick. Although we had not the Keswick text, "All one in Christ Jesus," suspended as at Keswick in our place of meeting, yet the spirit of it was most certainly with us. Dr. Chamberlain's opening prayer was indeed answered, "Be Thou, Lord Jesus, Chairman of every meeting; for Thou art the Master of Assemblies." We were glad to have amongst us the Rev. John Barton, of Cambridge, and in his opening address he well expressed the object of our gathering together when he said, "We have come together that we may realize the fulness of the meaning of the two simple words, 'In Christ.' We want to know it not only as an objective fact, but as an experimental reality." Our last meeting was singularly interesting. It was a meeting for praise held out in the woods. We began with a united breakfast, to which every one contributed, and afterwards followed the Keswick custom of each giving texts and saying a few parting words. Many testified to the great things the Lord had done for them, while others looked forward to the "greater things than these" next year. We parted after singing the Valedictory hymn sung in St. James' Hall last year, "God be with you till we meet again." Steps have been taken, and a Committee formed, for holding a similar Convention next year, the third week in May.

Somewhat striking comments were recently made on the examination results of the Madras University in a recent issue of a Madras paper called the Hindu, the editor of which is described as a "Hindu of the Hindus," bearing witness to the comparatively advanced state of female education among the Native Christians of South India. The editor says :— Female Education among Native Christians.

> The community of Native Christians has not only secured a conspicuous place in the field of higher education, but in the education of their women, and in availing themselves of the existing means for practical education, they are far ahead of the Brahmins. Of the 19 successful female candidates that appeared for the matriculation examination last year, 7 were Native Christians, and of the Hindus there were none. For the higher examination for women 234 candidates were examined, but of these 61 were Native Christians and only 4 were Hindus. Again, among the 739 pupils attached to the various bonâ fide Industrial Schools of the Presidency last year, 357 were Native Christians, 75 were Vaisyas and Sudras, 17 were low castes, including Parayas, and only 5 were Brahmins. The Native Christians are a very poor community, and it does great credit to them that they so largely take to industrial education.

The Bishop of Madras admitted the Revs. P. G. Simeon, B.A., D. M. Pakkianadhan, and S. A. Daniel to Priest's Orders; and Messrs. John Satthianadhan and P. N. Devanayagam to Deacon's Orders on December 21. Ordinations.

I. MADRAS.

Madras, 1814; Ootacamund, 1870.

Except for the return to the Mission in December of the Rev. H. D. and Mrs. Goldsmith, the staff of European Missionaries in Madras has undergone no change since the last Report. The appointment, however, of the Rev. E. T. Davies, M.A., formerly Curate of St. Jude's, Kensal Green, to the Principalship of the Doveton Protestant College, and to the Incumbency of the Mission Church at Blacktown known as Tucker Chapel, in succession to the Rev. J. W. Foley, makes a very welcome accession to the list of local sympathizing friends and effective fellow-helpers in the Lord's work.

The strengthening of the Mohammedan Mission in 1889 proved very opportune, as a remarkable movement among the followers of Islam has occurred during the past year. The visits of two Mohammedan lecturers, one a deputy-collector named White Khan Sahib, of Kurnool, and the other Moulvie Hassan Ali Sahib, led to the formation of a Society of the same name as the one started at Peshawar—"Anjuman-i-Himayat-i-Islam," "the Society for Promoting Islam"—the object of which was the conversion of Hindus, and, if possible, Christians, to the faith of Mohammed. But their attitude to the Missionaries was rather conciliatory than antagonistic, and their influence is considered to have been helpful in some respects. A band of young men who engaged in street preaching, by the suggestion of the above-named reformers, showed a decided friendliness and freedom from prejudice, and several visited the Revs. M. G. Goldsmith and T. R. Waltenberg, and borrowed Christian literature. Mr. Waltenberg says:—

> The consequence of all this is that a spirit of inquiry is abroad. White Khan is a Eurasian, and depreciates the study of Arabic, deeming Sale's translation of the Quran sufficient. Hassan Ali differs from the above-named in still clinging to the traditional value of Arabic. Both adopt English as the medium for preaching Islam; both acknowledge the Fatherhood of God, and thus overthrow the old-fashioned prejudice against the Christian expressions of "Son of God," "God's children," which were and are looked upon still by some Mohammedans as blasphemous. Hassan Ali preached in this compound on the "Goodness of God," and followed on the lines of Paley's Natural Theology.

Mr. Waltenberg assumed charge of the Harris School at the beginning of the year. This has liberated Mr. Goldsmith for the work of Itineration. As in previous years he improved the holidays by making visits to several distant Mohammedan centres. In April Masih Dyal accompanied him to the Neilgherry Hills and had long and interesting conversations with the Moslem traders at Coonoor and Ootacamund. Later they went together to Vellore; and again, in August, to Mysore. A Hindustani service was commenced in February, 1890, in one of the class-rooms of the Harris School, which is attended by about twelve worshippers. The English service at Trinity Chapel (John Pereira's) was taken by Mr. Goldsmith, assisted by Mr. Waltenberg, and Mrs. Waltenberg conducted a Bible-class.

The Rev. S. John enjoyed last year a freedom from opposition in his work among the Educated Hindus such as he had not experienced for some years previously; and Mrs. Vickers' Zenana Work was quietly and unweariedly pursued. An earnest and successful worker among the women and girls has been removed by the death of Mrs. Satthianadhan, wife of the Rev. W. T. Satthianadhan, daughter of the late Rev. John Devasagayam the first Native clergyman in South India, and sister of the Rev. S. John. Her husband writes:— Death of Mrs. Satthianadhan.

My beloved wife was the first who commenced Hindu female education in the whole Presidency in connexion with our Society. Certainly she was one of the first, if not the first, who began the work now known as Zenana work in Hindu homes, in this city, in the year 1864, the year after our location in Madras. She herself started it, unasked and unaided, and carried it on single-handed with great patience and perseverance in the face of weighty difficulties and discouragements.

Hers was the most happy death-bed I have ever witnessed. For the past several years she often suffered in health. The last attack of illness, however, lasted only seventeen days. This season was to her a season of preparation for eternity. Every day witnessed her growing ripeness for glory. Her love for God's Word and promises, her prayerfulness, her patience, her earnest desire to make the best of the short time she had before her by exhorting all her children, friends and relatives to greater devotion and whole-hearted consecration to the Master's service, her wish to leave her loved work unimpaired in the hands of her daughters, her clearness and heavenly-mindedness, were very remarkable indeed. Her death has cast a gloom over the whole community. Even Hindu ladies, who were her former pupils, called to have a last look at her, and express their sympathy with the bereaved family. Her funeral was attended by large crowds, representing all classes, Christian and non-Christian. A happy death-bed.

It is indicative of the increasing spirit of candour and freedom from prejudice which characterizes some of the leaders of Native thought, that the Hindu—the paper from which a quotation has already been made above—in an obituary notice, referred to Mrs. Satthianadhan's as a "most noble work," and to herself as having occupied a "unique place in the Native Christian Church of Madras"; adding, "Her simplicity of character, her self-sacrificing love and care for others, her single-hearted devotion to her work, have not failed to attract the notice of every one with whom she came in contact." Mrs. Satthianadhan's daughters, Mrs. Clarke and Mrs. Hensman, are carrying on her Schools and Zenana Work. Hindu testimony regarding Mrs. Satthianadhan.

The ordination of Mr. Satthianadhan's son, who received his theological training under the Rev. H. D. Goldsmith, and who passed the Oxford and Cambridge Preliminary Examination in the second class, has added another to the three pastors already in connexion with the Native Church Council. He is working at the Mount. Mr. Satthianadhan says there are evidences of more life among the members of the congregation worshipping at Zion Church. An association called the Voluntary preachers.

"Preachers' Association," in which his son-in-law, Mr. W. D. Clarke, takes a leading part, was formed in the summer, to engage in open-air evangelistic services.

OOTACAMUND.

Ootacamund.

Ootacamund is the headquarters of the Rev. S. Vores, who is responsible for the pastoral care of the C.M.S. Native Christians in the Neilgherry Hills. A Sunday morning service is held, by permission of the Chaplain, in St. Thomas's Church, and in the evening in the Hobart Girls' School. Sunday Schools are held in the latter building, and in Kinloch Girls' School, and also at Old Ooty and Thaliattimund, under the superintendence of the ladies of the C.E.Z.M.S., who bear all the expense. A Y.M.C.A. has been started, which holds weekly prayer-meetings. A few Christian families employed on certain estates at Paykarai, twelve miles from Ootacamund, are visited from time to time, and something has been attempted on behalf of the aboriginal Todas in the dense jungles of these hills. Mr. Vores says:—

Work among aboriginal Todas.

In the Paykarai hills we have started our missionary work among the uncivilized aboriginal tribes on the Neilgherries, called Todas. It is supposed that they settled here earlier than other tribes, and that they migrated from Mysore territory 800 years ago. Consequently the Todas have superiority over other tribes, and are considered to be "the lords of the soil." They surpass other tribes in their physical structure and dignity of bearing, the average height of a man being 5 feet 5 inches, and that of a woman less by one inch. Their dress is simple, consisting of one coarse sheet of cloth thrown round their shoulders, extending to the ankle. They live in a peculiar kind of oval-shaped huts, of 10 feet broad, with narrow entrance, built amidst thick sholas. They are a pastoral, nomadic tribe, and are a lazy sort of people, averse to labour of any kind. Their habits and customs are very peculiar, and they have a language of their own, differing from others, without any character.

The Todas are neither pantheists nor theists. They have priests, temples, and sacrifices. They isolate themselves from others. From such a nation came a request, through a stranger, to establish a school for their children, to the right person, Miss Wallinger (Hon. Missionary of C.E.Z.M.S.). This lady at once gave weight to their request, and has accordingly sent a teacher to their midst. The teacher spends a portion of the day in teaching the children, and the remainder in visiting the Todas in their huts in scattered places.

Mr. Vores also visits the Tamil Christians at Coonoor and Wynaad. He reports at these several places twenty adult baptisms.

II. TELUGU MISSION.

Telugu translations.

THE Telugu translation of the S.P.C.K. "Commentary on the New Testament," by the Rev. J. E. Padfield, assisted by the Revs. A. Sabbarayudu and D. Anantam and Mr. B. Sinayya, was completed in the course of 1890, and is highly commended. Mr. Padfield has also compiled "A History of the Christian Church, down to the Council of Nicea."

The Rev. James Stone returned to the Mission, after bringing home Mrs. Stone, in October; and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Browne returned from furlough in Australia, in November. Mrs. J. B. Panes came home in the autumn. The Rev. M. N. S. Atkinson has been appointed by the Bishop of Madras to a Railway Chaplaincy.

MASULIPATAM.

Noble College.

The Committee have not yet been able to send out a third Missionary to the Noble College, for the purpose of raising it to the B.A. standard. The Revs. C. W. A. Clarke and H. J. Tanner, the Principal and Rugby-Fox Master respectively, have been encouraged by good results at the first Arts Examination of the Madras University, eight out of sixteen having passed successfully. Mr. Tanner was married to Miss L. F. Royston, daughter of Bishop Royston, in December.

The Preparandi Institution, under the Rev. J. E. Padfield, had five students under training for Ordination, and seven for future work as Catechists, during the year. The Rev. A. Sabbarayudu gives valued help in the Divinity Class, giving instruction in the XXXIX Articles, New Testament History, and Pearson on the Creed. The Normal School passed a good percentage of students in the Government Examination. Mr. Padfield mentions some encouraging facts in proof of the diminution of caste prejudice:—

Diminution of caste prejudice.

I may mention, as a sign of the times, that our students, though of Mala origin, are allowed to join in the annual inter-scholastic sports held at the Noble College, and in which pupils from all the large schools in the town take a part; the large crowds of respectable Natives assembled showing the great interest taken in these sports. At the recent sports our pupils took some of the prizes for running, pole-jumping, steeplechase, and tug-of-war.

Another sign of the times, too, is the free way in which our Christian boys, regardless of origin, are admitted into the Noble School and College. In years gone by this would have been impossible, but now the caste Natives are learning to bow to the inevitable, and all Christian boys who go in for English and higher education, and for whom we formerly had, practically, to keep up a separate school, freely mingle with ordinary caste pupils, and hold their own, too, in class.

Mr. Sabbarayudu is also pastor of the two Native Congregations in the Masulipatam Pastorate, one in the town itself, with an average attendance of 246, and the other at Gurijepalli, a village six miles distant. On the Pastorate Committee, which was formed in June, are two who owe their conversion to missionary schools, one to the Noble College, the other to the Bezwada C.M.S. High School; viz., Mr. C. Venkatachalam, Deputy-Collector, and Mr. K. Srinidasam, B.A., head clerk in the Collector's office. The former occasionally delivers lectures to educated Hindus in the Poole Memorial Hall. The Sunday School, superintended by Samudrayya Garu, a member of the congregation, has 124 on its rolls. An evangelist is stationed at Gudur.

Masulipatam District.

The civil District of Masulipatam is a very extensive one, comprising an area of about 1,200 square miles. The Rev. T. Ephraim has under his pastoral care 34 Christian villages, with 1,120 Christian adherents, and 198 Communicants. He says:—

> My monthly circuit work is not a very easy one. It is well known to all my predecessors. Scarcity of drinking water during the dry season—the villagers go for it two or three miles; no proper road to lead from one village to another; sometimes carts will be capsized, and horses will tumble. During the wet season almost every village is entirely surrounded with water, paddy fields submerged, and prayer-houses are quite damp. I then make use of my dug-out palmira tree; even this is of no use in some of my villages, where there are no direct canals to go through, and I have to walk with a long stick in my hand, without which I must fall in the mud or in the water. Boots, stockings, and trousers will never do for my work. I came with them to this Telugu country, now I make use of my own Native loose dress, which is very convenient to my work.

Mr. Padfield sends a gloomy account of the spiritual state of many of the congregations, which he attributes partly to a too hasty receiving and baptizing of whole groups of uninstructed candidates, and partly to the inadequate supply of godly and well-instructed Native agents. Several agents have been removed, and some 60 of the people have been excommunicated by the Bishop of Madras, at the request of the District Church Council. In order to secure more frequent visits of the superintending Missionary, the question is being raised of making Gudiwada, a town twenty-four miles from Masulipatam, the head-quarters of the District Evangelistic Work. Mrs. Padfield's Boarding School for Christian Girls also promises to bear an important part in supplying the remedy required, as the majority of these girls become the wives of agents. She says:—

Boarding School.

> I heard of one girl only the other day. I was told that when her husband is away in the surrounding villages preaching, if he does not return in time to read the evening prayers in the prayer-house, that, rather than the Christians should go away without prayers, she will conduct the little simple service herself. The order of prayer would probably be the singing of a hymn, followed by a short extempore prayer, then a short portion of Scripture, and closing with another prayer. I think this is a brave thing for a young woman to do, particularly in this country, where they are always so shy; indeed, it is considered very polite to cover the mouth when spoken to, as a sign of modesty.

The Rev. J. C. J. Pavey, who is stationed at Masulipatam, was married in February to Miss Rosina Richardson.

Ellore.

Bishop Gell confirmed 374 candidates in the ELLORE district on the occasion of his triennial visitation of the Telugu Mission at the beginning of 1890. The Rev. F. W. N. Alexander wrote:—

A blind man travels 12 miles to be confirmed.

A mother's offering.

One or two instances showed real devotion on the part of those confirmed. A blind man, 75 years old, baptized August last, was led by the hands of his friends, and came a journey of twelve miles, to have the Bishop's hands laid upon his head before he died. A poor Chuckler, whose feet were both withered, begged the use of a bandy from some neighbours, and came a journey of fourteen miles to be present at the confirmation. A Christian mother, who has lost three children in succession, brought the last surviving one with an offering of two rupees, and placed the child and the money in the Bishop's hands, vowing both to the service of God's Church. It will thus be seen what genuine devotion the Bishop's visit evokes among our people.

Two meetings were held in November to welcome back Mr. and Mrs. Martin Browne from Australia, and to bid farewell to Mr. Tabor Davies who had acted as Principal of the High School during Mr. Browne's furlough. The Rev. G. Krishnayya says that among the 500 persons present were representatives of all classes of Hindus and Mussulmans. He adds:—

A Missionary welcomed back from furlough by Hindus and Moslems.

On the former occasion the chairman, a Brahmin, after stating how the people owed "much of the enlightenment of the present day to the indefatigable exertions of the Christian Missionary," said: "As a living instance of their success, I point out to you our to-day's meeting. What is the scene that presents itself to the eye? Hindus and Mohammedans—the true descendants of the once Hindu bigot and the Mussulman fanatic—have met under the same roof to offer a hearty welcome to a Christian missionary, who has for his avowed object the pulling down of both Hinduism and Mohammedanism. Had it not been for the education that we have received under this Christian Government, and through missionary labours, I should have to-day been stoned by the bigoted idolators of my own religion, for having committed the most unpardonable crime of taking such a part in to-day's proceedings."

Most of the boys in this school belong to the highest castes. Mr. Krishnayya, who has laboured in the school since 1862, gives the following instance met with in his evangelistic work in proof of the influence of Christian education:—

"We are not the same."

A bright Mussulman matriculate and old pupil of our school, who has since been employed as the head of the Mussulman department in a college, spoke to me to the following purport: "Do not think that the Bible-teaching which we received in the school has been in vain. I know from my own experience and that of my class-mates that it has made a great change in our views of life and religion. We are not the same Mussulmans now as we would have been without that teaching. But as to conversions, you know the hard trials through which we have to fight our way."

Mr. Krishnayya, by giving some temporary assistance in his English studies to a son of a neighbouring Rajah, obtained valuable opportunities of instructing the youth in the knowledge of Christ, and of presenting four Telugu Bibles on behalf of the Madras Auxiliary Bible Society to as many Rajahs, who received them with expressions of warm delight and gratitude.

The Rev. F. W. N. Alexander says that much improvement is perceptible in the Congregations of the Ellore district. The number of adult baptisms during the year was 76. There are 39 schools, and Mr. Alexander is encouraged by the fact that the Malas and Chucklers are gradually coming forward to educate their children.

Itinerant Mission.

BEZWADA is rapidly growing in importance; it is being made the central terminus of three railways. On this account it is well suited to be the headquarters of the Telugu Itinerant Mission. The evangelistic band which is thus engaged, under the leadership of the Rev. J. Stone, consists of the Rev. D. Anantam, and Messrs. Duncan, G. P. Venkatachalam, and A. Sabbaram, the last named being a Native musician. Mr. Tabor Davies has also joined the party since leaving Ellore. Mr. Stone says the work is in many ways most encouraging; good and attentive congregations are invariably obtained; many of the people show especial friendliness; and there is always a readiness to receive books and tracts. No Annual Letter has been received from the Rev. J. Harrison.

RAGHAVAPURAM AND KUMMAMETT.

Raghavapuram.

The RAGHAVAPURAM district was divided and Kummamett separated from it in 1887. Already, however, there are more baptized Christians in it than there were before the separation, and the amount contributed by the Native Christians is more by some Rs. 300. The Rev. H. W. Eales says:—

> Preaching to the heathen has been carried on regularly. In Jaggiapett there are several high-caste young men whose hearts have been touched in this way, and who have given up idolatry, and read the Bible and pray regularly, but the fear of man has hitherto kept them back from confessing Christ openly.
> Our Christians are, on the whole, leading consistent lives, though there have been cases in which individuals have caused us shame. There are some points about them that are excellent, among which I may mention their readiness and constancy in prayer on all occasions. They never begin any special private undertaking without first asking God's blessing. For instance, I have seen them kneel down around their threshing-floor before beginning, to ask God to bless their store—a thing which might not occur to many good people living in a Christian country to do. Many when called upon to pray at a meeting will do so simply and earnestly.

Asking God to bless their store.

Kummamett.

The Rev. J. B. Panes, of KUMMAMETT, has suffered the loss, by death, of his leading evangelist, W. J. Silas Garu, who had been accepted as a candidate for Ordination by the Bishop of Madras. Mr. Panes says of him:—

Death of an able Native evangelist.

> In simplicity of life, in readiness to do whatever came to hand, in practical knowledge of Hinduism, in prudent action when difficulties arose, in bold, consistent testimony for Christ in the language of the people (both Telugu and Tamil, and to a great extent in Hindustani), it will be long ere we can find an agent who can fill up the great gap created in our ranks by the removal of Silas.

Good work on the part of the agents, steady progress on the part of the village congregations, an increasing number of inquirers, and a readiness to hear the Word on the part of the caste people are the gist of Mr. Panes' Report; he pleads, however, that the district is altogether undermanned. The Itinerating Band spent six months with Mr. Panes during Mr. Stone's absence in England. They visited and preached in some 200 villages, and attended the more important Hindu festivals.

DUMMAGUDEM.

Dummagudem.

The Rev. E. T. Pegg has temporary charge of Dummagudem during the Rev. J. Cain's absence on furlough. He refers to a Koi merchant belonging to a village a hundred miles distant from Dummagudem who visited him at Christmas, to urge him to go and baptize thirty people to whom he had proclaimed the Gospel. The Rev. A. E. Goodman has been transferred to Kummamett.

II. TINNEVELLY.

Rev. J. Barton's Report.

The Rev. J. Barton returned to England in October, after spending ten busy months in happy co-operation with the Missionary brethren on the spot in thinking out, and partly carrying into effect, changes in the organization of the Native Church, and developments in other directions. The Committee were thankful, on his return, to receive his testimony as to the reality of the work that has been done in the past, while at the same time the weaknesses and failures which his Report disclosed in the Native Church, more especially in regard to the spiritual qualifications of many of the agents, the general slow progress of the congregations in self-support, and the lack of an aggressive evangelistic spirit in both agents and people, did not escape their anxious attention.

The Duke of Clarence accepts a Tamil Bible from the Tinnevelly Christians.

The visit of the Duke of Clarence and Avondale, and the assemblage of 3,000 Tamil Christians who greeted him at Tinnevelly town, were alluded to in last year's Report. Since His Royal Highness' return to this country his equerry, Captain G. S. Holford, has acknowledged on his behalf the receipt of a Tamil Bible, which was presented to him by the Native Christians, with the request that the thanks of His Royal Highness should be conveyed to them for "a gift which he will always highly value."

Death of Rev. T. Spratt,

The Rev. Thomas Spratt, who laboured for over thirty years in this Mission, and for fifteen years, from 1858 to 1873, was in charge of the Palamcotta Vernacular Training Institution for Schoolmasters, died in December. Few Missionaries in South India were regarded in his time as having done a more truly valuable work in its bearing on the intrinsic success of the Mission. Not a few of the many schoolmasters whom he trained became valuable and successful spiritual agents. Since his retirement in 1873 he has laboured in this country, and was for twelve years, until the time of his death, Vicar of St. John's, Abbeydale, near Sheffield. The Rev. A. K. and Mrs. Finnimore came home in August on sick leave. Mr. Finnimore had been more than once forbidden to continue in the Mission, and had been ordered to the hills in the previous spring, after a serious illness at his post.

and of three Native pastors.

In addition to the six Native pastors who were enumerated in the last Annual Report as having died in 1889, it has since been learned that three others were also removed by death in that year. They were, the Revs. J. Nullatambi, Swamidasen Nullatambi, and P. Gnanayuthan; they died in February, May, and June, 1889, respectively. Yet another Native pastor was removed from the Society's list, the Rev. A. A. Carr, as he is now labouring at Calicut, not in connexion with the C.M.S.

At Palamcotta are located the Training Institution, in which the Rev. T. Kember had under training last year fifteen students preparing for Ordination, and about twice that number in the Normal Classes, getting ready for future work as school-masters; the Sarah Tucker Female Institution, with its 160 inmates, now worked, as well as forty-one branch affiliated schools scattered over the Mission, by Miss A. J. Askwith and Miss Swainson, lady Missionaries of the C.E.Z.M.S.; and the High School, under Mr. E. Keyworth. Three of the students at the last-named institution were baptized in March, 1890, of whose conversion Mr. Keyworth gives the following account:—

One of these converts is Soobiah, a fine youth of seventeen years. He first heard the truth from a Christian policeman stationed in a village where there is no Mission agent. The lad's father is a well-to-do merchant, and continues to oppose the Gospel. He was much averse to the baptism of this his eldest son. The boy, being desirous of hearing more about salvation, came by train to this place. A Christian photographer from Ceylon, of Tamil birth, named David, was over here on a visit, having accompanied his warm friends, Messrs. Grubb, Richardson and the other members of that happy and holy band, to which this school and Mengnanapuram High School and many others are eternally indebted. David is a true patriot, and was earnestly preaching in the street when Soobiah arrived. The youth spoke to the evangelist of his strong wish to know more about the Saviour. David liked his manner and speech, and brought him to Mr. Barton, who admitted him to the boarding-school just as he was handing it over to me. Daily Bible-lessons, Gospel lyrics beloved by the people, Christian services, the daily example of the teachers and scholars and community, and conversations with European Missionaries and Tamil pastors were among the means used, under God, for blessing his soul. Since his baptism he has been home occasionally, on account of his mother's illness and for some vacations. He has always returned in good time, and given me an account of his bazaar-preaching tours. He has risen to the top of his class, which is no easy thing to do among so many bright and industrious lads.

Another boy, named Paramanantham, is the son of a former devil-priest, who, with his son, has been baptized, though at different times. The father heard the truth from a catechist on the Jones Fund, named Gnanasiromoney, among others, and determined to give up his post in the temple and become a Christian. He is an old man, and cannot learn any new work requiring skill. The temple people offered after his baptism to restore him to his old place and salary, but he refused, and now sells huge plantain-leaves at forty for a penny in the market at Pooliaree. Another of his sons is an astrologer and physician among the devil-worshippers still. Paramanantham and the next boy were baptized on March 9th. The latter boy is named Devanayagam, and was sent in by Mr. Walker as an inquirer. All these three boys are living quiet and consistent lives, and reading daily in the school.

All the ten pupils sent up from the school to the Cator Scripture Examination succeeded in passing, and one obtained a prize. Eleven out of fifteen who tried passed the Government Middle School Examination, notwithstanding a specially high standard which caused many schools, including some for Europeans, to fail in passing any candidates. Four of the boys have recently passed in an open examination for the Government Medical Department, which makes nine who have done so within the past three years. Mr. Keyworth concludes his letter with a tribute to the good conduct of the boys under his charge:—

Good conduct of pupils.

I thank God for the wonderful harmony of our school-life, the absence of quarrels, thefts, and anonymous letters. With one hundred boarders, of ages varying from eight to twenty years, and sixty day-scholars here; with one hundred boarders and some day-boys at Mengnanapuram in my care; also thirty boarders at Dohnavur, and forty scholars at Sankaranainarkoil I have no work practically in keeping order. In India, the happy hunting-ground of pedagogues, the teacher keeps order by teaching his best regularly. I never have occasion to give corporal punishment.

Tinnevelly College.

The Tinnevelly College is situated in the town of Tinnevelly, separated from Palamcotta by the river Tambraparni. The Rev. H. J. Schaffter, the Principal, is assisted by Mr. R. F. Ardell and sixteen Native Christian masters. Mr. Ardell has formed the youths into bands of voluntary preachers, who go out "preaching, and singing the Gospel in all the neighbourhood." The Native masters also keep well to the front the Missionary aspect of the work. Mr. Schaffter says of them:—

Zealous Native Christian Masters.

I thank God for the Christian masters, and would mention especially what two of them are doing outside the College in the work of evangelization. One, the senior pundit, collected subscriptions amongst his friends, and, at his own expense, has opened a reading-room in one of the principal streets of the town. It contains a fair library; but, more important still, either he or some Christian friend is always there to hold friendly discussions with Hindus who drop in. This quiet sowing of the seed is, I know, beginning to tell; several heathen have mentioned the place to me as a place where the light has begun to dawn upon them. Another of my masters, the physical science teacher, has started the Bible Distributing Society, and, with help from the C.M.S. and the Bible Society, has two evangelists at work, whom he personally superintends, and with whom he goes out preaching. A fair sum is lodged in the bank as a deposit, and a goodly collection of monthly subscriptions attest to the zeal with which he keeps this work going.

For a while in the spring the College was the object of specially violent opposition from the Hindus in consequence of a student's conversion. Mr. Ardell says :—

Although never, perhaps, since the College was founded in Tinnevelly Town, has there been more direct and violent opposition, yet never has there been greater cause for thankfulness on the part of those interested in the work. The opposition was, Hindu-like, short-lived, but while it lived it was most determined. It was mostly caused by the baptism of a high-caste youth, Vaikuntum, on Sunday, April 23. He was a member of a little Bible-reading society, formed by a number of Hindu boys reading in the College, for the purpose of acquainting themselves better with the truths of the Bible. They met (many of them every evening for prayer, &c.) generally on every Sunday evening in a room hired for the purpose in the bazaar street. One of them selected a passage of Scripture and explained it as well as he could, others followed with their remarks on the same passage, and then one or two prayed, worshipping Christ as God.

A Bible-reading Society formed of Hindu boys.

The formation of this Society, even apart from Vaikuntum's baptism, was sufficient to stir up the enemies of Christ in the town, but the excitement was, of course, increased when he was baptized. For, though he was not the first convert from the College, yet he was the first from the town of Tinnevelly itself, the others having been from different parts of the district.

Many of the boys were compelled to leave the College, and pecuniary loss from diminished fees and reduced Government grant were a source of some embarrassment; but Mr. Schaffter wrote, "Whether, however, we get numbers or not, may our Heavenly Father be honoured, and the Kingdom of Jesus be extended by this College. This, I am sure, is the wish and prayer of every Christian master and boy here." A former student, a high-caste lad, who read up to the First Arts in the College and then obtained a post of Inspecting Schoolmaster under Government, recently took twelve months' leave and studied for the first branch of the B.A. final examination, and was baptized.

The Hostel for Christian lads in connexion with the College has been enlarged, and will now accommodate fifty-five students. Mr. Schaffter says :—

Christian boys a pattern of cleanliness, &c.

The presence of a goodly number of Christian lads is beginning to have a marked effect on the heathen. The sneers and insults of ten years ago are changed to respect and friendship, and I can confidently hold up the hostel boys as types of cleanliness and good order to their Brahmin and Sudra classmates. Thank God that the ten small boys in the lowest classes that I remember a few years ago in the hostel have now given place to thirty-seven young men, shortly to increase to fifty-five, in the highest classes of the College.

Church organization.

The District Church Councils, which were ten in number when Bishop Sargent died, have now, with a view to promoting the confederation and corporal unity of the Mission, been merged into one. Other changes calculated, it is thought, to throw upon the pastors and leading laymen of congregations responsibility in managing their own local Church matters, and to promote self-support and the spirit of evangelistic zeal, have been tentatively adopted. The Rev. T. Walker has been appointed Chairman of the Council, which will necessarily deprive the Itinerant Mission of his leadership, but not of his co-operation, as the two branches of service have a very intimate relation the one to the other. Inquirers, for example, and all who manifest interest in the Word preached by the itinerators are usually passed over for instruction to the agents of the Native Church who are working in the neighbourhood; and it is one of the definite objects of the itinerating band to stir up and develop fervent and aggressive zeal on the part of the Native congregations. The labours of the itinerants have been rewarded by several converts. One of them was a young man of high caste, whose friends endeavoured with various pretexts to entice him away, but were instead induced by him to attend church, with the result that one of them confessed a desire to be a Christian too. This young man joined the itinerating band for instruction, and his father showed no resentment at his joining the Christians. The Rev. E. S. Carr says :— Itinerant Mission.

The young man himself has stood firm, and in October we came to his village in the course of our tour. We were rather afraid of a disturbance, as he was with us; but after we had preached there on two occasions, his father sent a message asking me to go to the house and bring his son to see him. I wondered whether this was some trick to get hold of the son, but took it as an opportunity from the Lord, and went with our band of catechists. We found a number of his relations, who all live in one street, standing about waiting for us. We were shown into the courtyard of the father's house, and were received with all Native respect. They gave me a chair, put a garland of flowers round my neck, and presented me with fruit, sugar, &c. They then asked us to conduct a meeting as we liked. We had prayer, read the story of Zaccheus ("This day is salvation come to this house"), and then I tried, as far as my small knowledge of the language would allow me, to improve the opportunity by pointing out that it was the work of the Spirit of God alone which had drawn the young man to Christ. They listened well, and begged that their son might be allowed to come and see them sometimes. I said the lad was quite free to come whenever he liked. He has since been to see them, and was well received. It is an almost unheard of thing for the relations of those who have become Christians to receive us in that way. They are, as a rule, very bitter.

Missionary's visit welcomed by parents of a high caste convert.

"An almost unheard of thing."

Mr. Walker graphically relates many incidents in the work. He describes their preaching at Trichendur, a town on the eastern coast, which he calls the "Ephesus of Tinnevelly" :—

Our very first preaching was opposed, a Brahmin with a wicked looking face, being to the front, and inciting others to hold a noisy rival preaching. It was a daily battle, preaching in Trichendur. Morning and evening we preached the Gospel to those who would hear, amidst the noisy opposition of rival preachers, and with stones occasionally flying close to our heads. One ruse, to which we had recourse, rather disconcerted our opponents. We turned suddenly down into the (so-called) low-caste quarter, where we knew that hundreds of poor people had congregated for the "mâthândam" (monthly festival). Of course, no holy (!) Brahmin would defile himself by venturing on such polluted (!) ground, and so we had a fair field for our message. The climax was reached during our last morning's preaching. We had crossed over the Brahmin street into a shepherd quarter beyond. A crowd of Brahmin youths soon followed, and we were insulted and pelted by these gentlemen (!). One of them threw a cloud of dust into my face. However, we kept quietly to our work. I picked out an old Brahmin from the crowd, and explained to him that we were not enemies but friends, come to seek their good. This led to a public conversation, quietly conducted, during which the police came up, so that the rest of our preaching was undisturbed. The verse which rang in my mind for weeks after this Trichendur encounter was, "Rule Thou in the midst of Thine enemies."

A Sabbath spent with the Christians of Vellalanvilei concluded with addresses to the heathen :—

Homely illustration used by a voluntary evangelist.

At 5 p.m. we proceeded to "send portions unto them for whom nothing was prepared." We formed in procession outside the church, and, with music and lyrics, marched to a neighbouring hamlet to proclaim the glad tidings to the heathen living there. Quite a large contingent of the congregation accompanied us, and two of their number took part in the public preaching. I cannot refrain from quoting one illustration which one of them used, for its very quaintness and freshness will commend themselves to all. He was speaking of the duty of Christians, other than Mission agents, in the matter of proclaiming the Gospel, and the gist of his remarks may be given as follows :— "Sometimes, shortly after midnight, some strong and gallant cock, eager for the morning, sets up a shrill and startling crow. Alarmed by this, the other cocks of the farmyard wake from their slumber, and, in their turn, begin to crow. The contagion is infectious, and soon all the cocks of the neighbourhood are on the alert, and usher in the morning with quite a chorus of loud and repeated crows. So has it been in missionary work. Missionaries from England came to disturb our midnight slumbers, and to announce the breaking of a better day. Soon this message was taken up by Native catechists and pastors. But now we have advanced a step further, and we, the common 'congregation-cocks' are, in our turn, sounding the alarm, and seeking to wake from their slumbers our heathen friends and neighbours." The illustration was a homely one, but not without its lesson to many an English congregation. After singing and prayer our meeting dispersed. Our work that week was all the more vigorous and profitable for the stimulus of our Sabbath with the Christians.

The lantern is found exceedingly useful for presenting and impressing the story of our Lord's life and death. Mr. Walker says :—

Eloquence of a Native agent.

Each slide is ushered in with a suitable Tamil lyric, well rendered, and illustrative of the picture. Weird and strange do some of these lyrics sound to an unaccustomed English ear! But they are the outcome of the devotion of Native Christian poets, and thoroughly suited for the purpose. Each slide is explained by one of our evangelists, a man of extraordinary eloquence. A "talking wonder," I think him! But certainly some of his descriptions are most telling, and his appeals pathetic.

The Rev. P. G. I. Simeon, who is a Native member of the band, states that he visited 338 villages and towns during the year.

Mr. Walker was married in August to Miss M. E. Hodge, and Mr. Carr to Miss E. L. M. Lillingston, daughter of the Rev. F. A. C. Lillingston, Vicar of St. James', Clapham, in January. Both the ladies were missionaries of the C.E.Z.M.S.

Bishop Hodges' reception at Cottayam;

BISHOP HODGES, with Mrs. Hodges, received their first welcome on reaching their new sphere of labour at Trichur on November 16. Travelling by palanquins the last 20 miles of their journey, they reached Cottayam after sunset on November 20, and were met by a large procession of the European and Native Clergy, school children, and others, and were escorted to the church for a short thanksgiving service. On Friday, November 21, the ceremony of installation took place in the Cottayam Church, Archdeacon Caley and Archdeacon Koshi officiating and reading the address to the Bishop in English and Malayalim. The following is a translation of a portion of a lyrical hymn which was sung as the Bishop entered the church on his arrival:—

1. Oh! Jesus, be pleased to be in the midst of Thy servants who worship Thee now, Bless the Bishop, and guide him in everything without failure.
2. O! Thou who hast given honour and anointed him with the holy oil and blessed him to come out as the Bishop of Keralam, we praise Thee.
3. Thou who hast blessed him to cross the great ocean and work in Masulipatam and Ceylon as a faithful servant of Jesus, be pleased to grant him more grace in his present work.
4. O Lord! in this Paradise of India, take him as Thy own and enable him to do Thy will.
5. Use him to make many joyful, and to quench the thirst of many. Shower many blessings, both heavenly and earthly, upon us his children.
6. Be graciously pleased to make him like "the Good Shepherd," to guide us always, and to keep us from all sorrows.
7. Let us all shout for joy, and let us pray with one mind, and always let us rejoice in the Lord by singing hymns of praise.
8. Hallelujah! Let all victory be to God. Let us all sing Hallelujah!

His interview with the Metran of the Syrian Church.

A few days after his installation the Bishop had an interview with the Metran of the Syrian Church, Mar Dionysius, by the request of the latter. Bishop Hodges wrote:—

> He is a venerable-looking man, and was clothed in black satin robes lined with crimson, a contrast to the simple black short cassock in which his brother from the West appeared. I had to speak to him by interpretation of the Archdeacon, and expressed my joy, and desire for brotherly love, which he reciprocated. He expressed his sorrow at their internal dissension and ignorance of their priests, and said they could not preach the Word because they did not know it. I said the Church of England owed her high position and freedom from much ignorance and superstition to the Word of God being so honoured in her Liturgy and Articles. There are six Syrian deacons of the Dionysian party, and one of the reforming (Athanasian) party, reading in our Divinity Class at present, which is very hopeful. This is a sign of confidence and goodwill, and gives us the most effective opportunity for enlightening them. Mar Dionysius deplored the present ills from which they are suffering, but it is only reaping what they sow. He hoped I would be neutral, and I assured him I fully purposed so to be, and not to make myself at any time a party to their quarrels. He acknowledged that it would be better to cease striving for mastery one over the other, and all strive to follow the example of the Master, our one Lord and Head.

Reinforcements.

The Committee were thankful that the Rev. A. H. Lash and Mrs. Lash were able to respond to their invitation to go out to this Mission for the purpose of founding an institution for the education and training of Native girls similar to the Sarah Tucker Institution in Tinnevelly, which Mr. and Mrs. Lash were mainly instrumental in raising to its present state of efficiency. The new Institution will be called the "Buchanan Institution," in memory of Dr. Claudius Buchanan, whose visit to Travancore in 1806 was an important link in the chain of divine providences which led the Society to establish this Mission in 1816. The appointment of the Rev. A. J. French Adams, M.A., to the Principalship of Cottayam College, was mentioned in last year's Report. The Committee subsequently accepted the offer of the services of the Rev. Edwin Bellerby, B.A., of Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, formerly Curate of St. Silas', Lozells, Birmingham, and appointed him to the Vice-Principalship of Cottayam College. Mr. Bellerby went out to Ceylon in 1889 to take the Chaplaincy of Dimbula, from which place he offered his services to the Society. Mr. and Mrs. French Adams and Mr. Bellerby reached Cottayam in October; and Mr. and Mrs. Lash in December, having visited Palamcotta en route, where they received warm greetings from the girls of the Sarah Tucker Institution. Archdeacon and Mrs. J. Caley, and the Rev. A. F. and Mrs. Painter came home on furlough in March and April respectively.

Ordinations.

Bishop Hodges admitted Messrs. K. M. Matthai and M. C. Punnusa to Deacon's Orders, on December 21st, at Cottayam. Mr. Matthai won the Bishop Gell Greek Testament prize in 1889.

COTTAYAM.

Cambridge Nicholson Institution

The Rev. J. Thompson reports forty-one students in the Cambridge Nicholson Institution during the year, of whom thirteen were in the Divinity Class, and 28 in the Normal Class. Seven of the thirteen Divinity students were deacons of the Syrian Church, and the other six are described by Mr. Thompson as "sterling men, in whom I have every confidence." In December thirteen students left the Normal Class to occupy posts as catechists and schoolmasters. In 1889 public lectures, under the auspices of the local branch of the Gleaners' Union, were delivered at the Cambridge Nicholson Institution on "The Church in other Times"; in 1890 the subject was "The Church in other Lands." The same Union has published a C.M.S. manual in Malayalim. As Chairman of the Press Committee, Mr. Thompson mentions that the Press, which is self-supporting, published last year a new edition of Bailey's New Testament, several Bible portions, an edition of the Prayer Book, and some publications of the C.V.E.S. and R.T.S. The Press, type-foundry, and Book Depôt give employment to seventy men. A branch of the Church of England Temperance Society was formed last year in Cottayam.

Mission Press.

From February till November, that is, from the time of the Rev. C. A. Neve's departure until the arrival of the Rev. A. J. French Adams, the Cottayam College was under the charge of the Rev. A. F. Painter; and this addition to his already heavy labours, especially after thirteen years of uninterrupted sojourn in India, may well have been the cause of the failure of health which has necessitated his coming home. The Girls' School, which, since the death of Mrs. Baker in 1888, has been superintended by Mrs. Painter, has now been taken up by the Rev. A. H. and Mrs. Lash as the nucleus of the Buchanan Institution. There were 46 boarders and 23 day scholars in March.

Cottayam College.

The Rev. C. E. R. Romilly took up his residence at Alwaye in August, and assumed the charge of the Alwaye Itinerancy. The district which is included under this name extends from Cottayam to Trichur, embraces 1,800 square miles, and has a population of 600,000 souls. Mr. Romilly is assisted by twelve Native catechists.

Alwaye Itinerancy.

Bishop Hodges has favoured the Committee with a full and very interesting report of Native Pastorates. Of the six pastorates connected with the COTTAYAM DISTRICT CHURCH COUNCIL, the Bishop says:—

Pastorates.

> On the whole there has been a decided advance, but as yet the evangelistic work touches effectively only the very lowest of the lower classes, and this is not satisfactory. We want a new and higher evangelistic agency to preach the common salvation to the upper class as well. The adherents have increased by 503, contributions from Native sources, Rs. 500.

The main duties of the Cottayam Pastorate fall upon the Rev. M. C. Chakko, owing to Archdeacon Koshi being engaged in the important work of Bible revision. During an agricultural show held in the town in the spring of 1890, special efforts were made to present the Gospel by word of mouth and by tracts to the thousands who assembled from the villages around. At Pallam, which is four miles south of Cottayam, and its eight out-stations, a large increase of adherents is reported by the Rev. J. Chandy. One of the candidates for Ordination is at present in charge of Arpukara, where the Protestant Christian community are nearly all of Pulayan origin, and where much opposition is met with from Syrian and Roman Catholics. The Cochin Pastorate is within the Madras Diocese, but is connected with the Cottayam Council. A Christian Young Men's Prayer Union has thirty members.

The adherents in the seven pastorates of the MAVELIKARA DISTRICT COUNCIL increased during the year by 583. The congregation in Mavelikara consists of 80 families scattered in ten villages, and among them are many voluntary helpers. In one village eight men take turns in going, two and two, on Sunday afternoons to preach among the heathen; two masons collect their fellow-workmen on Sundays to read God's Word; and some Pulayans, who have learnt to read, visit among their fellows to instruct them. At Chepatt, one of the out-stations, a substantial church has been built with much self-denying exertion. At Krishnapuram, in Putupalli Pastorate, a new item in the accounts is "Church cocoanuts," being the produce of one tree in the garden of each family. In this, and in Mallapalli Pastorate, branches of the Gleaners' Union have been formed. In connexion with the Kodawalaniya Pastorate the Bishop says:—

"Church Cocoanuts."

> The sanctity with which the Lord's Day is kept in our Church is one of its most honourable distinctions amid the laxity of Syrians and Romans, and often strikes the heathen favourably. The following instance is interesting. Some Chogans made a vow that they, too, would keep the Sabbath. The opportunity has been seized to have Bible-readings for them, and some of them attend, listening as quietly and reverently as any Christian audience. Surely the Lord is confirming the word of His servants with signs following, and these "proselytes of the gate" shall become "proselytes of righteousness," and shall "enter into the fold by the door of the sheep, and shall be saved, and shall go in and out and shall find pasture."

Heathens observing the Sabbath.

There are flourishing Anglo-Vernacular Schools and Young Men's Christian Associations in Tallawadi and Elantur Pastorates. Melkavu, with its eight out-stations, is a Mission pastorate among the Hill Arrians.

ALLEPIE AND TIRUWELLA.

Both these stations, in connexion with which there are 4,000 Christians, distributed over a wide area, are under the charge of the Rev. W. J. Richards. One of the newly-ordained Deacons, the Rev. K. M. Matthai, has been appointed to ALLEPIE. Among inquirers Mr. Richards mentions: two Mohammedans, one of them an Imam's son who was influenced in the first instance by reading a book called The Sinless Prophet; a Chogan fakir, with matted hair, Siva's necklace, the mendicant pilgrim's red-brick clothes, brass drinking pot, and sacred ashes, who was first led to the Mission by reading a school book which he bought; and a Roman priest who through reading the Bible was led to wish to become a Protestant. In July Mr. Richards baptized a man under sentence for murder in Allepie jail, who gave satisfactory evidence of repentance; he was executed the following day.

Baptisms at Allepie.

Death of a Native Christian who joined the Mission in 1816.

A member of the Allepie congregation, Francis Sayter, died during the year who had joined the Mission in 1816, soon after the first missionary, the Rev. Thomas Norton, arrived. He was an Eurasian, and originally a Roman Catholic. "He knew the Mission," Mr. Richards writes, "before there was one convert, and saw it develop into a Diocese of 25,000 with its own clergy and Bishop." In the TIRUWELLA district two new congregations have been formed at Kuttur and at Prayattu.

ARRIAN MISSION.

The Rev. A. F. Painter, on the eve of his return home, reviewed the eight years of his work in this district. He said:—

Review of eight years' work among the Hill Arrians.

Six stations have increased to 24, with congregations in each. The total number of adherents has risen from 800 to over 2,400. There were eight years since no grants-in-aid to schools, the Government now makes grants to 7, a total sum of 26 Sirkar rupees per mensem. Subscriptions, purely Native, were, in 1882, Rs. 123; they rose to Rs. 790 last year, and this year Rs. 685, besides rice still unsold.

We have to thank many English friends for very kind and generous help. We owe them a debt of gratitude, especially Mrs. Percy Brown, through whose exertions most of the money has been raised and interest and prayer aroused. With their kind help, added to the subscriptions of Native Christians in money, labour, and materials, we have been enabled to build the following:—a rubble and mortar church, to hold 400 people, at Mundakayam; also one, to hold 300, at Mankompu; a laterite and teak-wood church at Kangra, to hold 200; and one at Pampady, to hold 200. We have also been able to complete a half-built laterite church at Kootakel, to enlarge a laterite church at Kanam, and to commence a laterite and teak-wood church at Thottakata. Money has also been collected for a church at Etakunna, where we only wait sanction of the Government and a piece of land. There have also been built houses, suitable for a Native pastor, of rubble and chunam, at Mundakayam and Mankompu, and teachers' houses, of laterite, at Kootakel, Waroor, Kanam, Pampady, and Ettamanur. A good wooden house has been bought at Etakunna, and a small teacher's house at Chengankunna.

COCHIN: TRICHUR AND KUNNANKULAM.

Trichur.

The evangelistic work under the Rev. F. Bower in these districts has been blessed with 33 adult baptisms, one that of a high-caste Nair, who was converted at Trevandrum through reading the Bible. Lantern exhibitions are found exceedingly helpful in attracting large audiences. In some places Brahmins in considerable numbers have been present, e.g. as many as 500 at Chittur, about 44 miles from Trichur. A great readiness is manifested by men of all castes to receive handbills and tracts, of which some 20,000 were distributed during the year. Mrs. Bower visits regularly the educated and well-to-do Hindu ladies, and one, who had suffered a bereavement said to her: "You Christians have hope in death, but we Hindus have none at all."

"We Hindus have no hope in death."

I. SINGHALESE MISSION: Kandy, 1818; Baddêgama, 1819; Cotta, 1822; Kurunêgala, 1880.
II. TAMIL MISSION: Jaffna, 1818; Colombo, 1852; Tamil Cooly Mission, 1855.

THE Committee sympathize much with the Rev. and Mrs. J. Ireland Jones in the disappointment of their hope to be permitted to labour once more in Ceylon. They sailed in October, but bad water taken on board at Port Said produced a recurrence of Mr. Jones' old complaint, and, though he recovered for a few weeks, towards the end of December he became seriously ill, and was ordered to return home as soon as possible. They left Colombo in April. The Rev. D. and Mrs. Wood also were obliged by illness to come home in August, only fifteen months after their return to the Mission from furlough. The Rev. R. T. and Mrs. Dowbiggin, happily not in consequence of ill-health, though Mrs. Dowbiggin was dangerously unwell in the summer of 1890, have just arrived in this country to take a much needed furlough. Mrs. Dowbiggin has only been fifteen months out of Ceylon during the past twenty-eight years. The Rev. J. W. Balding returned to the Mission in October, and the Rev. J. and Mrs. Ilsley in April.

Death of Rev. H. de Silva.

The Rev. Hendrick de Silva, the Native pastor of Talangama, in the Cotta district, died in March. He was ordained in 1868. The Rev. R. T. Dowbiggin wrote of him:—

> He was not a brilliant man, but he was a good man, diligent in his work, painstaking, and always about his Master's business. He was gentle and meek and temperate in all things, and remarkably courteous; patient in tribulation, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord. The last months of his ministry were brightened by the Spirit being poured out from on high, and a great revival of spiritual life in the Talangama congregation, which filled his soul with joy and thanksgiving. His had been the quiet, patient, diligent sowing of the seed, and he rejoiced together with the brethren who conducted the Mission at Talangama and gathered in the sheaves. Little did we think that he would be the first to be safely garnered in the heavenly storehouse. He was about sixty-three or sixty-four years of age, and for upwards of forty years he had been connected with the Mission, and nearly all his life was spent in the Cotta District. For twenty-one years I had been permitted to work with him, and he was dear to me both as a brother beloved and fellow-labourer in the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

I. WESTERN AND SOUTHERN PROVINCES.

COLOMBO.

Colombo.

THE Secretary of the Mission, the Rev. E. T. Higgens, after forty years of service, continues, in addition to the secretaryship, to discharge the duties of pastor of the Galle Face English Congregation, and the charge of the Singhalese work in Colombo.

Since July, however, he has had the welcome help of the Rev. A. E. Dibben in the English services. While, owing to various causes, the English Congregation has lately tended somewhat to diminish, it is satisfactory to notice that the number of communicants steadily increases, and interest in missionary work carried on in the island is manifested year by year by large contributions. Last year the amount given was Rs. 6,000, a larger sum than had been received in any previous year. This interest, however, is not only shown by gifts of money, but also by earnest co-operation so far as possible in evangelistic efforts. A band of district visitors have for the past two years visited among the poor Portuguese burghers, who live on Slave Island, and Mr. Higgens refers largely to this cause the fact that the attendance at the Indo-Portuguese service which is held for them has greatly improved, some twenty to thirty being present every Sunday afternoon. These people are extremely poor and extremely ignorant, most of them professing themselves Roman Catholics, but knowing almost nothing of any religion beyond a few superstitious outward forms. A Portuguese Bible-woman was engaged last year among them in house-to-house visitation. Some members of the congregation also give very practical help to the Singhalese Evangelistic Work by allowing meetings in their houses for their Singhalese servants and inviting others to be present, who are addressed by a catechist. An increasing number of residences are open to the catechists and Bible-women for regular visitation to the servants. The jails, hospitals, and other public institutions are also visited, and the Gospel is preached in the streets. There are four Vernacular Schools. Mr. Dibben refers to a "Planters' Annual Christian Convention," which he attended at Hatton in November. He says :—

and Singhalese.

A Planters' "Convention."

> Five years ago the spiritual condition of Ceylon planters seems to have been very much as the Rev. Charles Simeon describes the Cambridge of his undergraduate days, whereas now there are at least forty real spiritually-minded Christians among them, most of whom connect their conversion to God with Mr. Grubb's visits to Ceylon. Thirty or so of these men were present at the Convention, a contingent of twenty Colombo residents joined them, whilst others, including Burghers and several Native brethren, made a total of about eighty people at the various meetings of the Convention.
> It was a holy and a happy season. The various denominations of Christians represented, the brotherly love manifested, and, above all, the unity of the Spirit which was by God's grace vouchsafed to us, reminded one of happy conventions enjoyed in England. I thank God for the real spiritual life which he has kindled among the planters. May we not venture to hope that He purposes to bestow a blessing upon the heathen by their means? An eager evangelistic spirit is manifested among them, and some of the younger ones have resolved to give up their secular calling in order to devote themselves entirely to spiritual work.

Since August, when the Rev. D. and Mrs. Wood left, the Rev. J. D. Thomas has had charge of the Tamil Work in Colombo and neighbourhood. A Tamil service is held at Galle Face Church on Sunday mornings, and in the school-room on Slave Island, where the Rev. S. Samuel resides, on Sunday evenings. Mr. Thomas writes in high terms of the earnestness of this Native pastor, whom he has known from boyhood, as Mr. Samuel's father was one of the Native clergymen in Mengnanapuram district in which Mr. Thomas's father did so memorable a work. There are besides 33 other Native agents, viz., six pastoral catechists, three evangelists, twelve schoolmasters, seven schoolmistresses, and five Bible-women. The pastoral catechists are placed, one at Galle, 72 miles away, at the extreme south of the island; one at Negombo, 24 miles north of Colombo; one at Gallekisse, 7 miles to the south; and the others in Colombo. They perform the usual duties of unordained pastors to their several congregations, and engage besides in evangelistic work. The total number of Christians is 883, of communicants 256. On three days in each week Mr. Thomas accompanies the catechists in their street preaching, and one day Mr. Higgens and his Singhalese catechists unite with Mr. Thomas and his Tamil co-workers, and members of the respective parties preach alternately in the two languages. The audiences are usually large and attentive. One catechist is in charge of the Mission room in the Pettah, the busiest quarter of the town, which is visited by people of all classes and creeds. Several inquirers are enumerated. A Mohammedan (Mr. Thomas thinks there is decidedly a stirring among the followers of Islam); a Buddhist youth who saw the text "the blood of Jesus Christ, His Son, cleanseth from all sin" on the wall of the Mission room, and asked that it might be copied out for him; a barber who learnt at a Mission school in South India; a goldsmith from India; and a Sîvite who, on hearing of the life and work of Christ, was so disgusted with his god Ganesa, after which he is named, that he wished to change his name. Mrs. Thomas has charge of the Girls' Boarding School at Borella, in which she is assisted by Miss Thomas, who is acquainted with Tamil.

Inquirers.

COTTA.

Cotta.

A bright and hopeful report of last year's work in the extensive district which is worked from Cotta was received from the Rev. R. T. Dowbiggin. The little company of agents engaged in Evangelistic Work suffers a temporary loss by four of their number having been accepted for training in the Kandy Divinity Class. At Liyanwala the father, mother, and younger brother of a Native reader, a convert of some ten years ago, were baptized; also the twin brother of one of the converts of 1889. This place has now 37 adult Christians, and Mr. Dowbiggin believes the whole village will soon accept Christianity. In the Pallanno- ruwa District a Tamil catechist has been placed to work among the coolies employed on some newly-opened tea estates. Altogether 35 adults were baptized, the majority of whom were senior students in the schools. These Schools are 53 in number, 51 of which are purely Vernacular; all the teachers are Christians, and with one exception all are communicants. The schools involve an expenditure of Rs. 12,295, of which only Rs. 1,625 is obtained from the Society's funds. Mrs. Dowbiggin was glad to have Miss Bellerby and Miss James, ladies sent out in 1890 by the C.E.Z.M.S., residing in Cotta during their first four months in the Mission, and they doubtless gained some useful experience at the Girls' Boarding School before proceeding to open a similar school at Kandy, in which they have placed an old Cotta boarding-school girl as Singhalese mistress. Another old pupil is a teacher in a Government school in which there are 150 children, nearly all heathens: she also has a Sunday-school class, plays the harmonium in the church, and teaches the choir singing. The English School is experiencing opposition from the Buddhists, who have begun to teach English in their school at Cotta. The headmaster, Mr. W. de Silva, says the moral tone of the school is good, and the conduct, especially of some of the senior boys, who are trying to lead others to the Saviour, is very encouraging. His Excellency the Governor of Ceylon, Sir Arthur E. Havelock, presided in December at the prize-giving to the boys of this school and to the girls of the Boarding School.

Schools.

The four Pastorates connected with the Cotta Singhalese District Church Council are all "double ones," Mr. Dowbiggin says, and should have eight ordained pastors instead of three and a pastoral catechist. They are Colombo, Talangama and Welikada, Mâmpe and Boralesgomuwa, and Cotta and Nugegoda. The Colombo congregations worship at Christ Church, Galle Face, and St. Luke's Church; the trustees of the latter church have handed it over as the property of the Society. The death of the Rev. H. de Silva, the pastor of Talangama, has been referred to. His Annual Letter, written in November, said that the Christians under his care were "increasing in numbers, and growing in grace and the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ." Some ten or twelve members of the congregation engage in evangelistic effort. The Rev. G. S. Amarasêkara writes that the Cotta Christians show more liberality and regularity in the payment of their subscriptions to the Pastoral-Aid Fund. One member after receiving her first salary sent half of it to him with the following lines:—

Pastorates.

May we Thy bounties thus
As stewards true receive,
And gladly as Thou blessest us,
To Thee our first-fruits give.

A new church has been built at Mirihâna, an out-station, which was opened in April, 1890. Mr. W. K. Campbell, one of the Rev. G. C. Grubb's companions in 1889, conducted a Special Mission in the Cotta district at the beginning of the present year, after which Mr. Dowbiggin wrote:—

Special Mission Services.

> I rejoice to say that a rich spiritual blessing has rested upon several of our congregations during the past eight or ten months, and more especially at Talangama. Mirihâna, Nugegoda, and Cotta have also been revived, but the greatest manifestation of the power of the Holy Ghost has been witnessed at Talangama. I rejoice that these showers of blessing should have fallen on our people while we are at Cotta, and that the Lord has permitted us to see this revival of the people before we leave for England. During the twenty-one years we have been at Cotta there has been much seed-sowing with many prayers and tears by us and our fellow-workers, and now we rejoice in this ingathering.

The Conference requested the Rev. S. Coles to take charge of this district during Mr. Dowbiggin's furlough, and Mrs. Higgens to supervise the Girls' Boarding School, visiting it from Colombo.

BADDÊGAMA.

Baddêgama.

The Rev. S. Coles continued at Baddêgama throughout the year under review, but his work in revising the Singhalese Bible and Prayer Book necessitated frequent journeys to Colombo. His occasional preaching tours through the district were always encouraging in respect to the attention of the people to his message. The contributions of the Christians for religious purposes have considerably increased. The Girls' Boarding School has prospered in all respects, and is, Mr. Coles says, "the brightest spot in the district." He adds:—

Girls' Boarding School.

> The new Director of Public Instruction—an experienced educationalist—has just paid us a surprise visit, and assured me that he was greatly pleased with what he saw. The Rev. P. Marks and family were here about two months ago, and he was very outspoken in his praises of the school. He and his wife are well qualified to form a just estimate of the character of the schools, because they have had charge of a similar one more than a quarter of a century; but our best approval comes from above, and is better than life itself. The Lord is manifestly working in the hearts of many of the dear girls, and is drawing their souls towards Himself. It is most delightful to witness the warm interest they take in the study of the New Testament and religious services. We have 44 girls now in the school, of whom 6 were baptized during the year.

The Rev. J. W. Balding is now in charge of the station.

II. CENTRAL PROVINCES.

KANDY.

Trinity College, Kandy.

The Rev. H. P. Napier reached Kandy at the end of June, and he and the Rev. J. W. Fall have since then laboured together as Principal and Vice-Principal of Trinity College. The number of students, which was 250 in February, was 298 in December, of whom 63 were boarders. Mr. Fall forwards several extracts from the Report of the Public Instruction Department of the Ceylon Government. He says:—

Report of Director of Public Instruction regarding Buddhist and Christian Schools.

The first excerpt from the former is as to the extent to which educational openings are taken advantage of in the island. The Director reports that, "Whereas in 1884 one child in every 27 of the whole population attended school, now in 1889 the figure is 1 in every 19." I can see ways in which this increase is of distinct advantage to Mission effort.

The second extract regards pansala schools. The Director says: "These schools are in a bad way, even as regards numbers, which might be expected to be good, in view of the fact that they are taught by Buddhist monks, who not only are of the religion of the people, but who also give a meal to the scholars who attend them in return for certain manual work done." This remark is suggestive, when taken in connexion with another, that in grant-in-aid schools (largely, I believe, belonging to Christian agencies of some kind) an increase is shown during the year of 19 schools and 3,083 scholars.

The third gleaning from the Director's report has reference to increase in number in detail. "In the Central Province," he says, "the most notable increase was that of Trinity College, Kandy, which, under its new Principal, the Rev. E. J. Perry, had gone ahead rapidly." He then speaks of him as "a young man, full of the greatest energy, with a wholesome and uncommon gift of understanding schoolboys. Mr. Perry's death is a great loss to the educational department of this colony."

Seven of the students passed the Calcutta University Entrance Examination out of eight sent up, one being placed in the first class. About 90 of the boys have joined a Bible Union, and some who are not Christians read in connexion with it. As a memorial to the late Rev. E. J. Perry, a Trinity College Mission was formed quite spontaneously by the pupils, who have built a school-room at Wattapuluwa, a village two miles from the school, and one of the tutors, Samuel Perera, voluntarily teaches some thirty children there. The Divinity Class connected with the College had seven students at the end of the year, and Mr. Napier traces to their influence a marked improvement in the general tone of the other boys. The Pastorates in connexion with the Kandy District Council are under the care of the Revs. H. Gunasêkara and H. Senewiratna, the former being Chairman and Treasurer of the Council. Forty-seven candidates were confirmed in April. Several adult baptisms are mentioned in their reports.

Divinity Class.

Buddhist "Conventions" (Mr. Fall draws attention to the adoption of this name as significant) were on two occasions held in Kandy under the auspices of a Theosophical Society, of which the moving spirit is a European, formerly a clergyman, an LL.D. of Trinity College, Dublin.

Buddhist "Conventions."

KANDYAN SINGHALESE ITINERANCY.

Singhalese Itinerancy.

The Rev. J. G. Garrett, residing at Kandy, and the Rev. L. G. P. Liesching, residing at Kurunégala, superintend this agency for carrying the Gospel to the Singhalese scattered over the centre of the island. In the North Central Province, which forms only a part of Mr. Garrett's district, although it is 3,000 square miles in extent, there has not been a single woman among the converts, Mr. Garrett says, until last August, when a young woman was baptized at Pàlugaswewè, together with two young men, all pupils at the school. She was married a month later to the schoolmaster, but the feeling against her on account of her baptism was so bitter that even her mother refused to be present at her wedding. Four men were also baptized at Talawa, six miles from the Pàlugaswewè. At Urugala, in the Central Province, a woman, Ruth, who had lately lost her child, was attracted by the assurance that, if she would trust in the Saviour, she would see her child again. Mr. Garrett proceeds :—

Gospel "Medicine."

The mother listened, gradually yielded, and has become a follower of Jesus. Presently her husband came to ask, "What medicine have you given my wife?" "No medicine; we give none." "Oh yes, you have given her good medicine. She used to be cross, and now is so kind. She used to be lazy, and now is so willing. She used to speak such bad words, and now is so gentle." Ruth was baptized in August last.

Bembuja is the furthest out-station in the wildest part of the country. To this place, Boaz, mentioned as an inquirer in last year's Report (page 186), went "to tell his friends what great things the Lord had done for him." Here Mr. Garrett heard twenty boys, whom Boaz had instructed, "repeat, with hardly a mistake, three selected chapters of the Gospel, all believing that it is indeed the Word of God." Hangauranketta is the centre of pastoral work in the Hewahetta district. Mr. Garrett says of this place :—

A band of voluntary Native Evangelists.

Upon one of my late visits I found a band of young men who had agreed to form themselves into a society to endeavour, so far as they could, to tell about Jesus to all who are in any way connected with them, as servants or workpeople on the estates, or any one they meet on the journey, and also each to set apart one special case for more earnest pleading concerning the great salvation. These young men gathered round the catechists, read out each his report of what he had done in the past month, and then—all kneeling—each in turn committed the others' work in prayer to God.

Opposition from Theosophists.

The Theosophists, under the European referred to above, made a special effort against the school at Pottepitiya, even entering process against the parents who sent their children to it. The Court, however, decided against them, although the President was a Buddhist, and Mr. Garrett found 100 children present at the Government examination, and many of them wishing to be Christians. Mr. Garrett quotes the following from the report of the catechist at Pussellawa, in the Uda Bulatgama district :—

Converts from Buddhism.

Four adults have been received from Buddhism, and seven were confirmed during the year. In September the English Buddhist, ——, and his supporters came to this district, and while they were preaching two of our Christian laymen met them in argument, and left them without an answer, as it is written, "Why do the heathen rage and imagine a vain thing?" In proportion as the opposition has been greater our Christians have become more in earnest, and no less than 17 Buddhists have begun to come to our preaching, and 12 of them have decided to believe in Christ as their Saviour, and become steady members of our Christian Church.

Formerly 5 persons used to meet in prayer in one family, now there are prayer-meetings on four days in the week with an average of twenty. To these meetings, and to our church services, our Christian brethren and sisters very readily come with gladness; while on Mondays I have a Bible-class in my house with an average of twelve.

Buddhist opposition was also very pronounced in Mr. Liesching's district. At Kurunégala a leading Buddhist preacher, a dismissed Wesleyan catechist Mr. Liesching was informed, drew large crowds. The excitement provoked has afforded special opportunities for preaching the Gospel, but it has led also to some restraints being imposed by the authorities. Of the ex-Buddhist priest who was baptized in December, 1889 (see Annual Report, 1889–90, page 186), Mr. Liesching says:—

The ex-Buddhist priest who was baptized nearly a year ago has fulfilled the hopes we entertained concerning him, and is developing into a mature and humble Christian, as well as a bold and able advocate of Christianity against the unblushing advocates of the false system in which he had been brought up. This man had at first to submit to opposition from his own wife, as well as persecution from his wife's father. Now, in answer to prayer and quiet effort, the wife has become a candidate for baptism, only waiting for a day when I can examine her with others, and fix a day for their reception into the visible Church. The father-in-law was very bitter at first, and threatened to alienate the family property from his daughter. Our new brother came in to see me about it, and asked whether it would be wrong to institute legal proceedings in protection of his rights. I pointed out to him the words of Christ about turning the other cheek, and St. Paul's words about suffering ourselves to be defrauded. We prayed over the matter, and I rejoice to say that he was led to adopt the Christian rather than the Buddhist remedy. This is one of the best proofs which has ever come within my experience of the practical good exercised by faith in Christ over the lives and conduct of converts, for the Singhalese are a most litigious people, and I believe nothing short of God's grace will prevent them from going to law in such cases as this. The man's case seemed a good one, and still he did not press it in a court of law. Since then I hear the father-in-law's heart is somewhat softened, and he seems inclined to give his daughter her due.

The "Christian remedy."

Twenty-six candidates from the Village Congregations were confirmed, and Mr. Liesching mentions it as a sign of growth that one-half of them were the children of Christians and had consequently been baptized in infancy. The number of Schools under Mr. Liesching at the end of 1890 was 18 and the average attendance 488, as compared with 13 and 312 respectively in 1889. There are 16 Sunday Schools with an average attendance of 188.

TAMIL COOLY MISSION.

The removal of the Rev. J. D. Thomas to Colombo in August has been mentioned. A few months later, on the invitation of Conference, the Rev. H. Horsley took up his residence at Kandy, and succeeded to Mr. Thomas' charge of the central district, while the Rev. J. Ilsley upon his arrival in April proceeded to Haputale to superintend the southern district.

Devoted and zealous Native Catechists.

The Rev. J. D. Simmons continues to reside at KOTAGALA, where he gathers his sixteen catechists together every two months for the study of God's Word and prayer. He says of these agents, "Some have made undoubted real attainments in grace; their lives and labours testify that Christ is a very precious Saviour to them." The one engaged in the Dickoya District, in which ten adults were baptized, writes, "This year, I have received more blessings, and my soul has much more yearned after the salvation of perishing souls." Of the catechist, Mr. V. D. Moses, in the Dimbula District, Mr. Simmons says, "I know no one whose life testified more fully that he is abiding in the secret place of the Most High." In this district six adults were baptized. Of one of them Mr. Simmons writes:—

An Indian ascetic finds Christ in Ceylon.

> One of the converts is an illiterate man, who had spent several years of severe asceticism in India. At one time he accompanied two or three others, and lived in the hills upon roots and herbs. Apparently he was under real conviction of sin, and longing for that rest to his soul which this asceticism could not give. He was advised to make a pilgrimage to Benares, and was about to start when he thought he would first visit a brother in Ceylon. This brother was a catechist, whose heart was full of joy in possessing a living, personal Saviour. The brother and Mr. Moses were made God's instruments in leading the poor blind and thirsting soul into the light and to the living waters. His body, and especially his head, were loathsome with filth; the matted hair weighed seven or eight pounds. He was soon cleansed from these, and this was but an emblem of the washing away of his sins in the Saviour's precious Blood. He is now a happy man, working as a cooly for his daily bread, and he has already led two or three other coolies to the Saviour, in whom he rejoices.

A Native Christian walks 12 miles to teach his relations.

A member of the congregation at Lindula showed much zeal for the salvation of his relatives, often "walking twelve miles to teach them about Jesus." Eight adults were led to concern about their salvation by his persevering efforts and teaching, and were baptized with their children after several months' probation. These people built a small house for prayer on the estate on which they laboured. Mr. Simmons has formed an evangelistic band consisting at present of two. He concludes his Annual Letter with thanksgiving:—

> That the Holy Spirit has been working with us in a more manifest way than I have ever before witnessed, I am convinced. Thank God that, although every bud has not burst into a blossom, nor every blossom become fruit, yet there remains some fruit as a thankoffering to the Giver of all good! The prospect looks brighter, because we are looking at it more in the light of faith in God.

Mr. Thomas reports sixteen adult baptisms in the KANDY DISTRICT. The increasing interest of the planters in this neighbourhood in the work is shown by larger contributions to the funds of the Tamil Cooly Mission, from which funds all the catechists are paid. Mr. Horsley, looking back over his five years at HAPUTALE, sees signs of progress and development. The catechists have increased from five to seven, the schools from five to ten, there are four Church Committees now, whereas then there was only one, and the district, like the other two districts, has its own District Church Council, whereas then there was only one for the whole Tamil Cooly Mission. A Native Missionary Association collects and expends Rs. 160 yearly. Nine adults were baptized in 1890. The Bishop held confirmations at Haputale, Palmadulla, and Rackwane, and expressed himself pleased with the material improvement noticeable at the first and last of the three places, also with the reverence shown by the candidates, 37 in number.

Progress in Haputale District.

III. NORTHERN PROVINCES.

THE work in the Jaffna peninsula since May, 1890, has been under the Rev. J. I. Pickford's sole superintendence. The Chundicully Seminary, which attains its jubilee this year, 1891, has become the "St. John's College, Jaffna." Its Native headmaster, Mr. C. C. Handy, B.A., is a graduate of Calcutta University and is a son of the late pastor of Nellore. Of the 246 names on the rolls, the average attendance is 183. A Boarding-house built through the efforts of the Rev. G. T. Fleming has nearly thirty inmates. Besides this college, there is an English school at Kopay, with 67 on its list; an institution at the same place for training schoolmasters, with 36 boarders; a girls' boarding school at Nellore with 77 pupils; and 63 elementary schools, employing 104 teachers and giving instruction to 3,354 children. Engaged in Evangelistic Work are 19 catechists, readers, colporteurs, &c. Interesting moonlight meetings, when large numbers assembled and listened with quiet attention, were held from April to September. The Gospel has also been preached on the sea shore, by the roadside, and in school buildings, and a respectful hearing has usually been accorded. During June and July a party of catechists and colporteurs visited the Wanni district distributing the Word of God. The Pastorates are now five in number, with three Native ordained pastors, all in Priest's Orders, and two pastoral catechists; 26 adults have been baptized during the year in connexion with these pastorates. The Bishop of Colombo confirmed 88 at Nellore in September, and also visited Kopay, Chundicully and Pallai. The Rev. J. Backus, of Pallai, writes of this visit:—

Increased reverence at public worship.

> We were very delighted to hear his Lordship announce publicly that, in no other congregation under similar circumstances, he had noticed more reverence in divine worship and solemnity than at Pallai. Also the Bishop admired the advancement made in church music. The minute inquiry his Lordship has been making of every member, and especially of those who were confirmed by him from time to time, shows what a deep concern he has for the spiritual welfare of his flock. The Bishop has so much won the hearts of the people here, by his kindness and courtesy, within the few days he stayed in our midst, that everyone felt that his visits should be more frequent, and some have even requested him to that effect.

The pastor of Chundicully, the Rev. G. Champion, refers to the visit of the Rev. G. C. Grubb at the commencement of 1890:—

Mr. Grubb and three of his fellow-workers came here on January 3, and spent only a week with us. They came in our midst with power and spirit from above. They really poured showers of blessings from above, accompanied with the Holy Ghost, upon the parched and drooping souls. We witnessed the noise of the shaking of the dry bones, and saw them breathe out. There was, indeed, the spiritual resurrection of the souls from their deep slumber. Missionaries, pastors, catechists, teachers, and all our Christians were much benefited by the work of the missioners in our midst. We always pray that the blessing of their work may abide with us now and for ever.

Native Missionary Association.

The Native Missionary Association employs three readers, one each at Uduturai, Mullativo, and Vavomya. The income from various sources, including a grant from the Henry Venn Fund, was Rs. 1,200. The annual meeting took place during the Bishop's visit in September, and he gave a most earnest and impressive address, Mr. Pickford says, on the occasion.

MAURITIUS MISSION.

Division of the Mission: 1. Tamil-speaking Coolies (Madras Branch), 1857; 2. Bengali and Hindi-speaking Coolies (Calcutta Branch), 1857; 3. The Seychelles Islands, 1875.

Retirement of Bishop Royston.

THE Society's Mission, and indeed the whole Island of Mauritius and its dependencies, have lost a true and untiring friend and benefactor by the retirement of Bishop Royston, owing to the state of his health, after an episcopate of eighteen years. Few have laboured with more constancy and devotion in the missionary cause than he—first as tutor of the Society's Islington College, then as Secretary of the Madras Corresponding Committee, afterwards for a short time as Acting Secretary at Salisbury Square, and latterly as Bishop of Mauritius, he has unvaryingly won the love and respect of all who worked with him. He has given two daughters to be wives of missionaries; one being Mrs. Elliott of Gaza, and another Mrs. Tanner of Masulipatam.

Appointment of Bishop Walsh.

It is a matter for thankfulness that the Archbishop of Canterbury's choice for Bishop Royston's successor has fallen upon another whose interest in the Society's work is of long standing—the Rev. W. Walsh, a member of the Committee, and one who has rendered important service on the Sub-Committee which examines and recommends candidates for training.

Diminution of Government Grant.

The threatened diminution, in accordance with a Bill passed by the Mauritius Legislative Council, of the contribution made by the State towards Church of England work in the island, and the transfer of the amount subtracted to the Church of Rome, has, happily, not been carried out to the extent proposed. Nevertheless a reduction of about Rs. 7,000 has been made, and this loss will fall heavily upon agencies which are more directly evangelistic. The Church of Rome has been further aided by a new grant of Rs. 15,000.

Regulations affecting Schools.

A new ground of apprehension has arisen from the regulations of the Education Code recently issued by the local Government, requiring French, as well as English, as an obligatory subject in all standards. The effect anticipated from this innovation was thus stated by the Rev. H. D. Buswell in his address as Chairman at the annual meeting of the Mauritius Native Church Council:—

> The New Code of Regulations for Grant-in-Aid Schools, though framed with a view to improve primary instruction in the Colony, is calculated very seriously to cripple our endeavours to aid in this work. It is safe to say that, if the New Code be applied in its integrity, comparatively few Aided-Schools will pass muster, and it will be the death knell of Indian Education in the Colony. As is well known, our certificated masters are, in general, men of intelligence and of tried character, but they are not qualified to teach French, which is now an obligatory subject in all standards. To attempt to teach Indian children from the estates and villages English, French, and an Indian language is to court failure in everything. Our Schools are a most valuable Mission Agency, and anything that imperils their existence, or renders impossible the extension of this branch of effort, is greatly to be regretted.

Upon the representations of Bishop Royston and Bishop Walsh, made to the Committee on this subject in March, the President of the Society undertook to represent to the Secretary of State for the Colonies the injurious and altogether unexpected blow which the Code would inflict upon the Society's numerous elementary Indian Schools.

To no one is the educational work of this Mission more indebted than to the Rev. N. Honiss, who has recently come to Europe for needed rest, after upwards of thirteen years' continuous residence in Mauritius.

Death of the Rev. P. Ansorgé.

The Rev. P. Ansorgé, who laboured first as a lay agent in North India, and subsequently in Mauritius, where he was ordained in 1857, died in March at Liegnitz, in Prussian Silesia.

Work among North India Coolies

The Rev. C. A. Blackburn's work is among the North India Coolies scattered over the island, of whom he baptized 45 during the year. One of the converts was a young man of high caste residing at Moka; his father, who is "a sort of priest," threatened to curse him, and his mother declared she would "desecrate" him by throwing cows' flesh in his face, but he was enabled to stand firm and to confess his Saviour in baptism. Some measure of friendliness was professed towards Mr. Blackburn by several Brahmins, priests, and devotees, who invited him to their houses for religious discussions, and thus gave him an opportunity of showing them the way of salvation. The baptism of several influential Mohammedans, as related in last year's Report, created much excitement among their former co-religionists. Mr. Blackburn says:—

Public controversy with Mohammedans.

Books were circulated, and soon the Mohammedans were all provided with offensive weapons, in the shape of pamphlets, and attacked us on all sides. As we were altogether without any means of defence, I had to spend a good many nights in framing answers to the pretensions and attacks of our opponents; and got ready a sort of handbook in simple English for the use of our agents, who, with the exception of two, do not read Urdu. When I had prepared a few notes, I accepted their challenge to a public controversy, and a series of whole-day meetings followed. The Miajis, Moulvies, and learned Moslems from all parts of Mauritius attended in turn. After answering hundreds of their questions, we began to interrogate them. This they did not like, for they found it difficult to satisfy us. One of them said to me privately, "Very few among us can reply properly to such questions."

Upon the departure of the Rev. N. Honiss, Mrs. Buswell and her daughter volunteered to undertake the charge of the Plaisance Orphanage, and have thrown themselves very heartily into the work. The management of the schools which was in Mr. Honiss' hands has now been distributed among the Chairmen of the pastorates, under Mr. Buswell's general supervision. Plaisance Orphanage

Notwithstanding trials both in respect of means and of men —reduced staff owing to deaths, crippled resources, and growing demands—the Native Church Council presents a cheerful report. The aggregate attendance at the services and meetings was 5,700 in advance of that of 1889. The adult baptisms were 87 in number, which includes the 45 North Indians mentioned above. The total number of Christians connected with the Society is 2,276. Native Church Council.

The number of scholars in the Society's African Institution at Capucin, in the Seychelles, was only 22 in December, and it is under consideration, owing to the fact that freed slaves are no longer taken by the Government to the Seychelles, whether the institution in its present form continues to be needed. Mr. E. and Mrs. Luckock have been much cheered by the sympathy and counsel of the Rev. C. S. and Mrs. Harington, formerly of Calcutta, who are residing in the Seychelles, where Mr. Harington has an acting Civil Chaplaincy. Capucin, in Seychelles Islands.

CHINA.

Shanghai Missionary Conference

THE Missionary Conference at Shanghai in May, 1890, was one in which the Committee took a deep interest from the time of its inception, and it was to them a matter of regret that, owing mainly to the weak state of the European staff at the time both in South and Mid-China, comparatively few of the Society's missionaries were able to be present. Forty-two missionary organizations were represented by 430 missionaries who there assembled, namely, one-third of the total number of Protestant missionaries (about 1,300, including missionaries' wives) in the whole of China at the time. In 1850 the number was 122. Thankworthy as the increase has been, the utter inadequacy of the present evangelizing force in view of the vast magnitude of the country was the fact which was perhaps more prominent than any other in the Conference, and this unanimous conviction found expression in a series of specially solemn and moving appeals to Christians at home for larger supplies of ordained men, lay evangelists, and lady missionaries. An appeal for "one thousand men within five years from this time" was enforced by the following weighty words:—

Appeal for one thousand more Missionaries.

We make this appeal in behalf of three hundred millions of unevangelized heathen; we make it with all the earnestness of our whole hearts, as men overwhelmed with the magnitude and responsibility of the work before us; we make it with unwavering faith in the power of a risen Saviour to call men into His vineyard, and to open the hearts of those who are His stewards to send out and support them, and we shall not cease to cry mightily to Him that He will do this thing, and that our eyes may see it.

A most important practical result of the deliberations in which the Conference engaged was their agreement regarding the publication of a "Union Version" of the Holy Scriptures. The Rev. A. Elwin has thus stated what occurred regarding this:—

Harmonious agreement regarding a Chinese Version of the Scriptures.

One of the first things that the missionaries endeavoured to do years ago when they came to China was to translate God's Word into Chinese. But difficulties of many kinds arose, which difficulties have continually increased until the present time, when we have versions of almost every kind and style in use in the Churches. The evil of having so many translations has been universally felt and acknowledged. But although the evil was acknowledged, it seemed almost impossible to suggest a remedy. What was wanted was a "Union Version" that all would use and which alone the Bible Societies would recognise and print. Very many felt that if the action taken by Conference should result in a Union Version of the Holy Scriptures and nothing else, there would be ample cause to thank God that it had been called together. The "Scriptures" was the subject for the first day, and no less than six papers were read on this subject by six representative men. After the papers there was much discussion as to the best plan to adopt. Ultimately a Committee of twenty-five, carefully chosen, was unanimously elected to consider the whole matter. This Committee met again and again to discuss the subject in all its bearings. It was not until the ninth day of Conference that its anxiously awaited report was presented. It is impossible to give the report here, I will only say that it was of such a nature, that after it was read Dr. Nevius, the President for the day, rose and said, "Dear friends, after hearing that Report there is only one thing that we can do, let us all rise and sing the Doxology." At once all rose, and with hearts full of thankfulness united in praising God from whom all blessings flow. During the discussion that followed Dr. Wright said that after hearing the report his heart was too full to sing, he could only with bowed head thank God that that which for more than forty years had been longed and prayed for seemed now about to be accomplished.

Vote of the House of Commons on the Opium Trade.

The Committee have repeatedly and in various ways given expression to their sense of the obstacle presented to the progress of the Gospel in China by the Indo-Chinese opium trade. The division of April 10 in the House of Commons, on the motion of Sir Joseph Pease, is a great encouragement to those who have prayed and laboured that the public conscience in this land might be roused to a sense of the great national sin involved in England's relations to China regarding that trade. The motion was:— "That this House is of opinion that the system by which the Indian opium revenue is raised is morally indefensible, and would urge upon the Indian Government that they should cease to grant licences for the cultivation of the poppy and sale of opium in British India, except to supply the legitimate demands for medical purposes; and they should at the same time take measures to arrest the transit of Malwa opium through British territory." That this motion obtained a majority of 31, in a House of 291 members, is a proof of the spread of an enlightened interest in the subject, and a pledge, the Committee trust, that a great act of morality long delayed will ere long, whatever the difficulties, be effected.

Bishop Burdon's Visitations

BISHOP BURDON visited both the divisions of this Mission in the course of 1890. In the spring of the year he journeyed, mostly by boat, through the extensive province of Kwan-Tung and far into the adjoining province of Kwang-si, and visited Pakhoi before returning to Hong Kong. In the autumn the Bishop spent two months in the Fuh-Kien province, when he visited the districts of Ku-Cheng, Ning-Taik, Lo-Ngwong, and Lieng-Kong, and confirmed altogether 317 candidates. Both the Bishop and Mrs. Burdon had a serious illness at the beginning of the present year; they were nursed by Miss Kathleen Power, who providentially arrived at Hong Kong at that time with other reinforcements to the Fuh-Kien Mission. The Bishop wrote: "Miss Power was a very ministering angel in the house in a time of sore need."

Reinforcements.

The reinforcements referred to above were:—The Rev. Thomas McClelland, B.A., of Trinity College, Dublin, Curate of St. Paul's, Sheffield, for whose support as well as for that of the Rev. J. S. Collins, the Church Missionary Association of Trinity College, Dublin, has undertaken the responsibility; Dr. W. P. Mears, M.D., of Durham, M.R.C.S., Professor of Anatomy in the Newcastle Medical School connected with Durham University, and Mrs. Mears, who is also a qualified medical practitioner; and Miss Kathleen Power, whom a lady in Ireland, in accordance with an offer made at the Keswick Convention in 1888, has supported as her "substitute." Mr. McClelland arrived in the Mission in December, the others, and also the Rev. W. and Mrs. Banister returning to the Mission, a few weeks later. The Rev. H. C. Knox, who was married in November to Miss M. Davies, a lady missionary at Fuh-Chow of the C.E.Z.M.S., was obliged in December, by the state of his health, to come home; and the Rev. J. B. and Mrs. Ost came home on furlough in March. Bishop Burdon admitted the Rev. H. S. Phillips to Priest's Orders on November 23, at Fuh-Chow.

HONG-KONG.

Hong-Kong.

Since the departure of the Rev. J. B. and Mrs. Ost, the general pastoral, educational, and evangelistic work has been placed under the Rev. J. Grundy; and Miss Hamper and Miss Ridley are responsible for the work among the women and for the Girls' Schools. Miss Ridley, who has passed her first language examination with credit, writes of her first year's residence and work in China:—

Chinese "a fascinating and delightful study."

I look back upon the year that has passed with a heart full of gratitude to God for having, first of all, sent me here, and for having been with me all the time. I came here full of enthusiasm for my future work, and I am thankful to say that I very soon learned to love the people among whom I have come to live. My chief work this year has, of course, been the study of the language. I found it, after the first few weeks, an interesting, fascinating, and delightful study, and all through the year I have kept close to books. During the year I have been able to do a little work; first, by undertaking the charge of four little Eurasian girls in our school; secondly, by giving a Scripture lesson twice a week at an evening class in our Anglo-Chinese school (the lesson being interpreted by the Chinese teacher); and thirdly—work I hardly looked for—teaching a young English-speaking Japanese the way of truth. He was baptized late in December. I consider him my first-fruits, and trust that he is the earnest of a great sheaf for my Master.

KWAN-TUNG.

Hong-Kong mainland out-stations.

The district immediately around Canton, including Heung-Shan, Kong-Moon, and Hok-Shan to the south and south-west of the city, and the neighbourhood of Tsang-Shing watered by the East River, are attached as out-stations to Hong-Kong and worked by the Superintendent Missionary labouring there. On the other hand, Shiu-Hing Fu, Lo Ting Chow, and Tung Oh Yuen, together with the south-western portion of the Kwan-Tung province, constitute the district assigned to the itinerant missionaries. The Rev. J. B. Ost visited the several out-stations under his charge in June and July, and again during November and December, on the latter occasion being accompanied by Mrs. Ost. On Sunday, June 22, Mr. Ost baptized eleven male and five female adults and six children at the village of Wan Long, the fruits of the labours of the catechist and schoolmaster in the place, the latter of whom was himself one of the candidates. On the same day Mr. Ost preached in the Ancestral Hall to a crowded audience. At Heung-Shan Mr. Ost was treated with much abuse, such expressions as "Foreign devil!" "Kill the devil!" "Drown the devil!" assailing his ears every day as he walked through the streets; nevertheless, as Mr. Ost proved, the animosity which such expressions imply is not always very deep-rooted. He wrote:—

"In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves."

On Friday last, when out selling books, quite a respectable old man from behind a counter said as I passed, "Foreign devil! Kill the devil!" I passed on a few paces, and then retracing my steps entered the shop as if I had not heard his remarks, and offered my books for sale. I succeeded in getting him to buy the Gospels of Matthew and Luke, and a tract. Then after a little talk about the contents of the book just sold, and an earnest word to him to read and re-read them with a heart desiring to learn the truth, I said to him, "Honourable sir, how is it that you address a friend who has come from a distant country in such language as 'Foreign devil'?" This took him quite aback, and he apologized for what he had said. I told him that I was not anxious for an apology, but what I wished to impress upon him was the fact that we were brethren, and ought to treat each other as such. If the children heard venerable seniors (the man had grey hair and a grey moustache) address foreigners in disrespectful language, they would learn to do the same, and I was sure he would not wish to set a bad example to the youth about. After other remarks of a friendly character, I left the shop. My friend was earnest in his invitation that I would call to see him again.

At Shiu-Hing, the Rev. J. Grundy says, some of the few adherents show no interest in Christianity, although they continue to hold aloof from idolatry. There is, however, a nucleus of faithful ones in the place. Two baptisms have taken place, Ma Chun Kai, a schoolmaster of considerable ability, and Sucy Wai Kong, a man "who had read the New Testament through again and again, and eagerly perused whatever Christian books came in his way." This man has since died. A blind man, by name Bartimæus, who was baptized several years since, "seems to be always singing, or rather humming, fragments of hymns, and repeating to himself portions of the Liturgy." A Boys' School was opened at the beginning of 1890, which has an average daily attendance of 15, all the children of heathen parents. Dr. Colborne resided at Tung On from October to March in order to apply himself with fewer distractions than he could secure at Hong-Kong, or while itinerating, to the study of the language. One who was an inquirer for five years died here in the summer unbaptized, his children and nephews, on whom he depended for support, having threatened to disown him if he received baptism. Mr. Grundy says of him :—

A convert's form of prayer.

He composed, in most beautiful rhythm, a long prayer taken out of our Liturgy and the New Testament. This he committed to memory, and used to repeat it three times a day. Once when we were alone he recited it before me, and I confess that its fervour and pathos greatly moved me.

The tour taken by Bishop Burdon and Mr. Grundy was up the West River to beyond the boundaries of the Kwang-si Province, and then up the Yung River to its head, whence the watershed was passed on foot, and another river flowing in the opposite direction was reached, which carried them to Lien-chow, distant about 16 miles from Pakhoi. Soon after returning from this tour at the end of March Mr. Grundy started again, accompanied by Dr. Colborne, up the West and Yung rivers, and in December he made a third journey by the same route. About 1,500 cases were medically treated, and excellent opportunities of preaching occurred at the towns and villages passed en route; very rarely was any opposition shown. One exception is mentioned. Mr. Grundy says :—

A Notice warning against Missionaries.

At one place, indeed, where we had been staying several days, the schoolmaster—schoolmasters in South China are often our worst enemies—wrote a warning notice about us, and fixed it on the trunk of a tree by the roadside near to the place where our boat was moored. Our native helper on seeing it took it down and brought it to me. I have it now before me. Translated into English it reads as follows :—"Beware! Whereas barbarian demons have for many years clandestinely entered the Flowery Land, be it known that two of these demons, possessing cunning eyes, have presumed to come into our neighbourhood, and have brought with them a dog which also possesses cunning eyes. Now when these said barbarians arrived at Tai Ting May they were forthwith compelled to leave, because the people of the eighteen provinces of China have been commanded indeed to stab to the heart any barbarian demon they may meet—with faces as smooth as oil, but with hearts like swords. Consider what these demons are about. By day they beguile simple folk by giving away medicine; whilst at night, under the cover of darkness, they sally forth, accompanied by the dog, and dig into the hills of our pure country (China) and take out precious stones. Nor is this the only evil. They thereby cause the baneful influences to escape which will certainly injure us. Why do we remain heedless? Dated the year of Kwong Sii, the fifth month and the first day." The dog referred to is a very harmless terrier. This idea of our coming to seek for precious stones is very prevalent. Along this river it is hardly possible to go on shore near towns or villages without being watched and questioned as to the whereabouts of silver and precious stones. However emphatic may be our denial of having come for such a purpose, they generally hold fast to their opinion of us. We are supposed to possess seven eyes, by means of which we can see into the depths of the earth.

Pakhoi.

The work in PAKHOI was less encouraging during the past year than during the one or two years immediately preceding; the daily preaching in the Preaching Hall seemed to have less attraction for the people, the Rev. W. Light says. Between 30 and 40 boys were instructed in the leading facts and doctrines of Christianity in the Boys' School. Wards in the Hospital have been set apart for opium smokers and for lepers. The total number of cases treated during the year was 6,851, among whom were a number of officials and literati. There were 236 in-patients, of whom Dr. E. G. Horder says:—

Hospital In-patients

It is extremely interesting to watch the in-patients, who remain with us for a month or longer. After the first week or two a striking change comes over them; they no longer reckon us "foreign devils," and treat us with mistrust, but look upon us as their friends, and converse freely. While we are praying that God's Word may change their hearts, the outer life is, in some respects, so to speak, "born again"—their faces are changed, while their hearts are still in darkness and sin. In a few the transformation has gone to the heart, and two of our converts form part of a class Mr. Light is training for evangelistic work.

Some of the patients, especially the blind, travel long distances for treatment; many of them are from the province of Kwang-si. Mr. Light made an itinerating tour on the Nam Law River into Kwang-si in November and December, hoping to meet Mr. Grundy, as had been arranged; but he was received with rough treatment from the Natives as soon as he entered that province, being stoned more than once, and in one place was pursued by crowds of Natives who seemed intent on fulfilling their threat of "killing the foreign devil." An escort of two men was sent by the magistrate to accompany Mr. Light back to Pakhoi.

Rough treatment in Kwang-si.

PROVINCE OF FUH-KIEN.

Archdeacon Wolfe, who with Mrs. Wolfe returned from his visit to Canada in September, makes some important reflexions on the dangers which beset the Church in Fuh-Kien. He says:—

Special dangers affecting the Native Church.

There is, first of all, in the Native Church the lack of that spirit of independence which should render both teachers and congregations impatient of foreign support, and urge them to strenuous efforts to support themselves. As long as this want of independence exists, so long, of course, will self-government and self-support on the part of the Native Church be delayed. But this is not the only difficulty in the way. The Chinese, universally, from long habit and usage, have become so familiar with the corrupt systems of bribery and exaction, and of taking and receiving unlawful commission on account of all moneys which from any reason may pass through their hands, that these practices (which here are vulgarly termed squeezing) seem ingrained into their very nature, and have come to be considered universally as an established institution and the undoubted right and privilege of any individual entrusted with the administration of funds. I would not say that the Native Christians look upon these corrupt practices in this light, but I fear I must say of them, to a certain extent at least, that they have not, as a rule, that deep sense of the moral turpitude of these unlawful transactions that they ought to have. This lack of a high moral tone and feeling, especially on this subject, will constitute, I fear, a difficulty in the immediate future, when the Natives themselves must be entrusted with the administration of Church funds. They cannot and will not trust one another in money transactions.

Another difficulty in the way arises from the natural self-conceit characteristic of the Chinese race; especially is this manifested when one of them is raised to any position which places him officially above his fellows. The Chinese people, especially the poorer classes, which form the great bulk of the Chinese people, have to endure by force of necessity the hauteur, the overweening swagger, and the contemptuous bearing of the many petty officials with whom they are afflicted. There is danger lest this national characteristic should manifest itself in our native clergy. I have been sometimes saddened in discovering this tendency in some of the native clergy, in other respects really estimable men, and I feel sure that should this tendency be developed and manifested in any appreciable degree it will prove a real hindrance, not only to self-government and self-support, but to the very spiritual life of the Native Church. We cannot expect a hearty and voluntary support from the people to clergy or teachers displaying such a spirit.

FUH-CHOW.

Fuh-Chow

The Theological College, under the Revs. Ll. Lloyd and C. Shaw, began 1890 with 25 students, of whom 14 were then newly admitted, being recommended by the various District Church Councils. The Boys' Boarding School had 34 pupils, those of the senior class, from 17 to 19 years of age, are described by Mr. Lloyd as "very nice lads, with a very good knowledge of Scripture and of their own classics." Four of them went out as schoolmasters at the end of the year, to return (D.V.) after a few years spent in that capacity for further training in the Theological College.

The old complaint, "no fruit," Archdeacon Wolfe has to repeat once more of the Evangelistic Work among the inhabitants of the city. There were indeed four baptisms, but the converts did not belong to Fuh-Chow, although temporarily residing there at the time of their baptism. A few earnest Native Christians are, however, found in the place. The Archdeacon says:—

Exemplary Native Christian tradesmen.

The two sons of Mr. Ho, one of the earliest converts in this city, who were baptized by myself when they were only a few days old, and who are now married, one to the daughter of the Rev. Wong Kiu Taik, the other to the daughter of the Rev. Ting Sing Ki, are most earnest and zealous as voluntary helpers. They both keep a watchmakers' shop in this city, and are examples of what Christian mechanics and tradesmen should be. The eldest is a most earnest and powerful speaker, and frequently, both by day and by night, he may be seen in the Mission churches and preaching places addressing crowds of attentive and eager listeners. This man also takes trips to some of the country stations to stir up the flagging zeal of the converts.

The Bible Women's School is conducted by Mrs. Lloyd, assisted by Mrs. Shaw until she left, and Chitnio. There were 20 women on the average under training of a very elementary kind during the year. The Girls' Boarding School is in charge of the ladies connected with the F.E.S.; the girls are almost all the children of Christians, and usually become the wives of catechists.

Country Schools.

Mr. Lloyd, who examines the Country Schools, now almost ninety in number, says:—

I have just returned from an examination of the twenty-one schools in the Hok Chiang district, and was much pleased with the result. Of 225 children examined, 105 obtained eight-tenths of the highest possible marks, and fifty passed. It must be remembered that many of these little ones are heathen, and we cannot doubt that much fruit will hereafter appear from this seed-sowing amongst the children—indeed, already we are beginning to reap the benefit of these schools.

LIENG-KONG DISTRICT.

Lieng-Kong.

In this district, which is under Archdeacon Wolfe's superintendence, there are one Native clergyman, the Rev. Ting Sing Ang, 22 lay teachers, and eight schools with 104 pupils. The number of baptized Christians is 428, that of Communicants 226. Eleven adults were baptized during the year. The city of Lieng Kong itself, like all the cities in the province, has yielded little fruit, though night-preaching was continued all through the year. The people, however, are very friendly, and Christianity is generally spoken of with respect. The old station of Tang Iong shows some signs of revival. An inveterate opium smoker, after hearing the Word, resolved to give up the baneful pipe and to attend the service; he has been baptized, and is trying to influence others to follow his example.

LO-NGWONG DISTRICT.

The Rev. J. S. Collins has resided in the city of Lo-Ngwong since September, 1889, and he has had the charge of the district since the beginning of 1890.

Dissensions at Lo-Ngwong.

Quarrels and dissensions among the Christians have sadly marred the good work of past years in this district. Mr. Collins was much distressed at the revelations of bitterness and resentment and neglect of ordinances which he met with soon after his arrival. He writes:—

> Like the fisher-folk on the tidal flats that stretch to seaward from this town, we have been wading this year knee-deep, and often deeper far, in black and treacherous mud in pursuance of our daily toil, and, like them, we know that our only hope of safety lies in the fact that underneath all the mud one's feet are grounded on the solid rock; yea, that this very mud-flat—when it has been by patient and laborious toil enclosed within the old barrier dyke which the sea has burst open with so disastrous a flood, when the wild salt waves dash over it no more, when it has been dried and warmed by the rays of the Eternal Sun, when it has been watered with dew and rain from heaven—will be once more the fruitful field, laden as it was before, with golden rice, and green with springing corn, as are its neighbours—a scene of life, and a source of life to hundreds of thousands of dead souls.

As an illustration of what was met with, the following may be quoted:—

An effective rebuke.

> At Tiong Tang, in one large clan, out of seven brothers, six had believed. The first visit there was the sign for a storm such as I have seldom encountered. One of the brothers had been expelled from the Church on a charge of false witness, though he had previously held a position as churchwarden (or what corresponds to the office out here), and the bitterness against all in authority was intense. With open Bibles they met me text for text with bitter words and angry looks and gestures. I waited and prayed. At last the chance was given, and they listened till the word given to me brought from the second brother the angry retort, "There was only one Jesus, and He was a God, but I am a man;" but it had shown him our standard, and his own conscience showed him how far short he had fallen of it—as he confessed months afterwards with words of humble apology.

In Lo-Ngwong city the church attendance has shown an average of 45, nearly all men. Of ten families of professing Christians in the place Mr. Collins considers that only two deserve the name. In consequence of the lack of life the usual Thursday and Saturday prayer-meetings had lapsed before Mr. Collins arrived, and repeated efforts had not availed in December last to revive them. Sung-Kia, being situated on an island three miles to seaward, has escaped the unhappy contagion of discord, and is described as "the one bright spot" in the district. Mr. Collins says:—

Faithfulness and public spirit of Sung-Kia Christians.

The two leading men are in themselves pictures of what the love of Christ can make this people, and an evidence that there was a true and real work from the very first here. Just before I came an attempt had been made by the heathen to compel the Christians of the village to subscribe to a new idol temple. The richest man on the island is a Christian, and, led by him, they stoutly refused, and held their own. Not only so, but they did more. The island was reached by a stone causeway, covered at high tide. The chief village on it extends for half a mile along the side of the island facing the mainland. At the upper end, opposite the new temple, is the old causeway, so that to cross from the lower end of the village a long detour had to be made. The Christians refused to subscribe to the temple, but, to show their public spirit, offered to build a second causeway at the lower end of the island. This was done, and I was taken to see the new causeway, as a triumph, which indeed it was.

A former member of the congregation at Wong-pwang has lately removed to Lo-Ngwong, whose zeal is a great encouragement to hope for better things. Mr. Collins says of him:—

Knowledge of the Bible possessed by an illiterate Native Christian.

Living in the Roman Catholic quarter of the town, he refused to go with his neighbours, who invited him, either to worship or to gamble, and his reputation reached the ears of the priest, a Spaniard, who sent for him and talked with him for two hours, questioning him on both the Old and New Testament history. Astonished at the answers of so rough a man, he asked him how many years he had read in school. "I never was at school," said the man. "Where, then, did you learn all this?" "From reading my Bible," was the answer, and the priest was silent. Then he showed him the crucifix in the chapel. It impressed the man, but in an unexpected direction. To some minds his answer would be shocking, but to him, himself recently an idolater, it came quite naturally. "What a pity," he said, "to make an idol of the Lord Jesus Christ for the heathen to laugh at!"

Mrs. Collins has been warmly welcomed in visiting the homes of the Christian women, but meetings of women have not been possible, owing to the prevalent animosities. And what a stumbling-block to the work among the heathen the dissensions are is shown by a remark quoted by Mr. Collins,—"The Christians abuse their neighbours. We can do that without changing our religion." A high testimony is borne by Mr. Collins to the influence of the Fuh-Ning medical hospital. He says:—

Spiritual influence of Fuh-Ning Hospital.

From time to time we have persuaded sick men, who could travel so far, to make the long journey, and have sent over a dozen patients to the hospital this year. Not a single Christian so sent over has come back without spiritual benefit. I always long to get them over, quite as much for the good of their souls as of their bodies. The bright, warm Christian atmosphere of the hospital, the daily Scripture lessons morning and evening, the talks with the catechist, and, not least, the hearty Sunday services in the church, these all leave their mark, and revive the drooping souls of our poor folk.

The Rev. Ho Sëü Hok has been temporarily transferred to Fuh-Ning. His excellent wife, who was educated at Singapore under Miss Cooke, died in September.

HOK-CHIANG DISTRICT.

Ingathering in Hok-Chiang district.

A large ingathering was vouchsafed last year in the district of Hok-Chiang, which is under Archdeacon Wolfe's superintendence. Over sixty families, consisting of nearly 400 members, joined the congregations as adherents. In the Hong-A pastorate especially the increase was such that a new pastorate seemed a necessity. At Tiang Taing the congregation now numbers 150, eleven families having joined in the village of Lu-A. The Archdeacon gives the following list of villages in the whole district in which C.M.S. Native Christians reside:—

List of Villages containing Christians in Hok-Chiang.

Hok-Chiang, Ka Tau, Lu-A, Ngiang Tau, Keng Kiang, Keng Tau, Hong-A, Tiang Taing, Tong Kang, Siong Siek, Pah Heik, Kang Pieng, Wong Kwang, Teng Aaing, A-Hai, Ting Chong, Sang Teng, Seng Tong, Sang Au, Kwang-A, Sa Keng Pieng, Chang Tau, Tiong Lieng, Teng Hung, Ting-A, Lau-A, Tiang Pieng, Chiang Wang, Chung Chio, Ko Sang Che, Au te tie, Sa Keng, Nang Seng, Cheng Moi, Hai Sang.

The staff consists of one Native pastor, the Rev. Lau Taik Ong, and 42 lay teachers, and there are 21 schools and 244 scholars. The number of baptized Christians is 1,074, of catechumens 1,759, while there are 628 communicants.

HING-HWA DISTRICT.

Hing-Hwa

This district also has seen a considerable increase in the number of adherents, the total being 891 as compared with 404 at the end of 1889. The Rev. Ll. Lloyd is responsible for the oversight of the work. In the village of Taeng Ting the Christians now number 150, and these out of their deep poverty have subscribed in money 90 dollars towards the erection of a church and school and catechist's house, besides giving 1,500 days' work, tiles, bricks, &c. At King Tong an elderly man who formerly opposed the introduction of Christianity into the village, has now enrolled his name as an inquirer.

FUH-NING AND NING-TAIK DISTRICTS.

Fuh-Ning.

Dr. Van Someren Taylor accounts 1890 as his "happiest year in China." Quiet progress has characterized the work of evangelization, ten inquirers having been added to the list. Miss E. Goldie, assisted by Miss M. D. Boileau, conducted a Christian Women's School with nine students, and a Girls' School with 24 pupils. The out-patients at the Hospital were 4,164, the in-patients 377, and 1,200 patients were seen in the country. Dr. Taylor's senior students made tours to Sang Soa, Fuh Ang, and Ning-Taik. Their visit to the last-named place resulted in a shop being rented to be used as a bookshop; although the efforts of the Rev. Ting-Sing-Ki to rent one had been unsuccessful. A catechist in this district mentioned at the meeting of the Church Council that on arriving at a particular village he found the people unwilling to give him a hearing, they supposing that he belonged to the Roman Catholics. On his mentioning, however, that he belonged to the same Christians as those at Fuh-Ning, the people said, "Oh! the Fuh-Ning hospital doctrine is very good," and they willingly listened to him. During the holidays in January and July the ladies at Fuh-Ning visited Ning-Taik and the village out-stations. At one place, Siang-O, they remained three days as guests in a Chinese household consisting of thirty Christians. Miss Goldie says, "It did our hearts good to see this large household assemble for morning and evening prayers."

Ning-Taik.

"The Fuh-Ning hospital doctrine is very good."

KU-CHENG, PING-NANG, AND IONG-PING DISTRICTS.

These districts were under the Rev. C. Shaw until he left the Mission to take furlough. Although on the College staff he yet managed to visit them for the quarterly meetings of the Councils, when he usually baptized such as had been prepared for that Sacrament by the catechists. Bishop Burdon confirmed 111 in these districts in October. The Rev. W. and Mrs. Banister have now resumed residence at Ku-Cheng.

KIONG-NING DISTRICT.

Occupation of a suburb of Kiong-Ning by Native Medical Catechists.

The Rev. H. S. Phillips and Dr. J. Rigg were stationed at Nang-Wa-Kau during the year. In April two medical catechists took up their residence at Tai Chin, a suburb of the city of Kiong-Ning Fu, about a stone's throw from the west gate, where they commenced medical work. Dr. Rigg relates the progress of this venture of faith and courage:—

Native opinions regarding the Medical Mission.

We heard of the gentry of Kiong Ning (the "lieng kak," who on former occasions drove the Christians out) meeting and discussing the new venture in Tai Chin; they went to the mandarin and drew his attention to what was being done. That official said, "They are all Natives, and what they do is good; no foreigner has come. Wait two months and see how they go on." The work went on, and from time to time we heard expressions of opinion. One man said, "I have lived here for over fifty years, and never saw people giving away medicine and treating sickness for nothing; I can't make out what the meaning of this business is." I hope he will understand it some day. Others said, "When the Jesus-doctrine people came here before, they only spoke Foochow, and we could not make out their doctrine; but now you speak Kiong Ning, and we can hear that your doctrine is good."

And so our people carefully and quietly worked, seeking to attract no marked attention, but using what opportunities presented for teaching the people the Gospel. But on Sunday night, June 15, we received what threatened to be a serious check. Two of the workers came down to Nang Wa post-haste, saying that there was collecting of subscriptions going on for a large annual idolatrous procession, and though our people had refused several times to subscribe, the people were still pressing them, and had given them notice that if they did not conform to the custom of the place in which they had come to live, and subscribe, they would be turned away and the house probably pulled down. The Native Christians did not know what to do, and came down to us to consult. After careful thought and prayer, Messrs. Knox, Phillips, and myself decided there was only one thing to be done, viz., to refuse to subscribe, and to tell the people we had come there for their good, but that if they were determined not to have us, we would quietly but with sad hearts leave them. The Natives returned to what both they and we feared would be trying persecution and insult; the surgical instruments and other valuable things were got together so as to be easily preserved in event of a disturbance, and the fixed day drew on. We, in Nang Wa, were daily in prayer, and when the day came we recognized in the heavy drenching rain the protecting care of God, for through the heavy rain no crowd gathered and all was quiet. But, in addition, the owner of the house having heard there was a likelihood of his property being injured, went to the leaders of the idolatrous arrangements, and said, "I know those hospital people won't give you any money, and it is a pity my house should be injured; I will pay their subscription if you are willing." To this they agreed, but our people made it known to every one that the owner of the house had paid the money of his own will, and that we would on no account countenance idolatry, but if there were a road or bridge to be mended, we would subscribe to that. So the matter, to our joy, ended, and since then the work has gone on in complete peace.

"The Hospital people won't give any money for idolatrous processions."

From the beginning until December 13, that is in seven and a half months, there have been treated 89 opium patients, that is, men who have stayed in hospital ten days and been cured of their opium habit; also 4,500 new patients, and 7,100 return visits of patients; 300 minor operations, chiefly opening of abscesses; in one way and another, a total of visits to hospital of 11,500 times. The chief student has been in attendance on the military mandarin for three weeks, and has successfully treated him, his wife, and child. That is a matter of some consequence to us. A patient from the city of Cheng Hwa, whose ulcerated foot was rapidly healing, had a rather expensive lacquered board made, and inscribed with the praise of his doctors and the particulars of his case, and this he presented to the hospital; it is now hung in a conspicuous place, and is a decided ornament.

Native Medical Evangelist called in to attend a Mandarin.

In Nang Wa, only one old man, and he a Native of Hing-Hwa, is a regular attendant at the Sunday services; but two of the hospital patients, one a literary man from Kucheng, the other a poor leprous boy, have given encouragement. 175 in-patients, besides 264 opium patients, were treated; a record of the out-patients was not kept for the whole year. Mr. Phillips made bookselling tours in April and October, going on each occasion to the confines of Kiang-si, the next province to Fuh Kien westward. The people of Kien Yang city were very friendly, although gambling and opium eating are vices common to both men and women in the place; a vigorous sale of books took place. In the beautiful Bohea Hills a Buddhist priest was met with, who was a most interested purchaser; he said he knew Buddhism was absurd, but then it was his living, and he added, "It is very miserable." Mr. Phillips appeals for reinforcements. He says, "God says, Forward; will His Church say, Stand still, or Backward? There is room for all kinds of labourers who put Jesus Christ first."

A Buddhist priest acknowledges that Buddhism is "very miserable."

CHEH-KIANG PROVINCE: Ningpo, 1848; Hang-Chow, 1861; Shaou-hing, 1870.

A HEAVY and very unexpected loss was experienced by the Mission in the autumn through the death of the Rev. T. H. Harvey, which occurred at sea on August 19. Mr. Harvey was a graduate of Exeter College, Oxford, and curate of Portsea. He joined the Mission at the commencement of 1889, and was stationed at Ningpo. On August 13, 1890, he was married to Miss Higginbotham, and sailed from Shanghai on the Death of Rev. T. H. Harvey.

17th, for a trip to Japan. He was seized with cholera on the following day and died at noon on the 19th. Very specially and solemnly and prayerfully do the Committee sympathize with Mrs. Harvey, thus sadly bereaved of one to whom she had been so recently united by the nearest and dearest of all earthly ties. Mr. Harvey's last letter to the Secretaries was dated July 11, and concluded, having reference to a proposal that he with his wife, after their marriage, should take the work in the T'ai-Chow District, with the words, "I only want you to know that we are ready to go there or anywhere, far or near, or to stay here (though we should like to go forward). I earnestly pray God to show His way and His will." And to a Missionary brother then at home, the Rev. J. C. Hoare, he wrote, "If ever I am spared to come home for a while, one of the greatest privileges I look forward to is to stand where you stood that Sunday (the pulpit of the church at Portsea, where he had been curate), and plead for the regions beyond, for this great, dark, hungry China."

"This great, dark, hungry China."

The reinforcements sent out in the autumn and winter consisted of the Rev. W. G. Walshe, an Islington student, who was ordained Deacon by the Bishop of London, on Trinity Sunday, 1890; Dr. F. W. Browning, L.R.C.P., Edinburgh, who was engaged in the Edinburgh Medical Mission, and subsequently, while studying theology at Islington, worked in connexion with the Seven Dials Medical Mission, and Mrs. Browning (née Miss Margaret Wood Drummond); Miss B. Bullock, daughter of the Rev. Charles Bullock, editor of Home Words, &c.; Miss Louisa H. Barnes; Miss G. Wells; and Miss Alice Entwistle. The two last-named ladies have gone out with the view to joining eventually a party, which it is hoped the Rev. J. H. Horsburgh will take out later, for new work in the Province of Sz-Chuen. The following returned to the Mission: the Rev. J. C. and Mrs. Hoare, the Rev. J. and Mrs. Neale, and Mrs. C. J. F. S. Symons. On the other hand, Dr. and Mrs. Duncan Main and Miss A. L. Wright have come home on furlough; Mrs. Valentine and Mrs. Harvey have come home in consequence of the deaths of their respective husbands; and Miss E. Milligan has resigned her connexion with the Society.

Reinforcements.

Bishop Moule admitted the Revs. Sing Tsae-Seng and Nyi Liang-P'ing to Priest's Orders on October 12 and December 25 respectively, the former at Ningpo, the latter at Hang-Chow. On the latter occasion the Ordination sermon was preached by the Rev. Dzing Ts-Sing, one of the Ningpo pastors, and the Bishop wrote in a private letter to Archdeacon Moule regarding it and the service:—

Ordinations.

Sermon by a Native pastor.

I wish you could have heard the sermon. It was not short—forty-five minutes; but Coultas said he could not have believed it more than twenty-five, and the attention that followed it was marked by the cessation of coughing throughout its delivery. You know his manner—earnest, serious, sometimes eager, never excited. But, well as I ought to know him, I was not prepared for the thorough goodness of the matter and the quiet dignity of the manner, with an excellent management of the voice. It was pure Ningpo, but the Ningpo of a gentleman, and so some of our Hang-Chow-speaking friends thought it must have had a spice of mandarin in it. I "thanked God and took courage" as my dear old pupil preached the Gospel, and admonished his younger brother and the rest of us to "make full proof of our ministry" (2 Tim. iv.). Elwin read shortened Morning Prayer, and presented the candidate, Dzing assisting me at the Communion; and these two brethren were joined by Coultas and Neale at the imposition of hands.

SHANGHAI.

Shanghai. Mr. Arthur J. H. Moule and Mr. W. H. Moule have been the only European Missionaries representing the Society in this large city since Archdeacon and Mrs. Moule left in March, 1890. The former has carried on the work of the secretariat, and has pursued his studies and translation work. He is engaged on a translation of the Religious Tract Society's Old Testament Commentary, and has finished the book of Genesis and done part of Exodus. He says:—

Translation work. I must say one word about my teacher, whom I have had by my side ever since my arrival in China. I learn from those who are competent to judge that he is an accurate and painstaking scholar. I am able from personal observation to add that he is a careful and thorough teacher. It may be well, perhaps, to give a slight sketch of the method I adopt with my teacher in translating. I dictate first of all a running translation of the commentary under our notice, which my teacher reproduces at once in the Romanized colloquial. When we have gone through two or three chapters in this way, we turn the colloquial into "character," the teacher giving me hints while I write (with the usual upright Chinese pen). The final stage is then reached by the teacher copying out my Chinese characters in his neat and scholarly handwriting. The last revision is done, when we read rapidly through together the fair copy. This is only done when a whole book is finished.

Mr. W. H. Moule is master of the Anglo-Chinese School.

NINGPO.

Ningpo. The staff of Missionaries at Ningpo, already reduced by furloughs, was rendered extremely feeble by the death of the Rev. T. H. Harvey, and by the return home of Mrs. Harvey, who had laboured acceptably at this station before her marriage. The arrival, however, of the Rev. J. C. and Mrs. Hoare, Mrs. Symons, Dr. and Mrs. Browning, and Miss Bullock at the beginning of this year, has somewhat more than restored the number to its normal strength.

Training College. The Rev. W. S. Moule reports on the Training College, which had thirty-two students during the year. Four of the youths were accepted by Conference to be engaged as schoolmasters, on the condition that they passed a satisfactory examination in writing Chinese and Roman characters. Their general knowledge was highly approved, and they did exceedingly well in Scripture, while Mr. Moule has no doubt of the reality of their Christian character. The occasional addresses of the senior master, the Rev. Sing Tsae-Seng, at the morning and evening prayers, are often calculated to be very helpful. Two of the boys were confirmed. On being asked, "How do you feel when you hear the Lord Jesus evil spoken of?" one of them replied, "Like a thorn piercing." There are twelve Day Schools, with 167 scholars, connected with the College, but situated in the several pastorates, viz.: four in Ningpo East, the same number in Ningpo West, two at Z-ky'i, and two at Saen-Poh. Mr. Moule thus describes a visit to one of these schools:—

I feel "like a thorn piercing."

A country Day-school

I should like good people at home to see the schoolmaster's home. We rent one room in the upper storey of the house. This is his school and living-room. He cooks his own rice, of course, below, on the fire-place of those who rent the lower room. In this lower room just now congregate numbers of hill-men carrying bamboo shoots to the plain for the Ningpo and other markets. They stop at this place to have them weighed, an operation not conducted in absolute silence, as you may understand. The Chinaman shouts when he speaks; especially if it is a question of cash that is being debated. Here we found a little school gathered of nine boys, six of whom were presented for examination. The school has suffered much from interruption and opposition, but I think it is pulling up now. We found the boys very well prepared, and were able to put three in the first class for Old Testament (Exodus), and four for New Testament (St. Luke).

Hospital.

The fourth Annual Report of the Mission Hospital which has been voluntarily conducted by Dr. Daly, the doctor of the port, states that 198 were received during the year as in-patients, and that 4,826 out-patients were treated; 57 of the in-patients were admitted to be cured of opium-smoking. Dr. Daly's remarks on this habit and its effects deserve attention. He says:—

Is Opium the curse of China?

If careful inquiry is made, it will be found that the moderate use of opium is the rare exception, the abuse the rule; that gradually and steadily the habit grows, and the dose is increased. True, a few are found who do not fall victims to the craving, or are able to give up the habit. But where the great curse is most apparent is amongst the labouring classes, who only earn enough by daily labour to feed, clothe, and house their families, and who, when they become opium-smokers, find this beyond their powers, and, consequently, their families are ill fed and poorly clad, their health breaks down, they commit crime, their children are sold, and their women prostituted to procure this fatal drug.

China was not strong enough years ago to prevent the importation of opium; she is not strong enough now to prevent its cultivation by her own people.

Years will show whether opium is the great curse that it has so often been described to be. That it is so is not yet proved; but these facts are: that its use is rapidly extending; that opium-smokers beget few and unhealthy children; that although it does not, to any great extent, lead to violent crime like drink, yet indirectly it is the cause of appalling misery and crime of the most revolting and degrading nature; and furthermore, that only one crop of rice, and that a late one, can be grown after the early crop of poppy, thus diminishing and endangering the food supply.

Taking these facts into consideration, it is possible and probable that opium will prove "the curse of China," by diminishing the population to an injurious extent, producing an unhealthy race, and turning millions of these peaceful, sober, industrious masses into a degraded and vicious people, with what effect on this great nation time alone will prove.

Women's Hospital.

The Women's Hospital, which is a branch of the other, was superintended by Miss French, of the C.E.Z.M.S. (now Mrs. Daly), from whose report the following is taken:—

We have morning and evening prayers regularly, conducted either by Phœbe (the Native helper) or myself. The patients are frequently visited by myself and other ladies of the Mission. During the winter I went with Phœbe to visit a Mrs. Tong, an old patient, who had been in hospital about February, 1889. Her husband is a rich man, and they live in a large house not far from Z-ky'i. We had a most hearty welcome, and during our visit had much opportunity for reading, explanation, and prayer. I was specially pleased to find that Mrs. Tong's amah, who had been with her, remembered the whole of the Lord's Prayer, and part of the hymn, "There is a fountain filled with blood," and had taught them to one of the daughters. Another servant in the house was also very attentive to hear the Gospel, and long after I had gone to bed Phœbe continued talking to her. Just lately Mrs. Tong came here on a visit, bringing her sister-in-law to have her eyes treated. She also listened with interest, and Mrs. Tong, I think, truly believes in Christ, although she has not yet courage to apply for baptism. The men of the family have requested a missionary to visit them.

Pastorates

Bishop Moule has kindly forwarded translations of the reports regarding the Pastorates, given by the four Native pastors, all in Priest's Orders. Following the order in which the Bishop gives them, the first is North Z-ky'i, the pastor of which, the Rev. Sing Eng-teh, resides at Kwun-hæ-we. This pastorate extends from 30 to 50 miles north of Ningpo. Mr. Sing Eng-teh says:—

With respect to the work of evangelization, in all parts of the Sanpoh, near and far, there has generally been a readiness to listen. Although few have believed and embraced the Gospel, there has not been a single case of opposition. Not only so, there has been in places a general approval of the Gospel, and in places a deeply respectful assent to it. We shall surely see, as a result, a wide spread of the Gospel and the decay of Satan's power.

As to the assistance of our Church members, at one time they showed no concern in evangelizing, but this year a warden in Kwun-hæ-we city has very zealously preached the Gospel, and at Ming-ngoh-dziang [a large town four miles from Kwun-hæ-we] there are members who, with the same zeal, join in the preaching. These cases are the results of God's grace.

The second pastorate is that of Z-ky'i Hsien, extending from 5 to 25 miles north of Ningpo. The pastor, the Rev. 'Ô Kwông-Yiao, resides at Z-ky'i city, 15 miles from Ningpo. The Ningpo Fu West pastorate is under the Rev. Wông Yiu-Kwông, who resides in the north quarter of Ningpo city. The district extends some 20 miles into the Western Hills. The pastor writes:—

To sum up, although the District Church be in a somewhat better state than heretofore, yet causes for anxiety are many, occasions of comfort few.

We hope our revered friends will pray for us; as the Apostle Paul says, "Ye also helping us with your prayers, so that for the grace obtained by the prayers of many, the intercessors may have occasion to give thanks."

The Ningpo Fu East pastorate is under the Rev. Dzing Ts-Sing, who also resides in Ningpo, about one mile from Mr. Wông. His charge extends from 15 to 20 miles east and south of the city. He says:—

Of the members of the several congregations, some have broken rules [? the Lord's Day rest] under pressure of their callings, some have rebelled under temptation, which is a great grief to me: yet, on the whole, most of my people are firm in the faith and earnestly pious. For instance, at my city church of Sing-yi Dông, at Moh-ts-in on the East Lake, and at Zi-kô-du in Vong-hwô (south), there are among the members of each of these three churches some who, without pay or support, frequently go out to evangelize, and gladly give help in church matters. And our people, men and women, are generally united in friendship and charity. Could this be without the special motion of God?

T'ai-Chow

The T'ai-Chow Christians have also been organized into a pastorate, under the Rev. Dzing Teh-Kwông. It is, however, independent of the Ningpo Church Council, on account of the distance. Mr. Walter Moule describes the company of believers as "a warm-hearted, steadily growing little church." The elders assist in evangelistic work.

SHAOU-HING.

Shaou-hing.

The Rev. E. P. Wheatley wonders "whether Annual Letters are read with much attention." If they are, he cannot understand how it is that a district like that of Shaou-hing, with a population of about a million, should have been left for years with only one Missionary. The arrival of the Rev. W. G. Walshe in December tended somewhat to reassure him, but he still laments that the reinforcement was only one. Four adult baptisms, of two men and two women, took place during the year. Both the men had heard the Gospel from the lips of the late Rev. J. D. Valentine. One of them, Mr. Wheatley says, is "a splendid young fellow," about twenty-five years of age. He is a maker of fireworks, and, as these fireworks are chiefly used for idolatrous purposes, he had to give up his comparatively lucrative trade and become a field labourer. Daily preaching was carried on in the Preaching Room in Great Street, and during the summer months this was done in the evenings also on five nights of the week. As there are only two catechists, this could only be accomplished with the help of volunteers, which help did not fail. Mr. Wheatley says:—

Baptism of a fireworks maker.

Preaching-room.

Our plan was that two men should be responsible for each night, but generally we had five or six preachers present. It was not easy work. Fancy about one hundred persons crowded into a room which seats sixty or seventy, most of them but partially clothed—the majority with one small garment and a fan—the temperature 90°, and you can imagine that it required some self-denial upon the part of the helpers to attend regularly. An interesting point in connexion with this effort was the providing of tea (a necessity for the speakers) and light from a little fund subscribed by the members of the men's prayer-meeting. Our plan was for each man to select a text in turn, the week's text being written out on Monday and posted up so that each one intending to speak might prepare beforehand. I take the selection for one week—the first list that comes to hand: Monday, St. Matt. iii. 2; Tuesday, St. John iii. 35, 36; Wednesday, St. John vii. 37; Thursday, 1 Tim. ii. 5; Friday, 1 Tim. ii. 6.

Dispensary.

A Dispensary was opened in March, and has been worked by two medical evangelists trained by Dr. Duncan Main, at Hang-Chow. Unhappily, one of these young men was accidentally drowned in August. The medical work has been found very valuable in itinerating. Mr. Wheatley says:—

"Mr. Foreigner, I am coming."

Wherever we met with anyone who had been in Hang-Chow Hospital, we were sure to have a big crowd coming for advice. At one place we were kept busily engaged from two until six o'clock, and then after we had gone about a mile on our journey, I heard a voice in the distance behind us, calling out, "Mr. Foreigner, Mr. Foreigner, I am coming." I told the boatmen to wait, and soon a poor fellow came up to us in a small fishing-boat which he had borrowed. He was quite tired out from his exertions, as he was no great hand with the short fisherman's paddle. He had suffered many things from many physicians, and was nothing bettered but rather grew worse. He had besought the idols, but got no good. Our medical brother examined him, and I was glad to hear him say that he had every hope of curing him of his complaint. We gave him an extra supply of medicine, and, not least, spoke to him of the great Physician, prayed with him and taught him to pray. He took a Gospel and a tract away with him, and as we left him he kept saluting us and thanking us with genuine tears of gratitude in his eyes.

A patient follows 13 miles over the hills.

In the hill district on one occasion a poor fellow was carried in a chair thirteen English miles over the hills, following us from place to place until he found us. Alas! there was no hope of his recovery, he was far gone in consumption. He listened attentively to the Gospel, and then told us he had often heard it before from his brother, who was a catechist attached to the Presbyterian Church, and who had often pressed him to become a Christian. We urged him to communicate with his brother, and this he promised to do.

During a tour in the spring in the direction of the Chu-ki district (indeed they reached within ten miles of the Rev. A. Elwin's furthest out-station), Mr. Wheatley sold 700 portions of the Scriptures, and met with several who showed much interest in their message. One man had learnt by heart the hymn, "Jesus who lives above the sky," and had taught several boys to repeat it.

HANG-CHOW.

Hang-Chow Hospital.

The changes in the staff in Hang Chow have been the departure of Dr. and Mrs. Main and Miss A. L. Wright, and the arrival of the Rev. J. and Mrs. Neale. Dr. Main brought home the Report of the Hospital for 1889. Over 8,000 out-patients and 450 in-patients were registered. Of the latter ninety-eight were opium-smokers. There were ninety-one suicide cases, opium being the poison used in eighty-two of them, and no less than eleven of these would-be suicides were under twenty years of age. In addition to the hospital and dispensary work, more than 2,000 patients were visited in the country, and at their own homes. The report says :—

"Universal Benevolent Healing Office."

The name of the hospital in Chinese is, "The Universal Benevolent Healing Office," and the statistics of the year will show that not only in name, but also in practice, it is widely benevolent; it bestows untold benefit on thousands of human sufferers of every name, rank, and occupation, and sends forth a stream of practical benevolence and rays of Gospel light into hundreds of villages, hamlets, and homes in every part of the province. A short account of how our out-patient work is carried on may be of interest to some of our friends. The following notes were taken on February 12. At 8.30 a.m. the patients begin to assemble at the gate. On admission the name, age, and residence of each patient is demanded by a clerk, who enters the same in a register kept for the purpose. An entrance fee of 14 cash is charged, in exchange for which a small bamboo ticket is handed to the patient; these tickets are numbered and regulate the order in which the patients enter the consulting-room. From the entrance-hall the patients pass on to the waiting-room, which is large, clean, airy, well-ventilated, and provided with very comfortable seats; Scripture pictures of Chinese art adorn the walls. In the waiting-room an evangelist and Bible-woman invite the patients to be seated, and then go in for buttonhole theology, and in a plain, personal, and practical way tell them of Jesus the Physician of souls. The patients listen with respect and attention, some show great interest in the Gospel story, and many buy portions of the Scriptures, tracts, &c.

"Buttonhole theology."

At ten a big bell rings and summons us to the consulting-room, where, with our students, evangelists, &c., we kneel in prayer and ask God to help us, and enable us to use our skill and medicine as a means to an end, and successfully reach the inner man through the outer. Prayer finished, we commence our work.

Then follows an account of fifty-four out-patients who were treated on the date named. One was an opium-smoker who stated that his average daily earnings were 100 cash, of which seventy cash went for opium, and thirty towards household expenses. His wife and children provided for themselves by winding silk.

Miss M. Vaughan and Miss A. L. Wright were encouraged in their work of visiting the women and instructing them in classes. Miss Wright says :—

Women's Classes.

There have been plenty of opportunities for sowing the seed, but looking back one is very conscious of often having failed to take advantage of them. Still, I do humbly trust that something has been done, and that the Holy Spirit is working in the hearts of some of the women and girls who have listened to the Gospel story for the first time this year. My class for heathen women has been very encouraging as far as numbers are concerned, and a good deal of real interest has been shown by several of the women at various times, especially lately, since they have begun to ask all kinds of questions, and sometimes stay after the class for further teaching. The Bible-woman is capital at this kind of work, she is most apt in her illustrations, and so patient in explaining over and over again anything they do not understand; I cannot be thankful enough for her help. We are praying and expecting to see more decided results from these classes in the future; but meantime we are very thankful for every token of interest amongst the women, and for the large number (over 50) who belong to the class and come, more or less regularly, to hear of the love of Jesus.

Out-stations.

Evangelistic Work in the city and along the Tsien-tang River as far as Yen-Chow Fu, a city one hundred miles above Hang Chow, is the labour assigned to the Rev. G. W. Coultas. He bemoans the inadequacy of the instrumentality, especially as, except in the city itself, there are no other agents engaged in the extensive district except himself and his single Native catechist. There are some promising inquirers in a town called Ven-Kya-ien, near to Pond-head, eight miles from Hang Chow, among them a doctor. Yangtsang, 45 miles further up the river, is also encouraging, and one was baptized there on Whit Sunday by Mr. Coultas.

Of the extent and population of the Chu-ki district, the Rev. A. Elwin says :—

> The district is divided by the Government into 84½ divisions, each division containing about 5,000 families. What has been done to bring the Gospel message home to these thousands and thousands of people? I answer, hardly anything. During the past year twenty-two adults were baptized, and we do indeed thank God for these twenty-two precious souls; but what are they, I ask, among so many? Considering the efforts put forth they are far more than we deserve. Twenty-two adults baptized in one year means that only $\frac{1}{470000}$th part of the adult population received baptism last year.

Miss Vaughan spent nearly four months of the year in this district. She writes :—

A lady Missionary in Chu-ki.

> We were most kindly received by the people, who were exceedingly friendly to us all the time. I think our wearing Native dress disarmed their suspicions. I had good and ever-increasing audiences at our daily evening worship, and some seemed to be convinced of the truth of Christianity when we left, though no one had the courage to confess Christ. But I think the most hopeful work there was amongst the children. They came daily for lessons, and during our stay there they learnt a great many Bible-stories, besides hymns, and part of a short catechism. I found a little doctoring very helpful as an evangelistic agency, and a small organ which I took with me was a great attraction.

First General Election under New Constitution.

THE year 1890 was remarkable in Japan for the first General Election to a Parliament under the New Constitution. Three hundred representatives were elected, and it is a notable fact that among them were fourteen Christians. It is still more significant that the members of the Lower House chose a Christian among the three whose names they submitted to the Emperor for one to be appointed President, and that this man, Mr. Nakajima, a member of the Presbyterian Church, was selected. Consequently the first President of the first Japanese Parliament is a Christian. Another Christian was chosen as Chairman of Committees. With what interest the Native Christians generally regarded this epoch in the political history of their country, and with how much joy and thankfulness they hail the incidents above-mentioned, is illustrated in the following quotation from a letter by the Rev. A. B. Hutchinson, of Fukuoka, written in November :—

A Christian appointed President.

The first meeting of the representatives was on Tuesday, the 25th inst. The members of the three Churches here, the Congregational, Methodist, and our own, agreed to hold a special united prayer-meeting on the evening of Tuesday, 25th, on behalf of the new Parliament, the first in the history of their country, besides a daily meeting at 6 a.m. in the most central and convenient building, the Methodist Church. When the proceedings commenced it was full to overflowing, nearly 500 being present. Suitable passages of Scripture were read, and fervent prayers offered by members of the different Churches. As the proceedings were about to close, a telegram from Tokio announcing the names of the three nominees arrived, and the gratitude with which the announcement that the head of the list was a Presbyterian brother was received found utterance in hearty thanksgiving, and was manifested in joyous mutual congratulations. On Friday it was known that his Majesty the Emperor had appointed Mr. Nakajima, the Christian gentleman previously referred to, the first President of the House of Representatives. Surely such an event speaks eloquently of the altered state of affairs in Japan, and we do right to view it as an encouragement to quiet and persevering efforts to win the sons and daughters of Japan to Christ.

Nevertheless, a reminder regarding the work which is still before the Church, which the Rev. W. P. Buncombe gives, is opportune. He says :—

Work still to be done.

When I was coming out to Japan I was often told that in about ten years—i.e. seven years more—Japan would become a Christian country, not needing missionaries! To-day there are forty millions in Japan, and not forty thousand Christians (Protestant), i.e. one in 1,000. For every two Christians there are five Buddhist temples, not to mention Shinto temples. There are 10,000 more head-priests of Buddhism than there are Protestant Christians, and for every single Christian of every denomination, at least two Buddhist priests (not head-priests).

Serious problems:

Mr. Hutchinson in his Annual Letter dwells upon a special danger which arises from the intense national feeling of the Japanese Christians, and to other dangers of a still more serious kind. He says:—

how to guide the feeling of National independence,

I remember that twelve years ago, when spending a few days in Tokio, there was a meeting of Japanese representatives from the different Churches, at which was mooted the desirability of bidding foreign teachers adieu, and setting out on the Christian course on Japanese lines with the Scriptures as the sole guide. That proposal was then negatived owing to the good sense of some who recognized the gravity of such a step, and their own want of preparation for it. But the idea has never been abandoned, and it is now both widely spread and deeply felt that the forms and ceremonies and institutions of Christianity generally must be overhauled and re-shaped by Japanese minds and hands, apart from foreign interference, the reason being, not that our present forms and regulations are unsuitable, but simply that they have been made by foreigners, therefore something different must be set up by Japanese alone. Let us not call this childish, but sympathetically recognize it as the outcome of an intense national feeling, more than a wave of passion sweeping over the land—rather the welling forth of an irresistible stream of long pent-up patriotism. How to meet this, and, whilst avoiding the semblance of opposition, which would be futile, to guide in a safe, because Scriptural, direction is the serious problem which is before us. Unhappily Unitarianism has been presented lately in a most fascinating guise, promising all that is good in Christianity without the essential, the foundation truths concerning sin and atonement and regeneration and sanctification. This has laid hold of the Native mind, and is doing untold harm to the infant churches. Besides this, owing to the spread of un-Christian teaching generally, there is great danger lest the minds of our people be turned aside from the faith by specious doctrines of a materialistic and speculative philosophy which is being warmly welcomed even by many Native Christian teachers.

Statistics.

The Annual Statement of Bishop Bickersteth gives the statistics of the Church, English and Japanese, under his charge. There are 35 English Clergymen, 5 laymen, and 28 ladies. Of the clergy 22 are connected with the C.M.S., of the laymen one, and of the ladies 15; but five other ladies are working in the Society's Mission, viz., two C.E.Z.M.S., two F.E.S., and one independent. There are eleven Native Clergymen, of whom five are connected with C.M.S. The "Church members" number 2,659, and the communicants 1,339. The corresponding C.M.S. figures are 1,750 and 995. In the C.M.S. Mission there were 244 adult baptisms during the year, and 84 children were received into the Church. There are 187 catechumens.

Reinforcements.

Japan has received the largest reinforcement relatively to the size of the Mission, which has been sent out during the year. Including two engaged in the Mission, eight men, their wives, and seven single ladies have been added to the staff. First must be mentioned, with special thankfulness, an associated band, the leader of which has taken responsibility for the expenses, both of travelling and maintenance, of all the party. These are the Rev. Barclay Fowell Buxton, M.A. of Trinity College, Cambridge, son of Mr. J. F. Buxton, of Easneye, and late Curate of St. Paul's, Onslow Square, and of Stanwix, and Mrs. Buxton; Miss S. J. Thompson; and Miss M. Sander. These, together with Mr. and Mrs. F. Parrott and Mr. Wynd, who are members of the party, but not on the Society's list, sailed early in October. In the course of the same and two following months, the following sailed:—The Rev. Horace McC. E. Price, M.A. of Trinity College, Cambridge, transferred from the West Africa Mission, and Mrs. Price (née Miss Millard); The Rev. Charles Theodore Warren, B.A. of Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, and Islington College, son of the Senior Missionary and Secretary of this Mission, the Rev. C. F. Warren; the Rev. David Marshall Lang, M.A. of Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, Curate of St. Mark's, Reigate; the Rev. Sidney Swann, M.A., Trinity Hall, Cambridge, Curate of Sulby, Isle of Man, and formerly of St. Andrew's, Plymouth, and Mrs. Swann; the Rev. H. L. Bleby, Islington College, who was ordained by the Bishop of London on Trinity Sunday, 1890; Miss S. L. Fawcett; Miss Mary Hunt; Miss Grace Nott; Miss Hannah Riddell; and Miss Eliza Ritson. Mr. and Mrs. Swann are Honorary Missionaries. In addition to the above, Mr. Charles Nettleship, who served for six years in the Army in India as regimental schoolmaster, but went to Japan in 1889 with a view to engaging in Missionary work, and laboured there for some months as a teacher of English at Tokushima, has been accepted as a Missionary of the Society in local connexion. Two ladies were temporarily engaged in the same way, but they resigned a few months after their acceptance.

The Rev. J. and Mrs. Batchelor sailed in May to return to the Mission. The Rev. T. and Mrs. Dunn have come home on sick leave, and Miss Brandram for needed rest.

Ordination

Bishop Bickersteth has appointed the Rev. C. F. Warren, the Secretary of the Mission, Archdeacon of Osaka; and he admitted Mr. Stephen Koba to Deacon's Orders on June 15, at Tokio.

I. THE MAIN ISLAND.

OSAKA.

Osaka.

THERE was much sickness in the city and neighbourhood of Osaka during the past year, as indeed there was throughout the country. Cholera in the summer proved terribly fatal to the Japanese, and influenza affected multitudes both of Natives and foreigners, some of the cases being of a severe type. Among the European missionaries the Revs. T. Dunn, W. P. Buncombe, and G. Chapman, Miss Tapson, Miss Tristram and Miss Riddell were all sufferers. Happily, none were very serious cases except

Mr. Dunn's, who, after his previous illness of twelve months' duration, was rendered so prostrate that his return home was decided upon; and Miss Tapson's, who was sent to Hong Kong in December for change and rest.

Divinity School.

The Rev. P. K. Fyson conducted the Divinity School, assisted during the greater part of the year by the Rev. G. Chapman. Two of the students passed a satisfactory final examination at midsummer, one being placed in the first class with high commendation, the other in the second class. They were appointed to labour as catechists at Tokio and Ogaki respectively, the latter place being an out-station of Gifu. The number of students at the commencement of the new school year in September was only fourteen, owing to the second and third year men having been assigned to country work for a year with a view to both proving and improving their gifts and capacities for spiritual work.

Boys' High School.

The Boys' High School was commenced by the Rev. T. Dunn, with two pupils, both Christians, in January, 1890, in temporary quarters, viz., a house which had been used as a Shinto preaching place, the shrine having to be removed from the courtyard when the school was opened. A few weeks later the number had increased to 18. Then Mr. Dunn's illness began and the charge devolved on the Rev. J. Hind. In January of the present year the new buildings were publicly opened at Tennoji, on the south-east side of Osaka, about three miles from the Foreign Concession, and the new Principal and Vice-Principal, the Revs. H. McC. E. Price and H. L. Bleby, entered upon their duties. Being out of the Concession, it is necessary for them to hold passports, but, the neighbourhood being one in which there are many Buddhist temples, it is hoped the school will be instrumental in carrying the influence of the Gospel into the very centre of Buddhist influence, after having occupied for a while Shinto premises in the city. The new buildings contain classroom accommodation for 80 to 100 boys, and dormitories for 50. There were 21 names on the list in February, of whom seven were Christians. Mr. Price writes that several of the non-Christian boys are manifesting a desire to learn the truth, and at their request a Bible Class has been started on Saturdays —the school holiday.

Bishop Poole Memorial Girls' School.

Miss K. Tristram is in charge of the Bishop Poole Memorial Girls' School, assisted by Miss Boulton (of the Female Education Society) and, until her illness, by Miss A. M. Tapson. This Institution also has entered into more suitable and commodious buildings erected at a cost of some $13,000, contributed by friends in England in memory of Bishop Poole. The opening ceremony took place on March 10, 1890, when Bishop Bickersteth gave an address summarizing the previous history of the school under Miss Oxlad and Miss Boulton of the F.E.S. There were 33 boarders and 10 day scholars in December. Miss Tristram says:—

On the whole there is cause for very great thankfulness in the conduct and general tone amongst them. This last term especially we have noticed a very happy, joyous spirit, and felt that there was some real truth in what our head-teacher said the other day in contrasting this school with a heathen one in which he had taught before, that the "school atmosphere" was "love."

As regards the work in the school, the Bible-lesson is always the first one given in the morning, and for this we divide the whole school into five classes. Miss Boulton, whose influence and work in the school are simply invaluable, teaches, as she has always done, the large class of elder girls; and the head-girl, whom we look upon as our right hand in every way, has the second class. It was only in September last that I began to give a regular Bible-lesson, and took the third class myself. I still speak very stumblingly, but these children have learnt to understand me as outsiders could not, and it is an intense joy to me, after the time of comparative silence, to have this directly spiritual work.

We are specially thankful for the missionary spirit manifested amongst them, for our great desire is to make the school a training-place for workers, and, carrying out this idea, we try to make it as much as possible a centre of work now. In a little Sunday-school I have in a Christian woman's house, to which about forty or fifty heathen children come, one of our teachers and two of the elder girls teach, and I have been very much struck by the talent shown by one in her apt illustrations and interesting way of talking, and the power of conveying ideas to very tiny children.

I may mention that at Easter, Miss Tapson and I both took away girls with us into the country for ten days' work, and I was particularly struck with the spiritual power shown by one of them, who is, as too few Japanese Christians are, a great Bible-student. She hopes to begin work as a Bible-woman next year.

Work among women.

A Bible-women's Home was opened in April and was placed under Miss G. E. Cox's supervision. Mrs. Edmonds and Miss Boulton have given assistance in taking Bible Classes. Eight women were in the Home in November. Mrs. Edmonds also holds a class of non-Christian women and girls, teaching them knitting and English, and giving a short Bible-lesson. Two of these girls on attending church for the first time showed much aptitude in finding the texts referred to in the course of the sermon. The ladies also visit the women in their homes. Miss Cox writes:—

I must say I think visiting in Japan is far more encouraging work than visiting at home; the women are, as a rule, glad to receive visitors and quite willing to listen to the reading of the Bible. What specially interests them is anything in the shape of a picture, and we find these a great help in our work; all Scripture stories are so new to them that it seems to help them to realize what we are talking about if we can put a picture before them.

Pastorate

The Pastorates in connexion with the Osaka District Church Council are those of Holy Trinity and the Church of the Saviour.

Increase was reported in the contributions of 1889; those of 1890 showed a further increase of more than 70 per cent. Each pastorate has now an ordained pastor, the Revs. B. H. Terasawa and T. Makioka. The congregation of Holy Trinity Church has a baptized membership of 217, of whom 164 are returned as communicants. The contributions amounted during the year to ¥507. In September the Church of the Saviour was destroyed by an extensive fire which consumed 2,400 houses in that quarter of the city. Much liberality was shown by the members of the congregation, and much sympathy and help by other Christians in Osaka, and good progress was soon made in collecting the funds for a new site and new church. Evangelistic Work is carried on under Archdeacon Warren's supervision at three preaching places in the city, assisted by the students of the Divinity School. These are at Andoji Machi, Horiye, and Utsuto.

Holy Trinity Church burnt down.

Archdeacon Warren also has charge of the Out-stations in the province of BINGO. He reports a decided advance at Fukuyama, where seven adults were baptized. Miss Hamilton and Miss Julius of the F.E.S. and C.E.Z.M.S. spent several months in this place, and chiefly through their influence a large number of catechumens have come forward for instruction. A catechist has been placed at Fuchiu. The out-stations in the other and more distant provinces, viz., Iwami, Idzumo, and Hoki, were placed by the Conference under Mr. Chapman when the Rev. H. Evington came home, and he spent most of the latter half of 1890 in these districts. Bishop Bickersteth made a tour with Mr. Chapman and held confirmations in November. At Yonago the judge referred to in last year's Report (page 223) was among the confirmees. He informed the Bishop that in his younger days, when hatred of the foreigner was deemed a virtue, he once left home with the intention to kill Sir Henry Parke, and got as far as Kyoto, when something providentially turned him from his purpose. There are 19 Christians in this place which is in the province of HOKI. Of his visit to Masuda, in the IWAMI province, the Bishop wrote:—

Out-stations.

> This is a comparatively small place, with only four or five thousand inhabitants; but the banker is a Christian, and others are gathering round him. After the confirmation on Sunday morning he brought us a series of questions which he had written down on sin, prayer, the promise of "Kingship" in the Revelation, &c. In the evening a number of officials in the Revenue Office met us at his invitation, men of much intelligence as well as courtesy. I gave a lecture on "Matters practically indisputable," of which the endeavour was to show that, notwithstanding the widespread doubt, there are many things practically certain on which the inquirer may take firm stand, and from these reach the truths whether of theism or Christianity. Mr. Chapman kindly translated for me. I give my own confirmation addresses now, and sermons, but have not yet ventured on lectures in Japanese. After my lecture Mr. Chapman gave a short address on "The Truth shall make you free," which was listened to very attentively. They then put some intelligent questions. Such opportunities are valuable both in themselves and as showing the drift of opinion.

Mr. Hind spent several weeks during the school vacation at Hamada, which is also in Iwami, studying the language. It is proposed that Mr. Buxton's party, after studying the language for a season at Kobi, shall be stationed at Matsuye, in the province of IDZUMO.

GIFU.

Gifu. Work was begun at this station, which is situated about 120 miles north-east of Osaka, in 1888, by the Rev. A. F. Chappell, who was then unconnected with any society. There are 28 baptized Christians, 18 adherents and 16 communicants. Fourteen adults were baptized during the year. Mr. Chappell writes cheerfully of the reception he meets with in neighbouring large towns. A monthly meeting was held in one of the theatres of Ogaki, which was well attended. A catechist has now been stationed at this place.

Friendly policemen. At Takayama, a town of over 18,000 people, meetings were held in the largest theatre in the place, with an attendance of some 2,000. The superintendent of police was apprehensive of violence, and sent a number of police in plain clothes to "clap and cheer" the speakers, by way of counteracting the expected opposition. Mr. Chappell says:—

> Fortunately there was no need of such help. Although the place was crowded with people, all passed off quietly, and three inquirers came forward, and many others called at our hotel and thanked us for coming to tell them about Christianity. When we left this place it was with grateful hearts to Almighty God for so many tokens of His presence with us.
> Having made arrangements for holding meetings in the different places between Gifu and Takayama on our way up, our return journey was most interesting. The meetings were well attended. At one place the owner of the building in which we met refused payment, saying he had been well paid by the good things he had heard. In another place one inquirer came forward, and in nearly every place we were told they had never before heard of Christianity.

Payment for the use of a lecture hall declined.

TOKIO.

Tokio. The Rev. J. Williams continues at this station. He reports 17 adult baptisms, one of them a man of noble rank from a place some 70 miles distant from Tokio, who had visited Mr. Williams in 1889 to learn something of Christianity, and had then presented 50 yen to the Church. He treated Mr. Williams with the utmost hospitality when he with a catechist returned this visit. Mr. Williams views with much alarm the influence of Unitarians on the infant churches of Japan. Two such

II. THE ISLAND OF KIU-SHIU.

NAGASAKI.

Nagasaki. The Rev. A. R. Fuller was the only missionary of the Society during the year in this large city, the oldest station of the Mission. There were four adults baptized, but only one of the four was a Native of the place, and he appears to be the first Nagasaki man to be received into the Church through the instrumentality of the Society's agents. He was Mr. Fuller's teacher, and had learned something regarding Christianity years ago from the Rev. H. Burnside. The three others are students at the Nagasaki Medical College. Several of these young medical students assist in outdoor preaching. Mr. Fuller writes:—

Native medical students engaging in outdoor preaching. To say they speak with considerable fluency would be no more than could be remarked of the majority of Japanese who might be called upon to address a public assembly; but I am thankful to say that, in addition to their fluency, there is an earnestness which cannot be mistaken. It is, I think, very encouraging to find them not treating of abstruse subjects, which have so great fascination for the Japanese, but simply setting forth what Christ has done and is doing for them, and what He is equally willing and ready to do for every one of their countrymen.

The contributions of the Congregation were three times as much in 1890 as in the previous year, being more than $2.50 per head. A new church was opened on Whit-Sunday by the Bishop, in lieu of the old church on the island of Deshima. The opening sermon was preached by the Rev. B. H. Terasawa, pastor of Holy Trinity Church, Osaka. Mr. Fuller bears high testimony to the good work of Mrs. Goodall in the Girls' Boarding School. He says:—

New Church.

Testimony to Mrs. Goodall's work. The pupils average ten in number, and their ages range from eight to eighteen. On the average they are members of the "Girls' Home" for from eight to ten years. During that time they receive a good plain education in both Japanese and English, which fits them admirably for what they generally become, viz., the wives of our catechists. Their after lives are a proof that they have benefited, with God's blessing, by the constant personal supervision and continuous influence of their head. The more I see of this work the more I value it. Perhaps I cannot better give an idea of its value than by quoting what an American missionary of many years' standing in Nagasaki remarked to me concerning this work. He told me he believed that this work, small though it be, will produce more solid results than are produced by many of the larger institutions where personal contact between teacher and pupil is either altogether impossible or only possible in a small degree.

Kagoshima. The number of Christians in Kagoshima would seem to have been returned for some years past without the necessary corrections for removals and cases of backsliding, as Mr. Fuller says that he has not found more than about a dozen there, though he has visited it repeatedly. He has entered the number as 31, including several families who have removed to the Loochow Islands, but who are still regarded as belonging to the Church where they received the truth. There was one adult baptism in this place.

FUKUOKA.

Fukuoka. The northern parts of the island of Kiushiu suffered in the autumn from a terrible visitation of cholera and dysentery, by which many thousands of the people died, but only one Christian in this district, the Rev. A. B. Hutchinson mentions with thankfulness, was among the victims. The Christians now number 319, of whom 162 are communicants. Thirty-seven adults were baptized during the year. One of these was a young Buddhist priest, who was first impressed by hearing the command, "Thou shalt not kill," explained as applying to human life, and not to animal life. He exclaimed, "There is nothing like that in all Buddhism." The amount contributed by them was 350 yen, or nearly £60, notwithstanding great scarcity and consequent high price of food. The foundation of a new church in the centre of the city, and in a line with the public offices, was laid by Bishop Bickersteth on Sunday, October 6. The English Classes for the study of the New Testament, which are held on three days of the week, are well attended, and so is a Bible Class conducted by Mr. Hutchinson in Japanese. Classes are also held by the catechist, Watanabe San. During December the Christians, of their own accord, held a series of prayer-meetings at 6 a.m. for the deepening of the spiritual life.

"Nothing like that in Buddhism."

Out-stations. At Saga, Onodani, and Oguma, the little Christian communities are going steadily forward. A catechist, Miyazaki San, from the Osaka Training College, has been placed at Idzuka, and 200 attended the first preaching. A new railway is being constructed in this neighbourhood, and the chief engineer, who has visited England and America, though not yet fully a Christian (though he has a warm-hearted Christian wife, a Presbyterian), has daily prayer and grace before meals. He promised all the assistance he could give to the work. Oyamada, which Bishop Bickersteth calls "our Christian village," has now its own church, which the Bishop dedicated in October. Seventy-six received the Holy Communion on the occasion. The Bishop wrote:—

New Church at Oyamada.

> It was a cheering sight to see the spacious and substantial building well filled with worshippers. Mr. Hutchinson preached. Mr. Hutchinson is much to be congratulated on the success which has attended his labours in this district. Of these the church at Oyamada, and that in course of erection at Fukuoka, will, I hope, be a memorial for many years—outward signs of the spiritual building which is being erected without hands, and silent witnesses to the vast heathen population around of the worship of God in Christ.

An assembly of 500 gathered in this church in December, to hear the Gospel story, the life of our Lord illustrated by lantern pictures, with hymns interspersed, told by Nakamura San. They listened most attentively for three hours, and some remarked, "We never before so felt the reality of the Lord's life on earth."

The Rev. J. Hind is now at Fukuoka in anticipation of Mr. Hutchinson's furlough, where he will (D.V.) carry on the work. Mr. Hind was married in February to Miss A. T. Tapson, sister of Miss A. M. Tapson of this Mission.

KUMAMOTO.

Kumamoto

The special difficulties referred to in last year's Report arising from a strong dislike of forms in Divine worship on the part of many of the younger members of the Kumamoto congregation do not seem to diminish. The Rev. J. B. Brandram says:—

Prejudice against forms in public worship.

We English are looked upon as obstinate and self-willed to the last degree. We of the Episcopal Church are thought to be unbending, and desirous of planting the Church of England bodily in Japan. The Prayer-book, kneeling during prayer, and the surplice, are all looked upon as ridiculous. The spirit is, Let everyone do as he likes. We are supposed to have a great deal of form and ceremony, and this is taken to be synonymous with hypocrisy. These opinions are chiefly rife amongst the young men, and it is they who are noisy and lead others.

Mr. and Mrs. Brandram have English Classes for boys and girls respectively. There was much opposition to Christianity manifested at Yamaga. At Takase two women were baptized, the fruits of the faithful testimony of a young convert, Tsagawa, of whom Mr. Brandram says:—

Fruitful labours of a young convert.

He was a teacher in the Higher Common School at Takase. After reading the New Testament for years, he asked for baptism last autumn. I admitted him as a catechumen. From the autumn of last year a number of people gathered with him for prayer and reading of the Bible. Several of the school children became interested, and at last he was called before the governor of the county, and asked as a school-teacher to keep quiet about Christianity, to hide his faith, as his conduct was displeasing to the parents of the scholars. He answered that a Christian must not hide his faith, but that if he was doing harm to the school he would resign. He left and came to his home, seven miles from here. His father wished him to go to Nagasaki and study medicine, but at last consented to his entering the Divinity School at Osaka. However, the father changed his mind, and went to Osaka, and brought his son away a few days before the entrance examination. He is now studying medicine at Nagasaki.

Of Kami no Mura, the Bishop wrote in May, 1890, "The son of the richest man in the village is a very earnest Christian, and there is a nucleus which will, I trust, grow."

III. THE ISLAND OF SHIKOKU.

THE Rev. W. P. Buncombe uses TOKUSHIMA as a forcible example of the disproportion between the heathen population and the Christian aggressive force. He says:— Tokushima.

I think of these 700,000 people living in this one county of Awa, which forms one of the four divisions of the island of Shikoku; and if one listens with an ear which is deaf to all voices save the voice of praise to a glorious Creator, there is a stillness so intense that it can only come from the valley of the shadow of death. But, thank God, there is a faint sound breaking the stillness here and there, and speaking a promise of more to come—150 voices in all this multitude (one voice in 4,700) that are sometimes lifted up in songs of praise to Him who lived and died and rose again for them. And I am His messenger and yours to tell these people of Him, and make them to see and turn from idols to serve the living and true God; and besides me there is one Presbyterian brother missionary. And in the city below are three Native evangelists; and to the right, far away to the south, is one more evangelist; to the north, twenty-five miles distant, is another; and over there in Muya is one more; six in all, five of our Mission and one Presbyterian. Eight evangelists in all. So there are about 88,888 souls for each one of us to speak to and lead to Christ! For me and my wife 88,000! I don't think I quite realize this—the numbers are too large to grasp. 88,000 souls for each evangelist.

Much opposition has been shown in the city. Once Mr. Buncombe's house was stoned, and on several occasions the Christians were molested by mobs of young men. This opposition was organized by a "Buddhist Young Men's Club," which has, however, been dissolved, and a quieter spirit seems likely to prevail; one of the former rioters has even applied for baptism, influenced by reading the New Testament given to him at a meeting. Of the spiritual state of the Congregation Mr. Buncombe speaks sorrowfully. He writes:— Opposition by a "Buddhist Young Men's Club."

The majority of the Christians as yet seem to have no real interest in spiritual things. They seem to have grasped the truth that Christ died for them, and that believing in Him they have the forgiveness of their sins and the hope of heaven; but their knowledge, or, rather, sense, of sin and the need of complete deliverance from all sin, is very slight. Hence we have to mourn over some who have fallen into sin; one has been guilty of theft, another has borrowed money and not repaid it, and obtained rice from another and not paid for it. Others have got lax in keeping the Sabbath; several are guilty of one of the most common sins in Japan—going into debt; indeed, it is hard to get them to see that this is sin at all; there is hardly a Christian who really believes it is a sin. There is therefore a real need of the power of the Holy Ghost in our midst to convict of sin. The Congregation.

Mr. Buncombe arranged a series of meetings in June for the study of God's Word and prayer regarding the promise, and work, and reception, of the Holy Ghost, and the Native catechists especially appear to have been quickened and refreshed by them. With some inquirers Mr. Buncombe has found the evidence afforded by the fulfilment of prophecy helpful. He has also circulated in large numbers printed letters addressed to individuals. Eleven adults were baptized. One of the con- Devotional Meetings.

verts had to suffer persecution, the Buddhist priests having persuaded his father that the death from cholera of a number of his relatives was owing to his conversion; and every effort was made, but happily in vain, to induce him to recant.

A good use of bad weather.

In the neighbourhood of Tomioka, at a small village called Honja, a Christian named Tanaka has persuaded two entire families to become Christians. The people being farmers and unable to work in wet weather, he utilized the many wet days of last year by diligently visiting their homes. Miss Hamilton and Miss Julius resided three months at Wakimachi, from March till June, and while they were there three men and three women were baptized. An earnest catechist, Mr. Masuda, has been placed at Muya, and the landlord of the preaching place, whom the Buddhist priests had persuaded to give his tenants notice to quit, was persuaded to embrace the truth, and received baptism in June. In his joy he wanted to put an advertisement in the papers announcing his baptism; but this it was thought best to prevent. At this place Miss Tapson spent the Easter vacation. Her deeply interesting journal of this visit was published in the Gleaner for October.

IV. THE ISLAND OF YEZO.

The Rev. W. Andrews says he "can do nothing but praise" for the "opening doors" and the fruit gathered in. At

Hakodate

Hakodate the congregation usually numbers about thirty-five, and several young men from the Merchant Naval School are regular attendants. The organization of this and the Kushiro congregations into pastorates, with Native pastoral agents and Church Committees, has been commenced, as the nucleus of future District Councils. The Schools at these places are attended by children of the upper classes. Mr. Andrews tells of a flower service in which the Hakodate pupils took much interest:—

Flower service.

> The twenty-seven children found a good many flowers, principally apple and cherry blossom, and brought them to church and laid them on a table in front of the lectern. Each bundle of flowers had one of Mrs. Grimké's text cards tied to it. After a regular hearty children's service, which, as in England, the parents seemed to enjoy as much as the children, the whole twenty-seven marched in order, two and two, carrying their flowers to the hospital, and were allowed to take them into the wards and give them to the sick people themselves.

Kushiro.

The school at Kushiro is carried on by Miss L. Payne. The eldest girl in this school, sixteen years of age, daughter of the Government doctor of the place, was baptized in June. At a village called Chirobetsu, near Horobetsu, where a military station has been opened by the Government, nine young men have publicly confessed their faith in Christ, six of them soldiers, and a preaching place was filled with listeners every evening. Three of the soldiers were baptized by Mr. Andrews in the autumn.

The Rev. J. Batchelor, during his furlough at home, translated and saw through the press the Gospels of St. Mark, St. Luke, and St. John in Ainu. Translations.

DIVISION OF THE MISSION.

I. DIOCESE OF AUCKLAND. II. DIOCESE OF WAIAPU.
III. DIOCESE OF WELLINGTON.

I. DIOCESE OF AUCKLAND.

THE Committee heard with much regret of the loss which Archdeacon Clarke was called upon to suffer by the death of his wife in December. Mrs. Clarke was seriously unwell while in Death of Mrs. Clarke.

England last year; she was called to her heavenly rest a few months after their return to Auckland, where the Archdeacon now resides on account of the large amount of work in the southern portion of the diocese which falls under his superintendence.

Owing to the Archdeacon's absence from the Mission no general report of the Native Pastorates has been received. The Rev. F. T. Baker holds fortnightly services at several Maori settlements in the district around WAITARA. The Rev. J. Matthews, the retired Missionary, residing (and labouring still, as his Annual Letter clearly shows) at the northern station of KAITAIA, can look back on a ministry of fifty-seven years spent at this place. He writes:—

A ministry of 57 years.

> Although the Native attendance at the Kaitaia church is smaller now than formerly, it is owing to the fact of there being no fewer than ten wooden churches in the various Native centres around Kaitaia, all of them having sprung, as it were, from the station over which I have presided for about fifty-seven years; in almost every instance each church has a nice wooden house for the clergyman to reside in. This will go to show how zealous the Natives are in religious matters, as they have built the churches by subscriptions extending over a large number of years.
>
> Since I came to Kaitaia I have held a weekly meeting of Native teachers, at which subjects were prepared for the following Sunday, with the best results. I still assist, as occasion requires, in the Native Services, although Meinata, the Native minister, usually takes the principal duties.
>
> There are now three Natives who will be ordained in April next—Hone Papahia, Hare Rewiti, and Heriwini Pirata; they all promise well, and I trust will be a credit to the work of the ministry. The twenty-six Native teachers are doing a good work, and their services are most acceptable. Many of them are, I believe, able preachers, and, I believe, much esteemed by their people. I am always glad to see them and help them to any information as they call to see me. They have made much use of prepared subjects. They are always glad of tracts, which they find useful to themselves and their people.

II. DIOCESE OF WAIAPU.

Meeting of Church Boards.

THE Native Church Boards for the three Archdeaconries of this Diocese, viz., the Turanga, Heretaunga, and Tauranga Boards, held a united meeting in March at Manutukea, near the old Mission station at Whakato. Archdeacon W. L. Williams says the meeting was a very hearty one, and gave much encouragement to those who attended from the northern part of the diocese, where the influences of Te Kooti, and of other self-styled Maori prophets, is a great hindrance to the Church's work. On the day before the meeting commenced a new Church was opened at this place, Manutukea, in memory of the late Bishop Williams. The Archdeacon says:—

Memorial Church to Bishop Williams.

> This building, which will accommodate 300 people, is unique, having worked into it the elaborately carved timbers of the old church which was begun at the same place in 1850, and has been erected, at a cost of over £800, as a memorial to the late Bishop of the diocese. The Natives assembled on the occasion to the number of about 2,000, all parts of the diocese being represented in the gathering. I hope to be able next year to report the opening of two more churches, viz., one at Wairoa, the Rev. J. Hamlin's old station, and the other at Horowera, near the East Cape.

Death of Mrs. Grace

In February Mrs. Grace, who went out to this Mission with her husband, the late Rev. T. S. Grace, in 1850, and laboured with him at Tauranga and on the shores of Lake Taupo, was removed by death.

Gisborne Theological College.

Thirteen students were in the Gisborne Theological College at the beginning of 1890, but one went out to assist the Rev. M. Pahewa, of Tokomaru, who is suffering from cataract, and another returned to his own people. The Rev. E. Jennings, who was formerly tutor in this Institution, is now the master of a school for Native children lately opened at Waerengaahika, nine miles from Gisborne. This school is in the hands of trustees appointed by the General Synod. The Rev. H. W. Williams, the present tutor, holds services every Sunday at the Maori Settlements in the neighbourhood of Gisborne.

Followers of Te Kooti

The Rev. G. Maunsell, of Opotiki, complains of physical infirmities impeding his full discharge of the Ministry committed to him in his extensive district, the stronghold of the followers of Te Kooti. The arrest of the latter, referred to in last year's Report, was much resented by his people at first; they regarded it as a religious persecution, and compared their leader to the Apostles in respect to his treatment at the hands of the Civil Powers. The Minister for Crown lands was turned back by them when he recently essayed to go into the Uriwera district; but no objection is made to the visits of Missionaries, and the Te Kooti chiefs often pay friendly visits to Mr. Maunsell.

Maketu.

The Native Church Board for the Northern Archdeaconry met at Maketu in May, under the presidency of Bishop Stuart. The Rev. W. Goodyear says that, although the number of lay representatives present was somewhat disappointing, the hearty and intelligent interest manifested was very marked. The development of the flax industry in this district has had the effect of scattering the Maories still more widely, which adds to the difficulty and labour of pastoral work. Lantern exhibitions of Scripture subjects have been used with much success by Mr. Goodyear.

Te Aute.

Archdeacon S. Williams since his return from England has resided at Napier, and the charge of the Te Aute district has been practically divided between him and the Rev. A. F. Williams. The latter resides in the Archdeacon's house at Te Aute, where he superintends the College, and whence he visits the coast Maories. Eight of the College boys were confirmed by the Bishop in October, whose influence among their Maori friends, Mr. Williams feels assured, will be helpful. On his way to and from the meetings of the Heretaunga Church Board, which were held at Wairoa in September, Mr. Williams held services at all the Native villages passed in the course of his long journey of several days, and met everywhere with a most hospitable reception.

III. DIOCESE OF WELLINGTON.

Jubilee of the founding of the Southern Mission.

THE year 1890 was the fiftieth since the establishment of the Mission on this coast, and the jubilee was cheerfully celebrated by the Christian Maories. The Rev. J. McWilliam writes:—

At the beginning of the year the Natives of Otaki invited all their neighbours who were interested in the Mission, for over one hundred miles on each side, to meet at Otaki and partake of their hospitality and keep the jubilee of the Mission. About six hundred responded to the invitation, and came at the time appointed, when they were feasted and entertained with the usual Native prodigality and good management. Preparations had been made for some weeks previously. The Mission monument, a massive obelisk-shaped pillar, forty feet high, was moved from where it was erected in 1880 to a more suitable and prominent position just opposite the church gate.

A marble bust of their celebrated chief, Te Rauparaha, on a high pedestal, was erected alongside, and both monuments enclosed with a neat but strong white-painted paling fence. Fifty large boulder-stones, with a year painted on each, from 1840 to 1890, were piled round the base of the obelisk, and the whole enclosure was carefully levelled, and seats placed in rows conveniently for the opening religious ceremony. This was conducted by an old Manawatu chief, called Kereopa Tukumaru, one of the most thoroughly consistent, simple-minded and yet intelligent Native Christians I have ever known.

A procession was formed at Raukawa, the large guest-house, of the principal men and women connected with the Mission all dressed in white, who marched to Native chants by the principal streets to the jubilee enclosure, followed by all the visitors and the whole populace, Maori and European. I opened the ceremony with prayer; then Kereopa made a speech, contrasting in a very graphic manner the past and present state of the Maori people, enumerating in a very telling way the benefits and advantages of Christianity. After heartily singing a translation of the Old Hundredth, he read, or rather recited (for he never looked at the book), the 49th chapter of Isaiah, with suitable explanations. Then followed other appropriate hymns, speeches, and readings alternately, the whole lasting over two hours. At the conclusion, all marched back in procession to the meeting-house, where an ample feast was spread for all comers, Maori and European.

A Native chief dwells upon the benefits of Christianity.

In the evening, after the usual service, many speeches about the Gospel and its effects were made by the leading men up and down the coast, and many regrets were expressed at the unavoidable absence of Bishop and Mrs. Hadfield, and the Rev. S. Williams of Te Aute, the founders of the Mission, who are all held in loving remembrance by the old Native Christians.

Mr. McWilliam refers to the death of two Native Christians in the OTAKO district:—

Death of a voluntary reader.

Two persons that I looked upon as old and trusted friends, as well as steady and exemplary Christians, have been removed from our midst by death during the year. The first taken was Hare Hemi, the chief of the people living at Obau. He has acted as teacher and lay reader almost from the commencement of the Mission, and this without the very slightest remuneration of any kind. He has been steadfast and loyal to the Church from the first, and he died humbly trusting in the Saviour's merit.

The other called home was the wife of Hoani Meihana, of Orona. She was a quiet, sincere, unassuming Christian, whose influence for the last forty years, since her conversion, has always been on the side of good. She has brought up her children and grandchildren in the fear and knowledge of their Maker and Saviour in a way that would put to shame many English mothers of more education and religious pretension. She died peacefully at a ripe old age, having nursed her great-grandchildren. I miss her kindly and cheerful old face when I visit Orona, and in her have lost a dear friend and earnest helper. Her husband, a fine old Christian also, in writing to me of her death, said, "She has gone to her Maker and Saviour Christ, to the home which we are all striving to reach through faith in God and the Saviour. She has been taken away to her new home; yet it is but natural that we should miss her and mourn her absence. Still we do not grieve without hope. Go in peace, my wife." Comforted in bereavement.

Another Native Christian in Otaki comforted a young mother, mourning the death of her child, by reminding her that she had not lost it for ever; it was but gone before, and would wait for her in heaven. Hearing such comfort given in all sincerity and received in patient faith cheered me greatly, and bade me sow on in trust, for the seed is not all being lost. Thanks be to God!

The defection of a large number of Maories in the WHANGANUI district to Te Kootiism was mentioned in last year's Report. Altogether, it appears about one hundred adherents, including twenty who were communicants, have gone over. These were on the Whanganui River, under the pastoral care of the Rev. Eruera H. Te Ngara, who has been much disheartened in consequence of their desertion. The other Native pastor, the Rev. Arona Te Hana, is working most faithfully, the Rev. A. O. Williams reports, in the Rangitikei District, and is continually extending his sphere of work. A new church, capable of seating 120, was opened at Pourewa on Christmas Day, "which makes the sixth church built during the last five years, the total cost of which, without extras, has been £1,296, of which £1,200 has been given by the Natives themselves." This last one is said to be the best Maori church in the diocese except the one at Otaki. Putiki gives Mr. Williams much anxiety, as, owing to the indifference of the leading chiefs, the Maories neglect the services. Regarding the liberality of the people, and on the subject of temperance, Mr. Williams says:— Defection to Te Kootiism. Church building.

The Natives in this district have during the past year contributed £190 for church building and painting, and £42 for the Maori Mission Fund of the diocese. The amount of the offertories I am unable to give, as they are managed by the Maories themselves, but they would be about £60.

I have almost forgotten to speak on the subject of temperance, but may say briefly that drunkenness is now almost a thing of the past, the Maories in my district being almost to a man total abstainers. Temperance.

Mr. Williams' brother, the Rev. A. F. Williams of Te Aute, occasionally visits by mutual arrangement the Maories of the Wairarapa District in this diocese, who were in danger of joining the Mormons.

NORTH-WEST AMERICA MISSION.

DIVISION OF THE MISSION.

I. Dioceses of Rupert's Land and Qu'Appelle.
II. Diocese of Moosonee.
III. Dioceses of Saskatchewan and Calgary.
IV. Diocese of Athabasca.
V. Dioceses of Mackenzie River and Selkirk.

Ecclesiastical Province of Rupert's Land.

This Mission is to the remnant of the Red Indian tribes scattered over the vast country formerly known as the Hudson's Bay Territory, now included in the Dominion of Canada. The scene of the labours of the first missionary in 1822 is now the flourishing colonial Province of Manitoba, and a large part of the Society's work has developed into the settled ministrations of the Church of the Colony. One of the Society's churches has become the Cathedral of the Diocese of Rupert's Land, which was founded in 1849. That diocese was sub-divided in 1872 into four parts, the three new dioceses being those of Moosonee, Athabasca, and Saskatchewan. To the two former Sees missionaries of the Society were appointed, the Rev. John Horden and the Rev. W. C. Bompas. In 1884, in pursuance of a plan formed by the Provincial Synod of the Province of Rupert's Land, the Diocese of Athabasca was divided, Dr. Bompas taking the northern half as Bishop of Mackenzie River, and the Rev. R. Young, C.M.S. missionary, being appointed to the southern division as Bishop of Athabasca. The See of Qu'Appelle was also formed, to which Dr. Anson was consecrated. The Provincial Synod of 1887 sanctioned the constitution of a new diocese to be called the Diocese of Calgary, as soon as an endowment can be raised. In the meantime the title of the Bishop, Dr. Pinkham, is "Bishop of Saskatchewan and Calgary." The Provincial Synod of 1890, on the motion of Bishop Young, representing Bishop Bompas, sanctioned a division of the Mackenzie River Diocese into two, the territories to the west of the Rocky Mountains to be the Diocese of Selkirk, and the region to the east retaining the name of Mackenzie River Diocese. Regarding this proposal the Committee have expressed their view that the Society is not to be held permanently responsible for the pastoral care of the Indian Christian communities which are the fruits of its Mission, and that the Society's funds can only properly be applied to that object on some system of gradual withdrawal. The Committee cherish the hope that the members of the Church of England in Canada as a whole will recognize its obligation to render such help as may be needed, and they trust that an appeal to that sense of obligation will be strenuously urged and fittingly responded to. Nevertheless in consideration of the enormous area of the Mackenzie River Diocese, for the effectual oversight of which Bishop Bompas' strength is certainly unequal, the Committee have undertaken to do their utmost consistently with their principles to promote the consecration of a Bishop of the new diocese proposed provided a clergyman can be found who, in the judgment of the Metropolitan of Rupert's Land, and in their own judgment, may be suitably nominated for such a charge.

New Diocese of Selkirk.

Pending this appointment the Committee have requested Archdeacon Reeve to proceed to Mackenzie River with the view to giving such aid to Bishop Bompas as may be within his power on the east side of the Rocky Mountains; and they have expressed their opinion, being asked to do so by Bishop Bompas, that, in case of a division being made, the western division should be reserved to Bishop Bompas.

Efforts to excite interest in Missionary work in Manitoba,

EARNEST efforts are being made by the Metropolitan, Bishop Machray, and by Archdeacon Phair to promote an interest in Missionary work among the Indians on the part of the Church people of Winnipeg and of Manitoba. The C.M. Gleaner has been localized, and is largely circulated throughout the diocese; and Missionary information has been communicated in other ways. The Archdeacon wrote in December, 1890:—

> A few weeks ago I arranged to have a leave-taking meeting of four young men going out to work among the heathen. The meeting was a new thing in Winnipeg. I invited a number of the clergy, who gave short addresses. These young men spoke themselves, one of whom had just arrived from Birmingham, for whose outfit and passage-money a number of friends in that city had contributed nearly all that was needed. These young men made such an impression on the meeting, and especially on the members of a large Bible-class in one of the churches, that the Bible-class has since become responsible for an annual sum of £20 towards the salary of one of the brethren.
> After careful consideration I came to the conclusion that there should be a conference of the missionaries in Winnipeg, both to impart information about the work and get the people more in touch with the work among the heathen.

On January 11, 1891, accordingly, sermons were preached in all the Winnipeg churches, the Metropolitan himself occupying the pulpit in the chief church in the city; and on Monday, the 12th, a Missionary Conference was held, at which Bishop Machray, who presided, gave a sketch of the history of the Mission. Chief David Landon (see Annual Report for 1888-9, pages 224-5) made an impressive speech, which was interpreted by the Rev. J. G. Anderson. Archdeacon Phair also visited Eastern Canada in the recent spring to appeal for pecuniary and other help with a view to relieving the Society's funds, and he was encouraged by promises of regular annual contributions.

and Eastern Canada

On June 29, 1890, the Bishop of Rupert's Land admitted Mr. Thomas Pritchard, a scholar on the C.M.S. foundation at St. John's College, Winnipeg, to Deacon's Orders.

The general poverty of the Indians and their dependence to a great extent on subsidies from without, not only for the support of their spiritual agents, but even for their own subsistence, seriously aggravates the problem regarding their future well-being. The St. Paul's Industrial School at WINNIPEG, which receives a grant from the Society's funds, aims at meeting this difficulty prospectively by starting the children to work for their maintenance. This school, with 27 boys and 31 girls, is under the charge of the Rev. W. A. Burman.

Industrial School.

Mr. H. Hartland was appointed in October to he charge of the Sioux Mission. Two hundred and fifty of these Indians are on the Reserve of whom a few are Christians. The congregation averages 20.

St. Peter's Indian Settlement

The Rev. B. McKenzie resigned the charge of ST. PETER'S INDIAN SETTLEMENT in August, and was succeeded by the Rev. J. G. Anderson, who was transferred from Lac Seul. The population is about 1,000, and their houses extend about eight miles along the banks of the river, but some are found at Devil's Creek, three miles, and at Muckle's Creek, about six miles, from the river respectively. About three-fourths of the people are Crees, and the rest Salteaux. During the first three months after his appointment Mr. Anderson visited the homes of all his parishioners. Five services are held every Sunday, two in the Parish Church, one in West Chapel, three miles down the river; one in East Chapel for the Salteaux, five miles down the river; and one at Muckle's Creek. Six prayer-meetings are also held weekly. Both services and prayer-meetings are well attended. The "Week of Prayer" was observed at the beginning of the year, and the attendance was very good each evening, notwithstanding that an election was taking place at the time. The Rev. J. Settee, retired Native clergyman, resides on the settlement.

The Rev. G. Bruce is at FAIRFORD, and under his general superintendence, the Rev. A. Cook labours at STAGVILLE. The latter mentions the baptism of one aged woman.

No report has been received from the Rev. W. Owen, of LANSDOWNE.

The Rev. T. Pritchard, who was admitted to Deacon's Orders in June, was appointed to LAC SEUL on the Rev. J. G. Anderson's removal to St. Peter's. The Indians were away fishing and hunting for a considerable part of the autumn and winter, leaving only about 50 at Lac Seul; but at Christmas there was a general gathering together at the Church services. Mr. Pritchard says:—

Christmas Day at Lac Seul.

> All those Indians who leave in the autumn in quest of fur make a point of returning for Christmas and New Year's Day. Accordingly, on Christmas Day, at about ten o'clock when I was ringing the first bell, my heart was gladdened by seeing Indians, some on snow-shoes, and some in dog-train, approaching from all directions, so that by eleven o'clock, when the second bell rang, the church was comfortably filled with as devout a congregation as I have seen in a white community. They seemed to thoroughly understand the significance of the day, and to enter with heart and soul into the service, and particularly in the grand old Christmas hymns of our Church.

The Rev. G. Cook has laboured with little encouragement, and in feeble health, at TOUCHWOOD HILLS, which is in the Diocese of Qu'Appelle. Most of the Indians reside at Poor Man's Reserve, some distance from his place of abode, and they manifest as yet no interest in the Gospel. There are two small Day Schools for boys and girls.

II. DIOCESE OF MOOSONEE.

BISHOP HORDEN, after forty years of missionary service, retains his full vigour of body and mind. He continued at Rupert's House, where he spent the winter of 1889–90, until June. In July he took an arduous journey along the East Main Coast of Hudson's Bay, visiting the Rev. E. J. Peck at Fort George, and, accompanied by Mr. Peck, proceeding 200 miles further north to Great Whale River, where he confirmed six Eskimos. Altogether he confirmed during this tour 162 candidates. He resided at Moose Factory during the autumn and winter, diligently occupied in the translation of the Scriptures. He writes:—

Confirmation tour by Bishop Horden,

> The early months of last year were spent by me in the comparative seclusion of Rupert's House, where among a few but strongly attached people I was able to proceed with my Biblical translations with but little interruption, and before the return of spring I had completed the Pentateuch and the Prophecy of Isaiah; but even here, viz., at Moose, where there are many distractions, I have this winter made good progress, having already written the prophecies of Jeremiah, Ezekiel, and Daniel, and the Book of Lamentations. Before the winter is over I hope to have the whole of the prophecies finished, and then in another year I may (D.V.) bring my work to a close. This I regard as the crown of my missionary life; it should not have been left so long, perhaps, but the delay has not been without its use, enabling me to prepare myself diligently for it, for before undertaking it I carefully read my Hebrew Bible throughout, comparing with it the Revised Version, which is the foundation of my translation. May it prove a blessing to the people for whom it is intended, enlightening their eyes, giving understanding to their hearts, enabling them to see, as far as humanity can see, the lineaments of the Lord Jesus Christ, the Way, the Truth, and the Life!

The "crown of my Missionary life."

The Rev. Jervois A. Newnham, M.A., of McGill University, Montreal, has been appointed to this Mission. He sailed in June by the annual ship.

Archdeacon T. Vincent had charge of MOOSE FACTORY until June when he exchanged places with the Rev. H. Nevitt of Albany, about 100 miles distant along the coast, and the latter continued in charge until Bishop Horden arrived from Fort George in August. Archdeacon Vincent mentions an Eskimo lad who died at Moose. He had been sent thither for medical treatment by Mr. Peck, but died of consumption. "His New Testament was his constant companion, and I believe he drew from it comfort and assurance," the Archdeacon says. Four services, two for Indians and two for English, are held on Sundays at this Station; and there is a service every evening during the week. At New Post, which the Archdeacon visited in the spring, the Roman Catholic Indians, as well as those belonging to the C.M.S. Mission, attended every service. From ALBANY in the summer Archdeacon Vincent visited Osnaburgh, where the people are "as much in earnest as ever in seeking the truth as it is in Jesus," and thence he went forward to Winnipeg, hoping to be present at the Provincial Synod, but adverse winds on the lake retarded his progress.

An Eskimo and his New Testament.

The Rev. E. J. Peck, of FORT GEORGE, travelled north in the winter of 1889–90 to Little Whale River, to visit the Eskimos, who are his special charge. He says:—

Visiting the Eskimos on the ice-fields.

Finding that some of the Eskimos could not come to the post, I went out on the ice fields to visit them, and it was pleasing in the extreme to notice the kindly spirit shown by these poor people towards me. They would, although with much trouble, manage to boil my kettle over their oil-lamps, so that the "white man" might have something to warm his chilly frame; and at night time they would offer me some of their bedding, and would block up the door of my snow-house, and do their best to keep out the biting cold. I can say that, in spite of the great bodily privation that one must bear in staying, even for a time, in such cold dwellings, still the spiritual refreshment and joy felt in my own soul, and the earnest desire of the people to listen to the message of salvation, repaid me in a sevenfold measure for the loss of so-called bodily ease or comfort.

Baptism of two adult Eskimos.

I am glad to say that during the year we have been able to baptize two adult Eskimos. One of these, a young woman, had learnt to read without almost any help, and seemed very much in earnest regarding her soul's welfare. Another event, though sorrowful in one aspect, seeing it alludes to the death of one of our "little flock," still points out to one the power of the Gospel, and encourages us to go on preaching the simple Gospel of the grace of God. The departed one to whom I allude had for some time previous to his death been almost blind, but he had always commended the Saviour to his heathen fellow-countrymen, and when near unto death he turned to his sorrowing relations and told them not to weep, as he knew that he was going to live with Jesus.

An Eskimo appointed a teacher.

The Bishop considered the Christian Eskimos whom he met at Great Whale River very satisfactory and deeply in earnest. He recommended that one of them should be appointed a teacher to his fellows.

Fort York.

At FORT YORK the winter of 1889–90 was one of terrible suffering to the Indians owing to the scarcity of food. Archdeacon Winter says:—

"They sang and responded like those who fare sumptuously every day."

I have been frequently overwhelmed with pain and grief when looking upon my flock assembled in church, some of whom were reduced to such a degree that they were hardly recognisable. Our kitchen had more the appearance of a home "soup kitchen," for, from the middle of December until April 11, we had from one to nine beggars daily. We saw our annual supply gradually diminishing, flour and oatmeal rather too rapidly; and yet what could we do when the poor creatures came with tears in their eyes begging a "little bit"? On Sundays I could not sometimes help feeling that the people's minds were more centred on earthly food than upon heavenly; yet they joined in the services in a most reverent and solemn manner. They sang and responded like those, and in fact better than many, who fare "sumptuously every day." Three services and Sunday School have been held winter and summer, and twice a week when the Indians were here. Since last summer the Indian services have been lengthened by the reading of the Psalms. These are not printed with the Prayer Book—a great draw-back, by-the-by—so we read them from the Bible, which is a very large book compared with the English Bible.

The Indians at Trout Lake, under their Native clergyman, the Rev. W. Dick, notwithstanding their deep poverty and great distress owing to scarcity of food, sent to Fort York £5 worth of fur as a contribution towards their Church. During the summer Archdeacon Winter made a trying journey to CHURCHILL, walking many days through swamp and mud under a powerful sun. On their way back he and his little party were attacked in the night by a polar bear, and had a merciful escape. The Archdeacon's visit was greatly appreciated by the Rev. J. and Mrs. Lofthouse, who rarely indeed are enlivened in their remote station by the sight of a brother labourer. As many as 150 Eskimos were in the neighbourhood in June and July, of whom Mr. Lofthouse says:—

Missionary attacked by a polar bear.

> I paid them frequent visits during the early part of their stay, and always met with the heartiest welcome, being listened to with the greatest attention. I hardly ever left them without being asked when I should come again. I might with truth put down the whole number as inquirers, for there is not one man, woman, or child who is not anxious to know the truth, though, of course, there are some more anxious than others. Over and over again do they tell me they "rejoice" that I have come to teach them, and, when asked if they believe in God, always answer readily, "Yes we do and are glad." One great proof that they are beginning to understand the truth is their growing regard for the Sabbath. Many refrain entirely from hunting on that day, and spend it in their tents learning their books.

Of the Crees and half-breeds belonging to the Fort, Mr. Lofthouse says that more than two-thirds of the adult population are regular communicants. Attendance at all the services and classes was "most regular." Much anxiety was experienced at both Fort York and Churchill by the late arrival of the annual ship. Only once before had its arrival been so late, and much concern was felt by the captain regarding the possibility of getting safely out of Hudson's Bay before the ice closed in. This was not done; the boat was so battered by the heavy ice after leaving Fort York that it was necessary to give up the attempt to proceed and to winter at Moose.

Ordination

Devon.

The division of the Mission which lies nearest to the mouth of the Saskatchewan River, where it falls into Lake Winnipeg, is under the Rev. J. Hines. Including DEVON, where Mr. and Mrs. Hines reside, there are fourteen stations and out-stations within the seven hundred miles of boundary which circumscribe the district. Sunday services are conducted at most of these places by voluntary unpaid agents, but at GRAND RAPIDS and at CUMBERLAND Indian or country-born pastors are located, the Rev. J. Sinclair at the former, and the Rev. E. Cook, the recently ordained deacon, at the latter. Mr. Sinclair says that the attendance at public worship increases at the several congregations to which he ministers, and that the Indians pay marked attention to the Lord's Day. Religious instruction is given in all the Government schools. Mr. Hines now possesses a small steam launch, which facilitates his tours of visitation. He went to Toronto in the summer to purchase this boat, and he describes Eastern Canada as "hungering for information" respecting the work in the West. The clergy gladly and voluntarily offered their churches to him to tell their people of his work, and the latter showed a liberal spirit in sending gifts of money.

Archdeacon J. A. Mackay, who has charge of the Society's work at PRINCE ALBERT and the district near, came to England for about three months in the summer. Emmanuel College, which is under the Archdeacon, had seven students under training for missionary work during part of the year, but one was ordained in June, and another was appointed to a post as catechist and school teacher. The Rev. J. R. Settee is endeavouring to instruct his people at SANDY LAKE in the principle of self-support, but, as Archdeacon Mackay states, they have great difficulty, even with the subsidy received from Government, in providing the necessaries of life, as their hunting produces less year by year, and their farming operations so far have not proved very successful. Mr. Settee holds weekly meetings for prayer and religious instruction in the houses of his people in rotation. The Rev. A. H. Wright, at the close of his first year in the ministry, writes from NEPOWEWIN:—

Prince Albert.

The Government treaty payments took place just after my arrival, and, as there were no Church funds on hand to meet the few debts, I asked the Indians each to give a little of their treaty money for that purpose. In all $7·25, or about £1. 10*s*., was collected. On Christmas Day the service was well attended by young and old, the old school-house being filled to the very door. I counted seventy-eight Indians myself, and of that number there were forty-nine who remained to the Holy Communion. From a child I have ever understood that a Missionary's duties were legion, but not until at this meeting, when I was informed by the chief, was I aware that added to that number was he expected to give the squaws a thorough drilling in general house-work, and a good scolding if they did not succeed.

A Missionary's duties legion.

The Rev. J. Badger is at ST. JAMES', which is 20 miles from Prince Albert; he visits the out-stations of Butters Settlement and Sturgeon Lake, the Indians at the former being Christians who have left Cumberland and other Reserves, those at the latter being still heathens. The Rev. R. McLennan, at STANLEY, as so many other Missionaries, both in the Western and Eastern Missions, refers to the influenza. He says:—

The prevailing epidemic of last winter came among us also. We had heard previously of its prevalence, and when hearing that neighbouring settlements had been visited with the sickness, I thought that this would prevent a number from coming in as usual at Easter, especially as they had been advised by our white brethren from coming, as they would surely take the sickness. Many of our people live as many as three and four days' journey from the Mission. However, they trusted in God, and I was greatly pleased to witness their faith. Not few, but many, told me they had been advised not to come on this account, but that they knew their lives were in God's hands. At the services on Good Friday the church was crowded, and so also on Easter Eve and Easter Sunday. Two were taken ill on Good Friday, and were not able to attend the services. I administered the Holy Communion to them. They seemed to be very sorry that they were unable to be present with their brethren. Others were taken sick on the way home, but I am thankful to say that, through the mercy of God, there were no deaths from influenza. I myself was taken ill, but was not laid up until after Easter week—not until after I had gone to see some who were ill and administered the Lord's Supper to them. This will give you, more than individual experiences would, a good idea, not only of their trust in God, but also of how great a value they hold the Sacrament of our Lord, and consequently of their growth in grace.

Pelican Narrows, 80 miles distant, and Big Stone River, 50 miles from Stanley, are visited by Mr. McLennan. At the former of these places most of the Indians are Roman Catholics, and a priest is stationed there, but the Protestant Indians steadily continue faithful to their early teaching.

Roman Catholic aggressions at Battleford.

The aggressive efforts of the Roman Catholic priests at BATTLEFORD are still continued, as for many years past. There are adherents of the Mission on five of the seven Reserves—Red Pheasants' and Assiniboine and Little Pine's Reserves, which are under the Rev. R. Inkster; and on Moosomin's and Thunder Child's Reserves, which are under the Rev. D. D. McDonald. To some of the heathen Indians the mutually hostile attitude of the two Missions is evidently a stumbling-block. They said to Mr. McDonald, "We do not know what to do; the priest tells us one thing and you expound another." Mr. McDonald says:—

> By constant prayerful work and the assistance of the Divine Helper, in the month of December I was happy to see a few more coming forward for baptism, while the Romanists were adding few, if any, to their numbers. Then began our great trouble. The priest began holding nightly meetings, and giving out goods to these poor ignorant Indians, for the purpose of gaining their confidence, and undoing, if possible, the little success that God had given us, till at last things looked so dark in the Reserve that I thought we were going to lose all. But good sometimes comes of evil. I never lost faith in God, and by some means or other the minds of the Indians were again turned, and in January, 1890, also in February, a good many joined our Church. Yet the priest kept giving presents to the Indians, as it were buying them over. Some of our own Indians came and asked me why I did not do the same. I told them I would never pay a man to pray to his God, but if they thought they could inherit eternal life by being paid to worship God, they had better try the Romish mode in this Reserve of gaining adherents. This had a good effect; any way, they began to think for themselves, and I may safely say that our Indians feel that it is for the good of their immortal souls, and not for their mortal bodies, that they worship

Him Who is the giver of all sustenance, that they cling to God's Word only as the true balm for their souls, and believe in Christ as the only Mediator between God and man.

Little Pine's Reserve a short time since was almost wholly heathen, and, as it adjoined a Reserve which was occupied exclusively by the Romanists, it was left to them. But the efforts of the priests were so entirely engrossed in assaults upon the faith of the Protestant Indians that this Reserve was quite neglected. It was consequently visited by Mr. Inkster and Mr. McDonald, and 39 persons have been baptized there.

The Rev. I. J. Taylor also writes feelingly of the hindrance which "the ever-encroaching rivalry of the Church of Rome," opposes to the work at FORT PITT on the Onion Lake, where there are two priests. The baptized Christians connected with the Mission are 56 in number, and 10 are communicants.

The Rev. J. W. Tims, on his return to BLACKFOOT CROSSING in April from furlough, took back the Gospel of St. Matthew printed in Blackfoot by the British and Foreign Bible Society during his stay in this country. The reception he met with on this occasion, as contrasted with what was accorded him on his arrival seven years before, struck him very forcibly. He says:—

The Blackfoot Indians welcome back Mr. Tims.

Then I was scrutinized as a stranger, now I was welcomed as a friend; then I was powerless to speak one word about Jesus to the Indians, now I come armed with the Word of God in their own tongue. The Indians ceased not for three or four days to come in and shake hands, and real was the welcome back which many of them gave me. Old Sun, the head chief of this camp, had to tell how ill he had been, and how afraid he had been that he would not live to see me again. White Pup, a minor chief, told me that he had not given up prayers during my absence, that he no longer prayed to the sun, but to the Creator and to His Son Jesus, and that he asked for the Holy Spirit to come and dwell in his heart to keep away all evil.

The sun dance celebrated for first time without torture.

In May the Indians all left to celebrate their annual sun dance, about eight miles from the Mission. This year we followed them up, and pitched our mission-tent in the midst of the encampment. We held school every day for the children, with an average attendance of eighty scholars. When school-hours were over the Indians came to smoke and talk, and many were the opportunities of speaking about Jesus. When the actual ceremony of torturing the body was about to come on I spent much time in talking to the chiefs and head men, showing them such worship was contrary to the command of God, and that no blessing could be expected from it. Two men were painted and prepared with incantations and prayers for the ordeal. The ropes were suspended from the top of the medicine-pole, and the medicine-man was about to make the incision in the breasts of the young men through which to place the bone skewer to which the ropes were to be attached. Even then we were able to prevent the ordeal, with the aid of the Indian agent, by prevailing upon the chiefs to abandon it. To God be all the praise! For the first time in the Blackfoot camp no torturing took place at the sun dance. May it never again!

By means of help derived from the Toronto Diocesan Women's Auxiliary to Missions, Mr. Tims has felt able to invite out a lady, Miss Peekes, Matron of the Y.W.C.A., Croydon, to superintend a Boarding School for Indian girls. Miss Peekes arrived in October. There are six girls in this school, and Mr. Tims has six boys in his own house. Mr. Tims was married in October to Miss Violet Winifred Wood, daughter of the late Rev. J. G. Wood, the writer on ornithology, &c. It was mentioned in last year's Report that the sun dance at FORT MCLEOD was a complete failure in 1889. The Rev. S. Trivett reports that in 1890 none was attempted. He is hopeful that a work of grace is going forward in some of the chiefs, but none have come forward for baptism. Mr. Trivett holds two services and more when practicable every Sunday, but the camps of Indians are so widely scattered that it involves much travelling to do this. Services are held by the school teachers in his absence. These services are usually well attended.

IV. DIOCESE OF ATHABASCA.

Bishop Young.

BISHOP YOUNG made a very short visit to this country in July, returning for the Provincial Synod at Winnipeg in August. He was back again at Chipewyan in November, and contemplated returning in the spring to Vermilion, which he left in order to supply for a time Archdeacon Reeve's place at Chipewyan. No recent news has been received from the Rev. A. C. Garrioch of FORT DUNVEGAN, nor from the Rev. M. Scott, who was occupying VERMILION, nor from the Rev. J. G. Brick, of SHAFTESBURY. The Rev. G. Holmes, of LESSER SLAVE LAKE, writes of battle "with the powers of heathen darkness, with the hostile forces of religious error, and with the difficulties arising out of the peculiar circumstances under which we are compelled to labour." A church was opened in December at this station. Mr. Holmes writes of the opening service:—

Opening new church at Lesser Slave Lake

> Half an hour before service began the church was crowded, both seats and aisle up to the chancel-steps; in fact, I could scarcely work my way from the vestry to the reading-desk. Between the officers, ladies, and workmen from the fort, together with ourselves and scholars, we mustered quite a good choir. The service was conducted in part Cree and part English, and the sermon preached in Cree. Mrs. Macdonald (the officer's wife in charge of the district), who had taken such a deep interest in organizing and training the choir, presided at the organ. The first hymn was sung in Cree, then followed "From Greenland's Icy Mountains" in English.
>
> My subject was (John x. 7), "I am the door," and (John xiv. 6), "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life." In my congregation I never saw a more reverent spirit or a more rapt attention. Several were noticed in tears, even some of those who were most bigoted and who were attending our service for the first time.

V. DIOCESE OF MACKENZIE RIVER.

Fort Simpson, 1858; Fort McPherson and Rampart House (Tukudh Mission), 1874; Fort Norman, 1871; Forts Resolution and Rae, 1875; Nuklakayit, 1888; Buxton, 1888.

Bishop Bompas.

Bishop Bompas, who spent the winter of 1889-90 at Fort Simpson, left that station in time to visit Peel River, where he found Archdeacon McDonald in indifferent health. The last letter received from him was dated "St. Paul's Mission, August, 1890"; but the Committee have received news that he had safely returned to Fort Norman in November. The Rev. D. N. Kirkby occupied Fort Simpson during the Bishop's absence, Fort Norman being left in charge of Mr. Hardisty, a catechist.

Anxiety regarding Mr. Ellington.

Letters from the missionaries to the west of the Rocky Mountains, viz., the Rev. C. G. Wallis, at Rampart House, on the Porcupine River; the Rev. T. H. and Mrs. Canham, at Nuklakayit, on the Lower Youcon; and the Rev. J. W. Ellington at the Buxton Mission, on the Upper Youcon, are received at very long intervals, and the Bishop's knowledge of events at these stations is very little, if any, better than that of the Committee. Much anxiety has been felt regarding the Rev. J. W. Ellington, who left Buxton Mission in feeble health in the autumn, and arrived at the mouth of the Youcon too late to proceed, as was hoped, by the U.S. Revenue cutter to San Francisco. News has recently been received of his safe arrival in impaired health at San Francisco.

Death of Admiral Prevost.

THE origin and chequered progress of this Mission have been forcibly recalled to memory by the death of Admiral Prevost. His representations of the spiritual and moral destitution of the Tsimshean Indians in 1856 led the Committee to send out the first Missionary the following year, and it was a source of great joy and thankfulness to him to visit Metlakahtla in 1878, and to mark the evidences of outward prosperity, and the tokens of the working of God's Spirit in individual cases. At home he delighted to tell on Missionary platforms the thrilling story of the changes of which he could testify in the Tsimsheans and Hydahs. The sad troubles of later years were a heavy grief to him, but he delighted in the manifest proofs of God's blessing on Bishop Ridley's work.

A short but telling summary, indicating some particulars of recent progress, is supplied by the following words taken from a letter of Bishop Ridley which was published in the Gleaner for March and April :—

We have now a boys' boarding-school, another for girls, a mixed day-school of girls and small boys, and a day-school for big boys; a Sunday-school for children, another for adults. We have an average of more than sixty at our daily meeting for prayer. Sewing classes, Dorcas parties, missionaries' prayer union, a constant stream of visitors who come chiefly for instruction, tea parties, brass-band practisings, choir practices, and many other agencies for increasing knowledge, sacred and secular, and for advancing the arts of civilization. This is the only community of Indians I know that has a natural increase of the population. Crime is almost unknown; the standard of moral conduct is higher than that of any other place I ever lived at. Purity of life leads to health, and that to happy homes full of chubby children. Such is the actual condition of Metlakahtla, and it has a hopeful future. What is better than the growth of only one place is the spread of the Gospel in every direction. Ten years ago I found in the diocese but two clergy, now ten and a candidate for Holy Orders; then two churches, now ten, and three projected. Then not one of the languages had been reduced to writing, now we have printed books in Tsimshean, Hydah, and Nishga. In this enumeration I do not include our work among the Kwagutl, where Messrs. Hall, Corker, and Brotchie are working. Yet there is much land to be won for Christ. Forward is the order.

Extension during last ten years.

In the same letter the Bishop alluded to the presence with him, while he wrote it, of an Indian chief from a distance of 250 miles, who had travelled to Metlakahtla to ask that a teacher might be sent to his tribe. The moving appeal conveyed by the Bishop's words elicited immediate offers of help and inquiries what could be done, and before the second portion of his letter had appeared, the Bishop had received a telegram from the Committee telling him that the money was provided, and authorizing him to engage a teacher and send him to that waiting tribe.

Appeal on behalf of a distant tribe.

Bishop Ridley admitted Mr. J. B. McCullagh to Deacon's Orders on June 11, and to Priest's Orders, together with the Rev. A. E. Price, on July 25. The Rev. C. Harrison has retired from the Mission. The Rev. Frederick L. Stephenson, who joined this Mission in 1887, has been re-engaged in local connexion and stationed at Kitkatla.

Ordinations.

At METLAKAHTLA the number of baptized Christians is 181, that of communicants 43. Four adults were baptized during the year, and 22 confirmed. The church, which was in a great degree destroyed several years ago, has been repaired by the voluntary labour of the Indians, and is now, the Rev. R. W. Gurd says, "a warm and comfortable building." The Boys'

Metlakahtla.

Boarding School had six pupils when Mr. Gurd wrote in February last (three having just left the Institution), and these six represented four different tribes. In the Day School the average attendance is 22; it is conducted by the Missionary ladies, Mrs. Ridley, Mrs. Gurd, and Mrs. Ardagh. Miss Dickinson superintends a Girls' Training Home. Dr. Vernon Ardagh resides at Metlakahtla.

Kincolith. At KINCOLITH on the Nass river the Rev. W. H. Collison is stationed. The number of baptized Christians is 226, of whom 46 are communicants. For several months of the summer Mr. Collison was absent from the station, ministering to the numerous Indians, Christians and heathen, who gathered together on the Nass for the oolachan fishing from March to May, and to the Indians, Chinese, and white men who worked at the salmon canneries on the same river from June to August. During Mr, Collison's absence, a Native teacher, Philip Latimer, conducted the services at Kincolith for the few Indians who remained there. Mr. Collison says of him that he is a most earnest and consistent Christian, and is always to be found visiting and praying with the sick, or endeavouring to instruct others in the truth of God's Holy Word. The Rev. J. B. McCullagh, whose station, Aiyansh, is higher up the Nass river than Kincolith, shared with Mr. Collison this work at the "fisheries and canneries," each taking one side of the river. He says:—

Work at the salmon canneries. On Sunday mornings we held services in the Indian houses at one cannery (where our "shanty" is), going afterwards to Nass Harbour, where we held an Indian service in the afternoon (in the church I have just mentioned), and an English service in the evening. There was not a single individual among the "whites" who failed in appreciation of this service. Untutored in the use of the Prayer-book, they, with a little instruction, quickly grasped the spirit of worship therein intended, answering the responses heartily, reading alternate verses of the Psalms reverently and distinctly, and joining in the singing joyfully. With the Chinese I was enabled to cultivate very cordial relations through giving them a little medicine when they needed it. I was not, however, able to do any evangelistic work among them, there being no one able to interpret; but several of them set to teach me Chinese through the medium of their broken English, in which I made fair progress. I hope (D.V.) to make a serious effort at Chinese when I can procure a grammar of the language, believing it to be well worth the pains, for there are thousands of Chinamen in this province utterly uncared for (so far as I am aware) spiritually.

Of the Indians at AIYANSH, Mr. McCullagh says:—

Avidity of Indians for Scripture knowledge Now that our people are getting on to read the vernacular, they are always wanting type-written texts and portions of Scripture. The avidity they evince for the acquisition of Bible knowledge is astonishing, beyond anything I ever expected. Whenever a mail arrives I am constantly asked, "Have the Prayer-books come?" "Has St. John's book come?" More than ever am I convinced that it is possible, with God's help, to work a complete transformation among these tribes by means of the vernacular and the printer.

Every evening we have an exposition of Scripture (Psalms) and prayer, before proceeding to night-school, which has become a most blessed means of grace. It is not easy to handle some of the Psalms, however, in the Indian tongue so as to give the sense; these I have passed over, keeping to what I found practicable. I think the Indians have derived more profit from the Psalms than from any other portion of the Old Testament. The heathen and God's people—the experience of the latter at the hands of the former, the attitude of the Almighty towards both, the final judgment of rewards and punishments—these are all living realities to our Christian Indians, and afford much spiritual nourishment to their souls and moral force.

The Psalms especially enjoyed.

The prayer-meeting is devoted to (a) prayer for the Holy Spirit; (b) for the progress of Christ's Kingdom; and (c) for grace to dedicate one's self as a living sacrifice to God. In all these things it is evident that God has graciously blessed us, not in any excitement or impetuosity of spirit, but in a calm, quiet increase of spiritual vitality, which moves solidly forward in faith to good works.

Family devotion I regard as the key-stone of "a godly, righteous, and sober life"; we therefore reckon it a most important item in our work to promote this habit among the Indians. I am sure it would be a small thing now to many to begin the day without breakfast rather than begin without worship.

Rather omit breakfast than family worship.

Mrs. McCullagh helps in the Day School, and in the Night School for adults and such children as cannot attend during the day. The following are the encouraging indications of success which have cheered Mr. McCullagh:—

Desire to assist in the work of God has made its appearance in several ways, e.g. (a) by voluntary service in connexion with the work of the Mission; (b) by a voluntary grant of land (four acres) for the Mission; (c) by resolving to make an annual donation towards the extension of Christ's Kingdom; and (d) by contributing to the needs of their own Mission—that is to them home work.

The question of the land will, of course, have to be settled with the Government. It is now three or four years since I mentioned the matter to the Indians (during the land troubles), when they looked askance at it. I did not revive it on this occasion: they held a council among themselves and sent for me to formally hand over to me four acres of land for the Mission which they had just decided upon giving.

Gift of land by Indians;

Resolution (c) resulted in a collection which amounted to $106·75 or about twenty guineas, which will be paid into the General Fund of the C.M.S. in due course (this is Foreign Mission work for the Indians). This collection is to be made once a year, and is to be prepared for and prayed for, so that it may be acceptable to Him for whom it is intended. One man, who somehow was not aware that the collection would be made, came unprepared. But he was not behind the occasion: pulling a button off his coat he put it on the plate, whispering, "That will be one blanket ($1·25 or 5*s.*) to-morrow"—meaning that he would redeem it with a blanket, which he did promptly.

and their contributions to C.M.S.

"That will be one blanket to-morrow."

The endeavour (d) is, this winter, towards providing a roof for our new church:—A general subscription of provisions; the fitting up of a house as a mess; three volunteers from among the women as cooks; and thereupon 21 men set to work cutting wood from which to make shingles. Ten days' voluntary labour and the wood is piled up in readiness for splitting next winter (D.V.) The monetary value of this help, calculating the wage at a dollar a day and food, is $277·50, or about £55.

Hazelton, the station of the Rev. J. Field, is on the Skeena river: The Indians, when at home, are most regular in their attendance at church. Mr. Field says:—

Temptations at Hazelton.

In the beginning of the winter it was bruited that the heathen had consulted together and agreed to direct all their forces against Christianity with the view of seducing the converts and paralyzing missionary enterprise on the Skeena. But the winter is more than half spent, and, although the heathen festivities have been on a large scale, the Christians have religiously kept aloof from them. Surely this is a matter for much thankfulness.

The Bishop confirmed seven candidates at Hazelton in September, which was the first confirmation ever held on the Skeena. The canneries on this river were visited in the spring by several missionaries. At Inverness and Sunnyside, the Rev. J. H. and Mrs. Keen laboured with much acceptance; the Rev. A. E. Price had charge of the spiritual work at Aberdeen and Balmoral; and the Rev. A. W. Gurd and Dr. Ardagh were at Irving. Of the work at KITWANGA, which he spells "Giatwungak," the Rev. A. E. Price sends a short but cheerful report. Four adults were baptized, two of whom have since died of consumption. The attendance at the services is more regular, and heathenism is evidently declining.

QUEEN CHARLOTTE'S ISLANDS: HYDAH INDIANS.

In September Bishop Ridley visited Massett, accompanied by the Rev. J. H. and Mrs. Keen, whom he introduced to the work which they have taken up in succession to the Rev. C. Harrison, who has come to England. The Bishop baptized eight adults and confirmed eight candidates during his visit. When he wrote his first Annual Letter in April, Mr. Keen had received no intelligence from the outside world since a few weeks after his arrival on the Island. Mr. Keen finds the Hydahs a "truly lovable race." He was able to read the Morning and Evening Service in the vernacular on the fourth Sunday he spent at Massett, and at the end of four months he dispensed with his interpreter in preaching. Of the Sunday School he says:—

The Hydahs, 'a lovable race."

Sunday School at Massett.

People in England would be amused by the appearance of our Sunday School, attended as it is by husbands and wives, parents and children, all grouped together in one large class, quite content to be dealt with on the same footing. The larger portion of the school hour is devoted to learning by heart, the remainder being occupied with an address, given by one of the elder men. When I can speak the language I shall, of course, vary this arrangement, but it is the best I can manage at present. This winter the scholars have learnt by heart the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments—a possession especially valuable to these people, who as yet have no books in their own language.

He adds:—

Classes.

Every evening, except Saturday, during the week is occupied with some meeting or class. Our evening programme during the past winter has been as follows:—Monday: Singing-class in school, open to all. Tuesday:

Band practice in school. Wednesday: Lecture, or band practice. Thursday: Prayer meeting. Friday: Choir practice. These people are passionately fond of music. Two of them have managed to purchase small harmoniums, and several possess smaller instruments. My wife has been giving some lessons to the wife of the owner of one harmonium, and tells me she is making creditable progress. The brass band, consisting of eight instruments and two drums, towards the cost of which the people have contributed about one-half, is, as might be expected, a very popular institution. The Indians' love of music.

One or two lectures I gave on elementary science were very successful in exciting the interest of the younger men. I constructed a rude orrery, and explained (through an interpreter) the moon's changes, and the theory of the tides and eclipses. They were much struck by the simple manner in which an eclipse is accounted for, and remarked that they should no longer be alarmed at such an event, as they formerly were. A few simple facts of geology, too, created great interest, especially the cause of earthquakes, which, in a mild form, are not uncommon in this region. Lectures on science.

Our Thursday evening prayer-meetings have been a source of much encouragement to me. They have invariably been well attended, and the earnest tone pervading them has seemed to imply that they have been something more than a mere form. I have opened them with a short address and prayer myself, and then called upon five of those present to offer prayer, a hymn being sung between every two prayers, and the whole lasting nearly an hour. My invitation has in every case been readily responded to, while the manner of the speakers, though obviously earnest, has been quiet and reverent. I usually indicate in my address certain special topics for their guidance, and these as a rule are carefully followed. It is deeply touching to hear these big, stalwart fellows one after another pleading with God on behalf of themselves, their brethren, their minister (they always remember, unprompted, Mr. Collison, the founder of this Mission), the Society, the heathen. Such a scene as this presents, indeed, a striking contrast to many a one which even the younger men must have witnessed in this very village. Amongst those who offered prayer at our meeting on Thursday last was Chief Edenshaw, who as a younger man headed many a savage raid on the neighbouring tribes. Prayer-meeting.

VANCOUVER'S ISLAND: KWA-GUTL MISSION.

The Rev. A. J. Hall was absent from ALERT BAY nearly six months of the year, visiting various tribes, and taking charge, at the Bishop's request, for a short time of the work at Port Essington, an S.P.G. station. There are 22 Native baptized Christians and 49 adherents at Alert Bay. In August Mr. Hall, with Mr. A. W. Corker, visited a large tribe of Indians at Gwaya who had on his previous visits shown a readiness to be taught. It was arranged, with their concurrence, that Mr. Corker should take up his residence at their winter village of GWAYASDUMS, which is 16 miles from Alert Bay, on the coast. Mr. Corker writes:— Alert Ba

New station Gwayas dums.

On September 29 we left the Bay with a scow-load of lumber, but we only made about seven miles. We anchored for the night, and we were forced by a strong head-wind to remain there for two days. On the third day we started at 5 P.M., and pulled until 1 A.M. the next morning. We found an anchorage, but were forced to moor after four hours by a heavy gale. We were tossing about among some small islands for a week, and at last arrived at Gwayasdums on October 8. We finished our school by October 28. It was raining nearly the whole time we were at work, so making our work very unpleasant. Returning to the Bay, our boat was wrecked off Malcolm Island, but we managed to get home all right ourselves.

Early in December I reached Gwayasdums, and after a week's hard work, making forms, desks, &c., I opened school on December 13, and the first week my average number was forty-two. All seemed anxious to learn, and most of the scholars were well behaved. The second week my average was sixty-three, and it remained nearly at that until the winter dances commenced. While the Indians wear the red-cedar bark during this dance they are not supposed to come to school or church, so since January 30 my numbers have decreased.

The Sunday services have been well attended. We sing the hymns I teach in school (Mr. Hall's translations). I read part of the service, and give them a short address, as well as I am able.

There was a great stir with the medicine-men about my coming, and several of them came and demanded who told me to come. They saidthey did not recognize their chief, and that I had better leave. But I said, "The Great Chief of all—God—has sent me to teach you, and the best thing for you to do is to come and learn, and send all your children to school."

"Awful loneliness" yet great happiness.

At the close of his first year in the Mission Mr. Corker wrote:—"Very great are the Lord's mercies towards me, and I must confess, notwithstanding the sin of the people, the awful loneliness, and other trials, my first year in the Mission-field has been my happiest."

REPORT OF THE WILLIAM CHARLES JONES INDIA NATIVE CHURCH FUND.

THE interest of this Fund is available for assisting the Native Church Councils connected with the Church Missionary Society in India to employ more evangelistic labourers among the heathen. Two important conditions are imposed regarding grants. It is necessary, before an application for a grant can be entertained, for a Native Council to show that the Christians whom it represents have actually engaged in aggressive evangelistic work through a Native Missionary Society, or that they are prepared so to do. It is necessary also that the Council be able to show that at least two-fifths of the cost of maintaining religious worship and pastoral work in its district has been raised from purely local sources; and that a definite sum has been contributed towards Missionary work. The scheme also provides that the amount granted from the Fund to a Council shall not exceed the amount set apart by that Council for purely evangelistic purposes, or the amount raised by the Native Missionary Society in connexion with that Council.

Grants were made during the year to the following Church Councils:—

	Rs.*
Calcutta Native Church Council	1,108
Nuddea ,, ,, ,,	240
Santhal ,, ,, ,,	200
North-West Provinces ,, ,,	1,000
Punjab ,, ,, ,,	800
Sindh ,, ,, ,,	600
Madras ,, ,, ,,	570
Tinnevelly ,, ,,	5,000
Ellore ,, ,, ,,	230
Cottayam ,, ,, ,,	400
Mavelikara ,, ,,	450

As will be at once seen from the above list, the bulk of the grants from this Fund are at present claimed by the Native Church Councils of South India. The Calcutta, Santhal and Punjab Councils, however, are claiming a share, and it is hoped that they will qualify ere long, by fulfilling the necessary conditions, for larger grants.

The reports of the agents' work for 1890 have not come to hand at the time of going to press, with the exception of those engaged in the Nallur and Surandei districts of Tinnevelly, of which the Secretary of the Western District Council (since merged into the one Council for the C.M.S. Tinnevelly Mission), Mr. T. Simeon, has sent an admirable summary. This district contains 457 villages, and thirteen Jones Fund agents are engaged in it. During 1890, 5,627 visits were made by them to those villages, and it is estimated that 117,059 heard the Word at their lips; and 3,996 books and tracts were sold. Mr. Simeon says:—

The conduct of the agents is always a point of inquiry at the meetings of the Church Council, and generally it has been considered satisfactory.

* The above grants are for the year 1891, with the exception of the one to Ellore, which was applied for too late to be included in last year's Report, and the application for which has not been received for the current year. Of the grant to Calcutta also Rs. 558 is for 1890, as that amount was disallowed in the first instance, but subsequently granted.

Mr. Barton's suggestion that the agents should go out to preach two by two has been partially adopted and attended with great advantage; and these agents, according to their own admission, have always been much stimulated in their work by joining the band of the Tamil Itinerancy whenever they have come in contact with them.

The agents have carried on their work without much interruption by sickness or other causes. Their work consists as usual of morning and evening visits to the villages and preaching to the people who attend the weekly markets and annual festivals, and of the distribution of tracts and Bible portions.

As usual, they have met with both encouragements and discouragements in their work. Hinduism is known to be a religion of rites and ceremonies; and its professors, specially the illiterate among them, are always labouring under the idea that the customs and usages of their ancestors should be strictly adhered to. Besides, they are only careful about the purification of their bodies, and they have no anxiety about the purification of the heart, so that when the latter subject is pressed on their minds they stumble greatly. The religious views and sentiments of the educated people differ very much from those of the ignorant and uncivilized. While the latter venerate every idol they see before them and every kite that flies in the air, and observe punctually the festivals as they come round every month or every year, the educated Hindus are somewhat lax in their veneration of them, and, even though they conform to these practices, it is only because they have no courage to stand out boldly in defence of more enlightened views. No educated man who comes in contact with us is known to defend popular Hinduism, because he is convinced of its absurdity and of the unmeaning character of its various rites and ceremonies, but still conforms to them because he dare not act otherwise. With reference to the great annual festival at Çourttalam called the "Eipasi Visu," a graduate of the Madras University, in reply to my question, "Are you not going to Courttalam for the festival?" replied with great hesitation, "The bath in the fall is very pleasant indeed, but it does not change a man's heart, nor does it strengthen his faith in God; and so I am not much concerned about it."

Under such circumstances, it is not an easy task to persuade a Hindu to act according to his convictions. But the seed of the Word of God is nevertheless being sown, and we wait with patience for the dew of God's Holy Spirit to quicken it, and to cause it to spring up and yield fruit in the conversion of many souls.

Of the many difficulties of our work, the opposition we meet with from Hindu and Mohammedan preachers and the blasphemous tracts and handbills that are sold and given away at all important places may be specially noticed. It is true that the efforts of these non-Christian preachers are not so strenuous now as they were some time ago; but what they have already done and are doing still (to some extent) proves a hindrance to the reception of the Gospel by intelligent Hindus.

Some few months ago Colonel Olcott, leader of the Theosophical Society, paid a visit to Amhasamudrum, one of the most important Hindu towns in our range, and his advent caused no little stir among the people. He convened a meeting under the auspices of the District Moonsiff of the civil court there, and hundreds of people from all quarters assembled in front of the Public Reading Room including several officials of all ranks, and the neighbouring Zemindars. A gentleman from America was also with the Colonel, and both addressed the meeting for some two hours. Of course they spoke against Christianity, and said that many enlightened people in Europe and America have now become disgusted with the religion of Christ, and are examining Hinduism, with which they are already delighted. At the conclusion of the address, the Colonel remarked, "Christianity is now standing on one leg and is ready to fall at any moment." He then exhorted his hearers not to lose courage, but to go forward and stand firm in defence of their creed. As was naturally expected, the audience were greatly pleased with such remarks made by an American gentleman, and returned to their homes highly prejudiced against Christianity. Thus it will be seen that Christian preachers have opposition, secret and open, from all quarters.

Apparently the religious views of the Mohammedans remain unchanged. They still cling to their great prophet, and their veneration for him and for the religion he propagated remains the same. They are, however, civil and polite when preached to, and show very little hostile spirit. This remark is specially applicable to the Mohammedans of Teukasi, where there is an evangelist who frequently preaches Christ to them as the only way of salvation.

REPORT OF THE HENRY VENN NATIVE CHURCH FUND.

From this Fund grants are made to (1) Native Church Councils to assist them in maintaining and developing their pastoral work; and (2) to Native Missionary Associations to assist them in carrying on missionary work.

Under the former head grants have been made to the Church Councils of Sierra Leone, Madras, Tinnevelly, Travancore, and Mauritius. The grant to the last-named Council is again larger than it has been wont to be on account of the trying circumstances of the Mauritius Church through the diminution of the Government grant.

Under the latter head grants have been made to the Missionary Associations of the Sierra Leone, Lagos, Cotta, and Jaffna Churches, and to that connected with the Tamil Cooly Mission in Ceylon.

The following were the amounts granted during the year:—

Africa.—
Sierra Leone Native Church Fund (two years) . . .	133
Sierra Leone Native Missionary Association	75
Lagos Native Missionary Association	8
India.—
Agra Native Missionary Association	17
Native Dispensary at Jabalpur	10
Native Missionary Association at Allahabad	10
Native Missionary Association at Faizabad	5

Madras Native Church	18
Ellore Native Church	8
Bezwadá Native Missionary Association	8
Tinnevelly Native Church	40
Travancore Provincial Council	20
Mauritius Native Church	50
Ceylon.—
Cotta Native Church Missionary Association	12
Tamil Cooly Mission	20
Jaffna Native Missionary Association	20
	£454

REPORT OF THE FRANCES RIDLEY HAVERGAL MEMORIAL FUND.

THE objects of this Fund are (1) to promote the translation and publication of Miss F. R. Havergal's works in the languages of India; and (2) to encourage the employment of female evangelists in India. Six Bible-women have been employed during the year; and altogether, since the Fund was formed, fifteen translations of Miss Havergal's works into six of the Indian and Ceylon languages have been produced which are now in circulation.

The following grants have been made:—

	Rs.
For employment of one Bible-woman at Annfield	144
For employment of one Bible-woman at Kangra	144
For employment of one Bible-woman at Tarn Taran	144
For employment of three Bible-women in Ceylon	360

For Statement of this Fund see pp. 288, 289.

NOTE ON SPELLING OF NATIVE NAMES.

THE following system for spelling NATIVE NAMES is recommended to the Society's Missionaries generally for adoption in their letters and reports, unless any of them should prefer a still closer approximation to the more elaborate scheme of Professor Lepsius. This system should not be applied, of course, to those well-known places of which the spelling has become so fixed that it would be mere pedantry to disturb it; as, for instance, Travancore (Travankur), and Lucknow (Laknau). Other well-known names, spelt correctly according to this method, are not pronounced accordingly by English residents. For example, the a in Lagos is always pronounced by English residents, when speaking English, as in the word make.

The powers of the vowels are as follows:—

a as in '*a*bout.'	o as in '*n*ot,' or as in the French '*b*onne.'
â usually as in '*f*ather' (in North-Indian words as in '*a*ll'.)	ô as in '*n*ote.'
e as in '*p*en.'	u as in '*f*ull.'
ê as in '*f*ête.'	û as in '*tr*uly.'
i as in '*th*in.'	ai as i in '*th*ine.'
î as in '*p*ique.'	au or ou or ow as in '*b*ough.'

It needs only to be noticed further that—

y always sounds as in '*y*ou.'	gn as in 'poi*gn*ant.'
g „ as in '*g*o.'	ng as in 'thi*ng*.'
j „ as in '*j*oin.'	ei as in '*v*ein.'

h has always a separate sound, except in ch as in '*ch*urch,' and sh as in '*sh*e' th and dh should, therefore, not be used in South Indian names to express the dental t and d.

c, whether for k or s, being superfluous, is not used.

Doubled letters should each be pronounced distinctly, as in Italian.

ae represents a sound intermediate between a in '*m*at' and e in '*m*et.'

The above Rules are not adopted in the N.-W. America Mission.

NOTICE TO TREASURERS AND SECRETARIES OF ASSOCIATIONS.

THE COMMITTEE of the CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY beg to remind the Treasurers or Secretaries of Associations that the Society's Financial year ends on the 31st of March.

All Moneys belonging to the year should be received at the Society's House by that date, in order to ensure their being included in the Accounts for the year then closing.

The Committee would also strongly urge for universal adoption, the practice of making early remittances after the 1st April on account of the year's receipts in the hands of the Local Treasurer. This course would tend to equalise in a greater degree the Income and Expenditure in the earlier months of the Society's Financial year, and save the Society a considerable yearly sum. They are glad to observe that the suggestion has been partially carried out during past years, but they are desirous of seeing it more generally adopted.

Sums remaining unpaid on the 31st March are no longer shown in the Accounts as Balances. The Contribution Lists should therefore agree in total with the amounts actually paid to the Parent Society to that date.

Lists and Accounts (if not sent with the money) must be forwarded not later than April 6th. If not so sent the Lists are liable to be excluded from the Report. The date at which the Accounts of the Association are closed, and the names of the Local Officers, should be specified. Should no names be given it will be assumed that they remain the same as in the previous Report, and the List will be so printed. Where the Account or the List is a printed one, two copies should be forwarded.

The Lists and Accounts should be written legibly to avoid mistakes in printing, and made up in the manner in which the same are printed in the Parent Society's Report. A Form of Account may be had on application at the Society's House.

Where an Association has Branches connected with it, the Accounts of the Branches must be forwarded to the Secretary of the Association some time before the date for forwarding the Accounts of that Association to London. When this is not done within a reasonable time, such Branches should be considered as self-excluded, and the Accounts forwarded without them.

Branch Associations should in every case, where practicable, forward their Money and Lists through the Association with which they are connected, and not direct to the Parent Society. If sent direct, the Association or District with which such Branch is connected should be specified.

"Appropriated" Contributions (i.e. Contributions for particular objects for which there is no Special Fund) will be acknowledged as part of the General Fund, but under a separate Statement in the Annual Report. All such sums paid through Associations must therefore be remitted separately, or be so distinctly marked in the Association Accounts that they can be readily transferred to the separate Statement, under which alone they will be acknowledged. If such gifts be not identified, or the Lists containing them arrive too late to admit of their transfer as above described, they will be acknowledged as gifts for the ordinary purposes of the General Fund.

Particulars of Contributions to Special Funds are printed with the Lists to which the respectively belong, and the totals only transferred to the Accounts of the Special Funds. In cases where the Lists are received too late for the transfers to be made in the Accounts of the current year, they will be made in, and the amounts deducted from the Contributions of, the succeeding year.

II.—ENGLISH ASSOCIATIONS.

NOTE.—All Contributions from Associations are for year ending Dec. 31st, 1890, except where otherwise stated.

The above Balance Sheet has been compiled from, and compared with, the Books and Accounts of the Church Missionary Society, and is correct in accordance therewith. The Securities in England are verified by the Certificates received from the Bank of England, the Bankers, and others. The Returns from some of the Mission Stations abroad have not yet been received, and are not included in the above.

(Signed)
TURQUAND, YOUNGS, WEISE, BISHOP, & CLARKE, Public Accountants.

22nd April, 1891.

We, the undersigned Honorary Auditors, appointed for the purpose under Law XXV., have duly considered the Report of the Public Accountants, and we have also examined the Securities in England mentioned in the above Balance Sheet, and have found the same correct.

(Signed) JAMES CUNDY.
„ HERBERT R. ARBUTHNOT.
