SOME PRESS NOTICES.

"Twelve in number, these chapters present, somewhat in the form of interviews, accounts of Gospel effort in many lands; and the pages are bright with engravings. The book should inspire a deeper interest in Missions on the part of young and old who 'abide by the stuff' in the home-land."—CHRISTIAN.

"Abundant material for interesting missionary addresses. . . . We cordially commmend this little volume (which, by-the-bye, is beautifully illustrated) to all interested in missionary work."

CHURCH FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

"One of the latest, most interesting, and most novel of the publications of the C.M.S. It is most interesting, because it consists of personal testimonies from the mission-field; it is most novel in its construction. The witnesses are literally placed in the witness-box and personally cross-examined. . . . There are numerous good photographic illustrations, and the book is invaluable as a source of information and inspiration."—EVANGELICAL CHURCHMAN.

"Tastefully bound, printed on good paper, beautifully and copiously illustrated. Even as a picture book, boys and girls would like it."
